ANTHEM—"O Morn of Beauty".....Sibelius

O morn of beauty, morn of gladness:
Awak'ning joy, dispelling shades of night,
Gone is the gloom, the sorrow, and the sadness,
Now breaks the day of peace and light.
Sing and rejoice with joyful alleluias,
Sing alleluia, alleluia!

The days are past when souls were wrapt in mourning,
The earth awakes with vict'ry as her strain,
Lift up your hearts and greet the glad day dawning,
For Christ the Lord is ris'n again!
Sing and rejoice with joyful alleluias,
Sing alleluia, alleluia!

SPECIAL MUSICAL SERVICE

Next Sunday evening, 8.00 P. M., the last Musical Service of the season will be held, when compositions of Schubert and Haydn will be presented.

It is a real pleasure to report to you that the Lenten Season this year again increased in attendance—the great privilege of our Church in bringing to so many people during the Lenten Season the Gospel as taught by some of our great preachers. It is one of the many opportunities we have to serve the people of our great city.

A PHOTOGRAPH of our CHANCEL is being sold by the Boys' Class of the Church School at fifty cents per copy. A sample will be found in the vestibule of the Church.

NEXT SUNDAY EVENING, MARCH 17th, at 8.00 o'clock, the Young People of our Parish together with our choir will again present "Easter Pageant," by Edna Lillich, music by Dr. H. Alexander Matthews. Many will remember that last Palm Sunday we presented the Premiere of this most inspiring Pageant. Judging by last year's attendance we suggest that if you would like a seat you come early.

THE YOUNG MEN'S BIBLE CLASS of our Church will hold a rummage sale this Saturday, March 16th, for the benefit of the Class's Lenten Offering. Contributions of useful articles and clothing of all kinds will be appreciated, or you may make a contribution of money. Please send your responses immediately to the Church, the need is great.

A PHOTOGRAPH of our CHANCEL is being sold by the boys' class of the Church School at $ .50 per copy. A sample will be found in the vestibule of the Church.

SPECIAL NOTICE

THE HOUSE OF REST FOR THE AGED, a diocesan institution is making its first appeal for help and we ask that all of our people respond to the best of their ability. They are actually short of money to buy sufficient nourishing food for the 33 members of the house family. And we know that you will be happy to have a part in answering their appeal which has the approval of the 1939 Diocesan Convention. If you have enough money to go to the movies you can give in order that these old people may be made more comfortable.

THE STRAWBERRY FESTIVAL will be held Monday evening, June 10th, from 7.30 to 9 P. M., in the Community House. Again this year the Festival will be under the auspices of the CHURCH SCHOOL and all the profits will go toward the School's Lenten Offering for 1941. We hope you will all support this effort of our School and would remind you that we have it early in the evening to suggest that you have your dessert with us if you have an engagement for the evening. The tickets will be 35 cents each.

The Young People's Club invites you to a symphony in magic Wednesday evening, June 12th, at 8.15 o'clock. Dancing will follow. Donation, 35 cents.

SPECIAL NOTICES

THE CHURCH SCHOOL PICNIC for the Main School will be held on Saturday, June 15th, and will go to Riverview Beach. The School invites any member of the congregation who would like to go to join us for a happy day's outing.

DAILY PRAYER FOR PEACE

O God, Who hast made of one blood all nations of men, mercifully receive the prayers that we offer for our anxious and troubled world.

Send Thy light into our darkness, and guide the nations as one family into the ways of peace.

Take away all prejudice and hatred and fear.

Strengthen in us day by day the will to understand.

And to those who by their counsels lead the peoples of the earth, grant a right judgment, that so through them and us Thy will be done:

Through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

BARITONE SOLO—"How Sleep the Brave".....H. A. Matthews

How sleep the brave, who sink to rest,
By all their country's wishes blest!
When Spring, with dewy fingers cold,
Returns to deck their hallow'd mould,
She there shall dress a sweeter sod
Than Fancy's feet have ever trod.

By fairy hands their knell is rung,
By forms unseen their dirge is sung;
There Honor comes, a pilgrim gray,
To bless the turf that wraps their clay,
And Freedom shall awhile repair
To dwell, a weeping hermit, there!

There are a number of Sundays during the year which are not taken for Altar flowers. Will you look over the list posted on the Bulletin Board in the vestibule of the Church and tell Miss Susan Thackara which date or dates of those open you would like to have?

SPECIAL NOTICES

THE LUDLOW PLAYERS announce the postponement until fall of their play, HURRICANE HOUSE, which was to have been given on Tuesday, May 21st.

The following seems to be particularly applicable today:

"When I was young MY CHURCH enriched my childhood with the romance and religion and the lessons of life that have been woven into the texture of my soul. Sometimes I seem to have forgotten and then, when else I might surrender to foolish and futile ideals of life, the truths MY CHURCH taught become radiant, insistent and inescapable."

A LECTURE ON CLASSICAL MUSIC, illustrated with recordings, will be given by our Rector's Warden, Dr. Herbert Old, under the auspices of our Young People's Fellowship at 8.00 o'clock this evening in the Community House. Everyone is invited to be present.

THE DIOCESAN PRESENTATION SERVICE of the UNITED THANK OFFERING will be held in our Church next Thursday morning, May 9th, at 10.30. The Bishop will be the Celebrant and The Rev. George A. Trowbridge, Rector of St. Paul's Church, Chestnut Hill, will preach the sermon. We hope that every woman of our Parish will make a special effort to be present, since we are the hosts for this joyful occasion.

If anyone has not yet sent their Thank Offering to Mrs. John C. Knox, our Parish Treasurer, will they please do so today.

THE BURD SCHOOL will hold its Annual Graduation and Tea, Saturday, May 11th, from 4 until 6 o'clock. Everyone is cordially invited to be present.

THE ANNUAL PARISH MEETING will be held Wednesday, May 8th, at 8.00 P. M., in the Community House, and we earnestly hope that every member will be present. This is your meeting, so please set aside the date and make every effort to be present.

Will the proper officers of all Parish organizations please have their reports ready for this meeting?

THE CHURCH SCHOOL LENTEN OFFERING presented at the Morning Service last Sunday amounted to $385.05. We immediately set the goal as $400, leaving approximately $15 to be raised—$7 of this has already been raised.

The last time our Church School gave $400 was in 1919, therefore we are very proud of this offering and take this opportunity to thank all of the pupils, teachers, members of our congregation and friends who, by their support of the numerous special efforts made this year, have made this offering possible. Please remember that this means that the Church School by this offering pays 1/10 of the expectation of our Parish and makes possible more work for the spread of the Gospel at home and abroad.

SPECIAL NOTICES

Our Parish branch of the Girls' Friendly Society will hold a card party and sale on Monday evening, April 22nd, at eight o'clock. Cakes, candy, fancy and useful articles, will be on sale. We hope that you will manifest your interest by being present and enjoying this evening.

SIX SUNDAY EVENINGS WITH GREAT COMPOSERS

On the first Sunday evening of each month from November to April inclusive, the choir will present a service of music without sermon, drawn from the repertoire of the great church composers. The first service will be next Sunday evening, November 3rd, at 8 o'clock, and will include the music from the "St. Cecilia Mass" by Charles Gounod.

NOTICES

THE BOARD OF WOMEN MANAGERS of the HOUSE OF REST for the Aged invites you to attend the dedication of their new Memorial Wing on Tuesday, October 29th, from 3 until 6 P. M. Tea will be served. During your visit you will be able to inspect the two new rooms made possible by the Maria Dickinson Logan Memorial Fund, which came to the House of Rest through our Parish.

Tonight at 8 o'clock in the Community House, the YOUNG PEOPLE'S FELLOWSHIP will present the Price Forum in a Debate, "Should a permanent Union between the United States and the British Commonwealth of Nations be established?"

The Mothers' Meeting will not resume its regular Thursday night program until Thursday, October 31st. This postponement is to enable the Director, Miss Helen Mockett, to attend the General Convention of our Church to be held this month at Kansas City, Missouri.

MY CHURCH calls me to her heart. She asks my service and my loyalty. She has a right to ask it! I will help her do for others what she has done for me. In this place in which I live, I will help her to keep aflame and aloft the torch of a living faith.

NOTICES

The Mothers' Meeting will not resume its regular Thursday night program until Thursday, October 31st. This postponement is to enable the Director, Miss Helen Mockett, to attend the General Convention of our Church to be held this month at Kansas City, Missouri.

THE WOMAN'S AUXILIARY of our Parish held its Corporate Communion and first regular meeting last Thursday morning. This group of our Parish aids the Parish work in several ways, but their principal interest is to keep in touch with and distribute information about all the Missionary work of the Church. Every woman of the Parish is invited to join in the work of the Auxiliary in order that we may all be better informed of the Church's work throughout the world.

THE WEDNESDAY NIGHT CLUB invites you to join them any Wednesday night for an evening of social enjoyment. The Club is one of the very active organizations of our Parish, and they feel that they have such a good time that they would like to share it with everyone.

RECESSIONAL HYMN—113

The Woman's Auxiliary will begin this year's work with a celebration of the Holy Communion on Thursday morning, October 17th, at 10.30 o'clock. The first regular monthly meeting will follow this service and will be held in the Community House. Every woman is invited to join with us and have a part in this noble work.

NOTICES

The Mothers' Meeting will not resume its regular Thursday night program until Thursday, October 31st. This postponement is to enable the Director, Miss Helen Mockett, to attend the General Convention of our Church to be held this month at Kansas City, Missouri.

The Young People's Club of our Parish wishes to announce to the congregation that their name has, by popular vote, been changed to the Wednesday Night Club, and they wish to invite anyone to join them in their activities in the Community House every Wednesday night.

You are particularly invited to their Hallowe'en Party to be held on Wednesday evening, October 16th, when the Wednesday Night Club will be host to the undergraduate nurses of the Pennsylvania Hospital and the student body of the Philadelphia Divinity School.

We are proud to announce that Jane Allen, one of our Burd School girls, won the silver cup at Arewa Camp at Fredericksburg, Pennsylvania, this past summer, as the all-round best camper, among a group of forty-five girls. Jane will retain the cup until next summer, when she hopes to return to camp and win it again.

SIX SUNDAY EVENINGS WITH THE GREAT COMPOSERS

On the first Sunday evening of each month from November to April inclusive, the choir will present a service of music without sermon, drawn from the repertoire of the great church composers. The first service will be on Sunday evening, November 3rd, at 8 o'clock, and will include the music from the "St. Cecilia Mass" by Charles Gounod.

The Young People's Fellowship of our Parish resume their meetings this evening at 8.00 o'clock in the Community House. All Young People are invited to attend every Sunday evening.

NOTICES

We are proud to announce that the Annual Corporate Communion of the Young People's Fellowship of the Diocese will be celebrated next Sunday morning, October 13th, at 8.00 o'clock, at St. Stephen's. We are happy to welcome the Young People of our Diocese.

The Mothers' Meeting will not resume its regular Thursday night program until November 7th. This postponement is to enable the Director, Miss Helen Mockett, to attend the General Convention of our Church to be held this month at Kansas City, Missouri.

DAILY PRAYER FOR PEACE

O God, Who hast made of one blood all nations of men, mercifully receive the prayers that we offer for our anxious and troubled world.

Send Thy light into our darkness, and guide the nations as one family into the ways of peace.

Take away all prejudice and hatred and fear.

Strengthen in us day by day the will to understand.

And to those who by their counsels lead the peoples of the earth, grant a right judgment, that so through them and us Thy will be done:

Through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

SPECIAL NOTICES

Our Parish Branch of the South Eastern Pennsylvania Chapter of the American Red Cross will work this week on Tuesday evening, July 2nd, instead of Thursday, July 4th, in the Community House at 7.30 P. M. Orders have been issued by the Red Cross discontinuing the preparation of surgical dressings, but we will still have knitting and garment making, which will be distributed through the Church Office. You may arrange by telephone to get your work. Until the preparation of surgical dressings is again made part of our work, we will not meet in the Community House after Tuesday, July 2nd.

We are happy to announce that beginning Wednesday, July 10th, and continuing through Sunday, September 1st, the Sunday and Wednesday Services will be in charge of the Very Rev. Percy R. Stockman. We feel very fortunate in being able to get Mr. Stockman to take our Services and know that you will all gladly welcome him. Your Minister in Charge can always be reached through the Church Office for any emergencies (extreme sickness, death).

There are a number of Sundays during the year which are not taken for Altar flowers. Will you look over the list posted on the Bulletin Board in the vestibule of the Church and tell Miss Susan Thackara which date or dates of those open you would like to take?

Your attention is called to the Christmas Services. Christmas Eve, December 24th, at 11.30 P. M., Holy Communion; Christmas Day, December 25th, 8.00 A. M., Holy Communion, and 11.00 A. M., Holy Communion.

At the Christmas Eve Service and at the 11.00 o'clock Service on Christmas morning, the choir will sing a Festive Service of Christmas Music.

On St. Stephen's Day, December 26th, there will be a celebration of the Holy Communion at 11 A. M.

We hope that every one will make their Christmas Communion at one of these Services.

SPECIAL NOTICES

Confirmaiton will be administered on Sunday morning, February 23rd, 1941, at the 11 o'clock Service, and we earnestly hope that those of you considering Confirmation will get in touch with Mr. Jones.

Again this year St. Stephen's will distribute Christmas dinners to worthy people. You are invited to have a part in this joyful undertaking and envelopes for your contribution will be found in the pews.

Please return your Every Member Canvass card to the office as soon as possible, in order that the Vestry may be able to complete their work on the 1941 budget.

THE WEDNESDAY NIGHT CLUB is sponsoring a Chinese dinner on Wednesday night, January 8th, at 6 P. M. You are invited to attend. Reservations must be made through the Church Office not later than January 5th.

The Confirmation Class will meet in the Community House on Friday afternoon, December 20th, at four o'clock.

If you are contemplating Confirmation and this hour is not convenient, please get in touch with Mr. Jones.

Daily Advent Services are being held again this year in St. Stephen's Church, sponsored by the Philadelphia Federation of Churches. A card containing the list of Preachers will be found in the pews.

The Services will be from 12.30-12.55, and we hope you will be present as often as possible.

If you are in town at the noon hour we hope that you will attend some of these Services with the thought in mind that they are held in order that we may be better prepared for a Christian celebration of Christmas.

SPECIAL NOTICES

During the past week most of you received a letter asking that you fill in an Every Member Canvass card in order that the Vestry may be able to make up the budget for 1941. Please return these cards as soon as possible.

On Friday night, December 20th, the Church School, with the exception of the Primary grades will hold its annual Christmas Party and Play. Every one is invited to join the young people in this joyous evening.

Again this year St. Stephen's will distribute Christmas dinners to worthy people. You are invited to have a part in this joyful undertaking and envelopes for your contribution will be found in the pews.

SPECIAL NOTICES

With THANKSGIVING approaching it is time to begin to think of our offering to the Episcopal Hospital, which will be taken this year as usual on Thanksgiving Day.

The Hospital for eighty-eight years has ministered to the needs of men, women and children in Northeast Philadelphia, and throughout the Diocese of Pennsylvania. Funds for the support of the Hospital come from endowments, from patients and from the people of the Diocese. THERE IS NO STATE OR UNITED CAMPAIGN AID. Our congregation is asked to give generously to the Thanksgiving offering. The Hospital's needs are great.

Christmas cards are being sold this year by Miss Louise Remington's class of our Church School. The profits they make will go into their Lenten Offering.

SPECIAL NOTICES

With THANKSGIVING approaching it is time to begin to think of our offering to the Episcopal Hospital, which will be taken this year as usual on Thanksgiving Day.

The Hospital for eighty-eight years has ministered to the needs of men, women and children in Northeast Philadelphia, and throughout the Diocese of Pennsylvania. Funds for the support of the Hospital come from endowments, from patients and from the people of the Diocese. THERE IS NO STATE OR UNITED CAMPAIGN AID. Our congregation is asked to give generously to the Thanksgiving offering. The Hospital's needs are great.

Christmas cards are being sold this year by Miss Louise Remington's class of our Church School. The profits they make will go into their Lenten Offering.

BENEDICTION

RECESSIONAL HYMN—73

CHRISTMAS is the time of gifts. God gave us His Son, so we give to those we do not know and never saw by spreading the "Good News" to them wherever they are throughout the world and by caring for their physical needs. Then, we give to those we know and love.

Both of these ways of giving mean that we give of ourselves to people, but there is more than that this Christmastide; we give ourselves in love and adoration to God as we present ourselves before the Christ Child.

My Prayer for everyone this Christmas is that we may all present ourselves anew to the Christ Child, the Babe of Bethlehem; in order that Love may come through us to all the world.

Faithfully,

HERBERT W. JONES,
Minister-in-Charge.

We hope that you will use the Christmas Offering Envelope for your Christmas gift to St. Stephen's. Everything you give will go toward the Expectation of our Parish, to be spent for the spread of the Gospel at home and abroad.

HYMN—379

Next Sunday evening at 8.00 o'clock our choir will sing another of their services of Church Music. All the music will be compositions by J. Sebastian Bach. We hope you all will be present and invite others to join you.

The Church School will again serve its Annual Turkey Dinner on Wednesday evening, March 5th, from 5.30 to 8.00 P. M. All the profits made on this dinner will be added to the Church School Lenten Offering, which counts on the Parish Expectation.

Tickets are being sent out by mail and we hope that every member and friend of this Parish will be present and thereby help the school with its offering for the spread of the Gospel.

Our Parish Branch of the American Red Cross is again doing Red Cross work and they invite every woman to help. They meet every Tuesday evening at 7.30 in the Community House.

The Benevolent Society will hold a rummage sale in the Community House, April 24. Please save all your saleable articles and clothing, and bring them to the church when convenient. We have a place to store them.

SPECIAL NOTICES

We are happy to welcome to our Parish, this morning, The Rt. Rev. George Allen Beecher, D.D., Missionary Bishop of Western Nebraska. Bishop Beecher will preach the sermon and administer Confirmation.

Monday, March 3, is Episcopal Day of Blind Week at Gimbel Brothers' store. Please reserve this date and take lunch at the store with your friends. The price of the luncheon is 40 cents, and it is served from 11.30 to 2.

You are asked to make a donation of money toward this worthy cause not later than Sunday, March 2. Please forward your donation to the Church addressed to Miss Helen Mockett.

CONFIRMATION will be administered next Sunday morning February 23rd, at the 11 o'clock Service, by the Rt. Rev. George Allen Beecher, D.D., Missionary Bishop of Nebraska.

We hope that all of our people will be sure to set this date aside in order that they may be present to hear Bishop Beecher preach, and by their presence to encourage those who at this Service publicly take their stand for Jesus Christ.

The Church School will again serve its Annual Turkey Dinner on Wednesday evening, March 5th, from 5.30 to 8.00 P. M. All the profits made on this dinner will be added to the Church School Lenten Offering, which counts on the Parish Expectation.

SPECIAL NOTICES

It is our privilege, again this morning, to welcome as the Special Preacher, the Rev. Robert O. Kevin, Jr., Ph.D., a Professor at the Virginia Theological Seminary and a friend of this Parish over a number of years, having been associated with the Rev. Dr. Carl E. Grammer during part of his Rectorship.

Dr. Kevin will preach this morning and also on March 9th and 16th, his general theme being "Proving Grounds of the Soul". Today his subject is, "Recovering a World-View."

We hope that every member of our Parish will be present and bring friends for these Special Services.

Our Parish Branch of the American Red Cross is again doing Red Cross work and they invite every woman to help. They meet every Tuesday evening at 7.30 in the Community House.

RECESSIONAL HYMN—113

This morning we are taking a special offering for The House of Rest for the Aged, 5919 Wayne Avenue, Germantown.

The Board is anxious to expand the work of this fine institution, in order that a number of those on the long waiting list may be taken into the home, and of course they need money for the daily operating expenses. Will you give as generously as possible and we hope that you will all have a part in this special effort. You have received envelopes in the mail for this offering or you will find them in the pews.

CONFIRMATION will be administered on Sunday morning, February 23rd, at the 11 o'clock Service, by the Rt. Rev. George Allen Beecher, D.D., Missionary Bishop of Nebraska.

We hope that all of our people will be sure to set this date aside in order that they may be present to hear Bishop Beecher preach, and by their presence to encourage those who at this Service publicly take their stand for Jesus Christ.

SPECIAL NOTICES

It is our privilege, this morning, to welcome as the Special Preacher, the Rev. Robert O. Kevin, Jr., Ph.D., a Professor at the Virginia Theological Seminary and a friend of this Parish over a number of years, having been associated with the Rev. Dr. Carl E. Grammer during part of his Rectorship.

Dr. Kevin will preach this morning and next Sunday, February 16th, and also on March 9th and 16th, his general theme being "Proving Grounds of the Soul". Today his subject is, "Personal Cross-Roads", and next Sunday the subject will be, "Recovering a World-View."

We hope that every member of our Parish will be present and bring friends for these Special Services.

Our Parish Branch of the American Red Cross is again doing Red Cross work and they invite every woman to help. They meet every Tuesday evening at 7.30 in the Community House.

HYMN 125

We are happy to welcome the Rev. Dr. Robert O. Kevin, Jr., as our Special Preacher again this morning. His topic will be "Praying without Perplexity". This brings Dr. Kevin's series of four sermons to a close and we feel that it has been a real help to our Parish.

The Benevolent Society of our Parish will hold a rummage sale in the spring in order to obtain additional funds to carry on their work. Everyone is asked to bring or send to the Church any saleable articles, or bundles will be called for if you will telephone Mrs. James H. Mearns.

Our Parish Branch of the American Red Cross is again doing Red Cross work and they invite every woman to help. They meet every Tuesday evening at 7.30 in the Community House.

The Mothers' Meeting will hold a sale on Thursday, March 20th, for the benefit of British Hospital beds, from 3 to 9 P. M. Will you help?

SPECIAL NOTICES

We welcome as our Special Preacher at the Noonday Lenten Services Monday through Friday of this week an old friend of the Parish, the Rev. Dr. John R. Hart, and hope that many of you will be present during the week.

SPECIAL NOTICES

We welcome as our Special Preacher at the Noonday Lenten Services Monday through Friday of this week our neighbor, the Rev. Dr. E. Frank Salmon, Rector, The Church of the Holy Trinity, and hope that many of you will be present during the week.

We are very happy to report that your gifts to the House of Rest this year amounted to $129.00, which is a little ahead of last year.

Today is the day when many of the Churches in the Diocese are taking their offering for the House of Rest and the Board of Managers take this opportunity of thanking everyone who had a part in this offering.

We are happy to welcome the Rev. Robert O. Kevin, as the Special Preacher again this morning. His topic will be "God's Part". Dr. Kevin will also preach next Sunday morning, March 16th, when his topic will be "Praying Without Perplexity". We hope that you will be present again next Sunday morning.

The Benevolent Society of our Parish will hold a rummage sale in the spring in order to obtain additional funds to carry on their work. Everyone is asked to bring or send to the Church any saleable articles, or bundles will be called for if you will telephone Mrs. James H. Mearns.

SERMON

ANTHEM: "Jerusalem" .....Sir Hubert Parry

And did those feet in ancient time
Walk upon England's mountains green?
And was the Holy Lamb of God
On England's pleasant pastures seen?
And did the Countenance Divine
Shine forth upon our clouded hills?
And was Jerusalem builded here
Among those dark Satanic mills?

Bring me my bow of burning gold!
Bring me my arrows of desire!
Bring me my spear! O clouds unfold!
Bring me my chariot of fire!
I will not cease from mental fight,
Nor shall my sword sleep in my hand
Till we have built Jerusalem
In England's green and pleasant land.

This morning we have our Parish Communion and Service of personal dedication to begin a new year's work for our beloved old Parish. We are assuming our share of the work, study, and service which the Presiding Bishop is suggesting throughout the Church because we are part of the Christian Community of our City and are going to do our best to render worthy service to the people of Philadelphia, that will be truly Christian Service.

The Young People of our Parish will have a Corporate Communion on Sunday morning, October 19th, at 8 o'clock. Everyone is invited and all young people are particularly asked to set this time apart to join us at the Lord's Table.

SPECIAL NOTICES

There will be no celebration of the Holy Communion on Friday, July 4th, at 12.30 Noon.

Our Parish Branch of the American Red Cross will meet on Wednesday afternoon from 1 until 4 o'clock. We are planning to continue this work during the summer and hope that all those interested will be present as often as it is possible.

SPECIAL NOTICES

We are happy to welcome again to our Parish the Very Rev. Percy R. Stockman, Dean of this Convocation. Mr. Stockman will be in charge of all the Services, Sunday, Wednesday, Friday, throughout the Summer Season.

Mr. Jones will be on call for any emergency and can be reached by telephoning the Church Office, Walnut 3807.

The Country Week Association has alloted our Parish a fair number of mothers and children who will spend some time during the summer at the Country Week Association camps. If you are making a contribution to this worthy object will you please state in your letter that you would like it as coming through St. Stephen's Church. All such contributions improve our standing with the Country Week Association and often enable us to send more mothers and children away for a summer vacation.

This is the final issue of the Parish Bulletin until the fall and we hope that if you have any special notices you will send them to the Church by the Friday preceding the Sunday they are to be announced.

SOPRANO SOLO—"Rejoice Ye with Jerusalem".....Matthews

HYMN 517

Our Parish branch of the American Red Cross will meet on Wednesday afternoon from 1 until 4 o'clock. We are planning to continue this work during the summer and hope that all those interested will be present as often as it is possible.

The Forward Movement booklet for the season will be found on the table in the vestibule of the church. This is your opportunity to procure a guide for your Meditations and Prayers throughout the summer season and we hope that every member of our congregation will procure a copy.

SPECIAL NOTICES

The Country Week Association has alloted our Parish a fair number of mothers and children who will spend some time during the summer at the Country Week Association camps. If you are making a contribution to this worthy object will you please state in your letter that you would like it as coming through St. Stephen's Church. All such contributions improve our standing with the Country Week Association and often enable us to send more mothers and children away for a summer vacation.

NOTE:—Next Sunday, January 4th, our Choir will present the Cantata, "The Story of Christmas," by H. Alexander Matthews, our choirmaster. Kindly note the change of time in this special musical service to FIVE O'CLOCK in the afternoon instead of the evening hour as heretofore.

The Christmas Basket Committee of our Parish thanks everyone for their generous gifts which made possible the distribution of Christmas joy to 90 families and thereby enabled them to enjoy more fittingly Christmas Day. The privilege of having had a part with this should give you glad hearts.

SPECIAL NOTICES

The Altar flowers are in loving memory of the family of Miss Laura Bell.

NOTE:—There will be no meeting of the Red Cross Chapter on Tuesday evening of this week.

There will be no meeting of the Wednesday Night Club on New Year's Eve.

Mr. and Mrs. Jones take this means of expressing their thanks to you all for your Christmas gifts and cards and assure you that we hold you all close in our hearts this Christmas Season as always.

Will all those who have not returned a card signifying the amount of their contribution which they expect to make to the Church during 1942, please send in these cards as soon as possible, in order that the Vestry may finish their work on the Parish Budget for the coming year?

ANTHEM: "Jerusalem" .....Sir Hubert Parry

And did these feet in ancient time
Walk upon England's mountains green?
And was the Holy Lamb of God
On England's pleasant pastures seen?
And did the Countenance Divine
Shine forth upon our clouded hills?
And was Jerusalem builded here
Among these dark Satanic mills?

"ST. STEPHEN'S" IN SERVICE

The members and friends of St. Stephen's will be interested to know the names of St. Stephen's men and women who are in the service of their country. Insofar as it is possible, the leaflet follows these men and women to any camp or to any address in the world. This is because the fellowship of this church is unbreakable, and the interest and love of St. Stephen's go forward to its people in whatever services they may be engaged. Prayers are continually offered that the protecting care of God, the Father of us all, may surround these loved ones who are away.

Members of the Parish in the Armed Forces	Regiment and Camp
Charles V. Adams—Coxswain	N. O. B. Norfolk, Virginia
George T. Christides, Pvt. First Class	1500 Mitten Bldg., U. S. Marine Corps
Frank L. Dittman, Corporal	U. S. Marine Air Station, St. Thomas, Virgin Islands
Stanley R. Dittman, Pvt. First Class	A-1-5, F. M. F., New River, N. C.
Favre C. Frazer, U. S. N.	First Marine Aircraft
Captain Matthew J. I. Owens	Medical Administrative Corps, Tilton General Hospital, Fort Dix, N. J.
Alfred H. Ruxton	Camp Beauregard, La., Co. C, 103d Engineers
Robert H. Ruxton	Hoffman Island, N. Y., Sec. 22
Henry Wong, Sergeant	931 Race Street, Philadelphia

These names, no doubt, do not include all of the "St. Stephen's" in service, and as names are sent to the office of the Church, they will be printed in the leaflet.

SPECIAL NOTICES

Our sympathy is extended to the family of Mrs. Isabella Phillips who passed away on Good Friday.

The Early Communion will be at 9.00 A. M. every Sunday.

A Box Luncheon of the Women's Auxiliary will be held on April 16 at 11.00 A. M. All women of the Parish are invited.

Remember that Thursday is the special day set apart by this Parish to offer intercessions for the sick. Names may be written on cards found in the Vestibule in the Church. Those asking for prayers will kindly sign their names and addresses and also advise us from time to time of progress or recovery.

Healing Service and address Thursdays at 12.30 to 12.55.

Noonday Lenten Services attracted 13,314 this year. One of our guest preachers who has preached at similar services in a number of cities this year writes: "There is a quality about the Lenten Services at St. Stephen's which I find nowhere else."

FAMILY DAY

Once a year at least the entire family should prepare to go to the Altar together. To this end the Rector is communicating with every family in the Parish, assigning a Sunday in the year for a corporate communion. As the letter explaining the details may not reach your particular family for some months, a copy follows:

THE RECTOR'S STUDY

DEAR FRIEND:

We have instituted in St. Stephen's Church a Family Day—that is, each family will be assigned a Sunday once a year which will be their own Day in St. Stephen's Church. On this day you are requested to come to the early service at 9.00 A. M.

Your day is .....

At this early service the Holy Communion will be celebrated with the intention that God's greatest blessing will rest upon your home and every member in it. If there are any particular intercessions you would like to have offered on that day all you need to do is to mention them to the Rector and he will see that the proper prayers are offered. It will be helpful if you will send in the names of your departed loved ones so that they may be remembered at the Altar on this day. I ask you to remember:

1—Bring the whole family, including children and members who may not have been confirmed.

2—Remain a few minutes after the service and the Rector will meet you at the altar rail, have a special prayer for the family, and give each one of you individually a blessing.

If there is any anniversary that is dear to you that you would care to have your Day changed to, please notify the Rector and the change will be made.

I am sure that you will find in your Family Day at St. Stephen's a great benediction and comfort.

Faithfully yours,

ALFRED W. PRICE.

LENT

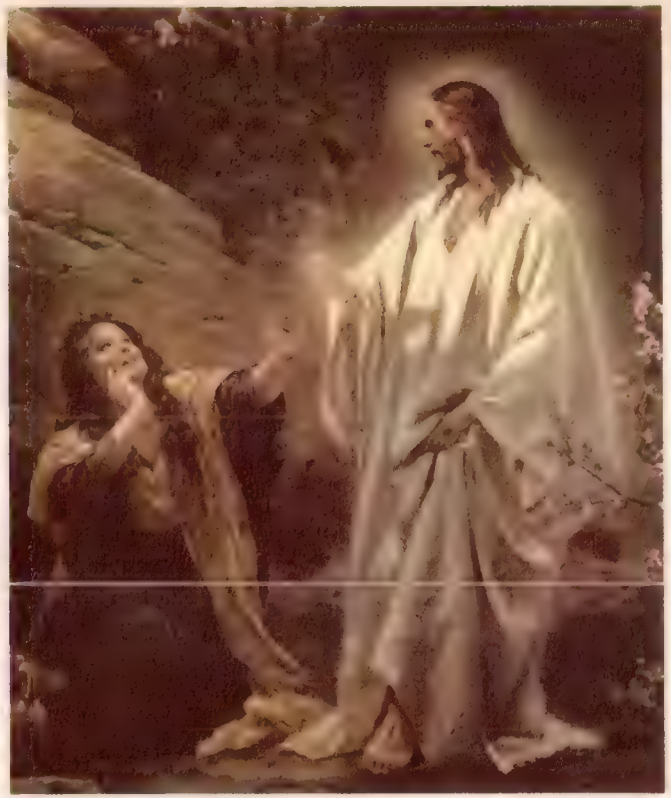
Lent provides us with an excellent opportunity for girding ourselves to meet the peculiar stresses of war-time. Few of us can go ahead these days with any confidence, save as we believe that out of suffering can be born strength and from the travail of the nations can come new equilibrium making for security and peace.

A philosophical mind, not given to theological doctrines, has recently said, "The peculiar strength of the Christian Faith lies in its insistence upon holding up the very worst in life and finding through it the best." He had reference to the Cross of Christ, that fact and symbol of what the world can do to Goodness and Kindness and Spiritual Independence. The world may go on "toiling up new Calvaries ever" but it is Calvary that continues to epitomize the nature of the enemy and to express the the abiding hope of mankind!

At its best, there is nothing "escapist" about the Christian Faith: rather, the determination, based upon belief in God, to make adversity and misfortune the occasion for finding Him and relying upon Him, so that the things which we have failed to do ourselves, may be done by the power of His might working in us.

It should be clear to us now that we cannot avoid suffering, in all probability a very great deal of it. The only issue is what attitude to take in meeting it. And this issue has to do primarily with God. He is the One who will determine our success or failure. Can we turn to Him in the spirit of the Master who sought His Will, and When He found it, did not hesitate to expend himself, in the confident belief that God would make use of his devotion?

MEN IN SERVICE



The Rector is anxious to have a complete list of names of men in military and naval service so that he may notify service chaplains and also keep in personal touch with the men. Families are asked to notify the Rector of address changes as soon as known.

"Go home to thy friends and tell them what great things the Lord hath done for thee," St. Mark 5: 19.

If the services and ministrations of this church mean anything to you, they are likely to be of value to others. But how can others know about St. Stephen's if you don't tell them?

If your prayers have been answered here, if your burdens have been lightened, tell others about it; if you have received any inspiration, any guidance along life's way, tell others about it; if the preachers here have helped you, if your fellow-worshippers have cheered you, tell others about it.

We are all missionaries together. God's Word to you is dead if it stops with you; your prayers are answered in vain if you fold them up for your own use alone; the inspiration of this church is lost if it does not touch others just as it has gripped you. Remember the words of Christ to a man, "Go home to thy friends and tell them what great things the Lord hath done for thee."

THE RECTOR'S EASTER GREETING

My beloved People of St. Stephen's:

If the precise nature of the eternal life could be revealed to us so that we might know as much about it as this present life, then the deepest springs of our religious experience would vanish and be no more. There would be no room for faith, life's highest and holiest incentive. It has been truly declared that "aspiration hemmed in by certainty would lose all power to soar."

Men who think seriously and love sincerely cannot long be satisfied with the thought of extinction. "God hath set eternity in our hearts," and men cannot long deny it. Tennyson expresses the conviction that clings to the consciences of the greatest men of the centuries:

> Thou wilt not leave us in the dust;
> Thou madest man, he knows not why,
> He thinks he was not made to die;
> And thou hast made him; thou art just.

It is the witness of the Resurrection, "that God gives unto us eternal life" that influences life and character at the fountain spring. It reveals to us the dignity and nobility of this present life, because it is an integral part of the future life. We are thus made to feel that the humble duties of life, the little as well as the larger cares, the common tasks have a meaning and a mighty purpose; that the little thoughts, the little prayers, the little deeds are all of eternal value; that each life is part of God's eternal plan.

At the foot of the white marble cross which his wife placed upon the grave of Charles Kingsley, one of England's first and greatest social preachers, are graven these three Latin words, "Amavimus; Amamus; Amabimus." We have loved; we love; we shall love. It is the risen Christ, that makes that epitaph the sublimest truth of Eastertide. It is love that never faileth, love that moved God to give unto us eternal life, love that transforms character, love that conquers death and makes the communion of saints a precious and a present truth.

Affectionately and faithfully, your Rector,

ALFRED W. PRICE,

EASTER OFFERING

If we are truly grateful for the Blessed Resurrection, we will want to present an offering of Thanksgiving and gratitude to God and His Church on Easter Day, even as we are able and the spirit directs us. For this purpose use the enclosed envelope.

DEDICATION OF THE CHURCH FLAG

In the Faith of Jesus Christ and to the glory of God and the edification of His Church we bless and dedicate this flag of the Church. In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

O Almighty Father, Lord of heaven and earth; vouchsafe, we beseech Thee, to accept this gift, which we offer unto Thy divine Majesty, for the adornment of Thy sanctuary and the glory of Thy Holy Name; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Blessed be Thy name, O Lord, for that it hath pleased Thee to put it into the heart of Thy servant to offer the gift of this flag to Thy Church; Remember her, O Lord, for good, and grant that all who shall enjoy the benefit of this pious work may show forth their thankfulness to Thee by making a right use of the same; through Jesus Christ our Lord, Amen.

O Almighty God, whose banner over us is love, help us to live and work and worship as good soldiers of Jesus Christ. As earthly armies follow flags, so may those who profess the faith once delivered to the saints keep their minds fixed upon the Cross and follow Him who gave Himself upon it that men might have eternal life. May those who behold this flag be helped by the remembrance that it calls them to consecrated service in His earthly kingdom, the Church which is His body, the fulness of Him who filleth all in all. May those who worship here be led by what it stands for to more faithful, peaceful conquest of the world. We ask it in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

To the Lord our God, the High and Holy One that inhabiteth eternity, be ascribed all might, majesty, dominion and power, henceforth and forevermore. Amen.

POSTLUDE

THE CHURCH FLAG

This Sunday morning at eleven o'clock, our very lovely Church Flag is to be dedicated. This flag is the gift of Miss Laura Bell, given to St. Stephen's Church as a thank-offering for renewed health. For some twenty years the General Convention has discussed the matter of an official flag of the Episcopal Church. Many and various designs have been suggested. Finally at the last General Convention held in Kansas City in October, 1940, the present flag was officially adopted. The design is by the late William M. Baldwin of Garden City, Long Island.

The foundation of the Church Flag is the Christian Flag, the banner of Constantine, a white field on which is superimposed a red cross with arms extending to all edges. This is a symbol of the universality of the Church of Christ which is to spread to the very edges of the whole world. In the upper left are nine cross-crosslets in silver on a blue ground. The colors are red for sacrifice, white for purity of the Christian Religion, Madonna blue representing the human nature of our Lord inherited from His Virgin Mother. The nine cross-crosslets, representing the nine original Diocesses of General Convention held in 1789, are arranged in the form of a St. Andrew's Cross because the first Bishop of the Episcopal Church in the United States, Bishop Seabury of Connecticut, was consecrated in Scotland. The cross-crosslet is the symbol of the propagating nature of the Church.

CONGRATULATIONS

I'd like to reach out my hand and shake yours, every one, individually! No, I'm not thinking of the 630 and over who attended the Easter services, for I do not believe congratulations are in order for attending services of worship. Friendly greeting and a welcome. Yes, but not congratulations. I am sure the boss does not congratulate you for showing up at the office every morning; that is your business. And on Easter or any Sunday its your business to be in your Father's house to worship and give your thanks to Him for your blessings.

So,—no congratulations for being in church on Easter Day, B U T all kinds of congratulations on the splendid way in which you responded in the Easter offering.

Of course, figures never prove a thing, they say. But nevertheless they are interesting. The total Easter offering so far is $710.26. This is $124 better than last year.

While every Sunday is a commemoration of Easter, and the Christian Church changed the Sabbath from the seventh to the first day of the week for that reason, we do not expect every Sunday to be as festive as Easter. And yet every Sunday ought to be the most festive day of the week. We hope that you will all try to make it so by your continued presence at those gatherings in church where we meet to give praise to our God and to learn of His will.

SPECIAL NOTICES

The Cheyney Chorus of forty students from the Cheyney Training School for Teachers, invites you to attend a Sacred Musical at the Church of the Saviour, 38th and Ludlow Streets, on Sunday, April 26, at 4.30 P. M. Dr. Leslie Pinckney Hiss is the Director. The Silver offering is for the benefit of St. Michael and All Angels Church.

Children of the Church School who are ten years old, or older, are invited to come to the Community House on Fridays at 4.00 P. M. to make bamboo pipes.

If you ever get discouraged, you need the Church.
If you never get discouraged, the Church needs you.

Confusius say, when people keep up regularly their weekly envelopes strongly, it keep crow feet of worry out of eyes of Treasurer.

OPEN HOUSE

The Rector and Mrs. Price cordially invite the members and friends of St. Stephen's to attend open house at the new Rectory, 448 West School House Lane, Germantown, on Sunday afternoon, April 26 from 3 to 6 P. M. The Rectory is near the Queen Lane station of the Pennsylvania Railroad, or you can take the Broad Street Subway to Logan Street and exchange to a J Bus. Get off at Chelten Avenue and Wissahickon—the end of the line.

"In Psalms and Hymns and Spiritual Songs, Singing and Making Melody in Your Heart to the Lord," Ephesians 5: 19.

The services of this church depend upon the co-operation of the congregation, choir and clergy. Little good is derived if this co-operation should be lacking. It is the minister's responsibility to do his part to the very best of his ability; and it is also the congregation's part to do their very best. They should take an interested and audible part in all responses, canticles and hymns.

The thoughtful will agree that it is just as necessary for the congregation to make themselves heard as it is for the minister to make himself heard. A question one might ask is, Which shall it be? Shall our congregation make themselves heard as distinctly as they wish to hear the minister, or shall the minister "fade away" into the congregation's faint response? Both minister and congregation have equal responsibilities here. Let our congregation and minister inspire each other.

Advanced notice is given for the Annual Parish Meeting, which will be held on Wednesday, May 6, at 8 P. M., in the Community House. The annual election of the Vestry will take place, and the officers of our Parish organizations will present their reports. There is to be a reception to Dr. and Mrs. Price.

The United Thank Offering. The U. T. O. of the women of the Parish will be presented on Sunday, May 3, at the 11 o'clock service. The story of what the women of the Church have been able to do "for lengthening the chords and strengthening the stakes" of the Church's missions by many small thank offerings, placed in the little blue boxes, reads like a modern miracle. Surely America can find no better antidote for the bitterness, hatred and destruction which the war is spreading across the world than continuing to carry forward the mission of good will and peace which is the heart of the gospel of Jesus Christ.

If you have a blue box, please bring the contents in the little blue envelope enclosed with this leaflet, with your name on it, or send your gift to Mrs. Phillip Schwarz, 63 Magnolia St., Germantown, treasurer of the U. T. O. Every woman in the Parish should be a contributor and the enclosed blue envelope is for your convenience.

The U. T. O. is one of the means by which the women and girls of the Episcopal Church make their thankfulness the working force in the life of the world. Its purpose is the spread of Christ's Kingdom at home and abroad. It trains women for church work, sends them out as teachers, doctors, nurses, social workers, and every expression of service in the enlarging Kingdom of God. It has built churches, schools, hospitals, social centers in Alaska, Japan, China, Mexico, Cuba and in various parts of the great scattered Western fields.

Twice a year in each parish, the money in these blue boxes is gathered together and presented at the altar. Every woman in the Parish should be a member of this blessed project.

INSTITUTION OF THE RECTOR

When the Rector is instituted in his new cure on Thursday evening, May 28th, at 8.15 P. M., there will be many, among the younger members of the congregation who will witness for the first time this office in their Church. Dr. Price's immediate predecessor, the Rev. Dr. Vincent Franks was not instituted.

The Rt. Rev. Francis M. Taitt, S.T.D., LL.D., Litt.D., Bishop of Pennsylvania, will officiate at the institution and will preach the sermon. In the opening procession will be clergy from some of the Philadelphia churches, Episcopal and others. Dr. Herbert Old, as Rector's Warden, is expected to present the keys of the Church to the new incumbent.

SPECIAL NOTICES

The regular stated meeting of the Convocation of North Philadelphia will be held on Tuesday, May 19th, at 6 P. M., in All Soul's Church, 3226 North 16th Street. The speaker at this Service will be the Rev. J. Jarden Guenther. Supper will be served to those who receive Post Cards of announcement, and who return them. The business meeting will begin at 7.30 P. M. The speaker will be the Rev. Charles Martin, Chairman of the War Commission of the Diocese.

"THE SONG OF AMERICA", an Historical Pageant, written and compiled by Walter Raiguel, the music composed by Dr. H. Alexander Matthews, will be given on Friday and Saturday, May 22nd and 23rd, at 8.30 P. M., in the Academy of Music, for the benefit of the Valley Forge Bell Tower Fund, and the U. S. Navy League Service.

Since Easter, the early service has averaged eighteen and the Healing Service on Thursdays 30 in attendance. These services are innovations and the Rector is pleased with the response. The Wednesday noon-doy service has averaged seventy-four, and the Friday Communion Service has averaged twenty-one in attendance. The Sunday eleven o'clock service has averaged two hundred.

The recent offering with that of October, presented at the ingathering of the United Thank Offering, totalled $304.41 for which we are truly thankful.

SERVICE OF INDUCTION OF WARDENS, VESTRYMEN AND CLERK OF ST. STEPHEN'S CHURCH

Prior to the sermon the above officers are called to the Altar and inducted into office by the following ritual:

The Rector says: In order that these duly elected officers and the whole body of parishioners may better appreciate the importance of the sacred office of Wardens, Vestrymen, Clerk, Treasurer and other special officers of the Vestry, it has been deemed advisable for them to make public acknowledgment of these hallowed duties by a positive declaration. These officers have important responsibilities which will be placed on their shoulders. They are accountable to God and to the members of this parish for the fulfillment of the same.

To the end that they may be true to their trust and humbly and obediently fulfill the requirements of their several duties, we ask them the following questions before God's altar in His Holy Temple:

Question. Having familiarized yourselves with the duties of your several offices, do you here in the presence of God and this congregation solemnly and sincerely promise and vow that you will reverently and obediently fulfill the same?

Answer. I do, the Lord being my Helper.

Question. Do you promise to help, aid and assist with your counsel, prayers and service the Holy Cause in which you are enlisted?

Answer. I do, the Lord being my Helper.

Question. Will you manifest by word and act loyalty to your Church, Bishop and Rector while fulfilling the office to which you have been honored by the members of this parish?

Answer. I will, the Lord being my Helper.

Question. Will you daily strive to let your light so shine before men that they seeing your good works may glorify your Father which is in Heaven?

Answer. I will, the Lord being my Helper.

The Rector then gives to the Wardens their staffs of office. Then he says: Receive these emblems of authority, and faithfully and prayerfully perform the duties of your office.

The Rector then says: Let us pray.

Almighty and eternal God, the Giver of grace and strength; we beseech Thee to bestow Thy blessing upon these Thy servants who have been placed in positions of trust in Thy Holy Church. Give them a clear sense of their duty, and lead them to a faithful discharge of the same. Grant them gentleness, forbearance, a right judgment and personal consecration, that by precept and example, as well as by their official actions, they may enhance the temporal and spiritual good of Thy Church. Especially direct them in their counsels, so that all things may be done to the glory of Thy Name, and for the unity, peace and prosperity of this parish. We ask it for the sake of Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

Vouchsafe, O Lord, to these Thy servants to whom the affairs of this parish are committed, prudence, justice and charity, that they may be of one mind and of one heart in the upbuilding of Thy kingdom; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

HYMN—"O God, we thank Thee for the Gifts"

O God, we thank Thee for the gifts
That come from Thee alone,
And chiefly for that mother love
Which is so like Thine own;

The love that shields our infancy,
The love that guides our youth
That shows the wonders of Thy love
The glories of Thy truth.

We pray that Thou wilt greatly bless
Our mothers on this day
With treasures from Thy heavenly store
That cannot pass away.

We pray that sons and daughters all
May ever loyal be,
And may our mothers' prayers fulfill
By truly serving Thee. Amen.

SPECIAL NOTICES

The Burd School for Girls, 4226 Baltimore Avenue, has issued invitations for a tea to be held on Saturday, May 16, from four until six o'clock. If you do not receive your invitation, you are nonetheless cordially invited.

This School and the girls in it have been of primary interest to the members of St. Stephen's Church since 1856, and it is hoped that you will all be able to attend.

There will be a special service for the installation of the Vestry on Sunday, May 17th, at 11 o'clock.

On Ascension Day, May 14th, there will be a celebration of the Holy Communion at 12.10 P. M., followed by the Healing Service with address at 12.30 P. M.

The Rector has reluctantly accepted the resignation of Miss Isabel MacMillan who has served as the assistant in Young People's Work of St. Stephen's for the past ten years. The work of Miss MacMillan has been of a high order, and we shall miss her valued leadership. The many activities of Miss MacMillan both within and without the Church have finally taxed her strength. We hope, however, that she may be able to continue her Church School teaching.

MOTHER'S DAY

About twenty years ago the florists and the sentimentalists co-operated to add to the list of holidays and to enrich the church calendar. Mother's Day was created, when one is supposed to wear a flower in honor of his mother, to give her an affectionate greeting, to send her a present, to preach a sermon on the glory of motherhood. The general idea, which it is a sacrilege to question, seems to be that being a mother is in itself a cardinal virtue, and that it instinctively confers upon all who experience it all the necessary knowledge for the bearing and rearing of children. We distinctly remember the defeat of a bill in Congress for the establishment of federal maternity commission chiefly by eloquent congressmen who, with their hands upon their hearts, and tears in their eyes, declared that any mother knows more than the nurses—probably not mothers—who might be sent to help them.

The tragedy is that throughout the period when we have been most devoutly observing this holy day, the United States of America has remained the worst of all civilized countries in which to be either a mother or a baby. Our mortality of mothers and babies in childbirth has exceeded all other countries which keep records. The first reason is ignorance; the second is the lack of facilities for providing the proper care; the third is downright negligence; and the fourth is poverty.

Let us not get the impression that the mere bearing of children is in itself a virtue. For some sorts of mothers it comes pretty close to a crime. We must by every possible means create a demand on the part of mothers for adequate maternity care, which includes pre-natal and post-natal treatment. And this must be provided in every community for all mothers regardless of their ability to pay. The startling facts of our national disgrace should be brought home to every Christian congregation on this Mother's Day. Surely a purely sentimental Mother's Day is a sin.

LITANY FOR MOTHER'S DAY

For the mothers, who suffered that we might live; who sacrificed that we might prosper; who served that we might be happy,

Response. We thank Thee, O Lord.

For mother-love that watched with ceaseless vigil our every step; that responded with eager feet to our every call; that waited with tireless patience upon every need; that sought us when astray, warned us when in peril, and forgave us when in sin,

Response. We thank Thee, O Lord.

For mother-faith, that rested in quiet confidence upon the promises of God; that enfolded us at all times in the blessed covenant of divine grace; that looked into the darkness without fear; that never despaired when hard pressed; that taught us to believe when we pray, and to trust when we work,

Response. We thank Thee, O Lord.

For mother-prayer, that held us ever before the throne of grace; that swept land and sea for us, when far from home; that carried our ills and our pains, our sins and our mistakes to the Comforter of all; that never ceased when no answer came, and never failed when most undeserved,

Response. We thank Thee, O Lord.

O God, merciful Father, give to us abiding memories of the mothers that have gone; revived visions of their loving presence; renewed consecration to their high ideals; and a recovery for this day of those spiritual qualities that through them made us what we are,

Response. We pray Thee, O Lord.

O Christ, blessed Saviour of us all, who in love unspeakable didst speak so tenderly to the mother at the cross, teach us to be as thoughtful and as kind to our mothers today, who, in Thy gracious Providence, are still with us. May their presence ever be a benediction to follow us, and a challenge to stir us to use every latent power within us to give as Thou hast given,

Response. We pray Thee, O Lord.

POSTLUDE

The altar flowers today are presented by Mrs. John C. Knox in memory of John Hart, a signer of the Declaration of Independence, in whose memory a tablet was erected on the transept wall by the Magee family.

DEDICATION OF THE SERVICE FLAG

A beautiful Service Flag containing nineteen stars for the men and women who have gone from our Parish into the armed forces of our Country will be dedicated at the eleven o'clock service on Sunday. This flag will hang from the second floor of our Parish House on all clear days. It is a gift from the members of the Girls' Friendly Society, in memory of Katherine Hewitt.

SPECIAL NOTICES

Half a million young people will participate in the Whitsunday Corporate Communion. The Rector looks forward to giving the Sacrament to all the Young People of St. Stephen's Parish in order that they may join in the World Wide Fellowship of Christian Youth, and emphasize our unity with Christ and with one another. The service is at 9.00 A. M.

A Card Party and Fashion Show will be given by the Board of Managers and Auxiliary of the HOUSE OF REST FOR THE AGED at the Philadelphia Cricket Club, Willow Grove Avenue west of St. Martins Lane, Chestnut Hill, on Wednesday, May 27, at 2.00 P. M. Mrs. William Clarke Mason's gardens will be open to guests of the Card Party. Single tickets are $1.00, tables are $4.00. Please send and make checks payable to Mrs. Philip E. Ronzone, 423 East Montana Street, Germantown.

Apropos of that woman in Borneo who has been carrying her sick husband on her back over the jungle trail to church, we have observed that many a man is being carried through this life by a good woman. But if a man does not learn to stand upon his own feet spiritually in this life, he is going to have to learn when the inevitable time comes that he does have to stand alone. The time to learn to walk is now.

WHITSUNDAY

Today is Whitsunday, the birthday of the Church. Some 1900 years ago a group of disciples of Jesus suddenly became conscious that they had a mission to perform, and they went out courageously to convert the world to a new idea of God, and to give the people knowledge of the Saviour.

This is an old story. But, for all that, it is an amazing tale even today when wonders have become commonplace. It marks a third stage in the revelation of God to man. We had first the law and the prophets of the Old Testament; then Jesus came to make an eternal revelation of God in history, in time and place and then, finally, the Church was born, whose work it is to see that this revelation becomes the property of all the children of God, one after another, as they come into the world.

The Church has partially succeeded in its task. At least you and I, and a few million others, know about Jesus Christ and the Father whom he loved and proclaimed. But the work must always go on. Every Sunday must be, not only a weekly remembrance of the Resurrection, but also a time when Christian people gather together for prayer, meditation and worship, so that the Holy Spirit may fill them with a sense of the vocation of the Church, and inspire each to do his share of the work.

The least that one can do on Whitsunday is to come to church and ask for power to be a better Christian and a more effective disciple of the Master.

POSTLUDE

The Altar flowers are given by Mr. Harry Hauger in memory of Louise C. Hauger.

THE GIRLS' FRIENDLY SOCIETY has contributed $25.00 for the work of the Episcopal Hospital in memory of Blanche V. Moore, former Branch President.

DO NOT BORROW TROUBLE. We are all in this respect too much like the great Carlyle, who had a reputation for "nerves." It seems that when he lived in London he had a neighbor possessed of an interesting coop of chickens, whose male member disturbed Carlyle's sleep by his loud crowing.

The owner of the fowls was expostulated with. He replied that there ought not to be any complaint as "the cock crew but three or four times during the night."

"That may be," replied Carlyle, "but if you only knew how I suffer waiting for him to crow."

That is our trouble, we think too much of what is going to trouble us, and so worry ourselves into early graves waiting for it to happen.

USE YOUR RECTOR. Let him be your friend and helper in every way possible. His joy it is to serve, and his specialty is human problems. Let him be your minister in the fullest sense. He is as near as your telephone. If there is sorrow or sickness in your family, do not fail to let him know. If you have any problem, any moral difficulty, any question that bothers you, let him help with it. You will be surprised at the many ways his experience will enable him to help.

RELIGION is not a fur coat to be put away in moth balls during the summer months.—Baptist Reminder.

DON'T THROW AWAY MAGAZINES. Send them to the Parish House. We place thousands of magazines on board transports, in lighthouses and lightships and in the dormitories of sailors' homes. When you come to Church on Sunday bring alone a bundle of magazines.

THE FUTURE LIFE OF THE CHURCH can be enriched by remembering the Church in your will. Such bequests should be designated: St. Stephen's Church, Tenth St. above Chestnut, Philadelphia.

SUCCINTLY STATED . . . .

"A kite rises against the wind, not with it; and a man reaches his highest nobility when he contends against great odds."

The big sundial in the spacious garden of a successful man bore a Latin inscription. Translated it read: "Beware, it is later than you think."

SIGNING THE PLEDGE

Here is a Christian's Pledge every one of us might well sign and keep before him:

1. As a member of the Church I desire to do my Christian duty to Christ and His Church for the spiritual re-armament of myself and every member of my Parish.

2. I will worship God publicly in my Church every Lord's Day as far as it is physically possible.

3. I will witness personally for Christ with every means in my power—in my home, my business and in my community and social life—always and at all times witnessing to the faith that is within me as a loyal follower of Jesus Christ.

A PRAYER FOR SUMMER DAYS

Heavenly Father, Thou hast made the trees, the grass and the flowers; Thou art the Creator of lakes and mountains and ocean; grant then that through these summer days Thy children may find recreation and health and happiness in the great out-of-doors. Keep us, we pray Thee, from harm and danger, from selfishness and sin, from indifference and unbelief; help us to understand Thy Wisdom in all the beauty that we see and unite us again in the fall recreated in body, mind and soul; the better to serve Thee and Thy Kingdom; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE PRAYER OF AN OLD LADY.

The following prayer was found after her death at the bedside of an old lady who spent her last years in an old people's home in Muskegon, Michigan:

Most Merciful God, my Heavenly Father, cast me not off in the time of old age, and forsake me not when my strength faileth. Preserve my mind from dotage and my body from protracted disease or distressing pain. Deliver me from despondency in these my declining years, and enable me to bear in patience whatever may be Thy Holy Will. And when my spirit leaves this tenement of clay, Oh God receive it! Send some of Thy blessed angels to convey my inexperienced soul to the mansions beyond; through Jesus Christ, the world's loving Lord and Saviour. Amen.

DO YOU EVER?

Do you ever visit a new member of your Church?
Do you ever visit the sick?
Do you ever make it a rule to greet strangers and visitors when they come to your Church?
Have you been letting "George" or "Mrs. George" do these things?
Then tell me, please, how do you expect your Church to succeed?
Here is the solution: "So we built the wall; and all the wall was joined unto the half; for the people had a mind to work."

—Nehemiah 4: 6.

PARISH CALLS

A number of individuals have made their calls upon our church families as suggested in the Rector's letter, and now they are wondering when some one is going to call on them. Do not delay further in making the call assigned you. In this way every member of St. Stephen's will receive a call from a fellow member and everyone will make a call in the interest of Christian fellowship. When you have made your call, sign your name to the letter, and send it back to the Rector. Some members of the congregation have made their call by mail, and have received interesting letters in return. This is quite permissable in view of present day transportation difficulties, and when the person on whom you want to call is out of town.

THE VITAMIN OF LIFE

In his latest book, "Man the Master," Gerald Heard uses a striking analogy in diagnosing the disruption of our civilization. He likens what we have been doing in the world to what we did with our daily bread: "When vitamins were unsuspected, the popular snobbish fancy for white bread and the miller's practical wish for a flour that would not become rancid, led to the wheat germ being taken out of the flour, and, in consequence, a bread little better than a slow starvation being eaten. On vitamins being discovered we did not leave them where nature had put them. We still insisted for our snobbish and business interests, on having anemic flour. But the business millers sold the germ to the druggists, who sold it again to us at a high price as a necessary supplement to a diet which with great skill and effort we had succeeded in rendering deficient."

What else have we been doing all through the historical age that began with the Renaissance? Only we have not yet begun seriously to supplement our cultural starvation diet with the extracted essence.

What else have we been doing with American democracy since the heroic days of the founding fathers? And here again we have only begun a feeble effort to try to make up the deficiency.

When all of life became secularized, when science took the place of God, when the physical senses were regarded as the only approach to reality, when in our separation of Church and State we separated religion from education, we were in the process of making such a day as this inevitable.

One might go farther, for there has been an undoubted secularization of religion as well.

But the answer is as obvious as it is in the matter of bread. True religion is the supreme vitamin of life and without it culture, democracy, the Church and individual personality must collapse.

The Altar flowers are given by the King's Daughters in memory of Mrs. Vanderslice.

The "younger" members of the Mother's meeting who were 80 years or over, were given a Luncheon on Monday by Miss Mockett, their chairman.

The Inquirer tells of a woman who, after the service thanked the minister for his sermon. "I found it so helpful," said she.

The minister replied: "I hope it will not prove as helpful as the last sermon you heard me preach."

"Why! What do you mean?" asked the woman.

"Well," said the minister, "that sermon lasted you three months!"

FOR THE FUN OF IT

Minister (at baptism of baby)
"His name, please."
Mother—"Randolph Morgan Montgomery Alfred Van Christer McGoof."
Minister (to assistant)—"A little more water."

"DE DRESSIN ROOM"

A gentleman from the far South recently told the Rector a story which is too good to keep for two reasons: first, it's humorous, and second, it's a perfect sermon in itself.

There was a darkey who used to be a bad "nigger", and changed his ways and became a Baptist preacher. This is the story he told to his boss about his conversion:

"Yassir. I used to be a bad ornery nigger. I used to shoot craps, play cotch, and drink and gamble to quite a extent, but now I'se a licentage Baptist preacher, yassir—"

(Question): Well, Melvin when did you change your ways?

(Melvin): One night, I was asettin' on my back steps in my back yard, and suddenly the evenin' star buss out in my bosom and I saw de Lord's hand as plain as day, tellin' me to pray and to keep on prayin' —So, I says, "Lord, teach me, so that each night when I goes home and sets across the dinner table from my wife, who's been a blessin' to me, that I'll have nothin' to conceal. Blind me, O Lord, to the faults of the other fellow, but reveal to me my own. Deafen me, O Lord, to de jingle of tained money and de rustle of unholy skirts. Make me young enough, O Lord, to laugh with my children, and to lose myself in their play, and den, when comes de sound of soft steps, and de smell of sweet flowers, and de crushing of de hearse's wheels on de gravel outside my place, make de ceremony short, 'cause, Lord, I'se with you. I ain't a'scared to die, 'cause when I dies, only my carcass is here, and anyway I'se dressed, and what I mean by bein' dressed is dis—

"Dis here world is de dressin' room, and if you don't get dressed on this side, it's too late when you gits on the other."

I wonder how many of us could express our religion as succinctly and sincerely as that.

Are you confused about the "isms"? Maybe these definitions will help:

Socialism—You have two cows. Give one to your neighbor.
Communism—You have two cows. Give both to the government. Government gives you the milk.
Fascism—You have two cows. Give milk to the Government. Government sells it.
Naziism—Government shoots you and takes cows.
New Dealism—Government shoots one cow, milks the other and pours milk down sink.
Capitalism—You sell one cow and buy a bull.
Townsendism—Milk both cows and feed them the milk.
Anarchism—Keep cows. Shoot government. Steal another cow.
Negroism—You have no cows in the first place.
Conservatism—Embalm the cows. Freeze the milk.

"MY SOLDIER LAD"

My soldier lad, I have one thought to leave you
Before you say good-bye and go away.
Let not the glitter of the world deceive you—
Its honors fade and wither in a day.
Keep your heart clean; worship the God that made you;
Bend not your knees to Mammon's false delights.
Only a life of uprightness can aid you
To reach your great objective on the heights.

Let those who will seek out forbidden pleasure,
And trail their snowy garments in the dust.
Keep in your strong young heart the matchless treasure
Of purity, and place your daily trust
In Him who set the starry world in motion,
And holds within His palm the mighty ocean.

THE CHURCH,

with humanity generally, is facing in the world today a situation so ominous, so threatening, that only by the wisdom and grace of God can we hope to repel the powers which would make might the master of right.

Now, more than ever before, we need the guidance which comes to those who trust in God and live by the strength which He alone can give.

The Church in her Sacraments and worship seeks to bring her members to ever closer union with the life of God as we know it in Jesus Christ. Let us, therefore—all who love their Lord and their fellowmen—gather in ever increasing numbers in every hamlet, town and city of our nation, to seek His leading. Those who neglect to do this, weaken by that much the strength of those who stand for the Kingdom of God and His righteousness.

Would that every member of St. Stephen's, in common with God-fearing people throughout the world, would gather in God's House every Lord's Day to seek His guidance and receive His strength.

CEILING ZERO

"Ceiling Zero" is the signal that grounds all planes and makes a marvel of mechanism temporarily useless; for when fog gets in the way of horizon and stars, the manmade birds stand earthbound. . . .

When man loses his horizons, when he stops looking at the stars, his ceiling is zero.

Nobody but a fool thinks that building God's kingdom on earth is any task for a man without faith and vision. Nor is it clear that any agency outside the Church stands the slightest chance of making this world even safe to live in.

This Kingdom of God will not come unless Christians take Christ seriously. And the whole program of the Kingdom is being wrecked today by Christians who give God what they can spare.—Ceiling Zero.

A good man is known by the acquaintances he cuts loose from.

Have thy tools ready; God will find thee work—Charles Kingsley.

We have thirty boxes of Duplex-Envelopes for the year 1942 that are looking for a home. Are you a regular contributor to the Church through the weekly envelope. Secure your set today.

POSTLUDE

The Altar flowers are given by Mrs. Mary McEwen in loving memory of her son, Walter McEwen.

The congregation is asked to stand at the first note of the organ before hymns and canticles.

IN SUMMER

The little girl of Boston who prayed one night, "Goodbye, God, I'm going to New York tomorrow," may be a myth. But if the truth were known, many little boys and girls, many older people too, bid farewell to religious things when summer comes. They go into the country and never seek a church, or they remain in the city and never attend their own church.

And the season when this non-attendance is widespread, is year by year becoming longer. Many children keep away from church from the time their school closes in June to the time it reopens in September. The grown up drops out after Easter and does not drop in again until Thanksgiving.

Every Sunday should see every one of us come under the influence of religious things. When away from home seek some religious service wherever you happen to be. It will do you good to attend a Roman Catholic Mass or a service of the Synagogue, in case there is no church of your own there. When at home go to some one service every Sunday in your own Church. In St. Stephen's Church, the services continue throughout the summer in the same number as in the winter. Go to an early service if you are to be away for the day.

The Chinese have a saying that any excuse is good when you do not want to do a thing. Let us not make excuses for our failure to do what the Bible asks us all to do when it says, "Forsake not the assembling of yourselves together."

HOW TO LIVE ALWAYS

What would you not give to live a thousand years, and go on doing good? Of course, that is not possible; but by making a bequest to the Endowment Fund of St. Stephen's Church, whether large or small, you can live on in the hearts of St. Stephen's men, women and children a thousand years hence.

THE KITCHEN SAINT OF BLESSED HOUSEWORK

"Lord of the pots, pans and things, since I've no time to be
A saint by doing lovely things and watching late with Thee,
Or dreaming in the twilight, or storming Heaven's gates,
Make me a saint by getting meals and washing up the plates.

"Although I must have Martha's hands, I have a Mary mind;
And when I black the boots and shoes, Thy sandals, Lord, I find;
I think of how they trod the earth each time I scrub the floor;
Accept this meditation, Lord, I haven't time for more.

"Warm all the kitchen with Thy love and warm it with Thy peace,
Forgive me all my worrying and make all grumbling cease.
Thou who didst love to give men food, in room or by the sea,
Accept this service that I do—I do it all for Thee."

POSTLUDE

The Altar flowers are in memory of Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Gensheimer.

The Rector and his family have had a most beneficial and enjoyable vacation. We return with a grateful sense of God's goodness, rested bodies and freshened minds to serve Him more faithfully and, we trust, more effectively.

The Rector would add an expression of gratitude for those who served so faithfully during his absence from the parish: first of all Dr. Stockman whose ministrations were greatly enjoyed and deeply appreciated by all our people; then to Mr. White for his contribution to the beauty of our summer services; and to the Altar Guild for its faithful service.

DONORS OF MEMORIAL FLOWERS

August 9—Miss Marguerite Caldwell, in memory of her parents, James and Margaret Caldwell.
August 16—Miss Marjorie Robertson, in thanksgiving.
August 30—Miss Laura Bell, in memory of her family.

The Altar flowers are at the disposal of the Rector for the sick in hospitals and at home.

HOME COMING

"How are you?" "Glad to see you!" These are the familiar accompaniments of home-coming. One of the delightful compensations of Autumn is found in the joy of seeing everyone again.

In the miracle of Friendship there is an element of necessity. We come not only of our own choosing. We are driven to it. We thrive on it. We would perish without it.

We are recognizing again the essential nature of our Christianity. The outstanding characteristic of it is that of Fellowship. It is a society of persons having the same ideals, aims, hopes. That is how it began: "And all that believed were together and had all things in common." That is how it will continue.

Out of this Fellowship grows the joy of service. There is great work to be done. Will we be equal to it? That again depends on: "How are you?" How are you in character?—in your spiritual life? We are compelled to work from ourselves as a starting point. So much depends upon our own spirit in the solution of great world problems.

With great confidence in Christ, and in you, we eagerly look forward to another season's realization of the far-reaching possibilities of this Fellowship.

WEEKDAY SERVICES

One of the recent acquisitions to our week-day congregation is a young man, Robert Newcomer, a valued member of the advertising department of Gimbel's Store. Although a communicant of the Lutheran Church, he has contributed gratis, a valuable brochure on the week-day services of St. Stephen's. In the brochure we have the reaction of a young business man to the spiritual influence of St. Stephen's Church. His friend and colleague, Mr. Howard B. Newman, a noted artist, drew the picture of the Chancel and Reredos. We are in their debt for this splendid contribution and I know that they will feel their talents and labors well spent, if this brochure will prove the means of attracting others to our week-day services. We do hope and confidently expect the members of our congregation to make the widest distribution of these folders to potential worshippers, men and women, who work within reasonable distance of the Church, or to women who shop in our neighborhood. Additional folders will be found in the vestibule of the Church.

The work and influence of St. Stephen's will never languish as long as we have men and women who are willing and eager to give their time and talents to its service.

POSTLUDE

The Altar flowers are given by Miss Susan C. Thackara in memory of her mother, Sarah E. C. Thackara.

Our congratulations to Miss Elizabeth C. Mearns who has successfully completed her three-year course of training in the Abington Hospital and who will shortly become a Registered Nurse.

CHURCH SCHOOL begins Sunday, September 20, at 9.40 A. M. Please see that your children are present, right from the opening day. It is very disturbing to teachers and pupils to have them start weeks late.

DO YOU WANT A NURSERY SCHOOL?

The Rector would appreciate it if parents would let him know if they would like to have a nursery school so that they could go to church on Sunday morning. It would be very easy to organize such a group where you could leave your smallest ones and have a free hour at least once a week. We would guarantee competent care and instruction. The Rector knows from experience how essential it is for parents to get out of hearing of their small children now and then for a rest, and the church is the most restful place in the world. Please telephone or write him at once.

JUST IN CASE

We have made certain preparations to meet the possibility of an air-raid upon the city during the hour of a Church service. If the alert should sound, Remain Calm, Obey Orders.

The Rector will say:

1. Keep your seat until I tell you to leave.
2. Put on your wraps.
3. Walk, not run, into your aisle.
4. Face the rear of the Church.
5. Walk in single file on each side aisle, in double file in the center aisle.
6. Follow the person ahead of you.
7. Each aisle has an usher who knows where to lead your column.
8. Now go, and the Lord bless and keep you.

The ushers will lead their respective columns out on Tenth Street and take them into the first floor of the Community House. We are to stay there until the "All Clear" signal is sounded.

Whether it is a drill or the real thing, if an alert should occur, let us show that as a congregation we can take it. For the present, let us continue our church going as normally and confidently as ever.

SAUNTERING

Said Dr. Harry Emerson Fosdick, "Some people receive very little from what they call worship because they do not fulfill the serious conditions for receiving anything. They saunter in and saunter through and saunter out. Great things are greatly arrived at. We cannot saunter into a Beethoven symphony, saunter through, and saunter out, for if we do it will amount to nothing."

Those who know the definitions and derivations of words tell us that in early times, the very term "saunter" fell into disrepute. And for a very good reason. During the time of the Crusades and thereafter, making a pilgrimage to the Holy Lands was considered to be a very pious undertaking. Many who attempted to do so depended upon the generosity of others for food to carry them on their way. One who made such a pilgrimage was "San Terre-ing"

Soon, mendicant and no-account persons took advantage of people's good nature and begged for handouts under the guise of "Going to the Holy Lands." And the result was that those who were honestly engaged in making a pilgrimage were deprived due to the "saunterer" who was merely taking advantage of good nature.

So, a saunterer has always been frowned upon since that day.

Let's not fall into the vicious habit of sauntering in, through, and out of services of worship.

Each service is an opportunity for worshipping at God's Altar. And our attendance at that service is a pilgrimage. A pilgrimage is an act of devotion. Let's not saunter through devotions. Rather, in humility and reverence, let us adore Him Whom we dare to call our Master and our Lord.

The Altar flowers are given by Mrs. Elsie M. Williams in memory of Peter Williams.

There was an error in the Rector's announcement of the memorial flowers for Sunday, September 6. They were in memory of Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Gensheimer.

Please note that the Church School opens this morning at 9.40.

Percy Crosby in his book, "A Cartoonist's Philosophy," allows "Skippy" to make an observation on the relations of Protestants, Catholics, and Jews. "Skippy," you know is the boy who prayed, "Oh Lord, give me strength to brush my teeth every night, and if thou canst not give me that strength, give me the strength not to worry about it." Well, "Skippy," standing on page 127, says, "I'm a Protestant, and like it." Friend: "I'm a Catholic and like it." Another: "I'm a Jew and like it." "Skippy": "Then we are all set and don't have to sell nothin' to each other."—The Christian.

TO A PASTOR

DEAR PASTOR:

For a good many years I have occasionally gone to your church. Usually Christmas and Easter are the best I can manage. I don't contribute much to the support of the church. About fifty cents a year is all you can safely expect from me. But I'll go to church suppers and eat a dollar-and-a-half's worth of food for which I pay thirty-five cents. Yet, in a Write-A-Letter Week, I want to tell you that without your presence to lead a service on a Sunday morning, whether I am there or not, life would not hold quite its present savor. To go to church and to hear you preach is to receive a satisfaction with existence and an inner feeling of power for more and better work that could not be conveyed by a lesser man. Perhaps this will be of some comfort to you in your next squabble with some organization.

Yours cordially,

A. SABBATH SLEEPER.

CHURCH EXPENSES

The Bishop told of two men who met recently, and one asked the other for a subscription for his church. The reply was that the church was always wanting money.

The other friend said, "When my son was a child, he was costly; he always wanted boots and shoes, stockings and clothes, and wore them out fast, and the older and stronger he grew the more money I had to spend on him. But he died, and does not cost me a nickel now."

"Yes," said the Bishop, "a live church always needs money, a dead church doesn't."

A STRANGE FAMILY

The father has never missed church or Sunday school in twenty-three years. The mother has had a perfect record for eleven years. A son has not missed for twelve years. A daughter has been at the evening service every Sunday for eight years.

What's the matter with this family, anyway? Don't they ever have company on Sunday to keep them away from church?

Don't they ever get up tired on Sunday morning?

Don't they belong to any lodges where they get their religion instead of at their Father's House?

Don't they ever have headaches or colds, or nervous spells, or tired feelings, or sudden calls out of the city, or week-end parties, or business trips, or picnics or any other trouble?

Don't they have a radio, so that they can get some good sermons from out-of-town preachers?

THE REV. W. W. WILKE, PANA, ILL.

WORKERS' COMMUNION

The secret of an effective life, says Henry Wieman in the "Methods of Private Religious Living," is constantly to relate the lesser concerns of life to the greater. A thousand steps taken only as steps would weary even a strong man, but if he thinks of them as taking him to some place he wants to be, then they are easy and even exhilarating. So the daily job, if it is only a job, becomes deadly, but if it is a way of nourishing the life of one's family or an important community service, it can be done in full stride. One function of Christianity is to help people to interpret all that they do in terms of larger purposes.

Toward this end members of St. Stephen's Church are invited to come to the workers' communion, Sunday morning, October 4, at 11.00 A. M. It is particularly for those who are doing work in the Parish or in welfare agencies, but also for any who want to interpret their daily work as a service to God.

FACES TURNED CHURCHWARD

A Christian owes it to the community to move through the streets on Sunday morning toward the House of God. Every face turned churchward Sunday morning leaves an impression on the life of Philadelphia. If no one went to church and everyone glued his ear to the radio, public worship would vanish and spiritual Christianity would gradually fade away. Religion is a social thing and in its form it is impossible for it to survive if men hold aloof from one another. "Forsake not the assembling of ourselves together" is an old exhortation which all the generations will do well to heed.

POSTLUDE

The Altar flowers are given by Miss Matilda Maulsby in loving memory of Ida T. Maulsby

The average attendance during the month of September was as follows: Sundays, 9.00 A. M.—7; 11.00 A. M.—167 Wednesdays, 60; Thursdays, 37, and Fridays, 30. This is a good beginning for a September. Let's see how much we can increase our attendance during October.

THE ALTAR FLOWERS FOR SEPTEMBER

September 6—The Altar flowers were given in memory of Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Gensheimer.

September 13—The Altar flowers were given by Miss Susan C. Thackara in loving memory of Sarah E. C. Thackara.

September 20—The Altar flowers were given by Mrs. Elsie M. Williams in memory of Peter Williams.

September 27—The Altar flowers were given by Mrs. B. Hollingsworth Downward in memory of Caroline Miller Johnson.

The Altar flowers are at the disposal of the Rector for distribution in hospitals and in private homes.

The leaders of organizations who plan for any extra equipment of special arrangements for their meeting, should notify the Parish Office not later than ten A. M. to assure themselves of our fullest co-operation. We are short handed, but we can and will do everything possible to make your meeting a success, if we know what you need in advance.

FOOD FOR THOUGHT

In a questionnaire sent to 20,000 people was this query: "Why do you go to a certain movie?" 52% said they went because a friend asked them to go, or told them it was good; 8% went because of newspaper advertising; 12% because of what they read in review; 4% because of radio advertising; 8% because of the producer's reputation; and 16% went anyway. The important point is that 52%—more than half—went because of what some friend said or did. What is true of the movies is equally true of religion and of church attendance. How long is it since you brought someone to Church who probably wouldn't have gone otherwise? When was it you last spoke of how much religion meant to You?

In these days when we are concerned about the great number of the unchurched, and about the irregularity in attendance of those who are really faithful to the Church this rather obvious method of increasing attendance is one which we may well consider. On certain occasions we have tried this method in St. Stephen's Church and we know that it works. If you bring someone this week and he or she brings you next week it will not be long before we shall need to increase the size of our church buildings. Children in church schools have long been bringing their friends. Can adults allow their children to show more interest than they do themselves? Or perhaps I should say, can they allow themselves to show less interest than their children?

We are happy to call your attention to the enclosed announcement describing the Sunday afternoon Program of St. James' Church, 22nd and Walnut Streets. This is the Fifth Annual Series and promises to be the best ever.

The congregation is asked to stand at the first note of the organ before hymns or canticles.

HALLOWE'EN PARTY

The Young People of the Parish have arranged a theatre party for October 31 at 8.30 P. M. at the Lantern Lane Playhouse, 3517 Haverford Avenue. The play is a comedy—"Adam's Rib"—and admission is 57 cents. Refreshments will be served in the intermission. See any member of the committee about your ticket. Committee: Fred Schmid, Jr., William McGowan, John Adams, Constance Spear, John Spear.

THE UNITED THANK OFFERING

The U. T. O. of the women of the Parish will be presented on Sunday, October 25, at the 11 o'clock service. The story of what the women of the Church have been able to do "for lengthening the chords and strengthening the stakes" of the Church's missions by many small thank offerings, placed in the little blue boxes, reads like a modern miracle. Surely America can find no better antidote for the bitterness, hatred and destruction which the war is spreading across the world than continuing to carry forward the mission of good will and peace which is the heart of the gospel of Jesus Christ.

If you have a blue box, please bring the contents in the little blue envelope enclosed with this leaflet, with your name on it, or send your gift to Mrs. Phillip Schwarz, 6313 Magnolia Avenue, Germantown, treasurer of the U. T. O. Every woman in the Parish should be a contributor and the enclosed blue envelope is for your convenience. 6302

The U. T. O. is one of the means by which the women and girls of the Episcopal Church make their thankfulness the working force in the life of the world. Its purpose is the spread of Christ's Kingdom at home and abroad. It trains women for church work, sends them out as teachers, doctors, nurses, social workers, and every expression of service in the enlarging Kingdom of God. It has built churches, schools, hospitals, social centers in Alaska, Japan, China, Mexico, Cuba and in various parts of the great scattered Western fields.

Twice a year in each parish, the money in these blue boxes is gathered together and presented at the altar. Every woman in the Parish should be a member of this blessed project.

RECRUITS TO BE ENTERTAINED

On Monday evenings, from 6.30 to 11 P. M., young men from Delaware, New Jersey and Eastern Pennsylvania who have spent the day in Philadelphia in preparation for their enlistment in the Marines and Navy will be entertained in our Community House. These men are housed at the Seamen's Church Institute. Because they are not in uniform the U. S. O. cannot care for them. Games and dancing and refreshments will be arranged each week by the members of our Young People's Social Club. Donations of money and food will be gratefully received.

GIFT BOXES TO SOLDIERS

Gift boxes, containing cigarettes, candy, sewing kits and other useful articles have been sent to the men of the Parish who are in the armed forces. Mrs. Mearns made the sewing kits and already we have received letters of thanks.

One of the men in writing said, "Thanks for the grand little kit—don't know who had the happy thought of the sewing kit, but they have my heartfelt thanks. Have no wife here—and I don't care for the laundry's method of repair."

BISHOP HART TO PREACH AT HOLY TRINITY

The United Thank Offering and the Department of Christian Education of the Pennsylvania Branch of the Woman's Auxiliary, together with Forward in Service, are sponsoring a service in the Church of the Holy Trinity, Nineteenth and Walnut Streets, Thursday evening, November fifth, at eight o'clock. Bishop Hart will be the preacher.

BIRTHDAY CALENDAR

St. Stephen's will publish a birthday calendar for the year 1942. It will cost ten cents to list your birthday and the birthday of your friends. The calendar will sell for twenty-five cents.

The Church School is in charge. You can list your birthday by signing the birthday list which is being circulated among the various organizations and will be available after church services.

CHANCEL PICTURE

A beautiful reproduction (9 x 11) of the Chancel etching by H. B. Newman is available at a cost of 75 cents. These sepia prints are good, and are signed by the artist.

All Saints' Day

Apropos of the service in Church on All Saints' Day, and pursuant to a custom long observed as a part of this service in this parish, there will be read the Roster of the Dead. This comprises names of those buried by the clergy of this parish during the past year.

DEATH

Two very spiritual, very understanding men, have forever enriched our world with their hopeful, enlightening words. Henry Wadsworth Longfellow with his sublime statement: "There is no death! What seems so is transition," and William C. Doane, when Bishop of Albany, with his poem, "Death," which he wrote while sitting at the side of the casket in which his wife lay serenely beautiful in her last sleep.

We are too stupid about death. We will not learn
How it is wages paid to those who earn.
How it is the gift for which on earth we yearn
To be set free from bondage to the flesh;
How it is turning seed corn into grain,
How it is winning Heaven's eternal gain.
How it means freedom ever more from pain.
How it untangles every mortal mesh.
We are so selfish about death, we count our grief
Far more than we consider their relief
Whom the Great Reaper gathers in the sheaf
No more to know the season's constant change;
And we forget that it means only life.

EXTRA CURRICULA ACTIVITIES

The extra curricula activities of the Rector during the past month were as follows: Preached at a Communion Preparation Service at the First Presbyterian Church, Lansdowne, read a paper on Humor and Pathos in the Old Testament at the Clerical Brotherhood, and attended the Institution of his successor in St. Philip's Church in Brooklyn.

The average attendance at service in October is as follows: 9.00 A. M. Holy Communion 8. 11.00 A. M. Morning Prayer, 174. Wednesdays 66. Thursdays 40. Fridays 23. Private Communions 11.

A very imposing sign in gold leaf has been placed over the lintel of the church entrance reading "St. Stephen's Protestant Episcopal Church." Have you seen it?

Mrs. Mearns, the Parish Visitor, would be grateful for any donations of men's clothing. The need is very great!

ARMISTICE DAY

The Presiding Bishop has called us to a Church-wide day of prayer on November eleventh. All Churches throughout the land on November eleventh can raise their voices to the throne of the Almighty, praying with one accord for the world, seeking guidance, asking forgiveness, rendering thanksgiving and giving praise.

In St. Stephen's we shall have a Communion Service at 10.55 A. M. and the regular Wednesday noon-day service at 12.30 P. M. A small booklet of devotions will be available for those who attend during the other hours of the day.

DONORS OF MEMORIAL FLOWERS FOR OCTOBER

Oct. 4—Miss Laura Bell, in memory of her family.
11—Miss Matilda Maulsby, in memory of Ida T. Maulsby.
18—Mrs. Harry Croyder, in memory of Mrs. John Coats Browne.
25—Mr. Paul Downward, in memory of Rachael Hollingsworth Downward.
Mrs. Martha Atherton, in memory of Edward Donlan.

OUR HONOR ROLL

St. Stephen's Church is proud to honor the young men and women of the parish who are serving in the armed forces of our country. Their names are listed on an honor roll in the vestibule of the Church, and as far as possible each has been sent a war cross, Prayer Book for Soldiers and Sailors, and a gift box containing a sewing kit and useful articles. We rely on the families of these men to keep us posted as to their address. The Rector writes as often as he can and we hope to organize the men for some sort of correspondence and other expressions of interest of the parish in our boys. The list we have is probably incomplete. If you know of omissions you would do your loved ones in the service a favor if you would inform the Rector. A copy of the Weekly Bulletin goes each week to all whose addresses we have.

Our Church

Begins next Sunday its active participation in a Campaign for

"A MONTH OF SUNDAYS IN CHURCH"

Our Motto Is:

"Watch the Congregation Grow When You Are There"

If you are a regular attendant upon the service of the church, you are not only fulfilling your Christian duty, but you are also setting a much needed example to your fellowmen, affording your leader deep encouragement, and following in the footsteps of Him, who "As His custom was, went into the synagogue."

But if not, we urge you to join with us in the "Month of Sundays in Church." In this great day of so great crisis for human and religious liberties, we seek to deepen our zeal, strengthen our faith, re-dedicate ourselves to Christ's service. To achieve these ends, we must pray together, worship together, kneel together in His Holy Temple.

Come next Sunday! Bring some one with you, and so fulfill the first of the great Objectives of our FORWARD IN SERVICE program, which is EVANGELISM.

THE U. T. O.

The United Thank Offering for this parish was $211.72. Last Fall our ingathering amounted to $156.68, and the Spring appeal brought the sum of $147.73. We are more than pleased!

THE BIBLE STUDY CLASS

The Bible Study Class got off to a good start with an initial attendance of thirty. This number will, no doubt, be doubled at our next meeting and if the enthusiasm of those present is an accurate barometer, this class is destined to play an important role in the religious education program of Philadelphia. Dr. George M. Lamsa, the renowned Biblical scholar, who speaks both the Aramaic and the Christian dialects of modern Assyrian, the language which our Lord Himself used, is teaching this class.

Mr. I. Smith Raspin, president of the class, is anxious that everyone know about this splendid opportunity for adult re-education in the fascinating subject of the Bible. The class meets every Thursday in the Church for one hour, beginning promptly at 7.30 P. M.

Why not join us?

NEIGHBORHOOD CLUB

Mrs. Nellie Mearns has organized a group of children from the immediate vicinity of the church into a neighborhood club. These children meet in the Parish House every Friday afternoon at four.

POSTERS

The congregation will be glad to know that a very striking poster calling attention to our week-day services is being placed in the stores, hotels, hospitals, railway and subway platforms in the neighborhood. These posters were designed by our good friend, Mr. Robert Newcomer, who conceived the recent brochure describing these noon-day services. We are indeed grateful for this effective publicity.

There shall be no more curse, nor pain, nor death. But the throne of God and of the Lamb shall be therein; and His servants shall serve Him, and they shall see His face. There shall be no night there; and they need no lamp, nor light of the sun, for the Lord God shall give them light; and they shall reign for ever and ever.

The Congregation is asked to stand at the first note of the Canticles and Hymns.

Our Church

Continues next Sunday its Campaign for

"A MONTH OF SUNDAYS IN CHURCH"

Our Motto Is:

"Watch the Congregation Grow When You Are There"

We need to acquire religious habits. We need regular times for prayer and for worship at home and together in the Church. We need regular reading of the Bible. We need a sincere observance of the Christian year. Not as an end in itself but because it reminds us daily and weekly of the great events of the life of Christ and of his teaching.

The alternative to regularity in religious life is haphazardness. Some people do not think of God until the need is vital. If you wait until your conscience reminds you of God your religion is not your life; it is not of much use to you. Let God remind you of your conscience!

Let your regular observance of certain religious habits keep God ever before you. Select the ones that are most helpful to you, but, for the love of God and the good of your immortal soul, do select something and observe it faithfully.

The average man does not think of God spontaneously often enough to do him any good. These aids, whether habits, hymns or pictures, or what not, are the threads that we tie around our little fingers lest we forget.

God does not knock at our door with a heavy stick. Let us therefore, keep watch at the door from time to time and invite Him to enter.

Come next Sunday! Bring some one with you, and so fulfil the first of the great Objectives of our Forward In Service program, which is Evangelism.

WHAT TO DO FOR SERVICE MEN?

There are many things we can do for the service men. Here is one which will appeal to those of you who buy the latest books. Why not take one of your recent, good books, and send it to one of the men from our own parish? We will gladly furnish addresses of our service men to anyone who is willing to wrap up and mail a book. In case you do not know it, there is a very special low rate of postage for books. Call the Rector or Miss Robertson for a name.

ANNUAL ST. ANDREW'S DAY MEETING

This is advance notice of the Annual St. Andrew's Day Meeting and the Election of Officers to be held at St. Stephen's Church from 5.30 to 9.00 P. M. on Monday, November 30, 1942. Evening prayer, supper and an evening meeting at 7.30; address by Douglas Turnbull, of Washington, D. C., National President of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew in the United States, are the order for the day. The Rector would like to have a table of St. Stephen's men and boys.

Our Church

Continues next Sunday its Campaign for
"A MONTH OF SUNDAYS IN CHURCH"
OUR MOTTO IS:
"Watch the Congregation Grow When You Are There"

Next Sunday we are emphasizing the second Objective of the Forward In Service Program—The Teaching Mission of the Church

Through our Church School, we are striving to instill into the hearts and lives of our children true principles of Christian living and worship. In this effort, no contribution can take the place of the power of the parental example. Let us revive the old family pew custom. Come next Sunday, parents, and bring your children with you.

Increasing attendance! Did you bring some one last Sunday?

"Bring up a child in the way he should go
But go that way yourself."

NOON-DAY SERVICES DURING ADVENT

continuing through Thursday, December 24

Cards announcing the speakers for these services are at the doors in the vestibule. Kindly distribute them among your friends.

They are held daily except Saturday from 12.30 to 12.55. The speakers for the week of December 7 are as follows: Dr. Charles E. Schaeffer, Dr. Howard Johnson, Dr. Charles L. Hussey, Rt. Rev. Oliver J. Hart, D.D., Dr. Robert R. Littell.

CHRISTMAS DINNNERS

Each year St. Stephen's Church donates baskets to those who are unable to give to their families the fullness of Christmas cheer, with which others are blessed.

Will you help us with such amount as you feel able to give?

An envelope for your check or cash is enclosed.

A LETTER FROM YOUR RECTOR

DEAR FRIEND:

It is an insecure, uncertain, dark world. What will it be for our children, for those who come after us? We cannot tell. But there is a fellowship of kindred minds, a great company united in spirit and purpose, who hold aloft the torch of faith, courage and good will. It is the Church of the Spirit which ever points the way of life and light.

Consider the church of your community, the church of your choice or affiliation. Suppose there were none! No house of praise, prayer and meditation. No preaching of good will and brotherhood. No message of hope in a dark world. No minister to bless the sacred occasions of life; to visit the sick and afflicted; to walk with the sorrowing through the valley of the shadow. No fellowship of Christian joy and faith and helpfulness. No Church School for your children. No guiding hands and voices for young people.

Enough of such supposing. We would not live in such a community. And we do not. The Church is here. We may have helped little or much—or none. But some, many indeed, have cared, and ours is a church worthy of pride and affection. It is a privilege to share in its ministry and divide one's substance with it.

Your church—our church—is planning for 1943. All other plans are dependent on maintaining a staff of workers, on keeping buildings and equipment servicable for our activities; on resources to develop promising projects and initiate new ones to meet new opportunities and needs—to maintain our interesting programs of Church music. The financial budget is changed but little in its totals or its individual items from last year. There is no increase in personnel or in salaries. In outline it is as follows:

The Staff (Rector, Parish Visitor, Secretary, Verger)	$ 9,700.00
Maintenance (Fuel, Repairs and Improvements, Gas, Electricity, Taxes, Diocesan Assessment, Pension Fund, Insurance, Advertising, Telephone, Mortgage, etc.)	16,244.09
Activities (Music, Printing, Supplies, Postage, Charities, etc.)	7,204.10
Missions (Pennsylvania Expectation)	3,000.00

All good works. like charity begin at home. But they should not stop there, nor can they long continue on the crumbs that fall from other things. Our Church is a world-wide fellowship of love and mercy. It is preaching the gospel, ministering to the sick and afflicted, educating the young, providing relief and rehabilitation in every corner of the earth. "We that are strong ought to bear the infirmities of the weak"—so the Bible teaches. For the National and Diocesan Missions, Foreign Missions and what we call the Pennsylvania Expectation, we include in our budget, $3,000.00

Good works flourish when people associated with them offer their help, their prayers, their resources generously. Sometimes the best causes must depend on painful sacrifice by the church members.

This is your parish. Its work is your responsibility. We are asked to meet—not a budget—but human need and spiritual opportunity. Will you give your church your generous support?

Faithfully your Rector,

ALFRED W. PRICE.

POSTLUDE

The Altar flowers are given by Mrs. Harry Croyden in memory of Mrs. John Coats Browne.

We are happy to have at our service this morning, the members of the Girls' Friendly Society of our Parish for their annual service of admission.

HOUSE OF REST FOR THE AGED

The House of Rest is the only home of its kind in the Diocese. There are thirty women living there, and the waiting list is very long. Last year, St. Stephen's contributed $184.00, and one of our vestry made it possible for the home to procure two additional bed rooms; and this year another bed room has been given by the same means. All we are able to do for the House of Rest is greatly appreciated. The Bishop has asked us to "Please help us to help those who cannot help themselves."

ST. STEPHEN'S CHOIR

Once in a while we can talk about ourselves or our possessions without feeling apologetic; and then it is of real value if we crystalize our pride and appreciation by talking about something of which we can be pardonably proud. We at St. Stephen's have a truly remarkable choir. Its consistently high standard of music and the performance thereof is second to none; and in the face of many difficulties, this fact is little short of miraculous. Our choir is smaller this year, there are only eighteen members instead of twenty-six. Two of the men are in the army. We miss them very much as we also miss those who were with us in former years.

Behind the scenes of our Sunday morning service, lie preparations which few of us see or seldom stop to think about. The faithful attendance at choir practice, and the devoted co-operation which the members give their Choirmaster is only a part of the fabric which nearly always results in flawless beauty. You have noticed how carefully the hymns, the sermon and the anthem fit each other, and you have realized that each part of the service is chosen with the intention of driving home a special point for you to carry away.

Music has long been acknowledged as an emotional and spiritual directive. Our public worship is effective in proportion to the degree of oneness achieved by means of each individual's participation in prayers, praise and attention. The fitness of our surroundings, the dignity of our ritual, and the glory of the music under Dr. Matthews' inspired direction should prove the people of St. Stephen's parish to be especially fortunate. We are aware of our great privilege in having a choir whose music is the means of lifting our hearts and minds in worship to Almighty God, and we are very grateful.

These are the members of our Choir:

POSTLUDE

The Congregation is asked to stand on the first note of canticles and hymns.

CHRISTMAS DINNERS

Each year St. Stephen's Church donates baskets to those who are unable to give to their families the fullness of Christmas cheer, with which others are blessed.

Will you help us with such amount as you feel willing and able to give? If you have already given, do not consider this appeal. Committee: Fred Schmid, Jr., Chairman and Treasurer; T. Monroe Dobbins, Mrs. James H. Mearns, J. Lewis Armstrong.

CO-OPERATE OR DIE

Now that we have reached the turn in our progress toward victory, and even though hard going lies before an end not yet in sight, we simply must anticipate the postwar responsibility of the Christian brotherhood.

A recent editorial in one of our daily papers focused the issue explicitly. In this editorial, which was a general attack on Wendell Willkie, there occurred a paragraph which urged the Republican Party to rally round the purpose of postwar "Nationalism" as opposed to "Internationalism."

While we may devoutly hope that the Republican Party will not follow this leadership of death, we must do more than hope for the Republican Party and the Nation.

Isolationism is not dead. When Hitler's armies are conquered and the threat of Tojo's war machine has vanished, there will rise up within our own nation this equally armored enemy—the army of isolationism. With loud protestations of patriotism its leaders will appeal to a short-sighted and an inherent selfishness. They will seek to enlist every intransient group. They will aggravate the ancient hatred of the Irish for Great Britain. They will magnify the boogy of Bolshevism. They will stir race against race. They may even try to fasten on China the label of a new "Yellow Peril."

We shall need more than flesh and blood in our struggle against this force of selfishness. We shall need deep conviction as to God. Clear realization of His purposes as world enveloping, and the profound realization that over the lives of nations as well as men, He has written the call, "Co-operate and Live" which if we disregard it, will become the warning, "Co-operate or Die."

THANK YOU

For five weeks now I have been writing you, urging that "Day of Destiny" which was last Sunday. You caught the spirit of cooperation. You seemed to understand the meaning of our slogan: "Love and Loyalty will lift the load."

In spite of the cold weather and the slippery streets, in spite of the interruption of the air raid "alert," I feel that the spirit of the occasion was undoubtedly caught by all who came as well as those whose prayers for our parish were lifted to God—those who could not be present for some good reason or another.

I want you to keep that Love and that Loyalty up to the end of the year. In the mail this week will come your box of Duplex Envelopes, if you did not find it for yourself after the service.

Each quarter we shall send out a statement to remind you of your quarterly standing. I am sure you will like that efficient way of doing God's work.

Thanks again for your pledge, for your spirit of co-operation and generosity. Thanks to you, the church "came through"! !

The Rector has been elected County Chaplain of the American Legion.

The Thanksgiving offering for the Episcopal Hospital, we are happy to say, amounts to $675 to date. Our thanks goes out to the many who have had a share in this gift. It is still time to send yours.

Our Church

Concludes next Sunday, December 13th, its Campaign for
"A MONTH OF SUNDAYS IN CHURCH"

OUR MOTTO IS:
"Watch the Congregation Grow When You Are There"

We are setting this Sunday aside as Dedication Sunday. On our Day of Destiny, we shall realize anew what God, through Jesus Christ, has done for us. We trust each confirmed member will be present, ready to sign his or her pledge card, indicating what each of us is prepared to do for our Church in the coming year. In these war days, it is well nigh impossible to visit each one of you in your homes. Come, therefore, to God's House next Sunday and offer your pledge at His Altar. It will be a great day for our Church. Remember, our program for the next year will depend upon the measure of our response, as represented by our pledges for 1943. Are you really interested in your Church?

Your Presence Next Sunday, December 13th, Will Answer That Question

POSTLUDE

The Rector's Christmas Greeting

BELOVED PEOPLE OF ST. STEPHEN'S:

The well-known Christmas Carol, "O, rest beside the weary road, and hear the angels sing," invites us to participate in the peace of Christmas tide. A weary road it is for many—the mad pursuit of gifts because it is the custom, with prostrated shop girls and mail carriers! Worn hearts with resiliency exhausted by sickness of body, mind and soul! A host of house-wives and business men for whom the Advent season has meant added tasks, not inspiration! A harried host of hungry, heart-sick folk moves on to Christmas Day. They do not know when a bomb might snuff out the lives of all whom they love, or when their men might die on some distant battlefield. On Christmas Day, 1942, battle noises will probably be the loudest on the earth since 1917, possibly louder than ever before.

But the peace of Christmas comes not in resting beside the weary road, but in hearing the angels sing. How can we hear their song? No heavens will open to drown the screech of traffic with angelic song. Yet it is possible to rise from Christmas refreshed and renewed; just a gift to some one for whom your bounty will provide an unexpected release from worry; just a particular expression of friendship or love to some one who might otherwise have been passed by on the other side.

Give the Christ a bit of His own day and season. While it is yet time, let us do the good that we would. May we go out of our way to say the word, to write the letter, to do the act, which shall restore friendship, heal a wound, and bring peace among men. Back to the road we go after Christmas, but it need not be so weary a road. It will not be so, if we have heard the angels sing.

Affectionately and faithfully, your Rector,

ALFRED W. PRICE.

A Christmas Gift

Christmas is the time of gifts for those we love. Shall we leave out God? Surely He and His Church shall be the first we think of. The enclosed envelope is very appropriately worded, "My Christmas Gift to My Church." Will you use it for His sake?

The Bishop of the Diocese will visit our Parish to administer the Right of Confirmation on Sunday morning, March 1st, at the 11 A. M. Service.

The Confirmation Class will meet on Wednesday at 8.00 P. M. and on Friday at 4.00 P. M.

There will be a meeting of the Red Cross this Tuesday evening at 7.00 P. M.

THE UNITED CHARITIES CAMPAIGN, January 25th, to February 11, is a great uniting influence in Philadelphia in a time of war. The 141 agencies supported through this campaign are rendering an indispensable service. The war accentuates the need. Philadelphia is the first major city to project its United Campaign since the declaration of war. The goal is approximately $4,500,000. Our people are urged to support this cause with time, effort and money.

SPECIAL NOTICES

The Altar flowers today are in loving memory of Louise B. Sausser.

It is our privilege to welcome as the Special Preacher this morning, the Rt. Rev. Dr. William Proctor Remmington, Bishop of the Missionary District of Eastern Oregon. It is a pleasure to have a part in Bishop Remmington's return to his own City.

The War Commission at the Church House is compiling a list of Christian homes where defense workers may live. Anyone wishing to place their names on this list may do so through our Church.

HOLY WEEK

Holy Week begins again today, Palm Sunday. To members of the ancient historic Churches it is the most impressive period of the Christian year, and it is coming to be observed more and more by the Protestant Denominations as well. This is as it should be, for without earnest reflection upon the dramatic events of this week the Christian life loses much of its significance.

We should not spend too much thought upon the actual physical sufferings of our Lord, because we can thereby miss an appreciation of the deeper current which runs beneath all that suffering. But we cannot leap from where we now are to Easter without missing much of the meaning of the Christian story. It is important to live again the history of our Lord's last week on earth so that we may be induced to study what happened, and why it happened.

Without Holy Week Jesus would have been only a great teacher and wonder worker. Without Easter He would be regarded as only another innocent victom of human fear and mob passion. Without Easter and Holy Week together the world would have some other kind of pagan religion today, the whole course of history would have been different.

Without Holy Week Christianity ceases to be a religion and becomes only a system of ethics. Without the personality of the Christ who gave His life for us, very few people would be interested in that system of ethics because it seems to be opposed to what we would naturally do if we were left to our own devices.

May I, therefore, suggest that each one of us read the Epistle and Gospel for every day in Holy Week, that we go to Church and hear them read in the company of other faithful Christians, if we possibly can do so, and that we make a special point of receiving the Holy Communion on Maundy Thursday, and of being present at some service on Good Friday? Going to Church in Holy Week does something to us that I cannot explain. But I do not think explanation is necessary. My only desire is that all of you who read this may share in the wonderful experience so that Easter may bring you true joy.

BAPTISM OF CHILDREN

There will be a service for the Baptism of children on Easter Even, April 4, at 4.30 o'clock. If you have a child who has not been baptized will you bring him or her to that service? The Rector would like to be notified in advance. Please come at least fifteen minutes before the hour of the service for registration.

MUSICAL SERVICES

On Good Friday, at 1.00 P. M., our Choir, under the direction of H. Alexander Matthews, Mus.D., and assisted by special soloists will sing the "Crucifixion" by Sir John Stainer. And on Easter Day at 5.00 P. M. the young people of our Parish will present an Easter Pageant compiled by Edna Lillich and music by Dr. Matthews.

We believe that the Church has a responsibility to present from time to time the great creations of religious music, and we commend these services to our members and friends.

HYMN 135

The Church is preparing to properly care for the spiritual life of men in our armed service. Within a short time you will be asked to contribute to a special fund for this purpose, and we earnestly hope that when this opportunity is offered, you will gladly share some of what you have to make it possible for the Church to carry on its ministry to these men who are fighting our battles.

The American Red Cross is appealing for funds to carry on its work. We know that many of you have already contributed, but this campaign is to raise the necessary Red Cross War Fund. Give generously.

SPECIAL NOTICES

The Altar Flowers today are given by Miss Margaret Tappen.

Note: The Preacher at the Noonday Lenten Services this week, Monday through Friday, is the Rev. William C. Roberts; Saturday, the Rev. William Roulston McKean.

Invitation

To all who mourn and need comfort; To all who are weary and need rest; To all who are friendless and desire friendship; To all who believe in God and wish to worship; To all who hunger for prayer and wish to pray; To all who know sin and need a Saviour; To all who are convinced that they ought to put first things first—St. Stephen's opens its doors in the name of Jesus Christ—and in His name and for His sake bids you WELCOME!

THE RECTOR'S PARAGRAPH

The business of the Church is to save souls. But what does salvation mean. The release of the energies of a personality for full self-realization and full self-expression. Salvation is not a turning away from something, but a discovery of the resources of life. It begins not with a fear that life is evil, but with a faith that life is gloriously good. The truly religious person is one who literally "lays hold on life." We sometimes think of Jesus as being poor because He had not where to lay His head, but if we had ever seen Him in the midst of an ordinary crowd of people, we should have been struck by how much richer He was than the rest. He gave the impression of abundance. Every life He touched added to the world. He gave the blind a world to see, the deaf a world to hear, the lame a world to run in, and the bereaved a world to love in. To the disciples He gave the wide horizons of all the world there was. This large inclusiveness is of the essence of the religion of Jesus. Salvation is a man discovering himself in the midst of a world bigger than himself that is still his world. When Jesus went away, He left the spinning earth on our doorstep.

PRAYER FOR THOSE IN DECLINING YEARS

O Lord, our Heavenly Father, whose gift is length of days, help me to make the noblest use of mind and body in my advancing years. Teach me to bear infirmities with cheerful patience. Keep me from narrow pride in outgrown ways, blind eyes that will not see the good of change, impatient judgments of the methods and experiences of others.

Let Thy peace rule my spirit through all the trials of my waning powers and take from me all despair or undue love of life or fear of death; that, with a glad heart at rest in Thee, I may await Thy will concerning me, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

TESTIMONIALS

"I must tell you how greatly the Healing Services are helping me. First of all, my faith is strong, so that when my good Rector placed his hands upon my head, I felt as though a shock and peace came over me. Ever since I feel like a different person. I have more patience in my home life and take more interest in my home. I rest more peacefully and have lost my melancholy and am able to eat and sleep normally."

Signed .....

"Your Healing Service has been of inestimable value to me. Through its helpfulness in learning to pray more faithfully for healing, I believe a little neice who was at death's door for days was greatly benefited. I know she was healed through Christ's touch."

Signed—A.M.

"I do want you to know that through prayer and the attendance upon the Healing Service, God has healed me of painful neuritis."

Signed—H.F.

"My father is just getting along splendidly—he enjoys everything so much and we are all so thankful for his miraculous recovery. 'The prayer of the faithful availeth much'."

Signed—C.W.

Through the dark the dreamers came,
Melchior, Balthasar,
Caspar, following the flame
Of a star.
Via, via
De profundis via.

But the way did not seem
Shadowy or long;
It was brightened by a dream
And a song.
Gloria, gloria
In excelsis gloria.

It was worth the journeying
To the weary end,
For they found their dream a King
And a Friend.

At the close of one of his radio programs, Eddie Cantor made this statement:

"We've had a lot of fun here tonight, ladies and gentlemen, and now, if you'll permit me, I'd like to say something a bit more serious. Here in Los Angeles a few days ago we had a rather disturbing windstorm. I was walking along Sunset Boulevard at the time, and like other pedestrians, I ran for cover as the gale swept down. There were a number of stores nearby, but something guided me toward a building across the street. I stood there in the archway several minutes, I guess, before I realized where I was. I had taken refuge in the doorway of a church—and it set me to thinking. The world today is going through something far more threatening than a windstorm. Every single one of us needs refuge of one kind or another. And I know of no better place to go for it than a church. You know, the Church must be a very strong and righteous thing—for it has survived every enemy it ever had! And the book which embodies the principles of the Church—the Bible—is still at the top of the best seller list. We are extremely fortunate to live in a country, where we can worship as we please, when we please. Let's make the most of that blessing. Go to church, whatever your race or creed. You'll meet old friends and make new ones. The greatest calamity that can befall a people is the loss of religion. Don't let it happen here. Go to Church."

Our attendance continues to increase. Are you helping this effort in every way you can?

DEAR DR. PRICE:

I am glad to have the opportunity to thank you for your open Church door. It is a great comfort to enter in these trying days. I feel the Lord is very near in the blessed quietness of your Sanctuary. Thanking you again for your welcome open door, I am,

Sincerely yours,
A VISITOR.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S CLUB

The members of the Young People's Club have undertaken a program on Friday evenings for the entertainment of Midshipmen from the School Ship Keystone State. These young men are in training to become Ensigns in the Merchant Marine.

The Club will welcome any help that the congregation is able to give in the way of donations or suggestions. The entertainment will always be simple, games, dancing, light refreshments, etc. The activity is a part of our Church's contribution to the men in the armed services. We must do our best to keep the level of their morale at a high point. So little effort on our part brings such great returns, that it is inspiring to do one's very best.

An evaluation of the work with Recruits is soon forthcoming.

OUR TEACHERS

St. Stephen's has reason to be proud of its Church School officers and teachers. They are an unusually loyal group who are doing a splendid piece of work. The interest of the pupils is the best guage of their effectiveness. We cannot pay them adequate tribute, but we can at least list their names:

Primary: Mrs. Nellie Mearns, Miss Blanche Erwood; Junior: Mrs. John Reinhardt, Mrs. John Spear; Intermediate: Mr. John Reinhardt, Miss Isabel MacMillan; Senior: Mr. John Spear.

Mr. John Spear is superintendent of the whole School and greatly responsible for its high standards and efficiency. Mrs. Mearns is the treasurer.

The staff would welcome constructive suggestions from parents. Staff meetings are held once a month.

UNITED WAR CHEST SUNDAY

The United War Chest asks the help of generous friends as volunteer workers and voluntary givers in raising $7,300,000 urgently needed for our home charities, our men and women in war service, and the relief funds for our fighting allies. This United War Chest is many campaigns in one. It is local. It is national. It is international. It is to be one, big, overall campaign and eliminates at least sixteen fund raising campaigns this year—each taking time and manpower.

HOME CHARITIES

One hundred and fifty agencies serving 500,000 of our neighbors in the Philadelphia area, one out of five men, women and children of all races, creeds and color have need for this United Charities help. The family front may mean a pair of shoes with soles on them. It may be a meal on the table. It may mean medical care for the baby . . . glasses for a daughter . . . braces for a crippled son. It may be keeping Johnny away from the Adolescents' Court and teaching him to want to stay away. It may be helping an unmarried mother make plans for her child. Above all, it means keeping the family together when the going is rough. $4,128,000 is needed to finance the services of our social agencies.

WAR FRONT

Morale on the war front is always high when it is known that the community is concerned about each of its individuals back home. Our men and women in war service have need of recreation and fellowship which will be available wherever they may be. $826,000 is needed for the National U. S. O. Campaign and $351,000 for local war services. Your gift to the United War Chest will help such united service organizations as: the Y. M. and Y. W. C. A., Salvation Army, Jewish Welfare Board, Travelers' Aid, Emergency Aid War Work, United Seamen's Service and the Stage Door Canteen.

OUR FIGHTING ALLIES

The United War Chest includes: Appeals for $813,000 which must be raised to help keep the hope and spirit, and to protect the very lives of millions.

United China Relief. China fighting our fight for five long years—devastated by famine, epidemics and ruthless war.

British War Relief. Mobile Kitchens, Ambulances, hospital equipment and a hundred other civilian aids help maintain the already magnificent British courage.

Greek War Relief. A starving nation—one-fifth of its people dead.

Russian War Relief. Russia's winter has brought rigorous hardships for families left helpless by military destruction and a Spartan scorched earth policy.

Polish War Relief. More than 2,000,000 Polish refugees in France, Russia and the Middle East need food, clothing, medical supplies.

Queen Wilhelmina Fund. The Dutch fight on at home and in the South Pacific. We must bolster their determination.

We wish to express our heartfelt sympathy to Mrs. Mary Shields in the passing on of her husband, William P. Shields, who died on New Year's Day.

ST. STEPHEN'S YOUNG PEOPLE'S CLUB

A recapitulation of the report of the President of the Young People's Club shows that 519 Naval Recruits attended a total of eight meetings at a total cost of $24.55 for food, punch, coffee and miscellaneous expenses. There was an average attendance of 65 and an average expenditure of $3.07 for the period the Canteen was open.

Mr. John Spear says in his report: "It may interest you to know that our active membership has increased by 50% in the club. Also, that we have developed our own talent to the point where the Artist Service Bureau of the U. S. O. is asked to send down only two acts while we supply the other three, which go to entertain the Naval and Marine Recruits each Monday."

Our hearty congratulations to the Young People's Club and its able President for the excellent work they have accomplished.

The Rector conducted Evensong at the Leamy Home on January 17th.

The Opening Rally of the United War Chest Campaign will be held in Convention Hall, 34th and Spruce Streets, Sunday, January 24th, at 2.30. Over 1000 people will take part in the program and pageant. You are cordially invited to attend. The Hon. Roland S. Morris is the chairman of the Church and Synagogue Committee.

"PRAISE THE LORD AND PASS THE . . . ."

Where do we get our supply of Clergymen? Of course, the Vestry goes out and "calls" someone when a Church is without a Rector. But the Vestry assumes that there will be clergy available when it needs them.

Heretofore, our Theological Seminaries have shouldered the responsibility for seeing to it that an adequate supply of the clergy is available. The parish church has not assumed any of the cost of educating men for the ministry.

Now, our Theological Institutions need aid. Consequently, Presiding Bishop Tucker has set aside a Sunday when the Laity may make a special offering for Theological Education. He has designated January 24th as the day.

You are asked to use the envelope enclosed, and make a generous offering on that date for the purpose of guaranteeing a supply of clergymen in our Church for the post war world.

It costs approximately $15,000 of your tax money to train an officer for the Army. To train a clergyman costs only about $5,000 (or one-third as much).

In our own Diocese there is a growing shortage of clergymen, and this is true throughout the church. We must do our part in helping to overcome this shortage, or we will soon be asking the question that St. Paul asked:

> "How then shall they call on Him in whom they have not believed? and how shall they believe in Him of whom they have not heard? and how shall they hear without a preacher? and how shall they preach, except they be sent?"

JANUARY 24TH — THEOLOGICAL EDUCATION SUNDAY!!

POSTLUDE

The Altar flowers are given by Mrs. Daniel R. Harper in memory of Daniel Roberts Harper.

The congregation is asked to stand on the first note of the Canticles and Hymns.

The Rector extends his hearty thanks to the Mothers' Meeting for their generous contribution of fifty dollars for the Episcopal Hospital.

WEEKLY BULLETIN

During the past year the rector has prepared the weekly bulletin with the thought of reaching our scattered membership with a weekly message, news and coming events that we may become well informed and intelligent Church members.

We are convinced that a weekly is superior to a monthly publication, however modest the format and content of the latter may be.

In order to help defray the cost of mailing, we are asking each family to make an annual subscription of one dollar. May we count on you? The enclosed envelope is for your convenience.

WHAT'S THE USE?

Who has said it? The situation looks hopeless. Life has no meaning. What's the use? What difference will it make if I give up? My circle is small. If I were in the lead.....but there's no one following me. What I do counts for little.

Curiously enough, the greatest leader of men's lives the world has known never did much, either. He healed fewer than does the average physician. He taught less matter than most teachers. He worked at his calling only a possible three years. He died at thirty-two. But by what he was, he achieved this incredible result—of making men have faith in a better God. In place of the question mark, in life, he set faith in a good God.

To life, Jesus made a Sportsman's answer. He did not care what happened.....whether he lost or won, as the world sees it. His one intent was to be all that life asked of him. This, not winning, is the purpose of life's game. What we have and do is soon lost. What we are touches life wherever we think or speak or act, and goes on living. The question, "What's the use?" is asked sometime by everyone. It is answered every time by those of God's Sportsmen who play not for the prize, but for the playing.

CHURCH MUSIC

Have you ever stopped to think of how our Sunday morning service would be without music? Do you realize that music is as indispensible as prayer—that it is prayer at times. Someone has defined prayer as the lifting up unto God of the heart and mind. When we sing hymns together or listen to the anthem, the beauty of the music lifts our hearts and minds in like manner.

But all church music is not able to help us in this way. Only the best type of objective music—that is music that puts emphasis on a point above and outside ourselves, can do this. Otherwise we become even more self-centered, looking within ourselves instead of upward.

Our choir, whose sixteen voices are painstakingly blended to produce a perfect harmony to help us worship more effectively, is striving always to give to the service that beauty of color which satisfies the aesthetic sense, and puts you in tune with the purpose for which you come to church.

The Rector at the altar, the organist and his choir, you in the pews —this trinity is interdependent, each part necessary to the other two in creating a service wholly acceptable unto Almighty God.

ANTHEM—"Greater Love Hath No Man" ..... Ireland

Many waters quench Love, neither can the floods crown it. Love is strong as death. Greater Love hath no man than this, that he lay down his life for his friends. Who His own Self bare our sins in His own Body on the Tree, that we, being dead to sins should live unto righteousness.

Ye are washed, ye are sanctified, ye are justified in the Name of the Lord Jesus. Ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, that ye should show forth the praises of Him Who hath called you out of darkness into His marvellous light. I beseech you, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service.

POSTLUDE

The Congregation is asked to stand at the first note of the Canticles and Hymns.

The Altar flowers are given by Mrs. Otis Ellery Taylor.

We are to have as our guests this Sunday, the members of Chapter Number Four of the Military Order of the Purple Heart, and the Woman's Auxiliary of this Chapter.

OLD ST. STEPHEN'S CLUB

The Army and Navy Commission of the Diocese is planning to set up a center here at St. Stephen's for the service men, patterned after the Old St. Stephen's Club of the last war. St. Stephen's is to throw open all her facilities from twelve noon to midnight, seven days a week. We shall look for volunteers both clerical and lay from all the churches in the Diocese to service this program. The Church Periodical Club will furnish attractive reading matter. A clergyman will be present each day for spiritual counselling. There will be available showers, music, writing materials, contact with friendly people, darning, mending, pressing of clothes, telephone service, parcel checking, dancing, games, movies and entertainment, etc.

The Rector would like to have as many of our people as possible volunteer for this program. The Center is to open March first.

The Annual Corporate Communion and Breakfast of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew will be held in Holy Trinity Church, Rittenhouse Square on Monday, February 22, at 8.00 A. M. The breakfast will be served for $1.00 per plate at the Girard Hotel. The Rector is anxious for a good delegation from St. Stephen's.

The Rector has a splendid class of candidates for confirmation which meets Sundays at 10.00 A. M. in his study.

The Hon. Joseph C. Grew, our Ambassador recently returned from Japan, has this to say to you and me: "We must have spiritual faith in Almighty God as ultimate ruling force of our lives and our destinies. We admit that many of us neglect this spiritual motive in times of peace and material prosperity. We must regain our faith in God and we must give more than lip service to God, not merely during the war but thereafter, if we would win the sort of peace we profess to desire.

"It is the task of religion, through our Churches to provide our people with moral and spiritual courage and stamina to bear the burdens of this hour without fear or shrinking. And the Churches of America have risen to this responsibility; the doors of 200,000 of them are open.

"To these Churches we must turn as the source of the spiritual power we need."

St. Stephen's Church is one of the 200,000 Churches whose doors are open. It is helping to provide the sound foundation for our future society. St. Stephen's deserves and should now be receiving your support and your participation in its services.

We acknowledge with gratitude the following paid subscriptions to the Parish Bulletin: Miss Emma L. Mink, Mr. George T. Stephens, Mrs. Martha Stephens, Miss Laura Bell, Miss Elsie M. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. George Nevenger, Mrs. George P. Green, Mr. William H. Ruhl, and the Misses Corrigan.

ANTHEM—"The King's Highway" ..... Edward Shippen Barnes

I know not where the road will lead,
I follow day by day;
Or where it ends: I only know
I walk the King's Highway.

The way is truth, the way is love,
For light and strength I pray,
And through the years of life to God
I walk the King's Highway.

I know not if the way is long,
And no one else can say,
But rough or smooth, uphill or down
I walk the King's Highway.

The countless hosts lead on before,
I must not fear or stray;
With them, the pilgrims of all creeds,
I walk the King's Highway.

And some I love have reached the end.
But some with me may stay;
Their faith and hope still guiding me,
I walk the King's Highway.

Through light and dark the road leads on,
Till dawns the endless day,
When I shall know why in this life
I walk the King's Highway.

BOY SCOUT SUNDAY

The Boy Scouts of America are celebrating that organization's thirty-third birthday during the period of Boy Scout Week, February 6-12.

In the Philadelphia Council more than 10,876 boys have received Scout training up to January 1943. These Scouts and Cubs are enrolled in 368 Boy Scout Troops and 45 Cub Packs, the greatest proportion of which are in churches. There are also, as you know Senior Units of Rover Crews, Explorers and Sea Scouts.

360 Scout Masters, 956 Assistant Scout Masters, 135 Council Members, 214 Merit Badge Examiners, and many other volunteers, recruited by sponsoring institutions, carry out the character building and citizenship training program of Scouting.

Sunday, February 7th, has been designated as Boy Scout Sunday. Our troop, No. 2, will attend and take part in the eleven o'clock service.

PRAYERS FOR OUR MEN IN SERVICE

Into the woods my Master went,
Clean forspent.
Into the woods my Master came,
Forspent with love and shame.
But the olives, they were not blind to Him,
The little gray leaves were kind to Him:
The thorn-tree had a mind to Him,
When into the woods He came.

Out of the woods my Master went,
And He was well content.
Out of the woods my Master came,
Content with death and shame.
When Death and Shame would woo Him last,
From under the trees they drew Him last:
'Twas on a tree they slew Him last,
When out of the woods He came.

POSTLUDE

The Altar flowers are given by Miss Margaret Tappen in memory of her mother.

We are again indebted to Mr. Robert Newcomer for a most attractive poster advertising our Lenten services. These posters have been placed in the railway terminals, subway platforms, and in many of the Churches in the Diocese.

Through the courtesy of one of our city officials, five metal signs have been affixed to the electric light poles along Market and Chestnut Streets. These signs bear the legend, "Old St. Stephen's Church Service Club—For all Uniformed Men" with an arrow and address.

We are most grateful to the Hajoca Company and Mr. William M. Anderson for the installation of fire grates in one of our oil burners which will enable us to use coal during the war emergency. This invaluable gift came through the active interest of Mr. George M. Bridgman, a valued member of our congregation. Many thanks!

LENTEN NOON-DAY SERVICES

Our friends, both the ministers of out-of-town parishes and of many churches here in the city, are very generous to us at St. Stephen's. They give us their best thought and a large share of their time and strength by coming every day during Lent for the Noonday service.

The purpose of the twenty-five minute service of hymns, prayer and short, earnest addresses is to give an opportunity to the men and women in down-town offices, and the shoppers in the department store area to set aside a portion of their lunch hour for the worship of God and the hearing of His Word.

For many years past the Brotherhood of St. Andrew, during Lent, has been conducting noonday services, first in the Garrick Theatre, and more recently in the Locust Theatre. This year, in order to reach a larger and more diversified group of people, the Brotherhood is co-operating with St. Stephen's Church and consolidating these services.

The Brotherhood celebrates its fiftieth anniversary of these services and St. Stephen's celebrates its fifty-seventh year of similar services.

These services reach many people but they should reach many more. And the more numerous the people who attend, the more helpful they will be. We ask our own members to support these services by their presence, to advertise them among their friends, and to do whatever they can to spread word about them.

The War Commission of the Diocese in co-operation with St. Stephen's will open a Center for service men in the Community House on March fifteenth. Volunteers are needed throughout the week to assist in this most interesting program.

Confirmation Instruction Classes, conducted by the Rector on Thursdays at 4 P. M. and on Sundays at 10 A. M., are surveying briefly the essentials of Christian Belief and Practice. All those who are thinking of confirmation this year are asked to attend. Any other interested persons will be welcome, whether or not their minds are made up, and any additional persons desiring a little refresher course in Christian Faith may come.

Our guest preachers this week are our friends and neighbors the Rev. Dr. Joseph Fort Newton of St. Luke and the Epiphany who will preach March 15-19, and the Rev. James M. Collins, Superintendent of the City Mission who will preach on Saturday.

The Rector and his family have moved to 2814 Midvale Avenue, Germantown.

The Rector addressed the Baptist Ministers' Conference on March 1st on the subject of the Bible.

IDELLA HIGHAM

The Parish of St. Stephen's Church rejoices in the faithful Christians who have lived and worked in our fellowship. We remember them before God with gratitude. Nevertheless it is with with profound grief that we now add to their number Mrs. Idella W. Higham, Parish Visitor of St. Stephen's from 1928 to 1938, an inspiration to us all, whom we shall sorely miss. In her quiet way she was a power for good in our midst.

May God give her rest and may perpetual light shine upon her.

LENT

Lent provides us with an excellent opportunity for girding ourselves to meet the peculiar stresses of wartime. Few of us can go ahead these days with any confidence, save as we can believe that out of suffering can be born strength and from the travail of the nations can come some new equilibrium making for security and peace.

A philosophical mind, not given to theological doctrines has recently said, "The peculiar strength of the Christian Faith lies in its insistence upon holding up the very worst in life and finding through it the best." He had reference to the Cross of Christ, that fact and symbol of what the world can do to Goodness and Kindness and Spiritual Independence. The world may go on "toiling up new Calvaries ever" but it is Calvary that continues to epitomize the nature of the enemy and to express the abiding hope of mankind!

At its best, there is nothing "escapist" about the Christian Faith; rather, the determination, based upon belief in God to make adversity and misfortune the occasion for finding Him and relying upon Him, so that the things which we have failed to do of ourselves, may be done by the power of His might working in us.

It should be clear to us now that we cannot avoid suffering, in all probability a great deal of it. The only issue is what attitude to take in meeting it, what to do with it, what to hope from it. And this issue has to do primarily with God. He is the One who will determine our success or failure. Can we turn to Him in the spirit of the Master who sought His Will, and when He found it did not hesitate to expend Himself, in the confident belief that God would make use of His devotion?

To whom then will ye liken God? Or what likeness will ye compare unto Him? Have ye not known? Have ye not heard? Hath it not been told you from the beginning? Have ye not understood from the foundation of the earth? It is He that sitteth upon the circle of the earth; that stretcheth out the heavens as a curtain, and spreadeth them out as a tent to dwell in: That bringeth the princess to nothing; He maketh the judges of the earth as vanity. . . . But they that wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength, they shall mount up with wings as eagles, they shall run, and not be weary; and they shall walk and not faint. Have ye not known? Have ye not heard that the everlasting God, the Creator of the ends of the earth fainteth not, neither is weary? Praise Him, and magnify His holy Name for ever. Amen.

POSTLUDE

EVERY MEMBER of the Parish should appear on the list of Subscribers of St. Stephen's Church. No name should be overlooked or omitted. The poorest person can spare a few coins weekly.

The envelope system is a vital factor in our parish support. Ask for a package of envelopes today.

"I was part of that strange race of people, aptly described as spending their lives doing things they detest to make money they don't want to buy things they don't need to impress people they dislike." This sentence from Emile Gauvreau's "My Last Million Readers," the autobiography of a successful tabloid journalist, is not a bad text for a sermon on what is wrong with the world.

ALL YOUTH SERVICE

On Sunday, March 7th, the Youth Commission of the Department of Religious Education will sponsor a Pageant and Worship Service in St. Stephen's Church at 3.00 P. M.

"The World We Seek" will dramatize the role which Church Youth must take in this world crisis. Youth groups from All Saints, Crescentville, Christ and St. Michael's, Good Shepherd, Germantown; Grace, Mt. Airy; Holy Communion, St. Augustine, St. George and St. Mary's, Ardmore; and St. Paul's Chestnut Hill, will take part. Bishop Hart, Dr. Gateson, Dr. Bagnall and other prominent clergy will assist. Everyone in the diocese and their friends are most welcome.

EDUCATIONAL WEEK FOR THE BLIND

Miss Helen Mockett is receiving contributions of money for Episcopal Day, Monday, March 22nd, of the annual Educational Week for the Blind which is held in Gimbel Brothers Store, March 22nd to 27th. The change in custom from receiving donations of food is justified on the grounds of great difficulty in obtaining foods this year. Please give your contribution to Miss Mockett, or send them in to the Parish Office, designated "Blind Fund."

MOTHERS' MEETING

The program for the Mothers' Meeting for the next few weeks is as follows:

March 4—Music?
11—Mrs. Sanford—Prayer
18—Boy Scouts
25—Brigadier Ward of the Salvation Army
April 1—Dr. Percy Stockman
8—Miss K. Kennedy

RED CROSS MONTH

To continue its duties on a scale commensurate with needs, the Red Cross will conduct a nation-wide War Fund campaign in March, named Red Cross Month by President Roosevelt. The annual Roll Call was postponed from November to coincide with this campaign so that, excepting dire emergency, there will be but one Red Cross appeal during the year.

The goal is $125 million dollars and the quota for the Philadelphia area is four million dollars.

Mrs. Nellie Mearns, R.N., is the Chairman of this Parish and will be happy to receive all contributions.

BISHOP HART will visit this Parish on April 11th to administer the Apostolic Rite of Confirmation, which is the Historic way of admitting Christians into full fellowship with the Church. If you are an adult and have not yet been confirmed, don't you want to take your rightful place in the Christian Church in this community? Give your name to the Rector today.

Confirmation Instruction Class meets every Sunday at 10.00 A. M. in the Rector's study.

POSTLUDE

The Altar flowers are given by Mrs. Elsie M. Williams as a thanksgiving to commemorate the birthday of Lieut. William I. Taxis.

Your Rector preached at St. Matthew's Church, Francisville, on Wednesday last and at the Chapel of the Hard of Hearing on the evening of the Third Sunday in Lent.

CONFIRMATION

"And about the eleventh hour he went out, and found others standing idle, and saith unto them, Why stand ye here all the day idle?"

It is the eleventh hour in the preparation of this year's Confirmation Class. Yet it is not too late to take your place in the Kingdom of God. Christ calls us at all hours of the day into the Vineyard of our Father. This is the eleventh hour of this year. Dare you now to ignore that call? A week from Sunday, on April 11th, Bishop Hart will visit this Parish to perform the ceremony of admitting into full membership of the Church through the gateway of Confirmation those who are ready to ratify their Baptismal Vows and to enter into the privileges and obligations of Christ's Holy Church. Preparation for Confirmation is really not a matter of knowledge and information, but is rather a matter of the heart. Do you want to be a full-fledged citizen of the Kingdom? There are a good many adult persons connected with this Parish who have never been confirmed. Now is the accepted time to enter into full fellowship of the Church.

SUGGESTED LENTEN READING

"Forward—Day by Day." A small booklet of prayers and meditations for every day. Five cents.

"Forth." The official magazine of the Episcopal Church telling of missionary work at home and abroad. Special Lenten number, ten cents a copy.

"Which Way Ahead?" by Walter Russell Bowie. A thoughtful provocative book. The Presiding Bishop's suggested Lenten reading, $1.50.

"You are My Friends," by Frank Lanback. Recommended by the Rector as a simple, usable devotional book. Written simply and popularly, $1.50.

These suggested Lenten readings may be obtained or ordered at the literature table in the rear of the Church.

Most persons obey the Latin exhortation: "De moritus nil nisi bonum" (of the dead be nothing said but what is good). But, George Arnold observed, "The living need charity more than the dead."

St. Stephen's increased her missionary giving 50% this past year. Our missionary expectation was $3,000 and we gave $4,500.

St. Stephen's contributed $29.00 to the National Blind Week. We also wish to acknowledge with many thanks, the subscriptions for the Parish Bulletin sent in by the Misses Davis, Mrs. George R. Bishop and one anonymous one.

The Altar flowers are given by Mrs. David W. Wood and Miss Anne R. Daley in memory of Blanche V. Moore.

Our guest preacher this week is the Rt. Rev. Oliver J. Hart, Bishop Coadjutor of the Diocese of Pennsylvania.

THE ARMY AND NAVY COMMISSION

The Army and Navy Commission of our Church is appealing to parishes throughout the Church for supplemental funds to carry on their important work of helping our own chaplains in the armed forces to do their work; and to assist churches near the large camps and training stations to provide for worship and facilities to take care of soldiers and sailors in leave areas. They also furnish the Soldiers and Sailors Prayer Books, which have been found so very useful, and provide the small metal crosses which have been distributed to our men far and wide.

Sunday, March 28, has been designated as the time for this national offering; 40% of the goal of $50,000 which our Diocese hopes to raise will be used here in the Diocese and will support among other activities, the Center which is being housed in our Community House for the service men. Bishop Hart is the Chairman of our Diocesan Commission and our Parish representatives are Dr. Herbert Old, Mr. I. Smith Raspin and Mrs. James H. Mearns.

Bishop Hart asks for a generous response in every parish to this important appeal.

FROM THE MEN IN THE SERVICE

The Rector receives numerous letters from St. Stephen's Church boys in the armed forces. You may be interested in certain portions of them. Staying at home may seem pretty hum-drum to some of us who would like to be in the field with the men, but a word from that same home means so much more to them when they are away.

One man, writing at 10.30 P. M. says "Today, I received a copy of the Church Bulletin, and was more than pleased to receive it, so just couldn't wait until tomorrow to write and thank you."

Another writes: "It was very kind of you to send me those copies of the Bulletin. Thanks a lot. Even though I can't get to it so often now, I'm still very interested in the church and read about it whenever I can. So far, all my religious news has been coming from Time magazine."

"The last time I was in St. Stephen's Church and saw my name on the Honor Roll, I felt pretty good, believe me! . . . I'll always remember those inspiring services at St. Stephen's Church. I truthfully get as much comfort going to church as when I go home to see the folks."

Still another says: "I will surely cherish the cross and prayer book which arrived last Friday. The cross I have attached to my dog tags which we always wear and it will serve as an added reminder of the happy years I spent at St. Stephen's with my grandfather."

Yet another: "Thank you for sending the Church Bulletin. Things from home sort of help to keep in touch with things on the outside."

We can all help by writing to the men and by letting them know from time to time that we are thinking of them and praying for them. These men are deeply religious. One man who has been under fire writes: "I am more than willing to play my part in this war. I still think that if people went to Church more often, and with the idea that there is more to it than fulfilling a duty, that we wouldn't be in this war today. I am sure that the Church is doing a lot of good in the guidance and morale of the soldiers in the front lines. Maybe this war will bring people back to their equilibrium. We live and learn the hard way."

The U. S. O. and other agencies are doing a fine job for the men. One who had been sick in the hospital for a few weeks wrote how much they had done for him. They had called on him again and again, and offered to help him in any way. But nothing takes the place of the home touch. The Rector spent five months in army hospitals in France. He received one call from one Y. M. C. A. secretary; as far as he was concerned there were no chaplains at all, but the letters from home did the trick. Our chaplains are very helpful in this struggle, but we all have a responsibility and can do more because the boys know us better.

We extend our heartfelt sympathy to Mrs. George Nevinger in the passing of her mother, Mrs. Helen Alexander.

Red Cross subscriptions totaling $307.00 have been received by Mrs. Nellie Mearns who is the Chairman of our parish appeal. Mrs. Mearns will be happy to receive all contributions and see that the appropriate receipts are sent in return.

We have received about $25.00 from the parish for the National Blind Week. Many thanks!

ANTHEM—"Turn Back, O Man" ..... Holst

Turn back, O Man, forswear thy foolish ways. Old now is Earth, and none may count her days, Yet thou, her child, whose head is crowned with flame, Still wilt not hear thine inner God proclaim, "Turn back, O Man, forswear thy foolish ways!" Earth might be fair and all men glad and wise, Age after age their tragic empires rise. Built while they dream, and in that dreaming weep. Would man but wake from out his haunted sleep. Earth shall be fair, and all her people one, Nor till that hour shall God's whole will be done. Now, even now, once more from earth to sky Peals forth in joy man's old undaunted cry, "Earth shall be fair, and all her folk be one!"

POSTLUDE

The Altar flowers are given by Mrs. Thomas Ross in memory of Anne M. Earle.

Our guest preacher this week is the Very Rev. Kirk B. O'Ferrall, Dean of St. Paul's Cathedral, Detroit. The Saturday service will be conducted by the Rev. Stanley R. West, Rector of Calvary Church, Conshohocken.

The Rector preached at the Church of the Good Shepherd, Scranton, on Sunday evening, March 14, and at St. Philip's Church, Brooklyn, on Wednesday evening, March 17.

On March 22 will begin Philadelphia's Sixteenth Annual Educational Week for the Blind in the Auditorium of Gimbel Brothers Store. You are cordially invited to attend as often as possible. As we mentioned in this bulletin on February 28, Miss Helen Mockett will receive contributions for Episcopal Day which is Monday, March 22; or you may send your check to the Parish Office, labelled "Blind Fund."

OUR ECONOMIC AUTHORITY

The Decalogue, given to people living in a relatively simple civilization, offered largely a system of private morals. The things which were forbidden for the most part were phrased in such a way as to seem concerned almost exclusively with the relationship of individuals—of one person with one person.

For years it has been assumed that the principles set forth by Jesus, while deeper in spirit, were not broader in scope.

Apparently it never occurred to economists, among others, to seek the very foundations of a science of man's material well-being in the words of the Gospel. Had they done so, the world would have been spared a vast amount of failure and misery. That in reality selfishness, which is an antithesis of Christianity, has been the keystone of many an arch of economic theory is shown by two widely accepted theories and one prevalent practice.

The classic theory of economics for our age has been laissez faire, which in the words of its formulator, Adam Smith naively proclaims, "that the individual in the pursuit of his selfish ends will be led as by an invisible hand to work the common good." Quite the reverse of the word of Christ, who said, to paraphrase into corresponding terms, "Seek ye first the common good and material well-being will be added unto you."

Again, it is commonly accepted that the thing that makes the wheels of material well-being turn is the profit motive—self advantage. It does sound a bit ridiculous when one analyzes the tremendous dynamic behind the Russian resistance at Stalingrad, or behind the Chinese perseverance—or, to put it in terms of the individual, the motivation of a Colin Kelly or a little Jewish lad named Epstein, who saved the lives of three of his fellow soldiers at the deliberate cost of his own. Mercenary troops have scarcely been heard of since the days of the Hessians.

Or take the question of Argentine Beef. Its exclusion is the violation of a venerable economic law, that of "supply and demand." The demand is here and the supply is in Argentina; but the organized self-interest of a relatively small group has been influential enough to suspend the law of supply and demand.

Some day the world will discover that Jesus is its leading economic authority!

1143 people attended our Ash Wednesday noon-day service. This is a record!

More subscriptions for the Bulletin have come in. We are very grateful and extend our thanks to Mrs. E. J. Cooke, Mrs. J. M. Johnson and Mrs. J. B. Mearns.

The King's Daughters have contributed $10.00 toward the Community House Indebtedness. Many thanks!

We are grateful to Mr. Howard Newman for a beautiful etching of the Reredos which we will reproduce for our Altar Flower chart in the near future.

"Breathe on Me, Breath of God".....Barnes-Matthews

Breathe on me, breath of God,
Fill me with life anew,
That I may love what Thou didst love,
And do what Thou wouldst do.

Breathe on me, breath of God,
Until my heart is pure,
Until with Thee I will one will.
To do or to endure.

Breathe on me, breath of God,
Till I am wholly Thine,
Till all this earthly part of me
Glows with Thy fire divine:

Breathe on me, breath of God,
So shall I never die,
But live with Thee the perfect life
Of Thine eternity. Amen.

THE RECTOR'S PARAGRAPH

Spring has come into our world of brute facts. Not all brute facts are brutal. Some are. Fate has its bludgeonings that none of us entirely escape. There are scars upon all our spirits. They are not all our fault, either. We are caught in a net of circumstance that sometimes trips us in spite of ourselves. Nevertheless, Spring does come. I heard the liquid brilliance of a thrush's voice out of a thicket near the rectory just the other day. The tides of life are surging back. No matter how severe the testing life has reserves enough to meet it if we hold steady. There is the miracle of the bud on the limb that was frozen a month ago and there is the miracle of serenity in the heart that was despairing yesterday. God is not sleeping or on a far journey. He is continually within us creating new power for new emergencies. "I will encamp about mine house . . . and no oppressor shall pass through them any more: For now I have seen with mine eyes. Rejoice greatly, O Zion; shout, O daughter of Jerusalem: Behold thy King cometh unto thee."

We acknowledge with grateful appreciation the following paid subscriptions to the weekly Bulletin: Mr. and Mrs. Geol A. McKenna, Miss Mabel Boisnot.

The Service Men's Club of St. Stephen's Church was officially opened on Wednesday, April 14th.

THE EASTER OFFERING

In these difficult times we have come to count a great deal on your generosity at Easter. I hope you will make your offering just as large as you can, realizing that while no material is adequate to express what the Day means to us spiritually, no parish can carry on its work without sufficient financial support.

COMMUNION FOR SHUT-INS

The Rector will be glad to make appointments for private services during the Easter season for any who are ill or shut-in. Please do not hesitate to call upon him. The service for the Communion of the Sick is not intended for the dying only, but to give strength and comfort to all who are ill.

PALM SUNDAY

"If these should hold their peace, the stones would immediately cry out."

Jesus is riding into Jerusalem to make his claim, and to face his enemies, and suffer his inevitable death, which as he well knows, is only a few days distant. Yet he is strangely happy, uplifted, overjoyed. His heart is full of song and the shouts of his followers simply echo that song. "Blessed is the King that cometh in the name of the Lord: peace in heaven, and glory in the highest." And some of the Pharisees from the multitude said unto him, "Teacher, rebuke thy disciples," and Jesus replied, "I tell you, if these shall hold their peace, the stones will cry out." Yes, if these should hold their peace all nature would sing to him; the very stones would cry out. For he has chosen duty over safety, the fatal right over the comfortable wrong. And he is learning that such a choice brings immediate compensations—a heart full of exultation, a sense of inward well-being, a consciousness of being true to self and therefore true to God.

If we look upon him with pity, it does us no credit. If we look upon him with wonder, we ought to feel shame. Envy is the only graceful emotion we can feel, because envy indicates the ability in us to understand, and in the truest sense to sympathize. The conditions of modern life are making that envy more and more difficult, and it is precisely at that spot that his teachings and example press upon us with deepest penetration and sharpest cutting edge.

HOLY WEEK

This Sunday, Palm Sunday, we mark the beginning of our commemoration of the Holy Week of our Lord's life, leading to His Crucifixion. To members of the ancient, historic churches it is the most impressive period of the Christian year, and it is coming to be observed more and more by the Protestant Denominations as well. This is as it should be, for without earnest reflection upon the dramatic events of this week the Christian life loses much of its significance.

Our preacher at the Noon-day services from Monday through Thursday will be the Very Rev. Frederick Adams, Dean of Trinity Cathedral in Trenton, New Jersey.

On Maundy Thursday, in addition to the usual Noon-day service, the Holy Communion will be celebrated at 1.00 P. M., 5.15 and 8.00. The Mothers' Meeting will make a Corporate Communion at this service, at which the full choir will sing, and the Rector preach.

On Good Friday there will be a service of Morning Prayer, with Sermon at 10.30 A. M. Bishop Taitt will preach at the Noon-day service, and will give meditations on the Cross from two to three. "Stainer's Crucifixion" will be sung at 1.00 P. M. under the direction of Dr. Matthews. The soloists will be George Lapham, Tenor, and Robert Grooters, Baritone. We believe that the Church has a responsibility to present from time to time the great creations of religious music, and we commend these services to you and your friends.

ANTHEM—"The Strife is O'er".....Thiman

The strife is o'er, the battle done,
The vict'ry over death is won:
The song of triumph has begun.
Alleluia!

He brake the age-bound chains of hell,
The bars from heavn's high portals fell,
Let hymns of praise His triumph tell.
Alleluia!

The powers of death have done their worst,
But Christ their legions hath dispersed;
Let shouts of holy joy outburst.
Alleluia!

Lord, by the stripes which wounded Thee,
From death's dread sting Thy servants free,
That we may live, and sing to Thee.
Alleluia! Amen.

ANTHEM—"By Early Morning Light".....Traditional

By early morning light,
Ere yet the day was bright,
Three women came to seek their Lord;
But what their joy to hear
The angel's message clear:
Fear not,
For Christ the Lord is risen!

They saw upon the tomb,
Dispelling all its gloom,
An angel fair in raiment white.
To them the angel said:
Mourn not your Lord as dead,
Fear not,
For Christ the Lord is risen!

Shine forth, Oh glorious ray,
O'er all the world today!
The Lord is risen!
He lives on high!
Joy bring to those that mourn,
Hope to the sorrow-worn,
Fear not,
For Christ the Lord is risen!

THE RECTOR'S EASTER GREETING

My Beloved People of St. Stephen's:

The immortal message of Easter is the indestructibility of the spiritual, and of the soul of man. This is the thing that Easter reiterates to us. It is the glorious thing that the life of Christ is always proclaiming to man, and Easter is the day that man has set aside to declare these glad tidings to the world. Easter is the warmth of Spring bringing new life out of the seemingly dead earth. Easter is the assurance that death has no permanency; it is life that is permanent.

Then why are we troubled? Because most of us will admit that we love mortality as well as life. We loved the eyes, the face, the body of our loved lost ones, as well as the spirit that animated the mortal life. It is a stern fact to face that our love for all mortal things is a love for the treasures of this earth. However, the love-lit eye, the friendly hand, the cozy home, the cherished books are treasures of heaven as well as treasures of earth.

Life is a paradox between being fed and being weaned; between getting established and preparing for change; between holding and letting go the things we love. It is in this experience that we are caught between the joy of new experience and the pang of losing the familiar.

There can be no Easter without Calvary. There can be no life without death. But the end of all is life, not death—for death is the promise of life.

My Easter prayer for you is that the sorrowing may be comforted, and the bereaved learn that over their beloved death has no more dominion; that I may meet you at His Altar and partake of His Resurrected Life, in the Sacrament of Holy Communion and may God bless you, and fill you with joy and peace in believing.

Affectionately and faithfully, your Rector,

ALFRED W. PRICE

EASTER OFFERING

If we are truly grateful for the Blessed Resurrection, we will want to present an offering of Thanksgiving and gratitude to God and His Church on Easter Day, even as we are able and the spirit directs us. For this purpose use the enclosed envelope.

✠

COMMUNION FOR SHUT-INS

The Rector will be glad to make appointments for private services during the Easter season for any who are ill or shut-in. Please do not hesitate to call upon him. The service for the Communion of the Sick is not intended for the dying only, but to give strength and comfort to all who are ill.

The Church School Mite Box proceeds amounted to $200. Considering the limitations this year on benefits usually engaged in to augment the fund, the pupils in our Church School did very well.

A Card Party and Auction Sale will be given by the Board of Managers and Auxiliary of the House of Rest for the Aged at the Philadelphia Cricket Club on Wednesday, May 26th, at two o'clock.

Mrs. William Clarke Mason's gardens will be open to the guests of the Card Party. Tables are $4.40 and single tickets are $1.10. Please send and make checks payable to Mrs. Philip E. Ronzone, 423 E. Montana Street, Germantown.

The Cricket Club is on Willow Grove Avenue west of St. Martins Lane Station.

ANONYMOUS LETTERS

Occasionally the writer, in his capacity as rector of a busy parish, receives anonymous letters. These usually go into the wastebasket where they deserve to go. But within the past year two letters have come, each signed by someone who claims membership in St. Stephen's Church. These the Rector takes notice of in these columns because he is a pastor and is concerned with the souls of the misguided persons who wrote these letters.

The first letter was a mean, malicious one, warning against the giving of aid to a family which had been very thoroughly investigated by several agencies and found to be really in need of assistance. The writer of that letter, if actually a member of the Parish, should have been man or woman enough to come forward and give information that he believed would have prevented the Parish from being defrauded. The natural conclusion to be drawn was that spite or jealousy lay at the root. God has two commandments covering such conduct, the ninth and the tenth.

The second letter was not malicious; in fact, it was just the opposite. It told the Rector of a family which the writer believed was in need of food. The person's motive in this case was commendable. But why should anybody be afraid to tell the Rector of someone's need? Is that anything to be ashamed of? The Rector likes to know of people who think of others. But the furtive way in which this was done casts suspicion on the family named in the letter. One immediately wonders if they took this indirect way of asking for food themselves. Did the writer of the letter think of that? He really did them no good turn at all.

All of us respect people who are willing to stand by their convictions. Jesus Christ never concealed his but "spoke right out in meeting." No one need be afraid to approach any minister of Christ's religion with any matter at all. There is no safer place to deposit a secret. There is nobody who will listen with more sympathy. Anonymous letters are either a sign of weakness or of wickedness.

What courage these Chinese children have who learn the English language. The little daughter of the blind organist in Anking writes a note of acknowledgment:

> I am very thank you. I answer the letter so late, because my father wants me to learn to write letter you. I have no much English, it is very hard for me. But, my father decided to want me to do this. So, I write the letter now. It must has wrong words in the letter. Please excuse me. I have no forget you often. How is about your health? Please pray for me, hope Lord to give me clever.

ANNUAL MEETING

The Annual Meeting of the Parish of St. Stephen's Church will be held on Wednesday evening, May 19, at 8.00 P. M. in the Parish House. The Elections to the Vestry and the reports of our parish organizations will be the order of the evening.

In the Office of Instruction in the Prayer Book, we are told that "it is the bounden duty of every Christian to work and pray and give for the spread of His Kingdom." The brief annual reports of the many organizations of our parish are presented at this annual meeting that you may see to what extent we have been faithful to that command. Very few of our members are aware of all the work being done in St. Stephen's and we therefore urge you to attend this meeting that you may have a better understanding of what the Church, your Church is doing.

A piano is needed for practice purposes at the Burd School. Any one in the Parish who has one which they would like to donate, will find that the gift will be greatly appreciated!

Thirty-nine women took part in the ingathering of the United Thank Offering which brought our Spring Offering to $109.53.

PARISH MEETING

On Wednesday, May nineteenth, in the Parish House, the following will give brief reports on

"WHAT OUR CHURCH IS DOING"

I. Smith Raspin, Esq., Accounting Warden
Miss Marion Headman, Treasurer
Mr. J. Lewis Armstrong, Noon-Day Services
Mrs. William H. Hollar, Woman's Auxiliary
Mrs. Philip Schwarz, United Thank Offering
Mrs. John C. Knox, House of Rest for the Aged

Mr. Frederick Schmid, Jr., Chairman, Christmas Basket Committee
Mr. John Adams, the Wednesday Night Club
Mr. Harold H. Mortensen, Scoutmaster
Mrs. James H. Mearns, R.N., Parish Visitor

Let us make this a great Parish gathering to promote fellowship, co-operation and enthusiasm in God's greatest work on earth—the Christian Church.

There will be an annual election to the Vestry, and matters pertaining to the future of our Church will be discussed.

The Time—8.00 P. M. The Place—The Parish House.

FAMILY DAY COMMUNION

The opportunity to worship God as a family group is a privilege which should be especially valued in times like these. The Church teaches us to say, "I believe in the communion of saints." Saints are those who are called of God to serve Him. We are saints—some good, some indifferent, some of us very poor specimens indeed, but still saints by reason of our Baptism into the Body of Christ, which is the Church.

The Church Militant—those of us who are fighting God's cause here on earth, and the Church Expectant—those who have gone on before us, are united in the communion of saints.

When we worship God in the Holy Communion, we are able to pray for those absent ones whom we love and can say with conviction that "both they and we, drawing nearer to thee, are bound together by thy love in the communion of thy Holy Spirit and in the fellowship of thy saints."

All of us have some one who is now absent from us. On the Sunday assigned or which you chose for your Family Day Communion, you and they are knit together in God's sight—you know that this is so, you have God's word for it. Therefore, when you are invited to come to St. Stephen's, you are assured that you and your family and all who are dear to you are once more together even though only you are visibly present at the Altar rail.

POSTLUDE

The Altar flowers are given by Mrs. Grace Armstrong in loving memory of James Fisher Armstrong.

The congregation is asked to rise on the first note of Canticles and Hymns.

We received $50.00 from the Mothers' Meeting; half of it is for the Diocesan War Commission, and half for St. Stephen's Service Club, and we acknowledge our grateful thanks for this generous gift. We are also most grateful to all who have subscribed to the Parish Bulletin. New names come in from time to time, accompanied with their dollar. Among those to whom we have not yet said "thank you" are Mrs. Frederick Schmid, Lieut. Mildred G. Brown, Miss Alice Coe and Mr. Paul Downward. We are encouraged by your response and interest!

BLUE BOX

"Thank goodness for my slippers," exclaimed a foot-sore shopper as she came back to her home. "I am thankful to say that I've not had a cold this winter!" "Aren't you thankful that you live in America when you read about the bombings and bitter persecutions and massacres in Europe and China!" "Thanks be, my boy has passed his examinations." Gratitude is a basic virtue, and so this morning the women of our Parish are presenting something of their "Thank you's" which they have from time to time, through the medium of a coin here and there, dropped into their blue boxes. Others in the congregation this morning are given the opportunity of making a thank offering in special envelopes which will be found in the pews. Additional offerings may be sent to the Parish Custodian of the United Thank Offering, Mrs. Philip Schwarz, 6313 Magnolia Avenue, Germantown.

This offering, together with the thank offering of thousands of other women, will be presented at the next General Convention. The thank offering from this Parish collected through the past three years amounted to $984.66 and the offering of our whole Diocese amounted to $79,287.69, while the United Thank Offering presented at the General Convention in 1940 from the women of our whole Church amounted to $974,089.70. Surely there is a good deal of thankfulness expressed in nearly a million dollars.

LET YOUR PASTOR KNOW

Mrs. Huff is up the Miff Tree
On a seat fixed good and firm;
And she'd like to tell the Rector
A few things and make him squirm.

Mrs. Huff was sick abed, sir,
Yes, sir, sick abed a week.
And the Rector didn't call, sir,
Never even took a peek.

Wasn't that enough, enough, sir,
To provoke a Saint to wrath?
And to make a Christian Pilgrim
Wander from the Churchly path?

When I asked her if the doctor
Called to see her, she said "Sure,"
And she looked as if she thought I
Needed some good strong mind cure.

Then I asked her how the Doctor
Knew that sickness laid her low,
And she said that she had called him
On the 'phone and told him so.

So the Doctor called to see her,
But the Rector didn't go,
For the Doctor knew that she was ill
And the Rector didn't know.

Now the Doctor gets his bill paid
With a nicely written check,
But the Rector, for not knowing,
Simply gets it in the neck.

RETROSPECT

We have just had another glorious Easter in St. Stephen's Church, the memory of which will cheer us for a long time to come. Many have said, as many do after Easter each year, that it was the best Easter we have had. I am glad they feel that way because Easter ought to be so refreshing that it seems to have brought a new kind of joy.

I wish all of you could be the rector of a congregation, or a member of the choir, or server at the Altar, for then, you could know a different kind of joy, that of seeing a church full of people. I know that you who sit in the pews are always glad to see a full church, but you can never feel quite the same as those of us who put a great deal of time, thought and preparatory work each week into trying to make our services means by which everyone who comes to church may be helped to worship God "in spirit and in truth."

I am very grateful to you all for making our Lent and Easter so fruitful this year. I am sure that you all feel the new life that is stirring in the Parish, and that you have confidence that we are going on to greater achievements. I should like particularly to thank Miss Thackara and the Altar Guild, who with Mr. Carrigan made the church so beautiful for Easter, and Dr. Matthews and the Choir for their heavenly music. With such a spirit of unselfish devotion at work we can hope to make every Sunday the Easter that it should be, and every day a day lived for God.

Our heartfelt congratulations are extended to the Hon. Mr. and Mrs. Roland Morris who celebrated their Fortieth Wedding Anniversary on April 20th with a service of Holy Communion in the Church.

DONORS OF MEMORIAL FLOWERS IN APRIL

April 4—Mrs. Elsie M. Williams, in thanksgiving for the birthday of Lieut. Wilbur I. Taxis.
April 11—Mrs. William Dickhart.
April 18—Palms were given by the Mothers' Meeting.
April 22—Mrs. Otis E. Taylor, in memory of men who fell in battle in World War I.
April 25—The Altar Guild.

The Altar flowers are at the disposal of the Rector for distribution among the sick.

BURIALS

"The golden evening brightens in the west,
Soon, soon to faithful warriors cometh rest,
Sweet is the calm of Paradise, the blest. Alleluia."
April 24—Janet MacAllister.

Our deep sympathy is extended to the sisters of Miss Janet MacAllister, who passed to her reward on April 21st. May God rest her soul in peace!

Elizabeth Mearns, R.N., daughter of Mrs. James H. Mearns, has enlisted as an Army Nurse and has been sent to El Paso, Texas. Congratulations!

The etching of part of our Reredos used on the Altar Flower Chart and published on the outside page of the Easter program was made by Mr. H. B. Newman. Copies of Mr. Newman's complete etching of the Chancel and Reredos are still available at a modest cost.

One of the most important responsibilities in connection with the Service Club is the work of the House Committee. This Committee which is made up of St. Stephen's women has been most efficient in the performance of their duties. The Committee consists of Mrs. Craig Atmore, Mrs. I. Smith Raspin, Miss Mary Swift, Mrs. Evan Hume, the Misses Daley and Miss Marjorie Robertson.

NOON-DAY LENTEN SERVICES

19,439 attended the noonday services this year, as compared to 13,606 in 1942. Last year 7727 people attended the Theatre Services. Therefore the combining of the Brotherhood Theatre Services with St. Stephen's Church Services has proved mutually satisfactory.

The Rector would like particularly to thank the following ushers who gave such devoted services throughout the season: Messrs. Agnew, Boyer, Brooks, Carrigan, Conradi, Dashiell, Granger, Matthews, Miller, Newcomer, Paist, Streaker, Warner and Winter.

The Altar flowers are given by Mrs. James H. Mearns in memory of Lauretta M. Cunard.

Mr. Lewis Armstrong, at a considerable expense, has converted our two moving picture projectors in the Community House to sound film projectors. These projectors will now make possible the use of the regular 35 mm films. The Service Club will have the exclusive use of this equipment during the war emergency. Our parish organizations will find this equipment very useful after the war in their programs. A regular screen has also been provided by Mr. Armstrong. Many thanks!

THE CHILDREN'S COUNTRY WEEK ASSOCIATION has allotted a number of places for St. Stephen's Church, to mothers and children who will spend some time during the summer at the Association camps. If you are making a contribution to this worthy object, will you please state in your letter that you would like it to appear as coming through St. Stephen's. All such contributions improve our standing with the Country Week Association and often enable us to send more mothers and children away for a summer vacation.

CHRISTIAN UNITY

Human nature has a consistent way of reverencing ideals in the abstract and of being indifferent to them in the concrete.

The basic reason is, of course, obvious. Obligation to a professed ideal can be discharged with words alone, as long as that ideal is kept abstract. When it becomes concrete, effort is demanded.

Another reason lies in the fact that when an ideal takes form, details and personalities enter into the picture. People subconsciously looking for escape from responsibility can seem to themselves to remain loyal to the ideal by justifying a failure to put forth effort on the ground of disagreement as to detail or exception as to personalities.

We all know the man who professes devoted belief in God but is unconcerned about the Church.

We also know the person who professes belief in the Church but can't stand the music or doesn't like the minister.

But let us look at an ideal which is inescapable if we believe in God and in the Christ. That is the ideal of Christian brotherhood, of Christian unity. We preach about it and we pray for it. We proclaim it as an essential doctrine of faith when we confess to believe in the "Holy Catholic Church" and the "Communion of Saints."

But let the attempt be made to give that ideal reality— embodiment—form—expression—organization, and how many of us have sufficient grace continually to discharge our obligation to it, in spite of our objection to detail and our dislike of personality?

The new Forward Day by Day is now on sale in the vestibule of the church. The current issue is a double one, and runs from Trinity Sunday, June 20 to October 2, the close of this longest season in the Church Year.

The keynote of this Forward is concern with problems which confront our society and may be summed up by a paraphrase on a quotation from the great Frenchman, Charles Peguy . . . "He who prays for a better America (and a better world) and will not work for it, is ill-bred."

In the back pages is a "Statement of Christian Belief" by the Archbishop of Canterbury and the Moderator of the English Free Church Council. No one should miss this pertinent exposition which lays its stress upon our seeking for the Kingdom of God as a means for solving the vexing question of "Unity".

There are a number of new prayers appended; especially valuable are those on page 121 for our men in the major branches of our country's service. Many of the prayers are so short that they may be memorized and used in those moments of private devotion which give to each of us that needed "lift" to help us through the strenuous, anxious days we all must face in times like these.

USE your Forward . . . day by day!

Mr. John W. Reinhardt has been appointed by the Rector as Superintendent of the Church School. Congratulations!!

PRAYER IN SUMMER

I hope that I may never grow too old
To hear frail music when the leaves unfold,
To see as dancing elves with silvery feet
The raindrops pattering down the mirror-street,
To watch in every bluebird's sudden flight
A rhythmic rainbow showering delight!

TRINITY SUNDAY

Trinity Sunday marks the climax of the life and teaching of our Lord Jesus Christ, the last of the five great festivals of the Christian Year. This is also the season when many are being ordained to the Sacred Ministry. Let us remember these men in our prayers that God's richest blessing may be upon them and all who are serving in the Ministry, for the quality and devotion of the leadership of the Church is vital to its continued and increasing usefulness. This is peculiarly true today when the whole cause of Christ faces more implacable cruel and powerful foes than possibly ever before in its long life.

RECTOR'S FIFTEENTH ANNIVERSARY

Sunday, June 20, the Rector will observe the fifteenth anniversary of his ordination. He is asking the people of the Parish to join with him in celebrating that occasion by making it "Family Sunday"; that is, that all the families of the Parish will attend Church at one of the services, preferably the eleven o'clock service, having as many members of the family present as possible and sitting together as families.

He chooses this method of celebration, because of a deep conviction, growing out of the experience of these fifteen years, of the fundamental importance of family life. The lasting influences of life are, for the most part, those which we receive in our homes and from our parents. Many influences today tend to weaken family ties; the Church should do everything in her power to strengthen them. The Holy Spirit is the only power in the world today able to resist the disintegrating influences and to stimulate the love and devotion which will unite families for time and eternity.

The Rector hopes that many of the people of the Parish will gather in Church by families that day and make this a memorable and inspiring occasion.

The Rector is to preach at the Anniversary Service of the Priory and St. Luke's Hospice on June 20 at 3.00 P. M. at the Church of the Good Shepherd, Collins and East Cumberland Streets.

At the annual State meeting of the Military Order of the Purple Heart held in Williamsport, Pennsylvania, on June 13, the Rector was elected Department Chaplain.

WHITSUNDAY

Today is Whitsunday, the festival of the Holy Spirit, when we celebrate the coming of the Holy Spirit into the lives of the Apostles, after which they went forth to establish the Christian Church throughout "Judea, Samaria, Galilee and unto the uttermost part of the earth." It also marks the fulfillment of Christ's promise to send His disciples the Comforter, who would guide them unto all truth and give them abiding peace.

Whitsunday or Pentecost should quicken us in our zeal to lead other people into the Christian life. Without this conception of our task our own Christian life becomes shallow and meaningless. A Church without this normal evangelistic spirit becomes lifeless and dead, for it has missed the purpose of its high calling. It is difficult for an individual or a Church to be Christian without combining Christian character and Christian service. Evangelism produces both. You cannot have one without the other. They go hand in hand.

BRITISH MISSIONS

For the third successive year we are offered the privilege of extending a helping hand to British Missions. As a mark of our admiration for the courage and determination with which the people of the British Empire have carried on in spite of bombing, death and destruction, we are again appealing to our people to give a generous offering to assist the various missionary societies of the Church of England to carry on their world-wide work. Whitsunday, June 13, is the date fixed upon in the Diocese of Pennsylvania for receiving these offerings.

Miss Mary A. Townsend, of the Philadelphia Council of Defense and Army Intelligence, will bring a brief message of vital concern to the members of our congregation on Sunday morning, June 13, at 11 o'clock.

Two hundred Protestant clergymen of Philadelphia held a conference on evangelism in our Church on Ascension Day.

One of our boys in service writes and offers to following suggestion: "Tell people that one kind thing they can do is to put in with their letters some Victrola needles—they're priceless here."

The congregation is cordially invited to attend the Baptism of Jean Van Dyke Price on Sunday morning, June 20, at the 11 o'clock service.

CAST YOUR CARE UPON HIM

Occasionally a friend says to me, "I don't see how you ministers find something to talk about every week. I could never be a minister." The standard reply to that is that everything that comes under our notice is grist for the mill. But it is nevertheless true that times come when a man gets fed up on modern problems. He does feel as if he had said all that can possibly be said. His mind is empty. What does he do then?

I'll let you in on a secret, and tell you what I do. I turn to the Psalms, which is just another way of saying that I turn to God in worship and prayer. There is no other possible source of spiritual refreshment than God himself. The Psalmist turned continually to God when life seemed most difficult.

So this morning I just naturally opened the Psalter and found this text: "Lord, I am not high-minded; I have no proud looks. I do not exercise myself in great matters which are too high for me," Psalm 131: 1, 2. I think you will agree that it is refreshing. This poet was undoubtedly tired of wrestling with life's problems, and he decided that he would take a temporary rest from "great matters which are too high for me."

My friends, may I earnestly recommend this simple act to you whenever you are world-weary. Just throw off the load, and let God's strong arms carry it for a while. Let your soul bask in God's sunshine; let your courage grow from contact with His power; let your tired mind rest to the point where new ideas begin to spring up out of the wall of living water. Then you will rise from your knees with a grateful heart, and a new and prodigious strength, coupled with an astonishingly keen insight. You will go forth with eagerness to slay the dragons which surround you.

The Annual Church School Picnic will be held on Saturday, June 5, at Riverview Beach on the Wilson Line. Boat leaves 10 A. M. Reduced tickets for adults who care to come. We meet at foot of Chestnut Street at 9.30 sharp. All welcome.

The Indians' Hope Association invites you to join them on Wednesday, June 9, 1943, at the University Museum, 33rd and Spruce Streets, for a talk on American Indians, by Dr. Hallowell, at 2.00 P. M. The offering will be for a salary of a teacher at St. Mary's, Springfield, S. D.

William Dickhart, III, who recently graduated from Cornell University with a degree in Mechanical Engineering, is now a student in the Officer Training School at Fort Niagara, New York. Congratulations!

AFTER THE WAR, WHAT?

A young woman who works in a store where religious books are sold said to me recently that most of the new books had to do with the kind of world that is to be built after the war is over. We all know that people are very much concerned about this question, and they base their thinking on the assumption that the allies are going to win. I agree with them; but I replied to my friend that I did not see how we could plan the new world until we should know what we were going to have to work with when "peace" comes.

The problem of world reconstruction on sound lines will be met not by concrete plans drawn up at this time but rather by people who are so imbued with Christian principles that they will be able to make sound plans when the time comes. I beg of you not to look at the Church and say, "Tell us exactly what a Christian world ought to be like so that we can organize it after we have won the war." The Church cannot do it. But the Church can say, and does say, "Come to me and make the most of your opportunities to learn about God and His will for you, and you will be given a true vision of a better world." It is in worship of God that such visions come.

Peace, after all, is a kind of harmony which depends upon an even-handed justice. Injustice inevitably breeds discord and strife. It is a mistake to think that we can ever have lasting peace apart from righteousness and justice. To work for peace as an end in itself is futile. This is the mistake of all peace movements and peace organizations, which while they work and pray for peace, see not the true nature of the disease. War is the fever of a social body frought with injustice. All our efforts then should be directed toward securing a remedy for unrighteousness and injustice. When such a remedy is found and applied peace will follow as day follows night. This is a law of social ethics, and it is scientifically true as any law. What kind of world shall we build after the war is over? The Gospel of Jesus Christ gives the answer, and it will be found only when the very best minds in the human race look for it there and apply it to what is left of the world when firing ceases.

ANTHEM—"O Brother Man" ..... Martin Shaw

O brother man! fold to thy heart thy brother;
Where pity dwells, the peace of God is there;
To worship rightly is to love each other
Each smile a hymn, each kindly deed a prayer.

Follow with reverent steps the great example
Of Him whose holy work was "doing good,"
So shall the wide earth seem our Father's temple,
Each loving life a psalm of gratitude.

Then shall all shackles fall; the stormy clangour
Of wild war music o'er the earth shall cease;
Love shall tread out the baleful fire of anger,
And in its ashes plant the tree of peace!

POSTLUDE

Bishop Taitt Memorial Service will be held in Holy Trinity Church Sunday, October 17th, at 8.00 P. M. The whole Diocese will gather to honor his great service, extending over sixty years. An offering will be presented that evening representing the thank offering of all our people and this offering will be gathered in all the parishes in the Diocese on Sunday, October 3. Special envelopes are herewith provided for this great offering. We hope all our people will take advantage of this opportunity to express appreciation for the life and work of Bishop Taitt, especially those who have been confirmed by him. The Memorial Gift should be ready before October 17, so that St. Stephen's may adequately express its appreciation at the great service at Trinity Church on the evening of October 17th. The gifts are to be used for the Endowment Fund of the Episcopate and will thus serve to carry on the work of the Bishops of Pennsylvania in the years ahead, a real continuation of the life of Bishop Taitt.

The Rector made the address at the Gold Star Mothers' Memorial Service at the National Cemetery on Sunday afternoon, September 26th.

The Anniversary Improvement Fund has reached the sum of $3,105.00. This reflects a generous response on the part of our parishioners and friends. There are some, perhaps, who feel that because they cannot pledge a large amount they do not want to give at all. This attitude is unfortunate. It is not what we give but that we give. Small gifts are welcome, because we want every one to have a share in this program. Send your gift today. We want your name to appear on the Honor Roll.

The Rector presided at an "Information Please" panel at the 73rd Annual Conference of the Department of Religious Education on September 27th.

He will not suffer thy foot to be moved; and he that keepeth thee will not sleep.
Behold, he that keepeth Israel shall neither slumber nor sleep.

SERMON—"The Opiates of Religion" ..... THE RECTOR

OFFERTORY HYMN 117 ..... C. Winfred Douglas

RECESSIONAL HYMN 247 ..... Dulce Carmen

The Altar flowers are given by Mr. Paul Downward in memory of Mrs. Rachel Hollingsworth Downward.

The congregation is requested to stand on the first chord of the Canticles and Hymns.

The current issue of Forth, our national missionary magazine, carries a two-page article with appropriate illustrations of St. Stephen's Service Club. Copies of this issue may be found on the literature table in the vestibule of the church.

St. Stephen's Service Club is launching a new service, i. e., Sunday night suppers. The cost per supper will be about $35.00. Our Church has contributed $50.00 to start off this worthwhile activity. Members of our congregation are asked to contribute to this fund.

THE WOMAN'S AUXILIARY

In 1871 the General Convention created the Woman's Auxiliary to the Board of Missions. In 1920 it was made the Auxiliary to the National Council and its services were enlarged to include religious education and social service as well as missions.

Each parish has a branch which co-operates with the diocesan branch. Delegates from the parish attend missionary and educational meetings at the Church House where the Diocesan Branch is held and report the proceedings at the parish meeting—thus trying to keep the members interested and informed.

Women cannot be interested in missions unless they know the need of missions and the way to meet that need. Speakers from the various fields are brought to the Church House almost every month and bring first hand word of the needs in the district from which they come. Gifts and service are stimulated by these contacts.

The Auxiliary should try to understand the problems which the Church faces in a modern world—internationalism, race, economic justice. It is pledged to work in the rural field and for the foreign born, and for the missions and Episcopal Institutions in the Diocese; to help obtain boxes through the Missionary Box Committee, for hospitals, schools and for missionary clergy. Through the United Thank Offering money is raised especially for the work of women in the missionary field.

All Church women should be members of the Auxiliary to help serve the Church. St. Stephen's Branch was organized by Dr. Grammer in December 1905. Miss Fanny Magee was its first President. When, after a few years, she resigned, Miss Laura Bell began a long and faithful service of thirty-one years.

Mrs. William H. Hollar succeeded Miss Bell and through her stimulating leadership St. Stephen's Branch is going forward with ever increasing effectiveness.

UNITED THANK OFFERING

One of the outstanding features of every General Convention is the presentation of the United Thank Offering of the women of the Church. The offering is an expression of gratitude for the many simple daily blessings of a great company of Church women, who once in three years lay upon the altar a token which is thereafter used in the service of women in this country and in other lands; women who have never before known the privileges possessed by the givers.

The Diocesan In-gathering Service is to be held in St. Stephen's Church on Tuesday at 8.00 P. M. Bishop Hart will be present to receive the offering, Dr. Nathaniel Groton will preach, Dean Shryock will read the lesson and your Rector will conduct the service. The goal for the Diocese of Pennsylvania is around eighty thousand dollars. The total offering to be presented at the General Convention which meets in Cleveland on October 2 will be about a million dollars. The women of St. Stephen's will have close to one thousand dollars for their three-year total.

*Samuel Coleridge-Taylor was the son of a full-blooded Negro physician of British West Africa and an English mother. His works are expressive and impassioned in style and in keeping with the musical idiom of his period. He was born in 1875 and lived in England, dying there in 1912. Coleridge-Taylor is famous for his cantata "Hiawatha" and many other choral and orchestral compositions.

This anthem, filled with the mental anguish of the Israelites in bondage under the Egyptians, is typical of the composer's work. It has been chosen with care to fit the general thought of the sermon as closely as possible. The words of the text are those of Psalm 137.

The Altar flowers are given by Mrs. Elsie Williams in memory of Peter Williams.

The Fall ingathering of the United Thank Offering will be received at the 11 o'clock service.

It is not too late to contribute to the Anniversary Improvement Fund.

Lieutenant and Mrs. James Wiley Christie, Jr. are to be congratulated on the birth of a son, James Wiley Christie, III, on August 21, 1943.

We regret that there was no mention of the death of Mrs. Nellie Drinkwater, who died on July 28th last. Our deepest sympathy to her family.

Church School reopens on Sunday, September 19th, at 9:40 A. M. and we hope to have every teacher and pupil present that we may have this one of the best years in the history of our school.

On Wednesday, September 22nd, a special meeting of all Church men and boys will be held in the Parish House of St. Stephen's Church. Addresses will be by Bishop Oliver J. Hart and Mr. Percival H. Granger, member of the Diocesan Executive Council. This meeting, in connection with the Brotherhood of St. Andrew, is for the purpose of co-operation with Bishop Tucker's Forward-in-Service Program. All the men and young men of the Diocese are invited to attend this inspirational gathering.

The Rt. Rev. Oliver James Hart, D.D., LL.D., S.T.D., will be enthroned as Bishop of Pennsylvania at a service held in the Cathedral Church of Christ at 11 A. M. on Tuesday, September 21st. The Clergy and laity of the Diocese are urged to attend. Car 61 on Ridge Avenue, or R. Bus taken at Hunting Park Avenue and Broad Street will transport you with minimum difficulty.

Bishop Hart will be the Celebrant and Dean Snowden will preach. The music will be led by a choir of clergy under the direction of Dean Caley.

CRITICAL MONTHS OF HISTORY

The war is at its crucial stage. The assault on Europe is at hand. It will be a terrible ordeal for flesh and blood—a supreme test of human courage. Its price will lay the burden of suffering upon many a body and the load of sorrow on many a home.

Remembering the darkness of July, 1918, followed so unexpectedly by November 11—for wars always end more suddenly than they begin—and at the same time attempting to assay the weakening of German strength and German morale, it is possible that Hitler will be through before another Armistice Day dawns.

Will we be prepared when the sudden ending comes for the task of making a just and durable peace? That is the supreme issue confronting us. And the Church could give assuring answer if it would, for the answer is set down in the Gospel of Christ. The law of Christ demands a world of brotherhood and a world of brotherhood must be a world of political co-operation, of economic justice and of racial fair dealing. Let us pray as we have never prayed during these next few months! Pray for the men who pay the fearful price with their bodies! Pray for the homes into which darkness will come! Pray for friend and foe alike! Pray for the nation and the world! Pray for the Church that it may rise in energy and in courage to minister the salvation of brotherhood!

THE THIRD WAR LOAN DRIVE

A letter from one of our parishioners, the Hon. Roland S. Morris, who is the Chairman of the War Finance Committee, asks that your Rector announce that the Third War Loan Drive is to begin on September 9th; Protestant, Catholic and Jewish clergy are being asked to be responsible for obtaining volunteers from their congregations who will be willing to solicit in their neighborhood, enabling the drive to contact every individual in the Philadelphia area.

The Treasury of the United States expects from Philadelphia approximately $490,048,700, a sum which is not a gift, but a loan to our government, and which is essential to the successful prosecution of the war. May we have your name an address if you are willing to become a solicitor in your neighborhood? The volunteers will later be asked to report to 12 South Twelfth Street for details concerning the drive.

REPAIRS AND IMPROVEMENTS

An extensive program of repairs has been in progress during the past six weeks and the interior of the Church is once more in excellent condition. The painters have restored the caen-stone finish of the walls and ceiling. The pews have been painted and numbered, and the worn carpet removed and the floor painted. New kneeling benches are being made.

The Tiffany Champville marble Reredos, Altar and Chancel have been cleaned and repaired. The three famous Parian marble statuary of the Burd Memorials have been repaired and cleaned. St. Gauden's masterpiece of the young daughter of Dr. S. Weir Mitchell, the busts of David D. Wood, Ludovic Cleeman and James Magee have been cleaned. In fact all the marble throughout the Church has been cleaned and pointed up.

Eight bronze and brass plaques including the large Rudder tablet have been refurbished and lacquered. The Altar Cross and the decorative silver mesh around the Altar Rail have been re-silvered and lacquered. Two of the South Windows have been repaired and twenty diamonds in the clear story windows have been replaced. All the windows have been thoroughly cleaned. The radiators on the East wall have been removed thus obviating future wall discoloration.

The rector's study and the office of the secretary have been painted. Extensive repairs have been made in the roof of the Church. Kitchen equipment has been installed on the second floor of the Parish House for the convenience of our parish organizations.

We have reason to be proud of our Church. St. Stephen's is not only a temple of worship, but is also a shrine of the most refined and spiritual beauty. That it may continue to minister ever more vitally to the spiritual needs of this great city is our earnest prayer.

ANNIVERSARY HONOR ROLL

The response to the request from the Vestry in July that we celebrate our 120th Anniversary by launching a program to paint and repair the interior of the Church has met with instant and generous response on the part of our parishioners. Fifty-four contributed and pledged the sum of $2,694.50. Feeling that there would be many more who would like to share in this celebration, the Vestry contracted for needed repairs to the sum of $5,000.

This program was launched on faith that the members and friends of St. Stephen's would respond to this practical way of marking an important mile-stone in the history of this Church. We need exactly $2,000 above what has already been received to pay for these needed repairs. However, what is more important we would like to see every parishioner's name as a donor on the Honor Roll which should be ready by the last Sunday in September.

No matter how modest your gift may be we want your name on that Honor Roll. The amount of the gift will not be recorded. Remember, it is not what you give, but that you give.

POSTLUDE

The Altar Flowers are given by Miss Susan C. Thackara in memory of Sarah E. C. Thackara.

Mr. Conrad Brooks, who has been an usher at our noonday services for forty-five years, celebrated his sixty-second wedding anniversary on August 30th. Hearty congratulations!

A SAILOR TO HIS MOM

I know that you are lonely,
But there is nothing I can do
Till this troubled world is peaceful
And I am home again with you.

I can't even send you flowers,
To express my love in part;
But a carload full of flowers
Couldn't ease an aching heart.

Now Mom, you keep on smiling,
And at times if you feel blue,
Remember other boys are fighting,
And their mothers miss them too.

So you mothers stick together,
Please don't worry about us men;
And before you even know it—
We'll be coming home again.

Theodore Adams and Pal,
U. S. Training Station, Sampson, N. Y.

Theodore was one of our flag bearers. Our other flag bearer, his elder brother John, is in the army.

THE UNITED THANK OFFERING

The Parish in-gathering for the U. T. O. will be held on Sunday, September 19th. The Diocesan in-gathering is to be held in St. Stephen's Church on Tuesday, September 28, at 8.00 P. M. Bishop Hart will be present to receive the offering, Dr. Nathanael Groton will preach, Dean Shryock will read the lesson and your Rector will conduct the service.

We are receiving the offering early this fall in order to have in this parish the full statistics and offering ready for General Convention which meets in Cleveland in October, beginning on Saturday, October 2.

You all know that twice a year the money in the blue boxes is gathered together and presented at the Altar. Every woman in the parish should be a member of this blessed and important project. The U. T. O. is one of the means of assuring salaries to teachers, doctors, nurses, social workers and others, and the fees for their training in work for the Church. The purpose of the U. T. O. is the spread of Christ's Kingdom at home and abroad. If you have a blue box, or an occasion for a thank-offering (and who has not!) please bring the contents in the little blue envelope enclosed with this leaflet, with your name on it, or send your gift to Mrs. Philip Schwarz, 6302 Magnolia Avenue, Germantown, treasurer of the U. T. O.

Tuesday, September 14, will be our Primary Election Day. Normally three out of four qualified voters fail to vote in our most important of all Elections—the Primaries. This neglect gives the politicians easy control of the Election which determines the candidates for office in the General Election.

While our boys are fighting the enemies of Democracy abroad, we at home will be guilty of helping to sabotage Democracy on the home-front unless we vote and vote intelligently in the Primaries and the General Elections.

This pulpit has no place in advocating any political party but it is determined to do all it can to help our Democracy to function; and, therefore, urges all qualified voters to vote on Tuesday, September 14th.

"JOIN THE BLUE STAR BRIGADE AND BACK YOUR MAN WITH WAR BONDS" urges the Treasury Department.

The Blue Star Brigade is the mobilization of the Women of Philadelphia to "Back the Attack" of their fighting men with War Bonds during the Third War Loan Drive—September 9 to 30. An award of honor will be given to each "Brigader" who sells or buys ten War Bonds, and Commissions will be awarded to "Brigaders" on the basis of the number of War Bonds sold beyond the $1000 individual quota. Become a Captain, with twenty Bonds to your credit—a Major with thirty, or a Major General by selling seventy-five Bonds!

You are cordially invited to attend the formal opening of Philadelphia's Third War Loan Drive on Wednesday, September 8 from twelve to one o'clock noon, in the U. S. O. Labor Plaza north of City Hall.

Our deepest sympathies go out to the Misses Daley and to Mrs. William H. Kern, Jr., their grandneice. Lieutenant Kern, who has been a prisoner of the Japanese for over a year has been reported dead—a merciful release.

The Church will be closed for repairs Monday, July 26 to Saturday, September 4.

THE CHRISTIAN CENTURY

The most momentous decision in history is looming before the American people. Upon that decision depends the course of the future, the happiness and the welfare of hundreds of millions of living human beings and of hundreds of millions as yet unborn.

If the United States will commit itself to a world co-operation—that co-operation can be brought into being.

If the United States refuses to commit itself, that co-operation cannot be achieved.

During the last twenty-five years, we have talked about all sorts of relatively superficial things which we called causes of war. We have not faced the basic elemental cause from which all others emerge. That basic cause is international anarchy—a world of completely independent, self-determining nations—each an absolute law unto itself.

Nowhere in the universe has it ever been evidenced that anarchy resulted in peace.

Always and everywhere it has been evidenced anarchy has led to friction and strife.

It is just as simple as this: Now in our time we must create a co-operative world of nations under law or face the assurance of a disaster vastly compounded a generation hence.

It ought not to be hard for Christian people to see this truth. Christ's law of co-operation, the Golden Rule is followed by dire warnings. Life has vindicated that rule and those warnings beyond a peradventure.

The real difficulty is this: Will we face the reality of Christ's law? Will we face the reality of this vast world tragedy of Total Global War? Will we overcome inertia and irresponsibility and act, each one of us?

Will we make this—not the American Century, God forbid and forgive the arrogance—but will we make this the Christian Century?

FRANCIS M. TAITT

Bishop Taitt has gone on ahead! But then Bishop Taitt was always out ahead—out ahead in his selfless devotion to the Christ—out ahead in his concern for those for whom He died—out ahead in his refusal to compromise the meanings of the Gospel to suit convenience or to surrender to opposition—out ahead in the thoroughness and in the courage with which he faced the varying circumstances of life, willing always, to trust the Master's way and the Master's truth. Yes, Francis M. Taitt was always out ahead. And because he walked so modestly in our midst, not judging but loving, each of us knows in his heart that we are farther along because he lived and in God's providence his life touched on ours.

What can the world produce to match Christian character? What answer to the mystery of life can equal that presented by Christian character? What hope have we except Christian character?

Francis M. Taitt has gone on because the Master had a purpose for him in the Kingdom beyond the West. We can not doubt that, nor can we cease to thank God for His ministry to us through him.

Let us commend to Almighty God the soul of His servant
FRANCIS M. TAITT

Almighty God, who hast given us the comforting assurance that Thou art present in every place to hear the prayers of such as love Thee, and to protect those for whom we pray; we commit our dear Bishop to Thy favor and care, that he may dwell with Thee in Thy glory, and that we may ever be faithful to his memory here on earth, and re-united in communion and fellowship in the life that is to come; through Jesus Christ our Lord, Amen.

In the Name of God the Father Almighty who created him.
In the Name of Jesus Christ who redeemed him.
In the Name of the Holy Ghost who sanctified him.
May the soul of Francis M. Taitt rest in peace and light perpetual shine upon him. Amen.

BEQUESTS

In the Will of Miss Laura Bell the Parish received a generous legacy of $30,000.00 to liquidate the mortgage on the Community House. $5,000.00 was bequeathed to the endowment fund and $1,000.00 to the Woman's Auxiliary. Miss Bell also remembered the Diocese very generously. Miss Laura Bell's devoted work in our parish and diocese will thus be continued indefinitely through her generous bequests.

A Rubric on page 320 of the Prayer Book reminds us of our Christian duty when making disposition of what large or what small estates we may leave: "The Minister is ordered, from time to time, to advise the people whilst they are in health, to make Wills arranging for the disposal of their temporal goods, and when of ability, to leave Bequests for religious and charitable uses."

LAURA BELL

In the passing of Miss Laura Bell on June 28, the parish has lost a faithful and generous member. She was in her 85th year, and retained her faculties until the last.

The Rector assisted Bishop Taitt at the funeral service held in the church on July first.

For thirty-one years she was the inspiring and devoted president of the Woman's Auxiliary of St. Stephen's Church, and for thirty-seven years a delegate to the Diocesan Committee of the Woman's Auxiliary.

In addition to her great service to women, Miss Bell was a tower of strength to every good work in the Church and through the parish, especially the world-wide missionary work of the Church.

Laura Bell will be sorely missed by us all, but we thank God for her good example and for all these years of loving service and we rejoice with her as she joins the blessed company of the faithful people and receives our Lord's well-earned welcome: "Well done, good and faithful servant, enter thou into the joy of the Lord."

BE A BLOOD DONOR

A letter from Bishop Hart has gone out to every parish in the County of Philadelphia, asking the Rector to form a committee which will be responsible for obtaining blood donors. Philadelphia must give 4,500 pints of blood a week to help meet the increasing demands for blood plasma needed abroad and here at home.

Our aim is to give a pint of blood for ever star on the service flag of every parish. St. Stephen's Church now has sixty men and women in the armed services. Our obligation is obvious; our opportunity to give a pint of blood is a privilege.

Blood Donor Pledge Sunday will be July 11th. Please fill in the enclosed slip and put it on the plate at the eleven o'clock service, or send it to the Parish Office, if you are between the ages of eighteen and sixty.

We hope to have an Episcopal Day at 1424 Walnut Street, Philadelphia's Blood Bank. Many of you have already done this act of service—those of you who have not, may now have this chance to save a life—the easy way!

THE LITTLE GREY TOWERS

The little grey towers which face on the street,
  Are symbols of strength and of trust,
Two qualities which will ne'er suffer defeat,
  Upholding whatever is just.

Proclaiming the strength both of truth and of love,
  And of service, within and without,
The tasks for our Lord, who from heaven above
  Dispels all our fears and our doubt.

These towers have stood for a hundred of years,
  And long may they stand as a sign
That the service of love is what counts and which cheers
  The lives of your neighbor and mine.

And this is the work which they never will shirk
  These little grey towers of ours.

—Laura Bell

This was written by Miss Bell for the Hundredth Anniversary of the founding of St. Stephen's Church.

Our heartfelt sympathy is extended to Dr. Herbert Old in the passing of his brother, Captain Old, of the U. S. Navy, on July 1st.

ANTHEM—"Greater Love Hath No Man".....Ireland

Many waters cannot quench Love, neither can the floods drown it. Love is strong as death. Greater Love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends. Who His own Self bare our sins in His own Body on the tree, that we being dead to sins, should live unto righteousness.

Ye are washed, ye are sanctified, ye are justified in the Name of the Lord Jesus. Ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, that ye should show forth the praises of Him Who hath called you out of darkness into His marvellous light. I beseech you, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service.

INDEPENDENCE DAY

Two vital responsibilities for the Church are coming into sharp focus with the approach of Independence Day. We shall greatly fail if we do not evaluate them carefully and direct our fullest energies to their discharge.

The first calls for intensive spiritual ministry to the individual. If life in Philadelphia seems on the surface to be fairly normal, let us not for a moment be deceived. There are all about us thousands of human beings who, in addition to the general concern which we all share, carry a heavier and infinitely more personal burden on their hearts.

There are mothers, fathers and wives of men in dangerous posts of service. They want, they desperately need, what God alone can give and the true church of Jesus Christ must sensitively strive to minister to this need. Particularly on the Fourth of July let the Church offer abundant sanctuary, not with militant pulpit rantings, but with priestly ministration. Men and women want God, not us. They need the sustaining power of the Holy Spirit.

The second responsibility is that of humble dedication to the building of a world of justice and brotherhood after the war. So many people who are concerned with postwar problems fail to see the relevance of the problems of human relationship that confront them now in their own neighborhood.

If, for instance, such a one is committed to the belief that the post-war world must, on the international scale, make provision for a relation-ship of justice and fraternity between the great racial groups which people the earth, and among whom the white race is a minority, must he not commit himself to the establishment of justice and fraternity now, in his own city, among varying racial groups of whom the white race constitutes the great majority?

How shall we cast the mote out of the eye of the world unless we are casting the beam out of our own eye now?

We have been asked by the Postal authorities to call your attention to the new ordinance requiring the number of your "Delivery Station" as part of your address. The Church's number is Philadelphia 7. What is yours? The next time you write to us, include your "station number" in your return address, to expedite the delivery of mail, a job much hampered by the manpower shortage.

St. Stephen's Service Club is endeavoring to lend a helping hand to the service men who want to bring their families here to live. If you know of a furnished or an unfurnished apartment that is available, please phone the information to the Church Office.

POSTLUDE

There will be a celebration of Holy Communion on Monday, All Saints' Day, November 1st at 12.30.

A MOTHER'S PRAYER

God, Father of Freedom, look after that boy of mine, wherever he may be. Walk in upon him. Talk with him during the silent watches of the night, and spur him to bravery when he faces the cruel foe. Transfer my prayer to his ear.

Keep my boy inspired by the never-dying faith in his God. Throughout all the long days of a hopeful Victory, wherever his duty takes him, keep his spirit high and his purpose unwavering. Make him a loyal friend. Nourish him with the love that I gave to him at birth, and satisfy the hunger of his soul with the knowledge of my daily prayer.

He is my choicest treasure. Take care of him, God. Keep him in health and sustain him under every possible circumstance. I once warmed him under my heart. You warm him anew in his shelter under the stars. Touch him with my smile of cheer and comfort, and my full confidence in his every brave pursuit.

Fail him not—and he will not fail You, his country, nor the mother that bore him.

All Saints' Day

Apropos of the service in Church on All Saints' Day, and pursuant to a custom long observed as a part of this service in this parish, there will be read the Roster of the Dead. This comprises names of those buried by the rector of this parish during the past year.

DEATH

Two very spiritual, very understanding men, have forever enriched our world with their hopeful, enlightening words. Henry Wadsworth Longfellow with his sublime statement: "There is no death! What seems so is transition," and William C. Doanes, when Bishop of Albany, with this poem, "Death", which he wrote while sitting at the side of the casket in which his wife lay serenely beautiful in her last sleep.

We are too stupid about death. We will not learn
How it is wages paid to those who earn.
How it is the gift for which on earth we yearn
To be set free from bondage to the flesh;
How it is turning seed corn into grain,
How it is winning Heaven's eternal gain.
How it means freedom ever more from pain.

How it untangles every mortal mesh.
We are so selfish about death, we count our grief
Far more than we consider their relief
Whom the Great Reaper gathers in the sheaf
No more to know the season's constant change;
And we forget that it means only life.

Anyone who has lost a member of his family, or some other loved one is at liberty to give the name or names to the Rector who will add them to the Roster of the Dead, that they may be remembered in our prayers.

We will be happy to welcome the Girls' Friendly Society next Sunday at their annual Corporate Communion.

RED CROSS

St. Stephen's Red Cross Unit continues to meet each Tuesday evening to prepare surgical dressings. It is a fine sociable group of ladies and they have a pleasant time together doing this most important work.

Why not come out and help with this work? You are assured of a worthwhile time—a useful couple of hours.

The Anthem is one of the famous Biblische Leider by Anton Dvorak arranged for chorus by H. Alexander Matthews.

THE WOMAN'S AUXILIARY of St. Stephen's Church will hold its first meeting of the new season on October 21, at 11.00 A. M. The Rt. Rev. C. F. Reifsnider, D.D., the Bishop in charge of Japanese rehabilitation in this country, will be the speaker.

All the women of the Parish are invited to be present. This is a serious problem—mismanagement, and misunderstanding of the Japanese in our country is not only the business of government departments assigned to deal with aliens, but is the urgent business of every Church man and woman who wants to see justice tempered with mercy extended to all men whom Christ called brothers.

We gratefully acknowledge the Bulletin Subscription of Miss Louise Costello.

THE DIOCESAN IN-GATHERING of the United Thank Offering amounted to $13,739.32. Mrs. A. Disston Rile, the Treasurer, has presented close to $85,000 at the Altar on October 4th on the occasion of the Corporate Communion of the Churchwomen delegates to General Convention. This sum is nearly $10,000 over that which was presented at the last Triennial.

ATTENTION OFFICERS OF PARISH ORGANIZATIONS:—Notice of extra meetings, programs, guest speakers, and the need for special equipment should be sent in to the Church Office well in advance of the date concerned. Our bulletin goes to the printers at noon every Monday, and we are short-handed as is everyone else. The calendar of meetings on the Secretary's desk is up-to-date as the full roster of organizations begins the new season. Keep it that way in order to assure good service and successful programs, by letting us know in advance, what we can do to help.

Miss Margaret Kaiser, our Soprano Soloist, is giving a concert at Town Hall in New York on Tuesday evening, October twelfth. Our very best wishes, Miss Kaiser!

The Diocesan Young People's Fellowship will hold their Annual Corporate Communion at St. Stephen's Church on Sunday, October 17, at 9 o'clock.

PRAYERS FOR THE DEAD

The Rector has been asked now and again about the vexed question of prayers for the dead. It is true that much superstition and abuse has clustered about the question of prayers for the dead with the result that many Protestants shy away from it as something not quite orthodox. While we cannot have any knowledge of the conditions in which souls live beyond the grave, the revelation of Christianity implies very distinctly a relationship of the soul which is everlasting. We have grounds sufficient for the belief that the intuitive conclusion of the writer of the Hebrews "that they without us might not be made perfect" holds a deep truth. In an apprehension such as this of the continuance and progress of personality in the spirit world, it is the intuition of the mother mourning her child, of the lover mourning his beloved, which would seem to come nearer to the truth than the cold logic of the rationalist.

When Romeo bursts out with that sublime lament, "O my love, my life,—thou art not conquered" he is expressing Shakespeare's own conviction. The blessed dead may experience joy and sorrow over their dear ones still on earth, and conversely, we need to commit to God all our hopes and desires for them.

" . . . but thou
If thou shouldst never see my face again,
Pray for my soul. More things are wrought by prayer
Than this world dreams of. Wherefore, let thy voice Rise like a fountain for me night and day."

POSTLUDE

The Altar flowers are given by Mrs. Harry Croyder in memory of Mrs. John Coats Browne.

The Rector spoke before the Philadelphia Regional Conference of the Pennsylvania Federation of Music Clubs on Monday, October 11, on the subject, "Music and Religion."

We welcome today the Young People's Fellowship of the Diocese of Pennsylvania for their Annual Corporate Communion.

A letter from John Spear, recently transferred to Cleveland, informs us that the guest speaker at St. Peter's last week was the Rev. Claude L. Pickens from the Diocese of Hankow, China.

Many of you will remember the all too short ministry in 1938 of Mr. Pickens and the many blessings conferred through him upon this Parish.

Mr. and Mrs. Spear invited Mr. and Mrs. Pickens to dinner and learned that they and their five children are all well, and send hearty greetings to St. Stephen's.

The Pickens family left China on the Gripsholm last year after being confined for over six months by the Japanese. They are now living in Pelham, New York, and Mr. Pickens is working with young people on the campus of various universities.

The School of Christian Education which will be held as usual in the Church House, 202 South 19th Street, on six Tuesday evenings beginning October 19 through November 30th. This year the course is based upon the Six Pillars of Peace formulated by the Commission to study the Bases of a Just and Durable Peace of the Federal Council of Churches. Each session will consist of an address followed by a panel discussion.

This course begins at 7.15 and is followed by a second period which ends at 9.40, and deals with valuable material for all Christians, as well as Church School teachers and superintendents.

Registration is fifty cents. Apply to the Church House, Spruce 1150 for further information.

Women of the Parish! Don't forget the Woman's Auxiliary meeting on October 21st, at 11.00 A. M. The Rt. Rev. C. F. Reifsnider, D.D., will be the speaker.

WHITHER CHRISTIANITY?

Some time ago, after I had just baptized a baby, one of his grandfathers opened a conversation with this startling question: "What is going to happen to Christianity? Will it die out completely?"

I felt distinctly that my questioner believed that Christianity (or any other religion) could not stand the logical scrutiny of modern thought. One cannot argue against this point of view, one can only observe that there are still a large number of extremely intelligent thinkers who are convinced that nothing in modern thought or knowledge rules out God. As long as people believe in God, religion will not die.

No. Christianity is not going to die. No human organization can supplant it. Christianity will be reformed—yes. It is always being reformed. God is not being changed, but we are slow to interpret His will.

What will keep Christianity alive is, then, our faith and the regular practice of our religion. Much of what we do may seem perfunctory. There may be days when we go to Church and come away unmoved. There will be such days. But is not the fault with ourselves, should we not try all the more faithfully to do those apparently perfunctory acts which circulate the life blood of our spiritual life? The heart is a dramatic organ, the tiny capillaries which feed the extremities of the body may not seem important. But they are. The heart exists only to feed the capillaries and the flesh which they nourish. Thus it may be interesting to argue whether Christianity is reasonable or not; and it is necessary to concern ourselves with the big problems which concern human life, but it is vitally necessary that the power of God may reach into the tiniest parts of human life.

So it matters whether we pray, whether we go to Church, whether our whole life is a worshipful response to God. If we fail in this, gangrene appears in the flesh of human society.

In the brightness of joy fade away and are gone.
In this age truly blest, more than ages preceding,
Shall the corn never fail from the plentiful ground.
Under the shining sky shall the lambs gaily bound,
Void of fear, undisturbed, safely shall they be feeding;
Then the timorous doves, wheresoever they fly
Shall not fear any more the hawk's merciless cry.

MOTHERS' MEETING

In 1937, Miss Helen Mocket was appointed by Dr. Franks as the leader of Mothers' Meeting to succeed Mrs. D. R. Harper, who had successfully presided as the Club's chief executive for seventeen years.

We learned of Miss Mocket's resignation this fall with sharp regret. Under her leadership the Mothers have made outstanding contributions to the Episcopal Hospital, Greek Relief, The Salvation Army, Save the Children Foundation, The Red Cross, the Community House Debt and many other charities too numerous to mention.

Any organization is dependent upon leadership for its success. The Mothers' Meeting, secure in the reputation established for it by two splendid presidents, moves on to further achievements under Mrs. Mearns, who hopes, with the co-operation of the hundred and fifty active members, to maintain its healthy spirit of enthusiasm engendered and sustained by past triumphs under Mrs. Harper and Miss Mocket.

A LETTER FROM ONE OF OUR BOYS IN THE ARMY

My dear DR. PRICE:

I do want to tell you how much it means to me to receive the bulletin each week and read your message and keep up with the activities of the church. It is a very pleasant touch in the week's work.

A few days ago, I received a lovely package from the church which I appreciated more than I can say. Those of us who are away from home and home-town churches are always tremendously pleased with anything which the good people at home do for us. Their thoughtfulness means a great deal and makes things easier and brighter for us all.

We have a very nice Episcopalian Chaplain here who conducts a communion service at eight o'clock each Sunday. Since I have not been going away on the week-ends, I have been attending these simple services and enjoying them greatly. I sometimes wonder if we realize the full beauty and significance of our services until we are away from home and friends and find what a wonderful bond a service can be. The average army chapel, while more than adequate, is hardly like the fine churches we have been used to at home. Despite this, the mere reading of the familiar prayers and texts has a power and charm which give one new and added strength. I hope soon that I may be nearer home and so I look forward to seeing you then.

Faithfully,
G.

Everyone is welcome to receive the Holy Communion at St. Stephen's Church. Members of Christ's Church in any of its branches, by whatever denominational name they may be called, are welcome to the Table of their Lord.

Oh may we all One Bread, One Body be
In this blest sacrament of unity.

POSTLUDE

The Altar flowers are presented by the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Military Order of the Purple Heart, Chapter 4, in memory of its departed members.

The Rector will preach the sermon at a Memorial Service of the Second District of the American Legion at the Church of the Redemption, 56th and Market Streets, Sunday evening, November 14th, at 8 P. M.

We extend a hearty welcome to our distinguished guest, the Rev. Marcus F. Lewis, Chaplain of the United States Navy assigned to the Coast Guard. He is the esteemed and beloved Chaplain of the SPARS.

Thomas Roberts Reath enlisted in the United States Marine Corps April 27, 1917, at the age of nineteen. He was sent abroad in the First Expeditionary Force June 11, 1917. He was killed by a German shell June 12, 1918, while a member of the 43rd Company, Fifth Regiment of the Marines. For his exploits, he received the Distinguished Service Cross, the Navy Cross and the Croix de Guerre.

The Rector preached and conducted the Sunday evening service at the Leamy Home on November 7th.

The speaker for the Women's Auxiliary meeting, which will be held in the Parish House on Thursday, November 18th, at 11 A. M., is the Rev. Wilfred C. Files. He is from the Diocese of Maryland. In 1932 he went to Alaska as a layman, but was put on the regular missionary staff in 1935 at the Mission of Our Saviour. Mr. Files does general social work among the natives and is of great value at the hospital at Tenana.

The Patriotic Societies participating in this Service:

The SPARS
Military Order of the Purple Heart, Chapters 4 and 45
Ladies' Auxiliary of the Military Order of the Purple Heart, Units 4, 45 and 63
American Gold Star Mothers, Philadelphia Chapter
The Thomas Roberts Reath Marine Post of the American Legion
The Auxiliary of the Thomson Roberts Reath Marine Post.
Helen Fairchild Nurses, Post 412, of the American Legion.

The Military Order of the Purple Heart, Chapter 4, is sponsoring this service in St. Stephen's Church. The Sunday nearest Armistice Day has been selected as being an appropriate time for the service this year. We cordially welcome to St. Stephen's Church the members of the various Patriotic Societies, and express to them our appreciation for their co-operation. This great service offers us all an opportunity to pledge our allegiance to our Flag and to our Country, and to remember the men and women who gave and are giving their lives for freedom.

POST-WAR RECONSTRUCTION

The American equivalent of the British Beveridge Plan has been overwhelmingly passed by the Senate. The new Connally post-war plan for an international organization with power to prevent aggression and preserve the peace of the world has been established.

Of course, an intensive job of study and reflection is a prerequisite to intelligent comment upon the two reports, and no one has had time to do that yet, but certain relevant observations are appropriate.

First, it is obvious that, in view of the profound dislocation of our national and world life during the last quarter century, any post-war plan worthy of a moment's consideration must contemplate vast changes in the ordering of human relations.

One of the great books of the time, Edward Hallet Carr's "Conditions of Peace," closes with this statement: "The old world is dead! The future lies with those who can resolutely turn their back on it and face the new world with understanding, courage and imagination." Naturally, if our hearts and minds are not conditioned by such realization as is here expressed, we are bound to be overwhelmed by what must be done.

In the second place, we simply cannot afford to approach the contemplation of post-war internal reconstruction under the dominating influence of any partisan bias, political, social or economic. We can no more afford to do this with regard to post-war reconstruction than we could afford to face the national war effort in this mood.

The post-war task will be as great as, and more complex in many ways than, the war task. Our future as a nation depends on the courage and clarity of mind with which we face it.

And face it me must, for our common welfare depends upon it—the health, the happiness and the security of every family and every life are involved. Religion should be concerned for that fact alone, but there is further obligation. Christianity possesses in the teaching of Jesus Christ the laws of human relations, which are the fundamental standards of judgment.

POSTLUDE

The Altar flowers are given by the Rev. Herbert W. Jones in memory of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gensheimer.

There will be a service on Thanksgiving Day—Morning Prayer and Sermon at 11 o'clock. The offering is for the Episcopal Hospital. Please use the enclosed envelope.

Ninety-five persons contributed $3,202.52 toward the expenses of our Church Renovating Program. This has been a most generous response, and we are exceedingly grateful. The total expense amounted to $5,045.06. There must be many more in our parish who would like to contribute toward the Improvement Fund. Help us to have a real celebration on St. Stephen's Day (December 26th), when we celebrate our 120th Anniversary.

The Rector made an address at the annual luncheon of the Philadelphia Music Club at the Bellevue-Stratford on November 9, 1943.

THE ENEMY OF ENEMIES

"Furthermore, the individual's first obligation is to himself, and this Nation's obligation is to itself. What we give to charity can be given from what we have left after we've satisfied ourselves."

The quotation is from the lips of William J. Grace, chairman of a Committee which calls itself the Republican National Revival Committee. Its avowed purpose is to swing the party and the nation to an outright policy of Nationalism.

We should all be deeply indebted to Mr. Grace for this frank, clear and concise definition of the philosophy and motivation underlying Nationalism. We need to see this thing reduced to its very essence—and there is it.

To the Christian mind it is the antithesis of the law of God revealed by Jesus Christ, for it is the presentation of selfishness as the fundamental precept of life.

To the political mind it is the epitome of the philosophy of anarchy, and, if widely accepted, no government of any kind anywhere could hope to endure.

Consider the trail of havoc and suffering which would be left by a life lived on that basis! How destructive it would be to every human relationship. Is not the tacit or avowed assumption of it the agent of the disease of social disintegration?

Broken homes—broken friendships—broken partnerships—crime—industrial conflict—racial strife—war itself!

Here is a man actually advocating that we accept as our ruling principle the fundamental cause of most of our disasters. No! Not the fundamental cause, but the primary result of the fundamental cause—for the fundamental cause is godlessness.

The loss of God from a soul, a nation or a world is a prelude to egotism, disintegration and death.

Mr. Grace has described the enemy of emenies.

We cannot cope with that enemy by the mere maintenance of parish routine—we cannot conquer it by remaining safely within the four walls of the Church.

We must go out to meet it wherever it seeks to entrench itself.

THE EPISCOPAL HOSPITAL

Last year our parish gave $773.30 in answer to the annual appeal sent out by the Episcopal Hospital. In view of the fact that this is the only Church Hospital in this Diocese, and of its outstanding service to the community, this sum is not large. It does not represent our pride and interest in the institution, which is stretching every facility to do an even bigger job and under increasing handicaps and a growing shortage of nurses. Read the enclosed statistics and decide whether or not your interest in your Episcopal Hospital can show a more tangible evidence of its reality!

Christmas

"Fear not: for behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people.
"For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord."

MY BELOVED PEOPLE OF ST. STEPHEN'S:

Fear not! That is a message for all people at all times. But it has a strange sound in the ears of many people in this war-torn world. They look at Christmas askance, and ask, "A Saviour, did you say? How can anyone save us? Stop the war; stop the killing; stop the bombing; give us food! That is the only way to save us. Do not talk to us about a baby born nearly two thousand years ago."

But their despair does not destroy Christmas. For Christmas is not a thing of the moment; it sweeps majestically across all history and prophecy until time shall be no more. The present world conditions are not an indictment of Christianity, but of men and nations who, having Christianity, have chosen something less.

The prodigal son had a good home, a loving father, a good brother and friends. But he chose low adventure. We need not have the slightest doubt that he knew he was doing wrong. No one brought up in a home like his could help knowing he did wrong when he wasted his substance in riotous living, and undermined his health and character. He was not able to resist the low attraction.

Like the prodigal, the world knows better. But the attraction of power, wealth, and prestige which comes to a conqueror has driven men and nations mad.

Yet, the prodigal came to himself, redeemed by the thought of his father's love, and he was saved. The world will come to itself, too. It will remember the love of its heavenly Father, so perfectly demonstrated by the Saviour, and the Christmas message will be seen to be true, after all.

Let it sound forth today as never before. The prodigal world is ready for it in its hour of extremity.

Faithfully and affectionately, your Rector,

ALFRED W. PRICE.

A Christmas Gift

Christmas is the time of gifts for those we love. Shall we leave out God? Surely, He and His Church shall be the first we think of. The enclosed envelope is very appropriately worded, "My Christmas Gift to My Church." Will you use it for His sake?

Every confirmed man and boy in the parish is urged to be present next Sunday at 9.00 A. M. for the twenty-sixth Annual Nation-Wide Corporate Communion of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew. This is a call to rededication of Heart and Life to the Purpose of God.

ADVENT

A new Christian year begins next Sunday. Advent comes with its call to worship, and to a consideration of how we look to the eyes of Him whose Christmas Birthday is so near.

Noon-day Services During Advent
Beginning Monday, November 29th, and continuing through Friday, December 24th, 1943.

Cards announcing the speakers for these services are in the mail, and also at the doors in the vestibule. Kindly distribute them among your friends.

The Philadelphia Federation of Churches will sponsor for the sixth year the Noon-Day Advent Services in St. Stephen's Church. These services are designed for on-the-go business people and for those who shop in the neighborhood.

They are held daily except Saturday from 12:30 to 12:55. Outstanding preachers from various denominations will occupy the pulpit of St. Stephen's during this Advent season. See Announcement Card for the list of speakers.

GRATITUDE

A traveler for a big publishing house couldn't wait to get to St. Louis, where his oldest friend owned a prosperous bookstore.

"Sam," he said to the owner the moment they were alone, "I want you to lend me $2000.00."

"The answer, Joe," said Sam, "is positively no."

"But Sam," protested the salesman, "in 1929, when Bond and Share broke from 189 to 50, who gave you ten thousand dollars to keep you from being wiped out?"

"You did," admitted Sam.

"And in 1931, when your daughter Shirley had that tropical disease, who took her down to Florida because you couldn't get away from business, who did, Sam?"

"You, my friend, you did."

"And in 1933, when we were fishing together, who dove into the rapids and saved you from drowning at the risk of his own life?"

"You did, Joe. It was wonderful!"

"Well then, Sam, in Heaven's name, why won't you lend me $2000.00 now when I need it?"

"All the things you say are true," admitted Sam, nodding his head slowly, "But what have you done for me lately?"

Nov. 6—Russel H. Nissen.
Nov. 10—Mary Alice Keenan.
Nov. 23—William Daley.

The Rector and the congregation of St. Stephen's extend deepest sympathy to the Misses Daley upon the recent death of their beloved brother. May he rest in peace and light perpetual shine upon him.

There must be many more in our parish who would like to contribute toward the Improvement Fund. Help us to have a real celebration on St. Stephen's Day (December 26th), when we celebrate our 120th Anniversary.

Ninety-five persons contributed $3,202.52 toward the expenses of our church renovating program. This has been a most generous response, and we are exceedingly grateful. The total expense amounted to $5,045.06.

THE CANVASS

Now that the Community and War funds have completed their campaigns, the Churches have been given the green light for their annual canvasses.

This year, because there are so few men left at home, and they are so busy, I, as your Rector, am undertaking to do the Canvass by mail. A pledge card is enclosed herewith. This card should be signed and returned to the Rector. Or better still, bring the card with you on Sunday, December 12th, and drop it in the Chest of Joash.

POSTLUDE

The Altar flowers are given by Dr. Carl E. Grammar, Rector-Emeritus of St. Stephen's Church.

The Rector preached at St. Matthias' Church, Oak Lane, on Sunday evening, December 5th.

The Rector and Mrs. Price announce the baptism of their daughter, Jean Van Dyke on Sunday morning December 19th at the eleven o'clock service. All welcome!

We gratefully acknowledge the subscription to the weekly bulletin sent in by Mrs. George P. Green, and an additional contribution to the Improvement Fund from the Rev. and Mrs. George R. Bishop.

TO THE FRIENDS OF ST. STEPHEN'S CHURCH:

Every cause appealing to people for support in these days tries to present its part in the winning of the war. We greatly want the war to be won. We believe that the freedom of the Church to carry on the redemptive work of Christ among men, and the freedom of men to serve the Church are closely bound up with the cause for which our nation fights. But we can not honestly claim that this church will play any direct and important part in the conclusion of that tragic warfare. Seventy of our men are now in the armed forces of our country. One of them has been wounded. We have made available for the exclusive use of the War Commission of the Diocese our Community House and its equipment and our interest and support in the work of the Club has been enthusiastically given. Over fifteen thousand men have been entertained to date. But these are not our main task. Our cause must appeal to those who look beyond and beneath the conflict which brings its inescapable burdens upon us all.

If we take seriously the Church's mission and the faith she proclaims, we cannot forget, even in these days, that there is a warfare in the human heart that goes on from generation to generation and lies deeper than any conflict of man with man. Man is not a political or an economic being only—he is made in the image of God, and the deepest issue is whether he is right with God. We cannot stand aloof in a kind of false spiritual superiority while other men venture their lives on our behalf. But our main task is to prepare men and women who will testify by word and sacrament and simple service concerning One Who shed His blood alike, for us and for our mortal enemies. No human sacrifices and no human victories can avail if the self-giving and the victory of Christ are unheeded by men.

We dare not neglect the Church's task and the Church's claim even while we strive to give our best to our country. Humanly speaking, there can be no doubt that the quality of the Church's life is determined by the quality of her members. Therefore, the concern which you as a Church member show for the strengthening of the Church is the clearest index of the value you place on her ministry.

These are the convictions with which we come to you, and this appeal can have no standing save with those who share them.

The pledges and gifts that came to us from parishioners and friends played an important part in enabling us to complete our last financial year without a deficit. During the current year they will again provide for preaching, pastoral care, parish administration and the manifold program which is so necessary for a church in the heart of a great city.

None of us can see far into the future, but we are sure that the Church's task in that future will be more urgent than ever, and we confidently ask our friends to help us keep this Church strong for the sake of those who will minister and be ministered unto, in the days ahead.

I earnestly ask you to fill out the pledge card sent to you and either send it to me, or better still, bring it to the Church on Loyalty Sunday, December 12, 1943.

ALFRED W. PRICE.

The Church School Christmas Party will be held in the Parish House on Wednesday, December 22, 1943.

CHRISTMAS DINNERS

Each year St. Stephen's Church donates baskets or the equivalent to those who are unable to give to their families the fullness of Christmas cheer, with which others are blessed. Will you help us with such amount as you feel able to give? An envelope for this was enclosed with last week's bulletin. Additional envelopes for your gifts are to be found in the vestibule.

On Tuesday evening, December 21, we are privileged to hear the premier performance of the "Story of Christmas" by Dr. Matthews. St. Stephen's is honored to have such a famous and gifted composer as organist and choirmaster, and we look forward to hearing his music next Tuesday.

Miss Edna J. Lillich has staged the pageant, and has worked long hours to perfect every detail. You will remember with pleasure other pageants at Easter in past years, when Miss Lillich has had charge of the pageant.

This production will be given by the Philadelphia Music Club Chorus and Club Artists.

The performance begins at eight o'clock. We suggest that you come early as there will be no reserved seats.

1823-1943

In April, 1823 there came into existence a corporate body having the name St. Stephen's Church and situated at the corner of Ludlow and Tenth Streets, Philadelphia.

One hundred and twenty years have come and gone since that day in April. Time has marched on leaving its mark and its memory. Property has been purchased and buildings bought, erected and remodeled. The young have been baptized, taught, confirmed. Men and women have come, served and gone on or remained to serve again. Rectors have been called, installed, resigned or remained to serve for varying but useful tenures.

But through all the years and through all the changes one thing has remained changeless—God's eternal spirit. His Word, His Sacraments, His Life, have remained with us through the generations.

I, therefore, the Rector of St. Stephen's Church do hereby call upon all the members of this parish, the young and the old, the youth and adult, to put aside Sunday morning, December 26 (the Patronal Day of St. Stephen) and assemble themselves in Church to give glory to our eternal God and His Son, Jesus Christ and the Holy Spirit for His changeless favor to us through these years.

And I do also call upon the said members of St. Stephen's Church on that day and at that service to rededicate their lives to the glory of our God and the task of the next generation.

Your Rector,

ALFRED W. PRICE.

ANNIVERSARY LITANY

V. The Lord be with you.
R. And with thy spirit.
V. Let us pray.

V. Almighty and everlasting God, before whom stand the spirits of the living and the dead, Light of lights, Fountain of wisdom and goodness, who livest in all pure and humble and gracious souls; for all who have witnessed a good confession for thy glory throughout the hundred and twenty years of our Parish: Clergy, Wardens, Vestrymen, Teachers in our Church School, Members of our Choir, Workers in our organizations, Worshippers before Thy Altar,

R. We praise thee, O God, and bless thy Name.

V. For the Martyrs of our holy faith, the faithful witnesses to Christ of whom the world was not worthy, and for all who have resisted falsehood and wrong unto suffering or death,

R. We praise thee, O God, and bless thy Name.

V. For all who have labored and suffered for freedom, good government, just laws, and the sanctity of the home; and for all who have given their lives for their country,

R. We praise thee, O God, and bless thy Name.

V. For those who have been tender and true and brave in all times and places; and for all who have been one with thee in the communion of Christ's Spirit and in the strength of his love,

R. We praise thee, O God, and bless thy Name.

V. For the dear friends and kindred ministering in the spiritual world; whose faces we see no more, but whose love is ever with us,

R. We praise thee, O God, and bless thy Name.

V. For the teachers and companions of our childhood and youth; and the members of our household of faith who worship thee now in heaven,

R. We praise thee, O God, and bless thy Name.

V. And that we may hold them in continual remembrance, that the sanctity of their wisdom and goodness may rest upon our earthly days, and that we may prepare ourselves to follow them in their upward way,

R. We beseech thee to hear us, O God.

V. In the communion of thy Holy Spirit; with the faithful and saintly in heaven, with the redeemed in all ages, with our beloved who dwell in thy presence and peace, we who still labor on earth, unite in ascribing,

R. Thanksgiving, glory, honour, and power unto thee, O Lord, our God.

V. O Almighty God, who has knit together thine elect in one communion and fellowship, in the mythical body of thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord, Grant us grace so to follow thy blessed Saints in all virtuous and godly living, that we may come to those unspeakable joys which thou hast prepared for those who unfeignedly love thee; through the same thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

ST. STEPHEN'S CHURCH

The first meeting in reference to the foundation of this parish was held on the 17th of April, 1822, in the building which had been erected for St. Thomas' Methodist Episcopal Church on the lot now occupied by St. Stephen's. This first building stood back from the street, and was much smaller than the edifice that superseded it. Bishop White was Chairman and Joseph R. Ingersoll, Secretary. It was determined to form a congregation and buy the building, and Edward Shippen Burd, Charles N. Bancker and Joseph R. Ingersoll were appointed the committee for the purchase. Another committee was also appointed to obtain contributions and pew-renters. Its members were Samuel Hazlehurst, E. S. Burd, Robert E. Griffith, J. R. Ingersoll, John Goddard, Richard Dale, T. Barton Zantzinger, John C. Montgomery, Clement C. Biddle, Thomas J. Wharton, James J. Skerrett.

The corner-stone of the new church was laid by Bishop White on May 20th, 1822, William Strickland being the architect. A portion of the old building in the rear was used, but it was substantially a new edifice that was erected. The consecration took place on February 27, 1823, Bishop White officiating. Bishop Hobart of New York preached the sermon. On March 5th the Rev. James Montgomery was put in charge of the Congregation. The parish was received into union with the Convention on May 14, 1823.

The first meeting of the Vestry of the fully organized parish was held June 1st, 1823. Present Messrs. J. R. Ingersoll, Samuel Hazlehurst, Robert E. Griffith, T. B. Zantzinger, Levi Ellenaker, J. J. Skerrett, John Swift, H. J. Lewis, T. J. Wharton, E. S. Burd, Dr. Chapman and Edmund Willcox. After organizing by electing J. R. Ingersoll and Samuel Hazlehurst wardens, the vestry elected Mr. Montgomery rector. By purchasing and tearing down a store on the lot adjacent to the church on the north, an undesirable structure was removed and a graveyard was secured. The parish immediately became one of the most prominent in the city.

Rev. James Montgomery, D.D., 1823-1834
Rev. H. W. Ducachet, D.D., 1834-1865
Rev. William Rudder, D.D., 1865-1880
Rev. Samuel D. McConnell, D.D., 1882-1896
Rev. Elwood Worcester, Ph.D., 1896-1904
Rev. Carl E. Grammer, S.T.D., October 1, 1905 to October 1936
Rev. Vincent C. Franks, D.D., February 1937 to October 1939

Light of the world! forever shining,
There is no change in Thee
True Light of life, all joy and health enshrining
Thou canst not fade nor flee.
Thou hast arisen; but Thou declinest never,
Today shines as the past,
All that Thou wast, Thou art, and shall be ever,
Brightness from first to last!
Night visits not Thy sky, nor storm, nor sadness;
Day fills up all its blue;
Unfailing beauty and unfaltering gladness,
And love forever new!
Light of the world! undimming and unsetting,
O shine each mist away!
Banish the fear, the falsehood and the fretting,
Be our unchanging day!—Horatio Bonar

WHAT DOES A MINISTER DO BETWEEN SUNDAYS?

One of our more important religious duties is to trade riddles with our girls of the Burd School, sometimes, after our service on Wednesday. We shall not shock you by the riddles but you ought to hear one of the remarks. She looked at us strangely and asked, "What do you do between Sundays?" Well, we serve the Church. We wish that it might be said of us, however, remotely, that we serve the Church "as Christ also loved the Church, and gave Himself for it."

We write letters—to a college for a boy asking enrollment, to a business firm for a woman seeking employment, of courage to a man in stress, of sympathy to a family in sorrow, of cheer to men in camp and letters in answer to scores of inquiries about this church and its work—letters about ten each day. We see people. The number who ask to come equals the number to whom we go. What unburdening of heart, what perplexity of mind, what troublings of conscience, what magnificent courage is revealed in "ordinary" extraordinary people in these meetings! We conduct baptisms. We conduct weddings (including the rehearsals, because we covet the friendships thus formed). We visit folk in sickness. We conduct funerals and do everything possible, sometimes making all arrangements. We lead services of dedication for a new home; it is a happy task. We conduct weekday services; we attend meetings, parish meetings, diocesan meetings, community meetings.

What else between Sundays? We read books and the Book. A minister's library must seem boring to the average reader. Two women were dusting my books when one made an almost final comment: "Here's a room full of books and nothing to read." Actually many of them are more interesting and far more valuable than the latest novel. In any event a good minister, like a good doctor, must keep abreast of new knowledge in his field. Here is an instance. The earliest manuscripts of the New Testament were until recently no earlier in date than the middle of the fifth century. But recently manuscripts have been found that were written in the second and third centuries. What changes occurred in those hundred hitherto hidden years? A minister must read.

He writes sermons. Each demands from me ten hours of hard work and each is written to the last comma and period. We serve the Church—not eight hours a day, but always twelve hours a day seven days a week and often sixteen hours—with no guarantee of an undisturbed night.

The minister's work is hard, emotionally exacting, physically and spiritually demanding, not free from ignorance and captious criticism, still more marked by failure; and sometimes we ask ourselves if, were life given a second chance, we would choose the same road. But always when the mind is renewed by rest and prayer, the answer is a sure and grateful "Yes". The reasons quicken into new confidence.

Our deep sympathy is extended to Mrs. John Hay in the passing of her daughter, Florence. May her soul rest in peace and may light perpetual shine upon her.

"Theological Sunday", January 23, is the occasion for receiving the annual offering from every church and mission for the support of our Divinity School. Envelopes for this purpose are enclosed and are available in the vestibule. The need for more clergy is acute and will be even more so in the post war years. Let us strengthen our Theological Schools now that they may serve the church and country even better in the future.

LIBERTY AND JUSTICE FOR ALL!

Have you ever tried the experiment of linking relevant news items together? It is sometimes quite enlightening. I commend the following sequence of material drawn from the newspapers to your mind and imagination.

Railroads are constantly advertising in the newspapers in the major southern cities for job applicants, pleading their short-handedness and the fact of their services as essential war effort.

The southern railroads have defied the Fair Employment Practices Commission and its right in behalf of the government to order a cessation of discrimination in employment against Negroes. Apparently both management and the railroad unions concur in this action.

Many skilled Negro railroad workers have been forced out of jobs by discrimination, and these, together with many other Negroes, are available for work.

A crack train headed south on a southern railroad is derailed by a broken track. Some of the cars on this train impinge on the northbound track. Thirty-six minutes later a northbound express travelling at ninety miles an hour crashes into the derailed train and scores of people are killed, including many soldiers and sailors. The engineer on the northbound train insists that no one was posted ahead of the derailed train in order to flash the warning.

So much for what the newspapers have to report.

Is this a possible conclusion?

Those soldiers and sailors and the other men and women who lost their lives in that wreck are in real measure the victims of a theory of race whose outstanding proponent in our world today is one Adolph Hitler. But they did not die from German bullets—they died in America. Liberty and justice demand more extensive victories than the conquering of Germany and Japan!

Confirmation instruction has begun. All those who are interested are invited to come to the rector's study at ten o'clock every Sunday morning until February 20th when Bishop William McClelland of the Diocese of Maryland will come to confirm those who are now being prepared for this important rite of the Church.

The Church School is adding to its Lenten Offering by the sale of Birthday Calendars which are a quarter, and very good dish cloths which cost fifteen cents.

Marjorie Robertson and Charles Maurer were married in St. Stephen's on January sixth. Mrs. Maurer will continue as secretary to the rector. We congratulate them and wish them all happiness.

Mr. William O. Gilbert, Headworker at St. John's Settlement House will be the speaker at the next meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary, on Thursday morning January 20th at eleven o'clock. He will explain what is being done for the colored young people at this Settlement on North Twelfth Street, and for the education of adults. The Young Friends co-operate in some of this work. It will be an interesting story. All the women of the parish are invited to hear Mr. Gilbert next Thursday.

1944! A YEAR TO BE REMEMBERED?

1944! Will it take its place with the outstanding dates of history? Will it be a year to be perpetually remembered by Americans such as 1942, 1776 and a few others?

O course it depends on what happens in 1944. It depends on the fulfilment of our promised victory over the core of the Axis—which is Germany. But it depends on vastly more than that—it depends on what we do with victory.

1918 might have been a uniquely famous date—but it isn't. Before many generations have gone it will be thrust back into the list of years of moderate significance. Comparatively few people will associate it with any particular event. 1918 was robbed of its possible glory by the actions of the ensuing years which add up to a single chapter entitled "Scuttling Victory and Peace."

The same fate may easily overtake 1944. Yes, easily—for the task of consolidating victory in a just and enduring peace is going to be infinitely harder than the task of winning that victory.

The facts of the Moscow and Teheran Conferences, of the Senate resolution and of the overwhelming popular opinion in America favoring international organization are all to the good. But their equivalents existed as the year 1918 dawned—yet by the end of 1920 they were liquidated. The League of Nations was ham-strung in the United States Senate by the knife of perfectionism, and the swords wielded by the reservationists. The policy of the Republican party and of the Nation during the decade following the war was one of nationalism and isolation. The perfectionist—the reservationist—the nationalist—these are very much on the job and their strategy is becoming apparent.

A tragic blow from a supposed friend was dealt by the last "Reader's Digest" in its own article by William Hard. Mr. Hard's internationalism is a cloak for Nationalism, since it advocates little more than "voluntary co-operation" which is very largely a return to the mood of the Kellogg Pact.

To make 1944 great and blessed, as it can be, we will need to see clearly that it will offer us a choice between lasting peace or another and more terrible war. We will need the overwhelming conviction that we just simply must replace international anarchy with international organization. We will need to develop the morale to see the purpose through.

It is on these profound levels that religion can count for most. The sanction of world brotherhood is God. The demonstration of the Church's belief in God is the determination with which it seeks to write His will into life.

ORGAN POSTLUDE

The Altar flowers are given by Miss Isabel F. Kirkpatrick in memory of her family.

IS AMERICA A CHRISTIAN COUNTRY?

The following was overheard from a loud conversation in a book store in Philadelphia:

First woman: "Did you read 'The Robe'?"

Second woman: "Yes, I did."

First woman: "Did you like it? I couldn't get anything out of it. I was reading for the story, and came to this Jesus guy. And then I stopped, because I thought it was Bible without any thee's and thou's."

Who bargained for the robe? Whom did Marcellus' sister marry?

The woman who liked the book lacked the courage of her convictions, and missed a wonderful evangelistic opportunity. Perhaps she felt hopeless in the face of her companion's attitude.

Nobody knows how many people there are in the United States who uld shy away from a book because it seems to resemble the Bible. We w that "The Robe" is the best seller of best sellers and are greatly ncouraged by this fact. But this conversation reminds us of the other side of the story—of the kind of people who call Jesus a "guy".

As long as there is one person who thinks of Jesus in that way the need of the Christian Church's program is crystal clear.

BISHOP McCLELLAND will visit this Parish on February 20th to administer the Apostolic Rite of Confirmation, which is the historic way of admitting Christians into full fellowship with the Church. If you are an adult and have not yet been confirmed, don't you want to take your rightful place in the Christian Church in this community? Give your name to the Rector today.

Confirmation Instruction Class meets every Sunday at 10.00 A. M. in the Rector's study.

WEEKLY BULLETIN

During the past two years the Rector has prepared the weekly bulletin with the thought of reaching our scattered membership with a weekly message, news and coming events that we may become will informed and intelligent Church members.

We are convinced that a weekly is superior to a monthly publication, however modest the format and content of the latter may be.

In order to help defray the cost of mailing, we are asking each family to make an annual subscription of one dollar. May we count on you? The enclosed envelope is for your convenience.

Turn back O Man, forswear thy foolish ways.
Old now is Earth, and none may count her days,
Yet thou, her child, whose head is crowned with flame,
Still wilt not hear thine inner God proclaim,
"Turn back O Man, forswear thy foolish ways!"

Earth might be fair and all men glad and wise,
Age after age their tragic empires rise.
But while they dream, and in that dreaming weep.
Would man but wake from out his haunted sleep.

Earth shall be fair, and all her people one,
Nor till that hour shall God's whole will be done
Now, even now, once more from earth to sky
Peals forth in joy man's old undaunted cry
"Earth shall be fair, and all her fold be one!"

DONORS OF MEMORIAL FLOWERS IN JANUARY

January 2. Mrs. Anna Evans Buck in memory of her parents.
January 9. Miss Isabel R. Kirkpatrick in memory of her family.
January 16. Mrs. Craig Atmore in memory of Craig Atmore.
January 23. Mrs. I. Smith Raspin in memory of Mrs. Louis V. Sausser.
January 30. Mrs. Daniel R. Harper in memory of Daniel R. Harper.

On February 20th the Rt. Rev. William McClelland, D.D., Bishop of Maryland will come to confirm those who are now being prepared for this important rite of the Church. It is still not too late for those of you who have not been confirmed to join the instruction class which meets in the Rector's study at ten o'clock every Sunday morning.

The Diocesan War Commission is endeavoring to raise $65,000 through the parishes and missions for the work of the National Army and Navy Commission and for our own St. Stephen's Club. We are all interested in the broad scope of this program, but particularly are we interested in the work that is being done in our Community House for the boys in service.

Over twenty thousand men have been entertained in St. Stephen's Service Club since last May. Over four hundred and fifty volunteers—senior and junior hostesses and men have made possible the great volume of activities in this club, devoting long hours. These volunteers have temporarily replaced the home folks for thousands of men in the armed forces.

The Bishop has asked St. Stephen's to raise one thousand dollars toward the $65,000 goal. The Rector is confident that the members and friends of St. Stephen's will undertake this task with great enthusiasm. We will need the help of everyone to realize this goal. May we all give generously and prayerfully.

Albert R. Steele has been reported seriously wounded at Bougainville. Albert was in our last year's Confirmation Class and enlisted in the Marines last April.

Miss Charlotte Breese, secretary to Mr. Raspin for many years died suddenly on January 30th. Miss Breese had been the invaluable assistant in law offices of over thirty-eight years. Her passing is a serious loss; we extend our deepest sympathy to her family, Mr. Raspin and the members of his staff.

Miss Margaretta Aeugle was graduated from Duke University on January 27th. Hearty Congratulations!

Quinquagesima is the Sunday next before Lent. February 23 is Ash Wednesday. There will be a service at 10.30 A. M.—the Litany and the Penitential Office—and at 12.30 Bishop Hart will preach.

On Thursday, the Rt. Rev. Frank W. Sterrett, D.D., Bishop of Bethlehem will preach, and the Healing Service will follow. The Rev. D. Wilmot Gateson, D.D., Rector of the Church of the Saviour will preach on Friday, followed by the service of Holy Communion.

Dr. John Robbins Hart, Rector of the Washington Memorial Chapel, Valley Forge will be the preacher on Saturday.

Gifts to date for the War Commission amount to $510.00. We are half way along toward our goal.

ST. STEPHEN'S IN WAR TIME

Eighty men and women have gone from the congregation of St. Stephen's Church into the service of their country. They are the living personification of St. Stephen's in War Time. Behind them St. Stephen's Church stand determined to play its part as a "Spiritual powerhouse" to better honor its sons and daughters who are on the fighting fronts of the World. St. Stephen's Church salutes them.

Last Sunday a beautiful Honor Roll Memorial Plaque was dedicated. This plaque is on the Northwest wall of the Church.

CONFIRMATION

The Right Reverend William McClelland, D.D., Bishop of the Diocese of Maryland will visit St. Stephen's Church on Sunday morning at eleven o'clock to administer the rite of Confirmation. He will also preach the sermon.

The visit of a bishop is an important event in the life of any parish or community. The Bishops are our chief pastors, they are set apart and ordained to be our "Fathers in God". They see the Church and its affairs in a wider angle than most of us can. Thus they have a message to give from a point of view to which we all need to go for the enrichment of our religious life, and to increase the effectiveness of our witness and service.

Confirmation, moreover, is not something private which takes place between the Bishop and the candidate. It is an act of the whole Church. If there were no Church there would be no bishop and no confirmation. All of us are the visible expression of the Church. We should try our hardest to be present at this service to do our share. Of course the public will be warmly welcomed.

FROM A SERVICE MAN

The rector prints the following in a humble spirit, and only because it really has a message for the home front:

"Just a note to tell you how much I appreciate your sending the little booklet, and especially the Sunday Bulletin. I look forward every week to reading your editorials which I think are excellent, and only wish I could be there to enjoy your Sunday sermons again. I realize now how much I missed by not continuing my attendance at St. Stephen's when we moved to ——. That distance was really infinitesimal when compared to the distance I'd gladly go now. In these times of strife it seems that people are inclined to overlook religion—we've flown almost every Sunday for the last four months and this leaves little time for churchgoing."

In the advertisements, some people used to be willing to walk a mile for a Camel. It is not for the rector to suggest how far one should walk to hear one of his sermons, but he has no compunctions about suggesting that even a considerable distance ought not to prevent Christians from worshipping God regularly on Sunday with his fellow-Christians.

We gratefully acknowledge the following bulletin subscriptions: Frederick L. Bickel, the Misses McAllister, Miss Adele Lewis, Miss May Price and Mrs. Martha Stephens and Edward Sheppard Barnes.

Neither fear ye their fear, nor be afraid; sanctify the Lord God of hosts, himself, and let Him be your fear.

He shall be for a sanctuary; I will wait upon the Lord and I will look for Him; behold I, and the children whom the Lord hath given me.

The people that walked in darkness have seen a great light; they that dwell in the land of the shadow of death, upon them hath the light shined.

WAR COMMISSION

February 13th is War Service Day. The culminating day of the campaign for funds for the work of the War Commission in 1944. We all realize the necessity of continuing the work for our Chaplains, men and women of the Armed Forces. Now above all times in this critical year of decision, they must feel that their Church is with them as they face the supreme task and hour.

The War Commission asks that the Church give a minimum of $440,000. This is more than twice the figure asked last year. Our diocese is asked to raise $65,000 and our parish $1,000 of this total.

Every member and friend of St. Stephen's is asked to give as liberally as possible. All that we do now is of great significance for our men and women, for ourselves, for the nation and for the Church. Our cause rests with you.

OUR POST-WAR PROBLEM

How short is human memory!—and how arrogantly we rise from our failures and proclaim our self-sufficiency!

There lies before me an interesting document in which it is flatly asserted: "We know what is required to keep industry going and have people prosper. We know what is needed to keep men employed."

Would to God we did!

We didn't in 1929 and we didn't in 1939.

Only one thing in our experience has done what the writer says we know how to do—and that is war.

We entered the war with the problem of peacetime unemployment unsolved. Presently we shall emerge from this war with that problem in the early period of the immediate postwar years may well destroy the possibility of our consolidating victory through the creation of a just and durable peace.

If our streets are thronged with millions of weary job seekers; if returning service men find no work; if we fall back once more into the stage which the war interrupted, namely that of a cat and dog fight between business and government —we can kiss world peace "goodbye". We will by this failure have created a state of mind in America ripe for response to all forms of selfish isolationist appeal from that of the Coughlin, Smith, Reynolds hate mongers to that of the high tariff "will get our own" owners.

Free enterprise alone won't solve this problem. Government alone won't solve this problem. America alone can't solve this problem.

It can only be solved on a basis of world relationship.

And it can only be solved by an America which is not only participating in a world relationship but is practicing wholehearted co-operation internally.

Any form of entrenched selfishness that seeks to dominate either the world or the national scene is the advance agent of World War Number Three. It is a greater foe than Hitler.

THE SOLDIERS' VOTE

A few weeks ago labor was being held up for severe censure because of the effect of strikes upon military morale. Undoubtedly strikes are devastating to morale and undoubtedly elements in labor are culpable. Certainly however, a measure of that blame should have been directed at those responsible for the inept handling of labor relations in the Administration and those in the ranks of management who have provoked labor.

Today Congress seems to be reaching an all time low in sensitiveness to that which affects morale.

It just sems impossible to imagine that the elected representatives of our nation are hesitating to give the vote to men who at the very moment of debate are storming ashore on the Marshall Islands, scaling the bloody mountains of Italy or training for the desperate cross-channel invasion.

If I were a soldier, as I have been a soldier, this questioning by Congress of my right to vote would seem like a stab in the back. It would be as though the Nation were saying. "It is your duty to risk your life for and our liberty—but voting—well, we are not certain that we dare trust you with the free man's basic right."

For behind all the spacious arguments about states' rights—the real issues are the poll tax, the chance for negroes to vote and the question of partisan political advantages in the forthcoming election.

The poll tax states have drafted and sent out to defend their liberties men from whom they have withheld the chance to vote. Certain Southern states have drafted and sent out to defend their liberties negroes to whom they deny the right to vote.

And all of us have seen our sons or our neighbors' sons go into the Army and the Navy to fight in a war which came about through the selfishness and the bungling of our generation—a war in whose making they played no part.

If any group of people has merited disenfranchisement it is we who have been voting or not bothering to vote these last twenty-five years.

If any group has a right to vote for that Administration into whose hands will fall responsibility for the direction of the war and for the making of the peace—be political advantage what it may—it is the members of the armed forces, the men who are offering their lives to preserve the nation.

HITLER ON CHRISTIANITY

"The Christian religion has been the curse of Germany . . . Good natured and trusting as they are, the Germans took Christianity seriously. They forgave their enemies. They were magnanimous. They did not fight helpless and innocent people. They stopped fighting when they had won an honorable victory. The other Powers took advantage of German softheartedness and sentimentality. For this the Jews are to blame in the first instance. For the Jews gave birth to the Christian religion." ADOLPH HITLER, quoted by Pierre Van Passen, "For This Crime—What Punishment?", Redbook, 2'44.

This afternoon at three o'clock, the young people of the Church will hold their service at St. Stephen's Church. "United We Make America" will be the subject of four short addresses by members of the Inter-Racial Fellowship. You are cordially invited to come.

The dates of the Educational Week for the Blind have been changed. Tomorrow, March sixth, is Episcopal Day in Gimbels' auditorium—fifth floor; luncheon is fifty cents.

We gratefully acknowledge the bulletin subscriptions of Mrs. Rhoda M. Hay, Mr. Charles K. Hay, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Powers, Mrs. Frederic Schmid and the Misses Stapleton.

The Rector has Lenten preaching engagements at St. Matthews' Church, Chapel of the Hard of Hearing, Philadelphia Divinity School, St. James' Church, Lancaster, St. John's Church, Camden, and St. Philip's Church, Brooklyn.

Mission Study Classes for members of the Women's Auxiliary will be held at Holy Trinity Parish House, 217 S. Twentieth Street on Friday mornings during Lent, March 3, 10, 17 and 24 from 10.30 A. M. to Noon. The subject is "Ventures in Christian Living;" the leader is Mrs. Alfred M. Chapman, member of the National Board of the Women's Auxiliary. All women of the Church are invited to attend.

During the month of March the Red Cross will hold its great campaign to raise $6,543,000 in the five-county area of the Southeastern Pennsylvania Chapter. This amount is part of the country-wide effort to raise $200,000,000. Both goals are the largest ever asked by the Red Cross. Eighty-five percent will be used to provide humanitarian services for the men and women in the armed forces, such as blood plasma, prisoners-of-war packages, clubs and clubmobiles, surgical dressings, and welfare activities in hospitals at home and abroad. Members of St. Stephen's Church, our Captain is Mrs. James H. Mearns. If you can contribute through your Church, make your donation to Mrs. Mearns. St. Stephen's Church always responds with heart-warming generosity to the annual appeal of the American Red Cross!

WHINERS AND CHIMERS

Of all humans that give most of us mortals the jitters it is the chronic whiners. We listen to them once or twice, and then we turn a deaf ear or pull out our watch with a delicate hint that we are in a hurry and will hear them at some more convenient time, making a mental resolution that that time will never arrive. Although we have eyes, we see not when they appear on our path. Such are crossed off our books of remembrance and the whiners soon find themselves forsaken and forgotten by their fellowmen.

On the other hand we are exhilarated when we meet the chronic chimers. We not only listen when we meet them, but put ourselves out to seek their company. They are like the sun bursting through on a cloudy day, they warm our hearts and put new pep into our very being. We underscore their names in our book of remembrance. Such chimers never are lonesome for companions.

"Like begets like" we are told. It is true in regards to whiners and chimers. The average person will respond in kind, whether it is whining or chiming. It is usually a case of give and take, even though the party of the second part in the whining conflab has a secret contempt for the party of the first part for beginning the unpleasant and unprofitable verbal discussion of real and imaginary aches and pains to which all humans are more or less subjected. And nobody rings forth his chimes without striking a responsive chord in the hearts of others and setting their chimes ringing.

This Lenten season should set us thinking along these lines, asking ourselves whether we are whiners or chimers. We need to realize the baneful influence we are exercising if we are whiners, and the wholesome influence we are radiating if we are chimers.

Whiners are a poor advertisement for Christ's cause, proving that faith in and love for God is sadly lacking, regardless of Christian profession. The full acceptance and practice of Christ's gospel, constant and close communion with God in private and public communion, will produce chimers, Christian chimers.

The Church of God needs all the Christian Chimers we can produce. Whiners need conversion to chimers—for chimers alone can save the world.

The little gray leaves were kind to Him:
The thorn-tree had a mind to Him,
When into the woods He came.

Out of the woods my Master went,
And He was well content.
Out of the woods my Master came,
Content with death and shame
When death and shame would woo Him last,
From under the trees they drew Him last:
'Twas on a tree they slew Him last,
When out of the woods He came.

The Rector is pleased and very proud that he has been given the opportunity of reading Dean Emory R. Johnson's autobiography, "The Life of a University Professor" which has just come from the publisher. Dean Johnson, one of the country's outstanding authorities on transportation has written a book that will bear penetrating comment from any angle. It is a brilliant work—and an exceedingly absorbing one on a subject which almost more than all others is the keynote of the future. Our congratulations to the author!

Last year the Diocesan Youth Commission held their annual service in St. Stephen's Church to which nearly seven hundred young people came. We have been asked to be their host again on March 5th, when they will express the theme "United We Make America" in music, worship and five minute talks by four young people from the Inter-Racial Fellowship. Such an ambitious subject, and one which strikes home with great emphasis here in Philadelphia, cannot help but be interesting. The Rector hopes that many of you will come to this service. It will be at three o'clock on Sunday afternoon, March 5th.

The speakers for the week are Rt. Rev. J. I. Blair Larned, D.D., Suffragan Bishop of Long Island who will preach Monday through Friday, and the Rev. Edmund B. Wood, Rector of St. Timothy's, Roxborough who will preach on Saturday.

We are grateful to Mrs. C. R. Williams for the BULLETIN subscription which we received on Friday.

And no one offereth consolation, yea, all her friends have betrayed her,
They have become her enemies.

Zion's ways do languish, none come to her feasts, her solemn feasts;
All her gates are desolate, her priests sigh, yea, her virgins are afflicted and she is in bitterness.

Is it nothing to all ye that pass by?

CARL ECKHARDT GRAMMER, S.T.D.

At a meeting of the Vestry of St. Stephen's Church held on March 21, 1944, the following minute was unanimously adopted:

"The Rector and Vestrymen of St. Stephen's Church make record of their deep loss in the passing of their late beloved and honored Rector-Emeritus, Carl Eckhardt Grammer, Doctor of Sacred Theology, on March 17, 1944.

Dr. Grammer was elected as the Rector of this Church on August 5, 1905, and assumed his duties in the early Fall of that year and served continuously until his resignation on October 1, 1936, when he was elected as Rector-Emeritus.

He came to the Rectorship of St. Stephen's Church in the eighty-second year of its useful life, at a time when the migration from the residential district within the parish to the suburban areas was beginning to be felt and the problem which Dr. Grammer faced was that of extending the guiding influence of this Church in a changing community. That he courageously and very successfully met the issue is well borne out by the history of the thirty-one following years.

His liberal Evangelical teachings from the Pulpit renewed the faith of thousands who came to hear him; his broad sympathetic understanding made him a beloved Pastor who ministered with love and tenderness to the sick, the needy, and those in anguish; his keen civic awareness found him always a champion on the side of right and a militant foe of wrong. His own high intellectual standards made him a stanch advocate for better knowledge for others.

That he was an able and outstanding administrator is evidenced by the manner in which he attracted generous benefactors who, with him, have made possible not only the perpetuation of the work of this Church, but to beautify its edifice and build its Community House.

The great trust reposed in us for the conduct of the Burd School had under his Rectorship a real understanding friend of children, and the enviable and outstanding reputation of that School today, its usefulness and its assured future, were facilitated by the fine leadership of Dr. Grammer.

Those who have had the rare privilege of an intimate association with Dr. Grammer testify with thankful hearts to the blessings which have come from that close contact with him; to others the clear light of his star will remain as a guide to future generations.

In deep humility we thank Almighty God for the benefits that have come to us because of the fine Christian character and leadership of Carl Eckhardt Grammer and extend to Mrs. Grammer and her family the heartfelt sympathy of the Rector and Vestry in their bereavement."

ALFRED W. PRICE, Rector.
DAVID L. GERMAN, Clerk.

MR. BRANTLEY ELLIS

At a meeting of the Vestry of St. Stephen's Church held on March 21, 1944, the following minute was unanimously adopted:

"The Rector and Vestrymen of St. Stephen's Church record with deep regret the passing of their honored and beloved fellow Vestryman, M. Brantley Ellis, on March 15, 1944.

We are proud to testify to the beautiful Christian character of M. Brantley Ellis and are profoundly grateful for the blessings that have come to us individually, as a Vestry, and to the Church as an institution in our long association with him.

Mr. Ellis was elected to the Vestry of this Church on January 4, 1922, and for over twenty-two years served continuously and faithfully until his death. He was the Clerk of the Vestry from June 13, 1932, until May 23, 1934, and was a valuable member for many years of the Finance, Burd School and Church Music Committees, and on a number of occasions served as a delegate from our Church to Diocesan Conventions.

In every office he discharged his duties with high fidelity and skill and contributed generously of his ability and experience to the work of St. Stephen's Church and its trusts. Long will he be remembered with deep gratitude for his faithfulness, his generosity and gentle kindness.

In the loss of our friend we extend to Mrs. Ellis our deep sympathy in this bereavement and assure her of our prayers that Almighty God in his love will grant to her peace and comfort."

CARL ECKHARDT GRAMMER, S.T.D.
Rector of St. Stephen's Church, 1905-1936
Rector-Emeritus, 1936-1944

Thirty-nine years is such a long time that many of us had come to feel that our beloved Rector-Emeritus would always be with us. For nearly four decades, St. Stephen's Church has been the object of the prayers and love of that man of God to whom so many owe the inspiration to be active Christians. For these many years members of the Parish and a host of others outside, have felt that when all other human means failed to help or console, this great pastor was ever ready and able to say, or do that which would make life look possible again. We have shared his indomitable courage in adversity; we have laughed with him at the antics of the human race; we have risen to the heights of prophetic indignation as he denounced some particular vice or some especially low meanness of character; we have been steadied in our times of doubt by his own unwavering conviction; we have sat at his feet not only to be inspired but to learn from the store of knowledge retained by a truly prodigious memory.

No one who has had any association whatever with Carl Grammer has failed to recognize his intellectual integrity. He exemplified, as do too few, the loving of God with all your mind. He was trained as a scholar, devoting eleven years to the teaching of Church History and Canon Law in one of our great Theological Schools. He was also the President of Sweet Briar College.

Dr. Grammer acted as a scholar. He applied his scholarship to the elimination of all prejudice. He was impatient with slovenly work. He could not understand intellectual dishonesty. It aroused all the latent fire in him, but he was sympathetic with those who lacked opportunity. His mind, character and training led to a desire for verification of facts.

He made a magnificent contribution to the acceptance of Christianity in terms of modern thought. His major promise was that revelation is progressive. He saw, and in his sermons and writings tried to make clear, the concept of the unfolding revelation of God.

Unlike most men of scholarly gifts and attainments, Dr. Grammar did not shrink from pastoral contacts with people, but rather excelled as a sympathetic and understanding pastor. A truly rare combination of heart and mind was this man of God. Although a leader in the liberal school of theology, he nevertheless possessed a childlike faith in the Providence of God.

Not only was he a lover of truth but he was also a lover of beauty. He changed, in a really miraculous way, a church certainly far from beautiful into one of great architectural dignity and beauty.

And finally, Dr. Grammer was a level-headed man of business. He believed the business of the Church—the King's business—was big business. When he became Rector back in 1905, he found the neighborhood surrounding the Church had changed and people in great numbers moving to the suburbs. For thirty-one years he met this trying situation and left the Church strong enough to carry on and extend its work.

He encouraged those of means to remember the Church in their wills. He left St. Stephen's with an endowment fund second to none in the Diocese and equalled by few churches in America. Thus the future of the Church's work in the heart of the city is insured.

Carl Grammer lived a long life. Eighty-five years. Through the sixty years in the active ministry he played a stirring part. Men might and did, often, differ with him sharply, but no man with the seeing eye could fail to discern the Divine Spirit dwelling in his heart.

The Church triumphant has gained a valiant Champion.
He is not dead this good man whom we mourn
Though out of sight and hearing he has gone;
He lives, removed from earthly care and ill,
With stronger, holier power to bless us still.

M. BRANTLEY ELLIS

In the death of Brantley Ellis on March 15, our Parish loses a vestryman of twenty-two years. In years past and recent he was always ready to do his part to add to the happiness of our fellowship. He was always cordial and friendly, always thoughtful and unselfish. He loved his Church, he loved his home, he loved his work, he loved his fellow men.

It is such steadfast loyalty to all life's duties, so conspicuously exemplified in the life of Brantley Ellis, that has made St. Stephen's Church a power for good. Because he walked so modestly in our midst, not judging but loving, each of us knows in his heart that we are further along because he lived and, in God's providence, his life touched on ours.

CONSISTENCY

Two men were talking about their boyhood. Said the first: "I shall never forget the way that my mother and my father, too, insisted that I bathe regularly, not just once a week on Saturday night but almost every time I came in from baseball and football. 'Upstairs, young man, get into that bath and put on clean clothes.' I used to kick about it but it was no good and into the tub I got. That got me into one of the best habits of my life and today I just feel that I must hop into a bath every time I get sweated up. And certainly a bath makes all the difference when one feels a bit low and tired."

A little later on the pastor met the man who was so enthusiastic about the training his parents had given him in the matter of bathing. He made a suggestion or two about the value of attending church. Said the enthusiastic bather: "But parson, you know, when I was a boy my parents kept after me all the time to go to church and Sunday school I guess I got too much of it and so when I was about twenty I just made up my mind to take a prolonged holiday from church and I guess I am still taking it. Maybe I'll be back some day."

Consistency! Thou certainly art one jewel!

WHAT ABOUT THIS ONE?

Said a prominent man to a pastor: "Do you know what I want you to do?" "No", said the pastor. "Well", was the response, "I want to know, if you're alive when I die, will you promise to bury me? If you'll make that promise, I shall leave the necessary instructions. I want to be sure of a decent burial and I think you can take care of it." The pastor thought that the man was joking and said so. But the man was never more serious in his life.

Then the pastor suggested that it would be a good thing if the man would line up with the church and attend with some degree of regularity. No, the man didn't want to do that. He frankly said that he had no particular use for the church but he did want a decent burial.

THE PAYOFF

Father, mother and a couple of children. The father was a fine chap, popular with the gang and an all round good fellow but every Sunday when his wife suggested that it would be a fine thing if they all attended the church together he would say: "That's all right, but you go; I've got something else on hand this morning. You will do for both of us." And so the years passed on. Mother did her best to give the youngsters the right kind of example and the youngsters responded pretty well: the mother had to "do" for both herself and her husband.

Then the day came when the mother died. But the father didn't change his ways as far as religion and the church were concerned. Finally he died, too. He was quite sure that his good wife had gone to heaven. When he arrived in the other world he knocked at the gate of heaven, told who he was and asked for admission: "O yes, we have your record. Your wife is here and she will do for both of you."

THE RECTOR'S EASTER GREETING

"Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us: therefore let us keep the feast,

"Not with old leaven, neither with the leaven of malice and wickedness, but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and Truth."

My Beloved People of St. Stephen's:

A war-weary world turns to Easter this year, not looking for anything of startling newness, for the story cannot be changed, but with a hope nevertheless of finding something refreshing to its jaded spirits. It will not be disappointed. Easter brings two thoughts to mind which meet our needs.

The first is a renewed faith in life after death, life which knows no suffering, or at least knows how to cope with suffering. In this Easter never disappoints us. The Resurrection of our Lord assures us that He will be able to keep his promise, "In my Father's house are many mansions! If it were not so I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you."

The second is a reminder that sincerity and truth cannot be thrown into the discard, and will ultimately triumph. In the text above, St. Paul reminded the Corinthians to keep the Christian Passover with the "unleavened bread of sincerity and truth." He sent out that message to a world disintegrating from the effects of insincerity, lying, self-seeking, and rank paganism—so like much of our present world. The message took hold, and it transformed those who received it. That transformation can take place again, and it will take place again. When Thomas said, "Lord, we know not whither thou goest, and how can we know the way?" Jesus replied, "I am the way, the truth and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me." That means, positively speaking, that we can "come to the Father" with the help and guidance of Jesus. He lives! His power cannot be destroyed!

Affectionately and Faithfully, your Rector,

Alfred W. Price.

EASTER OFFERING

If we are truly grateful for the Blessed Resurrection, we will want to present an offering of Thanksgiving and Gratitude to God and His Church on Easter Day, even as we are able and the spirit directs us. For this purpose, use the enclosed envelope.

COMMUNION FOR SHUT-INS

The Rector will be glad to make appointments for private services during the Easter season for any who are ill or shut-in. The Service for the Communion of the Sick is not intended for the dying only, but to give strength and comfort to all who are ill.

LENT AT ST. STEPHEN'S CHURCH

In co-operation with the Brotherhood of St. Andrew we had another fruitful Lent. Over 19,000 attended the noon-day services, and this in spite of some very bad weather and the severe restrictions which the war engendered. I am sure that you will all feel the new life that is stirring in the Parish and that you have confidence that we are going on to greater achievements. I should like particularly to thank the following men who gave up six days each week to the Church to serve as ushers: Henry Maxwell, F. Matthers, Christian Miller, Maurice P. Lowe, C. F. Wieland, Murray C. Boyer, Robert Newcomer, Westford Warner, Charles Paist, Robert Greer, George Agnew, Conrad Brooks and Raymond Winter.

EASTER AT ST. STEPHEN'S CHURCH

We had another joyous Easter in spite of the sadness which surrounds us. It seems to me that Easter always looks its best against a dark background. There were many sad and worried hearts at the two services in St. Stephen's but no one would ever know it from the facial expressions or the hearty singing. But did you not feel, as I did, that we were all very much in earnest? There was a steady serenity which I have never felt so strongly before. There was no frivolity of spirit; first things were put first this year. I am sure that we were all strengthened by our common mood.

I am grateful for your sensitivity to the situation. You cannot imagine how much easier a congregation makes the task of a leader in worship when he is not compelled to instill in them the mood of worship. So often this has to be done on an Easter in ordinary times. But this Easter we came with a purpose, which we fulfilled.

I am sure that we are all grateful to those who helped: to the Altar Guild, who decorated, the Altar servers, who keep essential things from being obtrusive; the ushers, who really are necessary at this time, and last, but not least, the musicians who do for us what we are not able to do for ourselves.

With spirits once more assured of God's love for us we face the future with confidence and determination to do his work.

THE SERVICE CLUB

St. Stephen's Service Club celebrated its first anniversary on April twelfth. In its first year of operation the organization has been host to over 32,000 men and women of the armed forces and every Sunday night has served a home-cooked dinner to about two hundred. Two hundred and eight churches and missions of the diocese have supported this project without any outside financial aid. We are very proud of our diocese for the work of its War Commission, of the hundreds of volunteers who have helped to make this service to our sons and daughters successful, and of the splendid committees which direct the policy and details of this worthwhile undertaking.

May the year to come be equally successful as this has been.

A LETTER

Dear Dr. Price:

Many thanks for your kind letter telling me that my sailor son attended your church and that he appears well, etc. I should have answered sooner and thanked you and your splendid parish. You are indeed doing a fine thing for the boys in service and I am sure all parents who receive such a letter feel thankful and praise the Lord that their efforts to rear their children to be good God-fearing churchmen have not been in vain. That sailor of mine has the honor of being commended by the Navy for his part in the invasion of both Sicily and Salerno Beach. He gives the Lord all thanks and praise and is now at sea again. We shall appreciate your continued prayers. God bless you and your parish and may you live long to continue spreading Christ's Kingdom here in this troubled world.

The Altar flowers are given by Mrs. William Dickhart.

We regretfully announce the passing into the Great Beyond of Joanne Keaton of the Burd School, on April 11, as a result of Tubercular Meningitis. Joanne's passing is the first in twenty-two years and the eleventh in the eighty-eight years of the Burd School. Our deep sympathy is expressed to Mrs. Keaton and to Joanne's sisters and brothers in the loss of one of their precious possessions from tangible association. May the souls of the righteous by the mercy of God rest in peace.

We acknowledge with gratitude the bulletin subscriptions of Mrs. Mercy E. Coles and Mr. and Mrs. William Watson.

CHRISTIAN FELLOWSHIP

Sometimes we take a meaningful phrase and use it so heavily that, not unlike a post office pen, we blunt its point. Take such a word as "fellowship" for instance—here is a word with tremendous implications. It means discovering with others a state of en rapport and mutual interest outside ourselves. How particularly important is this word "fellowship". When qualified by the word "Christian". Together in Christ, all people, no matter how diverse their stations or life experience, can find an ennobling and creative power sustaining and influencing the individual lives. It is the function of corporate worship at its best to release that power. In Robert Barclay's biography of William Penn is this pertinent observation:

"Not by strength of arguments or by a particular disquisition of each doctrine, and a convincement of my understanding thereby, came I to receive and bear witness of the Truth, but by being secretly reached by the Life. For, when I came into the silent assemblies of God's people, I felt a secret power among them, which touched my heart; and as I gave way to it I found the evil weakening in me and the good raised up—and indeed this is the surest way to become a Christian."

It is the hope and conviction of the rector that the services of our Church may prove, with God's blessing, to be a clue to a deepened awareness of the resources of spiritual power available to present day people facing present day realities.

We earnestly bespeak your prayerful interest in the Sunday and noonday services, that they may be used to the extension of the Kingdom of God, and that they may produce real fruits of "Christian fellowship" in the finest sense of that phrase.

MISSIONARY GIFTS

We have much to be encouraged about in the response of our people toward our missionary quota. I have before me the report of the executive office of the diocese, showing the amounts credited to the parishes and missions during the year 1943. I place beside ours the reports of some churches of similar location:

	Expectations	Paid on Expectations	Diocesan Contributors	Specials	Total
St. Stephen's	$3,000.00	$3,346.07	$600.00	$523.41	$4,469.43
St. Luke & the Epiphany	1,200.00	1,205.00	100.00	163.05	1,468.05
St. Peter's	4,000.00	4,186.77	125.00	78.76	5,098.53
St. Clement's	4,047.05	4,220.79	203.00	340.29	4,764.08
Christ	5,500.00	5,502.96	.....	635.07	6,138.03
Holy Trinity	8,709.62	8,897.47	285.00	2,379.62	11,562.09
St. James's	.....	677.30	160.00	783.66	1,620.96

The comparison shows that we are increasing in liberality to Diocesan objects, and so far as comparison can be any guide in such matters, doing our part. With a congregation of such generosity and such ability, there is every reason for encouragement.

Mrs. Mearns wishes to thank the many friends of the Mothers' Meeting who made the recent Bazaar so successful by their gifts and patronage.

Our Annual Parish Meeting will be held May 9th at 8.00 P. M.

FACING THE DENTIST WITH FORTITUDE

We went to the Dentist recently to have our teeth fixed. A relatively nundane and necessary human experience. A youngster in a confirmation class once told us candidly that "the only time she ever prayed was when she went to a dentist!"

Instead of a prayerful mood, however, we thought of a cartoon we saw recently. A patient is leaning back in a dentist's chair with a huge leer of self-satisfaction on his face. The poor dentist is looking over his shoulder at the patient reprovingly, as the nurse ties up the dentist's aching finger. One can understand what has happened. The dentist is saying to his grinning-gargoyle patient: "You mustn't do that again!"

We didn't bite our tooth-repairer, though we must confess to having the desire upon occasion. On the contrary, we learned a very valuable lesson which we pass on to our readers for what it is worth.

Since the first time we ever sat in a dentist's chair, we have had the habit of gripping the chair arms tightly, sitting rigidly, setting our jaw and tensing our body generally as though gallows were about to be sprung.

Anticipating each sundering blow of the chisel or each bite of the whirling dervish burr, suddenly an inspiration came to us: This man knows his business" we thought. "Why not trust him? Here we are all tensed up for each shock and it still hurts, why not put the relaxation doctrine which we preach about into effect and see what happens?"

So we proceeded to make ourselves into as reasonable a facsimile of a "wet leaf on a log" as is possible under such a handicap. We dropped our hands limply and let go our mental reservations.

It worked!

The pain from that point on was not as intense though the worst part of the work had just begun! The dentist began unconsciously to have a new sureness and deftness in his fingers; and when the appointment was finished we walked out of the torture chamber relatively fresh and cheerful, whereas every other time we can ever remember, we have gone away nervously exhausted and irritable.

Perhaps our readers have learned this long ago, but if this works for others, we cannot understand why dental schools have not long since instructed their students to teach their apprehensive patients the simple art of rdlaxation-a-la-drill!

Can anyone give information regarding the address of the following? Send corrections to the Parish Office or call Wal. 3807.

PRAYERS FOR OUR MEN AT SEA, ON LAND AND IN THE AIR

Minister: Let us remember before God those who are fighting and suffering and dying that we may live in peace and freedom. (Silence) Let us pray for those at sea: O Thou that spreadest out the heavens and rulest the raging of the sea, be pleased to receive into Thy Almighty protection all those who are serving their country on the sea, and give them courage and loyalty and a sure confidence in Thee, through Jesus our Lord. Amen.

Response: (to be sung). Eternal Father strong to save, Whose arm doth bind the restless wave, Who bidst the mighty ocean deep It's own appointed limits keep; O hear us when we cry to Thee For those in peril on the sea.

Minister: Let us pray for those who are fighting in the air: Almighty God, who maketh the clouds Thy chariot and walkest upon the wings of wind; have mercy, we beseech Thee, on our airmen, and when they are amidst the clouds and wonders of the sky, give unto them the assurance of Thy protection, that they may do their duty with prudence and with fearlessness, confident that in life or death the eternal God is their refuge, and that underneath are the everlasting arms; through Jesus Christ our Lord Amen.

Response: "O hear us as we make our prayer, For those in peril in the air."

Minister: Let us pray for our soldiers: O Lord of Hosts, stretch forth, we pray Thee, Thine Almighty arm to strengthen and protect the soldiers of our country. Support them in the day of battle, endue them with courage and loyalty and grant that they may in all things serve Thee without fear and without reproach through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

Response: "Our soldiers, Lord, vouchsafe to bless As they fight on for righteousness."

Minister: Let us pray for those watching and waiting at home: Comfort, O Lord, we pray Thee, all who wait in loneliness because of the absence of loved ones who have gone to serve their country. Give them faith to look beyond the troubles and anxiety of this present time and to know that neither life nor death can separate us from the love of God which is in Christ Jesus our Lord. Amen.

Response: "O let our homes Thy temples be Where we may watch and wait with Thee."

HOW WOULD YOU ANSWER HIM?

I talked not long ago with a soldier who had left a limb upon a battlefield. His father had died in France twenty-five years ago.

What concerned him most was how much we had learned in twenty-five years. "Will it be any different this time?" he asked, then answered his own question: "I don't believe it! Look at the political mess. What will a government that wrangles about the soldiers' right to vote and makes a political issue of it do with post-war international issues? And what is the Church doing? Is it any more alive than it was in 1918?

I told him of the Commission on the Basis of a Just and Durable Peace and of various other manifestations within the life of the Church. "But," he replied, "how many churches are responding? How many ministers care? How many church members even know about it? And how many people who know about these things will rise above political partisanship when it comes to the test?"

How would you answer him?

Lift up your heads, O ye gates, and be ye lift up, ye everlasting doors, and the King of Glory shall come in.
Who is the King of Glory?
The Lord strong and mighty, the Lord mighty in battle. Lift up your heads, O ye gates, and be ye lift up, ye everlasting doors, and the King of Glory shall come in.
Who is the King of Glory?
The Lord of Hosts, He is the King of Glory.

The Congregation is requested to stand at the first note of Canticles and Hymns.

The Altar Flowers are given by Mrs. John C. Knox as a tribute to the memory of John Hart, Signer of the Declaration of Independence.

The Lenten Offering of the Church Schools will be presented at a great service to be held on the grounds of the Episcopal Academy, Sunday afternoon, May 21st at 4.00 P. M. Our offering this year is $200.00.

FAMILY LIFE

It is fitting that following Mothers' Day we should consider the significance and values of family life. The finest reward of true Motherhood is the wholesomeness of family life.

In the year of our Lord 1944 the importance of family life is greatly enhanced by world circumstance.

It is not only that separation and danger are revealing infinite preciousness of our ties of love and affection; nor is it, in addition, just that the world is demonstrating that no family anywhere can live in an "ivory tower" in peaceful isolation from the cares and responsibilities of the rest of mankind.

It is far more positive than that.

It is, first, the fact that the home is the most critical unit of society. It is in the home that religion is taught that character is formed, that loyalties and prejudices both are born. The home is the place where beyond all others it is demonstrated that practice outinfluences preaching and learning comes through absorption much more than precept.

In the second place, the true home is a demonstration of the principles upon which alone men throughout the world can live together in peace and security. The selfdenying responsibility of parenthood, the give and take of brotherhood, the consideration of each individual as a personality, the harmonizing of varying points of view, the realization that the welfare of each is bound up with that of all and its reverse—these are among those things which the nation and the world must learn from the home—must learn and apply.

When Jesus pointed to all humanity as his mother and his brethren —it was not that He loved His family the less, but that He loved the world the most.

We are still hoping to obtain the addresses of the following who are either members of this parish or are on our mailing list because they are interested in St. Stephen's Church. Please send your information to Mrs. Charles J. Maurer, the Parish Secretary, or telephone Walnut 3807, as soon as possible in order to complete our Parish List which is even now in the hands of the printer!

OFFERTORY HYMN—"O God, we thank Thee for the Gifts"

O God we thank Thee for the gifts
That come from Thee alone
And chiefly for that mother love
Which is so like Thine own;

That love that shields our infancy
The love that guides our youth
That shows the wonders of Thy love
The glories of Thy truth.

We pray that Thou wilt greatly bless
Our mothers on this day
With treasures from Thy heavenly store
That cannot pass away.

We pray that sons and daughters all
May ever loyal be,
And may our mothers' prayers fulfill
By truly serving Thee. Amen.

The Altar flowers are given by Mrs. Margaret Dougherty in memory of her mother, Tabitha Frass.

We acknowledge with gratitude the bulletin subscriptions of Miss Marion Hart, Mrs. Jane Smith and Mr. Robert Watson.

On Thursday, May 4th, the Mothers' Meeting of St. Stephen's Church had a party for members who were eighty years of age or over. They were Mesdames Atkinson, Gross, Orth, Willis and Miss Thompson. Mrs. Daniel R. Harper, who had charge of this organization for several years, was the guest of honor. The younger members supplied the talent, decorated the room, and served the refreshments. (The party was a great success.—Ed.)

All theological students must pass canonical examinations before ordination. The rector has been appointed an examining Chaplain in the Diocese of Pennsylvania.

LITANY FOR MOTHER'S DAY

For the mothers, who suffered that we might live; who sacrificed that we might prosper; who served that we might be happy,

We thank Thee, O Lord;

For mother-love that watched with ceaseless vigil our every step; that responded with eager feet to our every call; that waited with tireless patience upon every need; that sought us when astray, warned us when in peril, and forgave us when in sin,

We thank Thee, O Lord.

For mother-faith, that rested in quiet confidence upon the promises of God, that enfolded us at all times in the blessed covenant of divine grace; that looked into the darkness without fear; that never despaired when hard pressed; that taught us to believe when we pray, and to trust when we work,

We thank Thee, O Lord.

For mother-prayer, that held us ever before the throne of grace; that swept land and sea for us, when far from home; that carried our ills and our pains, our sins and our mistakes to the Comforter of all; that never ceased when no answer came, and never failed when most undeserved.

We thank Thee, O Lord.

O God, merciful Father, give to us abiding memories of the mothers that have gone; revived visions of their loving presence; renewed consecration to their high ideals; and a recovery for this day of those spiritual qualities that through them made us what we are,

We pray Thee, O Lord.

O Christ, blessed Saviour of us all, who in love unspeakable didst speak so tenderly to the mother at the cross, teach us to be as thoughtful and as kind to our mothers today, who, in Thy gracious Providence, are still with us. May their presence ever be a benediction to follow us, and a challenge to stir us to use every latent power within us to give as Thou has given,

We pray Thee, O Lord.

O Spirit of God, who doth shed abroad in our hearts the love of God, be pleased to fill the world with love, and not hatred; forgiveness and not revenge; with charity and not suspicion; And let the mantle of that love fall especially upon all mothers, whether in health or in sickness, in poverty or in wealth, in joy or in sorrow, that motherhood everywhere may come to a new birth, rise to new ideals, and attain to new heights of achievement.

We pray Thee, O Lord.

WITH THE MEN IN SERVICE

THE ANNUAL PARISH MEETING

The Annual Parish Meeting will be held on Tuesday, May 9th in the Parish House, 19 South Tenth Street at 8.00 P. M. Elections will be held for twelve vestrymen, and reports will be made. The reports, which will tell us what we have accomplished during the past year and what our situation as a Parish is as we face the challenge and opportunity of the year ahead, will be presented by a group of faithful and loyal workers, who work in season and out of season for our Church. They deserve a hearing.

In this critical and troublous time, as a Parish we have much for which to be deeply grateful. It is our trust to keep our Parish strong and faithful, so that when our boys and girls return, they will have firm foundations on which to build in the years which lie ahead.

THE PARISH REGISTER

RACIAL TENSIONS

According to a report that is before me, the House of Representatives of the State of South Carolina recently adopted a resolution which contained the following assertion:

"We reaffirm our belief in and our allegiance to establish white supremacy as now prevailing in the South and we solemnly pledge our lives and our sacred honor to maintaining it, whatever the cost, in war and in peace."

By the side of this lies a regulation recently adopted by a New Jersey Planning Board which pronounces that: ". . . No person belonging to any race except persons of pure Caucasian blood shall use or occupy any dwelling house erected on any lot, except that this covenant shall not be construed to prevent the occupancy by domestic servants of a different race when actually employed by the owner or tenant of any such premises."

Beside both of these I should like to place the national oath of allegiance taught to all our school children: "I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America, and to the country for which it stands—one nation, indivisible with liberty and justice for all."

And I would add the familiar words of the New Testament: "Where there is neither Greek, nor Jew, Barbarian, Scythian, bond or free: but Christ is all and in all."

Apparently neither South Carolina nor the town in New Jersey accept the validity of the Oath of Allegiance or the Christian doctrine of man.

All of which is to remind us of how far we have to go before America becomes America and we become Christian. The day has gone when we can be complacent in the face of such facts, for we may well live to see the issue of racial struggle transcend that of the strife of nations around the world.

I am not suggesting that we are called upon to meet such actions with direct assault, althongh it seems impossible that the New Jersey action could stand for a moment in court. But certainly we are challenged to realize how thin a veneer has been laid over the Godless and undemocratic substance of our common life and on the basis of that challenge we are compelled to cut more deeply with the sword of the spirit if we would remove from the body of life those things which destroy.

POSTLUDE

The Altar flowers are given by Mr. Thomas M. Armstrong in memory of his parents, John and Julia Armstorng.

At our annual parish meeting Mr. James Otis Lyman and Edward Shippen Morris were elected to fill vacancies in the Vestry. We extend a hearty welcome to them. We are extremly fortunate to have a Vestry of twelve consecrated and devoted men who give generously of their varied abilities to the work of St. Stephen's and the Burd School.

The Ladies of the North Convocation will serve a Church Supper on the lawn of Christ Church, 2nd St. above Market on Saturday, June 3rd at 5 P. M.

A SOLDIER FINDS GOD

Recently a newspaper editor said to me that of the many wartime developments to be seen in a newspaper office, one of the surprises is the way servicemen take to writing verse. Young men who would never have done so in civilian life send to their home folks or their home town newspaper attempts to express in verse their thoughts and feelings—and so many do this, frequently in crude form, that it is a problem how to deal with this strange, yet genuine awakening of hearts amid war experiences. Often they write of the "hell" of war, but more often of loved ones at home—of their sweethearts or even more of their mothers. They write too, about God. One of the most stirring instances of finding God a reality which has come to us from servicemen is printed below. It came to Mrs. Anna Reidy from her soldier husband somewhere in Italy. It was found on the remains of a "buddy of his who died for his country—America". Our readers we feel sure, will recognize in these lines an extraordinary piece of writing.

"Look God! I've never before spoken to You;
But now I want to say: "How do you do?"
You see, they told me You didn't exist,
And like a fool I believed all this.
Last night from a shell hole I saw your sky;
I figured right then they had told me a lie
Had I taken time to see things You made,
I'd have known they weren't calling a spade a spade!
I wonder, God, if You'll take my hand!
Somehow I feel that You'll understand;
Funny, I'd come to this hellish place
Before I had time to see your face!

I guess there isn't much more to say,
But I'm sure glad that I met You today
The zero hour will soon be here—
But I'm not afraid since I know you're near.
The signal! Well, God, I'll have to go.
I like You a lot—this I want You to know.
This sure will be a horrible fight;
Who knows? I may come to Your house tonight!
Though I wasn't friendly to You before,
I wonder, God, if You'd wait at Your door?
Look! I'm crying—me, shedding tears!
I wish I had known You these many years
Well, I have to go now, God—good bye!
Strange—since I met You, I'm not afraid to die.

ANTHEM—"Let This Mind Be In You".....Mrs. H. H. A. Beach

"Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus; who, being in the form of God thought it not robbery to be equal with God. But made Himself of no reputation, and took upon Him the form of a servant, and was made in the likeness of men; and being found in fashion as a man, He humbled Himself and became obedient unto death, even the death of the Cross.

Wherefore, God also hath highly exalted Him, and Given Him a name which is above every name, that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of things in heaven, and things in earth and things under the earth; and that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the Glory of God the Father," Philippians 2: 5-11.

The Pennsylvania Hospital is in great need of volunteers who can give one night a week to maintenance work—weilding a mop and bucket! Business men in many cities are driving ambulances, caring for men patients and doing work similar to the Nurses' Aides.

The lowly tasks of keeping a hospital spic and span is every bit as necessary as bathing a patient. It lacks some of the glamor, but carries its own compensations, in varying degree, to every man who undertakes it. No long hours of training are necessary, either.

It would be a fine thing if St. Stephen's Church could send a group of men to the Pennsylvania Hospital to mop the corridors and keep the exacting standard of orderliness in which all Philadelphians are justly proud, to their highest level. This is a real challenge. Who is ready to accept it?

Call Walnut 4800 and ask for Mrs. Binney, the Director in charge of Volunteers.

MEETINGS WITHOUT ISSUE

So many of our church conferences and religious meetings, even worship services are stamped out on a routine pattern. We come together with or without food, we listen to each other talk; we go home tired and perhaps even a little discouraged because nothing has happened to us and the meeting did not press us to some personal commitment to do something tangible and practical about the particular theme the conference stressed. Frequently we are neither excited nor impressed and go away bored and weary. When are we going to break up this routine pattern and stop having conferences for the sake of hearing each other talk? Why not have fewer conferences with fewer people? Is it so hard to set the foundations of our meetings in prayer and then approach our discussions in a frame of mind where we can be compellingly laid hold of by the Holy Spirit? If we plan our meetings with the definite expectation of being used in the larger service of the Kingdom, ways and plans will unfold themselves to us. Things will happen in our own religious life and in the life of the church.

Otherwise it is just another talk fest.

'Tis heard in the rustling of leaves in the forest,
Seen in the waving of golden fields,
In loveliest flowers' gaudy array,
'Tis seen in myriad stars of heaven.
Fierce it sounds in the thunder's loud roll,
And flames in the lightning's brightly quivering flash.
Yet clearer thy throbbing heart to thee proclaims
Jehovah's pow'r, the Lord God Almighty.
Look thou praying to Heav'n, and hope for grace and for mercy.

DEPTHS OF LIFE

There is so little rest! There is such an unreasoning passion for activity! And so we skim the surface of all things; we never look down into their depths and see the power of help and culture which they might contain. We know no more of the real depth of our own lives than a child who crosses a frozen lake knows how deep the lake is. He does not even know that it has a depth. It looks all surface. But before our life can get depth into it, it must get God into it. God is the only power that deepens lives. A life with no intention of God in it must be shallow. And there is no life so hard and crusted that, if God does enter into it, He will not break its crust through and deepen it to untold richness.

PHILLIPS BROOKS.

NEW POWER FOR A NEW AGE

This may become known as the "Age of Power"—meaning of course material power.

It might just be possible that the age of material power will be remarkable also because of a rediscovery of spiritual power.

God help us if it isn't.

During the complacent days before "hell broke loose" (and we don't say it irreverently) man lifted his puny little arms in the air and shouted with a shrill tremolo:

"I am the master of my fate,
I am the captain of my soul"

Then he gave himself the lie, like Henley, by lying down to die proving that he was neither master of his fate, nor captain of his soul.

Man thought that with all his science he could control everything. He was almost right, but not quite. He forgot one thing. He forgot that he had not yet learned to control himself.

Spiritual power alone is strong enough to control secular power. Men are groping feebly for this truth.

Everywhere there is an increased interest in religion. Why should not there be? Isn't it about time?

We all go through pessimistic periods. We have gone through one about the Church, but, as for the writer, he is convinced that the Church has the answer; and that somehow, in the providence of God, in spite of some muffing and bungling, in spite of some petty jealousy and shortness, as of vision, the Church is going to receive a new birth of spiritual power. The stream of God's might has been dammed long enough by "eager beavers" chopping moral trees and slinging mud at religion. The dam is breaking and the flood of God's power is coming through. Who shall stand in this new day of power? Men who are not afraid they will lose face with their neighbors if they go to church or pray. Such a man will have a spiritual power. He will be strong where it counts to be strong. "He shall be like a tree planted by rivers of waters."

INVASION DAY

The long awaited and expected invasion of Western Europe by the Allied Nations' forces began early Tuesday morning, June 6th. People were waiting on the steps of the Church when the doors were opened by our Verger in the early morning. Throughout the day until six-thirty, the Church was filled. At noon and at five o'clock the rector led in a twenty-minute prayer service. Our voices were thus added to those of millions of others throughout the world indicating our dependence upon God for wisdom and strength and guidance to bring this global conflict to a righteous conclusion.

It is hard to catch up on our weekly church pledges when one is absent several Sundays on vacation, unless the envelopes are filled week by week. Even better, it would be very helpful if we could fill up our summer envelopes in advance, and if we are to be away, bring them in before we leave.

Not wanting, nor wasting, Thou rulest in might:
Thy Justice like mountains high soaring above
Thy clouds which are fountains of goodness and love.

To all, life Thou givest, to both great and small;
In all life Thou livest, the true life of all.
We blossom and flourish as leaves on the tree
And wither and perish but nought changeth Thee.

Great Father of Glory, pure Father of Light,
Thine Angels adore Thee, all veiling their sight,
All laud we would render, O help us to see
'Tis only the splendour of Light hideth Thee. Amen.

"GUIDE OUR FEET INTO THE WAY OF PEACE"

For the next nine weeks this little paper passes into suspended animation. And these next nine weeks are likely to be as critical as any equal period in human history. Who can doubt but that September will find us living in a vastly changed world? It will be a sadder world—because of the cost in human life which the operations of the next months will exact. Please God, it will also be a gladder world—because the end of the war will be more nearly in sight. On the American scene it will be a world of aggravated troubles because it is an election year—a political year, in which, if we run true to form and if we follow on as we are going, we will divide into two factions and hurl bitter words of accusation across the line of political separation. The tensions of these months will tend to deepen every cleavage in our national life and tragically those lines of cleavage penetrate the body of our Christian society as well.

For a world growing sadder under the impact of man-made death—for those multitudes of homes into which the presence of deep sorrow intrudes—Christianity alone has a word profound enough to penetrate the gloom with the light of hope. To the question: "If a man dies, will he live again?" it answers with deep conviction, "Yes".

For the gladder world—the world that begins to see the edge of the dark storm clouds of war—once more Christianity has the particular truth that must be spoken. If it speaks in tenderness to sorrow, it must speak in firmness to that gladder world the warning that unless with the end of this war we build a new world of brotherhood our sons will have died in vain and their sons will be called out into some future carnage.

And finally for this America which in these months ahead will speak so much falsehood in bitterness—which will strain at its lines of cleavage—Christianity has the message which must be sternly delivered to some and with patient winsomeness urged upon others. "A house divided against itself cannot stand." "By this shall men know that ye are my disciples if ye love one another." "Speak the truth in love." "Whatsoever ye would that men should do to you—do ye even so to them."

THE RECTOR ON VACATION

The Rector will be on vacation during the months of July and August. The Rev. Dr. Percy Stockman, of the Seaman's Church Institute will supply in the Rector's absence. Dr. Stockman will conduct the two Sunday services, nine and eleven, and the Wednesday and Friday noonday services. He will gladly offer his services and ministrations whenever they are needed. We extend a hearty welcome to him!

We have had letters from 2nd Lt. Elizabeth Mearns who landed in Normandy with the Invasion forces and has been nursing the wounded near the battle line. They had to clear the ground of mines and bodies before setting up the field hospital.

Edward J. Cooke, Jr. has recently received his Lieutenancy in the Army Air Force, at George Field, Lawrenceville, Illinois. Hearty congratulations to him, and to his family!

RODNEY M. MCCAUGHIN

We received the very sad news in mid-summer that one of our boys, Rodney M. McCaughin, has made the supreme sacrifice as the result of wounds received in action.

We pay our heartfelt tribute of honor and gratitude to this young man who has given his life in the service of his country and in the great cause of establishing a just and lasting peace among the nations of the world; to his family we extend our deepest sympathy, especially remembering his father, Morris, who is serving in the army and is at present somewhere in Georgia. May God comfort and support them all in their sorrow.

Congratulations to Mrs. Kenneth White on her achievements at Temple this summer, and to Miss White who has received top honors in the Marine Corps. We wish her the best of luck in her new undertaking!

The members of the Mothers' Meeting who were unable to go to Atlantic City for their annual outing, were entertained at dinner on August 9th, at Snellenburg's. It was a happy and successful occasion. The Mothers have charge of the Sunday night supper at St. Stephen's Club, on September 17th. The first thirty-five subscribers who will pay one dollar each will be welcome to attend. This will be an excellent opportunity of seeing the Club in action. We sincerely hope you will be one of the lucky thirty-five! Telephone the Club for your reservation.

REALISTIC BROTHERHOOD

Addressing the American Newspaper Publishers Association recently, Mr. Frederic C. Crawford, Chairman of the Board of the National Association of Manufacturers, put into the mouth of a symbolic character—"a worried little business man"—these words:

"And you, Mr. Preacher and Professor—you don't produce food, clothing or shelter. Why don't you stop talking all this crack-pot social stuff and go to a good factory. Get yourselves a job and see if you can't discover the secret of wealth and the golden key that unlocks it. At least quit teaching and preaching about Joe and mother and grandpa and the evils of industry until you learn something about them."

I can hear the burdened little minister reply:

"Please get out of your head, my friend, the idea that I am personally interested in 'the golden key that unlocks the secret of wealth.' Had I been I would have chosen another occupation.

"But on the other hand, I am most certainly concerned with unlocking the door of the earth's bounties for the benefit of all mankind.

"That's where Joe and mother and grandpa come into the picture. You see, I know Joe. His children are in my Sunday School and when he got laid off in the depression I know what happened to his family. And I know mother. Right now I am trying my best to persuade her to take the hospitalization which she needs but won't take because the family can't spare her. As for grandpa—the bleakness of his old age tears my heart.

"One thing more—if you are really looking for the key to the wealth which will benefit all to whom God intends the benefits of His created world to reach—I beg you to realize that you won't find it in the machine or the factory or the office or in an economic treatise.

"You will find it in the teaching of Jesus about man's responsibility to man. You will discover that the key is named 'brotherhood'. Seek ye first the Kingdom of God and His righteousness—and all these things will be added to you." There is a stern reality that we all must realize. Peace and true prosperity will come and will endure only as the by-products of justice which is realistic brotherhood.

ORGAN PRELUDE ..... Brahms
PROCESSIONAL HYMN 1 ..... Webbe
KYRIE ..... Tours
ANTHEM—"God's peace is peace eternal" ..... Grieg

God's peace is peace eternal,
  Here discords all our joys displace;
We wage a war infernal,
  And gentle mercy finds no place.
Life is our time of trial now,
Before the Judge we all must bow.

God merciful and kind will shield us,
  And from evil set us free;
He knoweth when to sin we yield us,
  The path we follow recklessly.
He will the vilest soul release,
Who turns from sin to heaven's peace.

POSTLUDE

The Altar flowers are in memory of Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Gensheimer.

Congratulations to Lt. and Mrs. Richard C. Johnston on the birth of their daughter, Cicely Ann, on June 30, 1944. Likewise our felicitations to Mr. and Mrs. C. Clay Aldridge on the birth of their son, Richard Cleveland, July 11, 1944. Mrs. Aldridge was Virginia Downward and Mrs. Johnston was Mary Pointer, both graduates of which the Burd School is justly proud.

The Rector was elected National Chaplain of the Military Order of the Purple Heart at the Convention held in Lancaster, Pa., early in August.

The Rector and his family have returned from their vacation. It was in every way a most beneficial and enjoyable experience. We return with a grateful sense of God's goodness and with rested bodies and freshened minds to serve Him more faithfully and, we trust, more effectively.

The Rector would add an expression of gratitude to Dr. Stockman, whose ministrations were greatly enjoyed and deeply appreciated by all our people.

27—Mrs. William B. Campbell.

We gratefully acknowledge the Bulletin subscription of Mrs. C. Bilse, which was sent to us late in June.

FRIEDA M. ARMSTRONG

Mrs. Armstrong's sudden death on July 12th has taken from us a member whose whole-hearted devotion to St. Stephen's and open-handed generosity had endeared her to the whole parish. Her enthusiasm for St. Stephen's was a constant source of inspiration to the rector. She brought a goodly number into the Church, and was ever alert to make strangers welcome and to seek out the lonely and distraught. She has gone from us, and we are sad that we shall see her face no more. Her memory will bind us closer to the Church she loved so well.

Lovely appear over the mountains the feet of them that preach and bring good news of peace. Ye mountains, ye perpetual hills, bow ye down; over the barren wastes shall flowers now have possession. Dark shades of ancient days full of hate and oppression, in the brightness of joy fade away and are gone. In this age truly blest more than ages preceding, shall the corn never fail from the plentiful ground. Under the shining sky shall the lambs gaily bounding void of fear, undisturbed, safely shall they be feeding. Then the timorous doves wheresoever they fly shall not fear any more the hawk's merciless cry.

SEVENFOLD AMEN ..... Stainer

RECESSIONAL HYMN 474 ..... Walch

THE UNITED THANK OFFERING will be presented at our service Sunday morning and all those who have the Blue Boxes are asked to place the contents in the envelopes provided for the purpose and put them in the alms basin at the eleven o'clock service. Others in the congregation this morning are given the opportunity of making a thank offering in special envelopes which will be found in the pews. Additional offerings may be sent to the Parish Custodian of the U. T. O., Mrs. B. M. Tinsley, 4505 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia 4.

The U. T. O. is one of the means of assuring salaries to teachers, doctors, nurses, social workers and others, and the fees for their training in work for the Church. Every woman in the parish should be a member of this blessed and important project.

The Altar flowers are given by Mr. Paul Downward in memory of Rachael Hollingsworth Downward.

We gratefully acknowledge the gifts of Mrs. Martha Atherton and Miss Marguerite Caldwell, to the Benevolent Society Fund.

The Rector is to serve as the Chaplain of the School of Christian Education which meets in the Church House for six Tuesdays beginning October 17th from 7.15 to 9.30 P. M. Nine interesting and worthwhile courses on Christian Education will be given and they are open to every one. Registration, fifty cents, admits to all classes.

DOES THE WILL OF CHRIST MATTER?

"Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature." If those words have any meaning at all, then the missionary enterprise is more than possible; it is inevitable. Jesus is not here making a suggestion, nor even a request. He is issuing a command.

When you come to think of it, isn't it rather incredible that Christions should ever question the missionary enterprise? Missions is not open to debate! We have been reading what the essayists and novelists who are irreligious have had to say about missions. We have listened to armchair philosophers whose relationship to Christ is only casual. Is it not high time we listened to our living Lord?

We moderns do not like the word "obey", but as Dr. Mackay has pointed out "There is only one way of being truly Christian and fulfilling in personal life the essential Christian mission; and that by allowing ourselves to be conscripted utterly, body, mind and spirit, time, wealth and honor—by the Christ who, in Pascal's immortal saying, 'continues to agonize in the soul of His followers for the world's redemption'."

Archibald Rutledge tells this story: "One summer day, going down a pineland road, I came upon a familiar sight. Over a bush was spread a ragged coat. Under the bush were a dinner bucket and a mangy yellow cur dog. A Negro turpentine worker had stationed this humble sentinel. Flies, ticks, mosquitoes, and a scorching sun assailed him; but here he lay beside the precious dinner he had been left to guard. An hour later, as I returned from getting the mail, I saw the smoke and flames of a great forest fire rolling up. The woods were intensely dry; a hot wind was blowing. By the time I reached the place where the Negro had left his dinner, I found that bush, coat, pail and faithful dog had vanished—all burned to a crisp. Now, that dog knew vey well how to get away from a fire. He was aware of his peril. But he preferred to die rather than betray his trust. As I stood there I saw the Negro come running like a deer through the woods. When he ran up panting, I said, 'You are too late. Your dinner is gone.' 'Cap'n', he said, tears in his eyes, 'I didn't run for my bucket, I done run for my dog. I done knew he would never leave anything I done tole him to watch. I always had to be careful what I told him to do, case I knew he would do it!' I wonder, could our Master say a thing like that about us?"

If you and I come to grips with this business of missions, it will not be because our questions have all been answered and our difficulties solved. It will be because we have taken Christ at His word, and laid ourselves out to do His will.

Blessed he, who, from earth's dreams awaking
Turns his heart from worldly pride;
Who every other joy forsaking,
Of wealth the golden fetters breaking,
Treasures of heaven spreads around on every side.
Then when the awful trumpet soundeth,
Let him rejoice!
Blessed is he in whom God's grace and love aboundeth,
Angels for him heaven's gates fling open wide.

A PLEDGE OF AMERICAN UNITY

1. I will spread no rumor and no slander against any sect.
2. I will never try to indict a whole people by reason of the delinquency of any member.
3. I will daily deal with every man in business, in social and political relations, only on the basis of his true individual worth.
4. In my daily conduct I will consecrate myself, hour by hour, to the achievement of the highest ideal of the dignity of mankind, human equality, human fellowship and human brotherhood.

NO SUBSTITUTE FOR CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

France is now free, and the United Nations are closing in for an inevitable victory At Dunbarton Oaks plans are being made for possible Post War World Organization. In Washington the War Department has announced its scheme for demobilization. Congress is attempting to enact legislation to cover the period of reconversion and many other signs of the dawn of peace are appearing. But we are being properly warned that the war will not end with the collapse of Germany. For many of our boys there are months of arduous service ahead.

What could be more appropriate then that the first great effort of the Church in the fall should center upon Christian Education. If we are to have any chance of escaping the heart rending cycle of war, it rests upon the effective education of mankind in the ideals, the principles —yes the inexorable laws of life revealed by Jesus.

We must have a world structure of order and law to make possible the replacement of international anarchy by international co-operation. But the most perfect structure will fail and fall if "it is not founded upon a rock"—and that "rock" is the presence of an adequate understanding of and devotion to the principles of Jesus by the people of the world.

Not all of this task of Christian education rests upon the Church. That home is derelict in duty which neglects it. But a great share of that task does rest upon the Church and it is carried by the Church's teaching function.

The training of soldiers may seem unglamorous but Victory on the field of battle depends upon the result of that training. There is no substitute for it.

And there is no substitute for Christian education.

As we face that part of Christian education which is the responsibility of the Church, let us bring to it a loyalty and a realism commensurate with the fact that world salvation, as well as individual salvation, depends on the doing of our best.

At Thy feet we humbly kneel,
Lord be near us;
May we now Thy presence feel,
Lord be near us;
Fill our hearts with love of Thee,
Lord be near us;
In Thy mercy hear us;

Keep us free from all alarms,
Lord be near us;
In Thine everlasting arms
Hold and cheer us;
Bind our souls with bonds of faith,
Lord, be near us;
In Thy mercy hear us.

COMMUNION MEDITATION

"Come unto me, all ye that travail and are heavy laden and I will refresh you."

I talked this past week to an older woman who had been through a good deal, and she said to me, "Sooner or later we come to a point when we have to admit that there are some things we cannot do for ourselves". How true this is! Sometime and somewhere in life a man has to learn the limits of self-help. The feet grow tired. We grow old. The haven where we would be seems as far away as ever. There have been blows and weights and disappointments that have sapped confidence and dimmed the bright colors of earlier hopes, and it seems impossible to keep eager and confident expectation. There come disillusion and shame and sometimes despair. We need strength that is not our own. We need forgiveness and consolation and healing and faith. We need "the strength of the Lord".

We need the strength of the Lord not only when weakness and failure, age or disappointment have stopped us; we need the strength of the Lord in order to go towards ends that are great and worth while and enduring. We need the strength of the Lord not only for consolation, but for the sustaining vision, the impelling purpose, the creative companionship which alone moves life onward and upward. We need the strength of the Lord in order to go towards an end and a destiny greater than our passing desires and our little day.

Do you really think that you and I can "go in the strength of the Lord" without making remembrance of Him? Do you really think we can keep the strength of the Lord without keeping His friendship, without ever turning to Him, saying "Our Father", without learning to know the wonder of His Presence in the Sacrament of the Body and Blood? Do you think we can keep the leavening power of His transcendent will and guidance, the strength of His burning, glowing purposes for our freedoms and our power, do you think that we can keep this in our common life without common acknowledgement of Him and His sovereign nature and reality? We can go today and tomorrow and next week and through the few pitiful years of our short life in our own strength—but where to? We can "go in the strength of the Lord" towards a life that is deathless even in defeat, and towards a city that hath foundations whose builder and maker is God.

Edward Fox Smith was home for a short "liberty" from Camp Peary, Virginia.

William S. Smith is now in Paris.

Albert Steele, a patient at the Valley Forge Hospital, has a weekend leave.

CHURCH SCHOOL

The opening session of the Church School will be held in the Parish House on October 1st. There will be a Teachers' Meeting in the home of Mr. Edward S. Morris, 2131 Delancey Place, on Tuesday, September 26th at 7.00 P. M. Mr. Morris is our new Superintendent.

RUSSIAN WAR RELIEF

The clergy are happy to endorse the efforts of Russian War Relief in their current drive and the congregation of St. Stephen's Church is asked to be generous in its response. Used clothing, warm and in good condition is of tragic importance to the Soviet people in the coming winter. Make your contributions through the local fire house, air raid post or designated station in your neighborhood. Look for the sign in a window which tells you where to take all the clothing you can spare. Seven million war casualties do not begin to measure our debt to the Soviet Union. These people need supplies of every kind, but they need clothing immediately.

TOWARD A BETTER WORLD

"Be kindly affectioned one to another with brotherly love," Romans 12 : 10.

In spite of the many unpleasant things which ministers see and hear, most of them are very much in love with their work. They gain a tremendous satisfaction from their work, or rather, from their life; for the ministry is in the truest sense a life rather than a job. Most laymen can easily understand the satisfaction which comes from helping people. But there is one phase of the ministry of which a layman might not think. It illustrates the above text. Let me tell you about it.

As a minister goes about his parish and community, he naturally has business dealings with other people. In these he is always treated with utmost kindness even by strangers. I do not mean that special concessions are made because of his calling, although that does happen, but that everybody seems to say by his actions, "Here is somebody I can trust. Here is somebody who will not try to get the better of me. Here is somebody who will be considerate of me." Of course, there will be times when there may be a disappointment. For all ministers are human. But, on the whole this faith is justified, because ministers try to be honest, and they try to treat other people in the spirit of our text.

This naturally makes a minister wonder what the world would be like if everybody felt he could treat everybody else in a similar way. David Harum was a good man, but not many people would care to buy a horse from him. Yet David Harum would not take advantage of a man if he knew that that man never tried to take advantage of anybody else.

If every Christian felt he could trust every other Christian in the same way he would trust his minister, what a start would be made in making this text the law of life!

Yet, thou her child, whose head is crowned with flame,
Still wilt not hear thine inner God proclaim,
"Turn back, O Man, forswear thy foolish ways!"

Earth might be fair and men glad and wise,
Age after age their tragic empires rise.
Built while they dream, and in that dreaming weep.
Would man but wake from out his haunted sleep.

Earth shall be fair, and all her people one,
Nor till that hour shall God's whole will be done.
Now, even now, once more from earth to sky
Peals forth in joy man's old undaunted cry,
"Earth shall be fair, and all her folk be one!"

A Committee of the Mothers' Meeting is serving supper at St. Stephen's Service Club tonight, Sunday, September 17th. Anyone who makes a reservation, and pays a dollar is welcome to go. We are very glad to have as many as thirty-five members of the congregation, but not one more! Go round to the Club after the service and make the arrangements without delay.

On Thursday, September 21, 1944 the fall meeting of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew will be held on the second floor of the Parish House. The address will be made by the Rt. Rev. William P. Roberts, Missionary Bishop of Shanghai, China. This meeting is open to all the men of the parish.

Our heartfelt sympathy is extended to the Blomquist family in the passing of John Walter Blomquist.

GLAMOUR

The other day somebody suggested to us the need in these war times for "deglamourizing glamour". It was argued that our nation had inherited from the high pressure advertising days of the lush period, a tendency to overdramatize, to create an illusion of far greater truth, beauty or goodness (whatever the advertiser was selling) than actually existed. That the normal idealism latent in the human breast would respond to these high emotional colors and buy the patent medicine or pay money at the box office of Gilda Glamour's latest picture or even subscribe hard earned dollars to cultic religions which made use of the "glamour technique". The argument was that we had had enough of that sort of thing and the time had come to take away the heavy make-up, the artificial eye lashes of our glamour-crazed age and let people see reality in its more drab, but more realistic colors.

We are sympathetic to the idea of a more normal view of life, but we question the strategy or the possibility of bringing this about by means of the debunking process. In the first place, people universally will believe what they want to believe whether it is true or not, and will disbelieve and ignore what is unpalatable and disagreeable—unless they are confirmed pessimists. In the second place, no cause is ever strengthened by robbing people of their faith. The strategy is not to take away faith, but to put new content into existing faith; not to subtract but to multiply. What we are saying is that negation is destructive, affirmation is creative.

Therefore, we would suggest that we develop a new type of glamour. Individuals whose lives are filled with a positive faith glow with a radiance which diffuses itself about them.

John Spear has recently been promoted. He is now a Sergeant. Robert Larken is now in the South Seas. We had letters this week from Frank Goff, now a Corporal, and Frank Dittman who is in the same theatre of war as his brother, Stanley—the Central Pacific.

Lt. (j.g.) Richard C. Johnston has just gone overseas, and is likewise somewhere in the Pacific. We will pass on items of interest to the congregation as they come in. The Rector's file marked "Men Overseas" is bulging!

THE BENEVOLENT SOCIETY

More garments were made by the women who come to this oldest organization of St. Stephen's Church, than in any other year of which we have seen the record. These garments are indispensible in the hospitals for which they are made. In most instances materials are supplied by the agency to which the finished product is sent, but a faithful committee, all too small for the task, assembles and packages the clothing which is then handed out to women whose sewing must stand the most painstaking examination before being accepted. Yet 3,590 garments were made by these women for eight of our city's hospitals.

The rector would like every member of our congregation have a share in this commendable work. The enclosed envelope may be mailed to the Church Office or placed on the alms basin.

To whom then will ye liken God? Or what likeness will ye compare unto Him? Have ye not known? Have ye not heard? Hath it not been told you from the beginning? Have ye not understood from the foundation of the earth? It is He that sitteth upon the circle of the earth; that stretcheth out the heavens as a curtain, and spreadeth them out as a tent to dwell in: That bringeth the princes to nothing; He maketh the judges of the earth as vanity. To whom then will ye liken me? saith the Holy One, to whom? Hast thou not heard, that the everlasting God, the Lord, the Creator of the ends of the earth fainteth not, neither is weary? There is no searching of His understanding. He giveth power to the faint; and to them that have no might He increaseth strength. Even the youths shall faint and be weary, and the young men shall utterly fall; But they that wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength, they shall mount up with wings as eagles, they shall run and not be weary; they shall walk and not faint. Have ye not known? Have ye not heard that the everlasting God, the Creator of the ends of the earth fainteth not, neither is weary? Praise Him and magnify His holy Name for ever. Amen.

THE HIGHER YEARNING

One of our daily papers made a typographical error: "Three hundred thousand freshmen will enter American Institutions of Higher Yearning this Fall." It was not half bad, as the English would say. Schools of higher learning should be schools of higher yearning. Not only on the part of the faculty but also on the part of the students, and usually they are. The students particularly should become conscious of their call to a larger and more useful life beyond the college confines, impelled with a yearning to be and to do something worthwhile in this needy world of ours, leaving "footprints on the sands of time."

One does not necessarily have to be a college graduate in order to have a yearning for a useful and helpful life. In fact many of the most useful and helpful humans have never seen the inside of a college, saying nothing of the acquiring of a diploma for four years' study. A college education is a great asset to the conscientious student, but without that constant yearning to utilize it for the enrichment of others, the yearning to invest well the added talents it is like the fig tree that produced no fruit and withered away....

A famous painter who was once asked which of his pictures he considered his best, replied, "My next". Whether in the field of art, in the field of sport, or in the still more serious game of life, the secret of all excellence is to play the game better today than we did yesterday. The higher yearnings urges one on from the positive and comparative to the superlative. Ever pressing forward, climbing higher and still higher, is the yearning and practice of every mortal who is worth his salt.

How much plasma is needed to save the life of a wounded soldier or sailor? That depends on the gravity of the wound, but the average is four transfusions per man. There are countless instances of twenty injections for one man. The most on record so far is forty-three transfusions for one man. He lives today—thanks to the forty-three "unknown partners". Won't you play a vital part in saving a life? See Mrs. Mearns after the service, or call the Church Office, WAL 3807, so that an appointment may be made for you.

Out of heaven the Lord hath made thee to hear His voice. Be of good comfort, arise: He calleth thee, and will bring thee by a way thou knowest not. He will lead thee in paths thou hast not known, and darkness shall be light before thee. The Lord redeemeth the soul of his servants, and none of them that trust in Him shall be desolate. Be of good comfort, arise, He calleth thee. The Lord thy God shall bless thee in all that thou doest. Blessed shalt thou be in the city, blessed shalt thou be in the field, blessed shalt thou be when thou comest in, blessed shalt thou be when thou goest out, for the Lord thy God is with thee from this time forth for evermore. There is still time to send your contribution of used clothing to the Russian War Relief; it is not necessary to have the clothing packed, as that will be done at headquarters. Simply bring it to the Church, where it will be collected, cleaned and packed according to regulations, by the UNRRA.

Wednesday, November 1st is All Saints' Day. There will be a service of Holy Communion with an Address at which the Roster of the Dead will be read at 12.30 P. M. Anyone having friends or members of their family who are to be remembered at the Altar, please send the names to the Parish Office.

The memorial service will be repeated on the first Sunday in the month.

The Fall Presentation of the United Thank Offering Diocesan Service, will be held on Thursday, November 2, 1944 at 8.00 P. M. at St. Mark's, 16th and Locust Streets. Bishop Hart will be with us to accept the offering and his assistant this year will be our preacher, the great Missionary, Bishop Roberts of Shanghai. Do try to attend the service for it will be inspiring. Forward in Service and the Educational Department of the Women's Auxiliary are joining with us again this year in the service.

It is not too late to make your offering. Please send your Blue Envelope to Mrs. B. M. Tinsley, 4505 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia 4, or to the Parish Office.

THE MAJOR ISSUE

The state of the world defines the major issue in the present political campaign. The major issue derives from the utter necessity of building an international structure of law and order adequately provided with police power as the only alternative to a recurrence of war.

In the face of such an issue the principles which must dominate the decision of the Christian are clear cut and unequivocal. His is a constraint, not only to exercise his fullest possible influence for the prevention of war, but also, and this is the positive, to exercise that same full influence in behalf of a co-operative world of nations. Can it be doubted that such a new world would be a step toward the Kingdom of God—an attempt in this one direction at least, at obedience to the divine law of brotherhood?

What the Christian must also see clearly and must help all men to see is that the achievement of this great goal will make demands which entail sacrifice. The Christian knows that sacrifice is not giving something for nothing, but is rather the surrender of an immediate value or advantage in order that an ultimate and greater value may be established. It is important, very important, for us and for the American people, as well as for the peoples of the world, to understand this, because we will not be faced with just one over-all decision involving the question as to whether we will or will not unite in fellowship with other nations. There will be a series of seemingly minor decisions, each of which is capable of advancing or retarding the great central purpose. There is the question of tariff, for instance, and that of financial stabilization. There is the vital question as to what authority shall have the power to release the use of police force which, to be most effective, must be ready for instant action. And how many more!

As, therefore, we face the national decision which we as individuals will help to make, must we not weigh carefully every official word of the major parties? And must we not judge their words by their wholeheartedness as well as by past actions which have been justified or repudiated? Our task in reaching as conscientious personal decision is not an easy one. Real labor of mind is demanded and labor of soul, as well—but the sought-for goal more than justifies the price we are asked to pay.

"It is not what you have that matters,
It is what you do with what you have."
—Sir Wilfred Grenfell.

QUESTIONS FOR SENATORIAL CANDIDATES

Twenty-five years ago American participation in collective world security was refused by the Senate of the United States, the concurrent treaty-making authority.

Once again in the midst of this terrible war, America is facing the same question and once again the critical place of decision will be the United States Senate.

Believing that the issue of our whole-hearted participation in an effective international security organization is the transcendant issue before us and that it is an issue in which there can be only one opinion on the part of those who believe in Christ's doctrine of one God and one humanity, and because as citizens we shall be faced on election day with the choice of the man who shall speak for us in the United States Senate, the rector has sent the following questions to the incumbent Senator James J. Davis, and to his opponent, Mr. Francis J. Myers:

1. Do you believe in American participation in a general international security organization with power adequate to prevent aggressive war?

2. Are you in favor of proceeding promptly with plans for creating such an organization?

3. Will you support the recommendation of the Dumbarton Oaks Conference?

4. Will you support the Amendment to the Constitution providing for approval of treaties by a majority vote of both Houses of Congress, instead of the present requirement of a two-thirds Senate ratification?

5. What specific economic policies do you regard as the most essential in relation to the prevention of war?

Senator Davis replies:

I do not hesitate to answer your first four questions in the affirmative. With respect to your fifth question, permit me to say that I believe all economic policies contributing to full employment at proper wages must be encouraged in the post-war years if we are to place any system of peace on a firm foundation.

Up to the printing deadline the rector had not heard from the Hon. Francis J. Myers. His reply will be read to the congregation on Sunday morning.

Please note the changes on the back of the leaflet. The American Red Cross will meet at six o'clock instead of seven-thirty, and the Neighborhood Club will meet on Wednesdays at four instead of on Fridays.

The Rector is to give two lectures on Religion and Health in the Parish House of St. James Church, Kingsessing, 6828 Woodland Avenue on Sundays, November 5th and 12th at 7.45 P. M.

We acknowledge with gratitude the bulletin subscription of Mrs. Lawrence Thayer.

Mrs. George Green, 623 N. 42nd Street, was eighty-five years old on October 22nd. Our hearty best wishes to her!

The United Thank Offering for St. Stephen's Parish has amounted to $199.32.

MIGHTY IN WORD AND DEED

William Temple is dead! One can scarcely think of a man whom the world could so ill afford to lose at this unprecedently critical time. Such great decisions lie before the Church and before the world—decisions upon which depend the welfare or the misery of billions living and many more unborn. William Temple, Archbishop of Canterbury, spiritual leader of the world's vital Christianity sturdily epitomized the right answer in those decisions.

Temple stood in the first place for the rule of God over all of life. He clearly saw that to man God is all or nothing; that he who seeks to shut God out of one aspect of life simply does not recognize the reality of God. The corollary is of course obvious—that if any phase of life is to be worthy of enduring, it must rest on those spiritual foundations which are ordained by the sovereign God. So he viewed the British empire and man's political and economic life.

In the second place, Temple (there is a dignity to the single name when a man is truly great) stood heart and soul for the world-wide Christian unity—not the unity of an imposed uniformity, but the only unity which is real and can endure, a unity to which humility and belief in the ultimate triumph of truth have added the essential complement of liberty.

And, finally, he believed to the depth of his being in a Christianity which assumes the full responsibility of brotherhood—a Christianity which goes out into the world in love, to build the Kingdom of Justice whose fruit is peace.

Of course, those three are inseparable. If one truly believes in a sovereign God he must join hands with all men whose task it is to work with him for the fulfillment of the Divine Will in a world of brotherhood.

William Temple is gone. Who will take his place? No one man will fill it for some time to come. Meantime, these decisions must be met. Pray God we may all take into our souls the clear conviction, the indomitable courage and the will for action which God inspired in this man.

The Altar flowers are presented by Chapter 4 and Unit 4 of the Military Order of the Purple Heart, in memory of its departed members.

The Patriotic Societies participating in this Service:

The Military Order of the Purple Heart, Chapters and Auxiliaries 4, 45 and 170 of Philadelphia and 1776 of Trenton and 26 and 11 of Camden.
American Gold Star Mothers.
Helen Fairchild Nurses, Post 412 of the American Legion.
The Thomas Roberts Reath Marine Post and Auxiliary of the American Legion.
American Legion Posts of the Second District.

We cordially welcome to St. Stephen's Church the members of the above Patriotic Societies, and express to them our appreciation for their co-operation.

"Let it be known that he who wears the Order of the Purple Heart has given his blood in the defense of his homeland and shall forever be revered by his fellow countrymen."—G. Washington.

Lieutenant Harry E. Blomquist, 2948 W. Lehigh Avenue, a member of this parish, received the Bronze Star for his work in establishing communication lines between headquarters and aviation engineer units constructing airdromes shortly after the invasion. Congratulations!

Mr. and Mrs. John Campbell are to be congratulated upon the birth of their daughter, Barbara Judith on October 26th. Mrs. Campbell is a member of our choir, and her husband was recently inducted into the Army.

LIKE A MIGHTY ARMY

Old familiar names have been springing into the headlines and appearing on the battle maps—names that bring poignant memories to men who were boys twenty-six years ago. As this is written the Third Army is fighting across hills and valleys and through little towns where, twenty-six years ago, my own Regiment of Marines saw action.

How like and yet how vastly different! Were the dead who fell in those hills to rise up and view the present scene they would scarcely recognize what they beheld.

Warfare is vastly different in the instruments with which men fight and, consequently, in the strategy and tactics. But, on the human side, how alike—cruel, terribly cruel and wasteful beyond measure! Men killing men—lives, rich with promise, suddenly snuffed out or hopelessly shattered. Amidst that cruelty and wastefulness, however, a thing of rare glory shines out. That soldier is common clay like you or me—lifting one foot before the other, each step a separate act of will, a deed of heroism, each forward effort meriting the highest award of valor, as he walks steadily into the face of death, willing to die for a cause—to give his life for something he believes. That other soldier, who, in answer to a comrade's pain-wracked cry or the plight of a friend faced with unequal odds, seeks to reach his side, defying death.

Like in the glory of the heights to which the soul of man can rise—like in the cruel wickedness of the thing, war itself, but different, greatly different as man fashions its pattern and perfects its techniques.

"Like a mighty army moves the Church of God." No! That is not so! It is not so because very few are willing to take the risks of genuine Christianity. It is not only a case of saving our lives, but of saving our money and even of saving our ease and our convenience. Some do—yes, some few-pathetically few; while most of us find such reasonable ways of playing safe. And yet our Christian cause is much more worthy of our lives and of all that we possess. Indeed, the sacrifice our boys are making is shrouded in futility unless our Christian cause is established.

And—No, again! The likeness is not here, nor is the difference. When did we ever set ourselves to the drastic revision of our strategy—to the development of vital new means which the new age makes possible?

Like a mighty army, we are not! Like a mighty army we must be! The blood of our sons—the blood of God's Son—demands it.

The rector received this letter from a Spar the other day:

"Last night I attended your service club, and was given a delicious meal there, after that I enjoyed a nice evening of entertainment which was provided for us. Later I won a dollar prize for a dance.

"Everything was so nice that I want you to have the money for the use in the club. You are doing a wonderful job, and we service people do appreciate your many kindnesses."

Of course, all of us will endeavor to subscribe liberally to the United War Chest Campaign. You may designate certain agencies of the Episcopal Church to receive your gift if you wish.

THE EPISCOPAL HOSPITAL

Last year our parish gave $901.30 in answer to the annual appeal sent out by the Episcopal Hospital. In view of the fact that this is the only Church Hospital in this Diocese, and of its outstanding service to the community, this sum is not large. It does not represent our pride and interest in the institution which is stretching every facility to do an even bigger job and under increasing handicaps and a growing shortage of nurses. The Episcopal Hospital is worthy of our utmost generosity!

STIR UP

Stir up, we beseech Thee, O Lord, the wills of Thy faithful people; that they plenteously bringing forth the fruit of good works, may by Thee be plenteously rewarded; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

This collect, used for centuries on the last Sunday of the Church's year, has given it the name of "Stir Up Sunday"—and it is not talking of mere emotions!

"Great Is the Chest of Joash"

Sunday, November 26, will be Loyalty Sunday in St. Stephen's Church.

On that day we will revive an ancient custom which will take us back in the history of Judah. Young Joash was the King at the time. He found the Temple in need of repair. Money for the repairs was not at hand. So in co-operation with the High Priest, Jehoiada, a chest was constructed and placed at the gate of the Temple. A summons was sent out asking all to bring their offerings for the repair of the Temple and drop them in this chest. The people responded mightily and the repairs were made.

Loyalty Sunday is the time for our pledges for the new church year. A large "Joash Chest" will be placed at the Altar and all present will sign their pledge cards and drop them in it. Each one making a pledge will receive a box of duplex envelopes for the year 1945. Good business demands that our budget for next year should be underwritten in advance.

V-E DAY

Already, in many places, plans are being made for V-E Day. The great difficulty involved is as to what will constitute V-E Day. How shall we know which of many days of triumph will be V-E Day. Will it be when Hitler falls, or when the German armies are broken, or when Berlin is entered, or will some other event define it? Will there be any one day to mark the end of war in Europe, such as did November 11, 1918?

Whether there is or not, it seems certain that at some point in circumstance and time the American people will give expression to emotion at this phase of victory. The expression will be tragically superficial if it does not have at its heart the fundamental elements of religion, grateful recognition of this manifestation of God's sovereignty and consecration to the task of rebuilding the world upon a Christian foundation.

There seems to be two distinctly different attitudes in the community with regard to V-E Day: There are those who advocate the declaration of a holiday and the shutting down of work; on the other hand there are those who feel deeply that because all through the vast Pacific our boys will find no relaxation from their grueling tasks, we, too should keep our hands to the plough.

But whatever the community does as a whole, the responsibility of Christian Churches seems evident. First, of course, they should be open to provide opportunity for the individual who desires to turn aside to the place of prayer; second, there should be in every church a service or services at varying times, depending on location, when the congregation may gather for the corporate expression of humility, gratitude and dedication. Here at St. Stephen's where the church is open every day for prayer and meditation, there will be a service of Thanksgiving and Rededication at 12.30 P. M. and 5.15 P. M. and if possible at the hour when hostilities will cease.

Three hours after the word is received, a public meeting will be held at Independence Square which will be of a religious and patriotic nature. One hour before this meeting the chimes of St. Stephen's will be played as part of a city wide program of chimes and carillons.

But most important is the fact that as Christians we must face the necessity of deep and continuous consideration as to what we are going to do with the heavy responsibility of victory, how we are going to consolidate victory and what attitudes and action we should take in the face of the whole series of decisions which our Nation must make in the months and years ahead, each of which will have its bearing on the ultimate result.

CHRISTMAS DINNERS

Each year St. Stephen's Church donates baskets or the equivalent to those who are unable to give to their families the fullness of Christmas cheer, with which others are blessed. Will you help us with your usual generosity? This year we have remembered those on our Honor Roll with a Christmas Box. Forty boxes were sent over seas and some forty-five will be sent to our men and women in this country. Every member and friend of the Church is asked to use the special Christmas Dinner envelope. Half of your gift will be used for Christmas Dinners and half for the Christmas Boxes for our service men and women.

BIBLE SUNDAY

We never tire of the old Bible stories nor exhaust their meaning. There is a subtle power that stirs our hearts because the men and women of the Bible were like ourselves. They had the same struggles and temptations. They had loves and hates and intrigues. Reverses and sorrow overtook them. The years crept on and death invaded their homes. They stood alone and bereaved in the shadow. Abraham was concerned to secure a burial place from the sons of Heth, just as you have provided your family plot at Laurel Hill cemetery.

The stories gather around courtship and marriage, wayward boys, family feuds, depression and war. These stories offer close parallels to the headlines of our morning papers.

Something in the nature of God responds to these family affairs of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. He is the God of ordinary folks.

Wordsworth was the interpreter of everyday life in poetry. Into the literature of the 18th Century he introduced the situation of common life, clothed ordinary men with glory, threw a veil of romance around the dalesman's cottage, the wandering peddler, the unheard struggles of the country-side.

Dickens was the interpreter of the waifs and strays of London. He knew the slum with its poverty and want, its dull monotony and destitution, the darker side of city life.

Jesus was the interpreter of universal humanity. He knew what was in man. He laid bare the human heart. He was the master teacher, speaking the tongue of every day and pointing a divine message in the homely familiar things.

He heard men talking about the weather in the empty way that we whine about the humidity in Philadelphia. He raised conversation to a higher plane. Would that you men who so glibly forecast the weather were able to read the signs of the times, to interpret the social movements and thoughts that sway the hearts of the masses.

He listened to the children singing at their play just as little boys and girls today sing "London Bridge is falling down." He took up the very words of their song and made it a theme for a sermon— "We have piped and ye have not danced."

He saw a tailor in his shop, putting a patch on the garment, the mason laying the foundation of a house, the farmer sowing his field, the housewife busy about the family baking. You would scarcely expect a serious prophet to note the style of a woman's dress. But nothing escaped Jesus. The lost coin of the parable was part of the bridal adornment.

If Socrates brought philosophy out of the clouds, Jesus brought religion out of the realm of doctrine and ceremony into the practical sphere of love and service.

And the simplicity of the Master's message reflects the naturalness of His life. There was nothing mechanical, stilted, forced about Jesus. There was no artificial piety, no aloofness. He mingled freely with men. He was at home in the midst of merriment and dancing, with laughter and feasting and wine flowing freely, but in moderation. He was no sour-faced puritan, frowning on the pleasures of life. His religion fulfilled itself in fellowship as He participated in the movements of society about Him.

Our Christian life, says a writer, has two parts—the natural life of the body and the spiritual life of the soul. We must strive to make the spiritual more natural and the natural life more spiritual.

Our supreme need is to discover God in the commonplace things of every day. We do not come apart from our wonted tasks to serve God, but rather introduce His spirit into our daily routine. Thus the trivial round, the common task becomes an avenue of divine service.

MUSICAL EVENTS IN DECEMBER

At four o'clock, Sunday, December 17th, the Pennsylvania Society of Sons of the Revolution will hold a spectacular service in St. Stephen's Church. The Bishop will preach. We are proud to have this distinguished society, and hope that many of you will be present.

The Philadelphia Music Club cordially invites you to be present at the performance of "The Story of Christmas", the music for which was written by Dr. Matthews, on Thursday evening, December 21 at eight o'clock. Come early. No seats are reserved, and those of you who saw it last year, remember it with such pleasure that I am confident you will wish to see it again.

Part of Handel's Messiah will be sung at the "Midnight" Service on Christmas Eve. Dr. Matthews has taken great pains to make the music for this service even more beautiful than in other years, and we are most fortunate in that we are to have the pleasure of having Miss Thelma Davis in the alto section of the Choir. Bishop Hart will preach.

The Pennsylvania Society of the Sons of the Revolution will hold its Annual Service in St. Stephen's Church at four o'clock on Sunday, December 17th. Bishop Hart will preach. We are greatly honored in having as our guests the distinguished members of this Society, and their Chaplain, Dr. Crosswell McBee. Everyone is cordially invited to attend this colorful service.

The regular meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary will be held next Thursday, December 21 at 11.00 A. M. precisely. After a brief business meeting, Mrs. David L. German will sing, accompanied by Mr. Earl Beatty, formerly organist of St. Paul's Church in Overbrook.

The Philadelphia Music Club cordially invites you to be present at the performance of "The Story of Christmas", the music for which was written by Dr. Matthews, on Thursday evening, December 21 at eight o'clock. Come early. No seats are reserved, and those of you who saw it last year, remember it with such pleasure that I am confident you will wish to see it again.

On Christmas Sunday, December 24th we are to hear special music from Handel's Messiah at the eleven o'clock service. At the "Midnight" service, 11.00 P. M. we are to hear more of this wonderful expression of Handel's inspired vision of the Heavenly Choirs glorifying God and giving thanks for the birth of the Infant King. It is fitting that we at St. Stephen's have this opportunity of hearing our choir and of joining in spirit its beautifully prepared program of Christmas music. Bishop Hart will preach, and after the service breakfast will be served in St. Stephen's Service Club—the Community House. Everyone is welcome.

There will be only one service on Christmas Day, the Communion Service at nine o'clock.

Every one present at that service or at the Communion Service on Christmas Eve at 11.00 P. M. is invited to come to the Altar rail to receive the Holy Sacrament.

A CHRISTMAS EXPRESSION

The spirit of a church is one of its greatest assets. When people feel a great surge of affection for their religious institution, and want to participate in its program, and miss it when they are compelled to be absent, and long to have others know of its greatness, a church is bound to be effective.

Many St. Stephen's members who have been obliged to move away from Philadelphia in the past few years, return for a visit, and frequently come to the church office or to the church for the services of worship and almost without exception they remark, "If only St. Stephen's people knew what they have in the wonderful, wonderful fellowship, they would be even more loyal than they are."

There is a deep desire within the membership that St. Stephen's Church, a prophetic instrument of God, shall retain a distinctive place of leadership, in the grave days that lie before us. Out of gratitude, and because of anticipation, the members and friends of St. Stephen's Church will bring or send a special love gift on Sunday, December 24th, or on Christmas Day. This traditional gift is anticipated by the Finance Committee, and this year, when our hearts are tender, we have reason to believe that the Christmas offering will be larger than ever before. No gift is too small, none is too large. The spirit prompting it will determine its quality.

The Christmas program envelope will be mailed in a few days. Give generously and prayerfully.

CHURCH BROADCASTS FOR V-DAY

New York, N. Y.—The Episcopal Church's electrical transcription for use by radio stations on the day the war in Europe ends, will be broadcast by 275 stations in all parts of the country, and will be sent short wave overseas to the battlefronts in Europe. It consists of music by a double quartette of male voices, a prayer by Presiding Bishop Henry St. George Tucker and a short address by the Rt. Rev. Oliver J. Hart, D.D., Bishop of Pennsylvania.

The Rector's Christmas Greeting

MY BELOVED PEOPLE OF ST. STEPHEN'S:

"Peace on earth to men of good will!"
"Peace on earth, good will to men!"

Which is it?

It is not a trivial matter but one of deepest significance.

In this year of war 1944, must we not make an extraordinary attempt to clear men's minds on the relationship of God to peace?

So much of men's speaking and so much of men's praying seems to predicate the assumption that God could suddenly stop this war and give us peace if He would. Indeed much of the speaking and much of the praying in the church seems to rest on this assumption.

Is it not amazing that those who rest their thinking on this assumption should turn in bitterness or indifference from God and from the Church. The least it could do would be to paralyze faith with an enervating doubt.

What the anguished world needs to know is that God has given peace—He has established as indigenous into life itself the conditions—the principles—the laws—upon which peace depends. And in the gift of Jesus Christ He has given to man one who has clearly revealed those conditions—principles or laws. From the time of Jesus onward, peace has awaited man's understanding and acceptance of and his obedience to the eternal conditions which are in life itself.

God gives men food in the most fundamental sense that He has endowed the soil with fertility—the seed with capacity and the fruit with nutrition. But man must take what God gives and a main part of that taking is scientific agriculture, which is nothing more nor less than man's attempt to undersand and adapt to God's laws of nature concerned with food production.

So it is, and men must understand it, with regard to peace—God holds out its possibility—but man must take God's gift and that taking of peace has its equivalent to the taking of food.

Only men of good will can know peace.

Only a society, industrial, interracial, international, based on good will can achieve peace.

That word, "goodwill," comprises in its vastness the totality of Jesus' teachings with regard to God's laws of human relationship—and that teaching is just as absolute, as immutable—as inexorable as the law of gravity itself.

"Peace on earth—to men of good will."

Faithfully and affectionately, your Rector,
ALFRED W. PRICE.

P. S.—From all of us at the Rectory to you and all yours, wherever they may be, hearty wishes for a Happy Christmas!

THE REVEREND AND MRS. ALFRED W. PRICE.
JAMES, JOHN, EVELYN AND JEAN.

A Christmas Prayer

May the good will and peace which Christ brought to earth the first Christmas morning, go forth this Christmas tide into a war-torn, sorrowing and suffering world, bringing comfort, strength and hope to God's children everywhere. Amen.

The Rector and his family offers best wishes and a prayer for peace at the Gate of the New Year.

A NEW YEAR'S GREETING . . . SHUT THAT DOOR!

Elijah once told a very distracted and anxious woman to go home and shut the door upon herself. Shrewd reader of human nature! He recognized that there would be something psychological in such an act. States of mind are induced by physical acts quite as often as physical acts are prompted by states of mind. William James always insisted, you know, that we didn't run because we felt afraid, we felt afraid because we ran. Even when Pilate went through the ritual of washing his hands with soap and water it gave his conscience a cleaner feeling too.

We will soon go through the annual ritual of shutting a door. At midnight on Sunday night, when the clock strikes twelve and the tooting of whistles and the clanging of bells announce the end of the old year, there will be people all over the land who will feel that they are actually closing some kind of door. And they are—the door of the old year. But the question is, how many of them really shut the doors of their minds on time?

There are some mental doors closed when we close the door of the old year. One of them is the door of Worry Over Things Undone. What a common experience it is to be plagued by a haunting sense that we have probably left something undone which we ought to have attended to especially when the rush is over and the door is closed. And how many things undone we can recall when the door of the year is shut if we let our minds go out and dwell on them!—the letters we didn't write, the little thoughtful services we might have rendered, the duties we left unperformed, the friendships we neglectd, the good intentions we failed to carry out. They range all the way from unsent birthday greetings to seized opportunities. It is too late now. Shut that door. There are still chances and ways for atonement in the New Year.

Another is the Door of Regret over what was wrongly done. It is related of old Doctor Samuel Johnson that in the last years of his life he could be seen once a year standing bareheaded at a certain spot in the market place, sometimes in the pelting rain, as he patiently observed the anniversary of the day and place where in his boyhood, he had slashed his father with a bad-tempered tongue. If one should keep the door of his mind ajar he could peek out on any number of regretted sins and follies—quick-tempered thrusts which drew blood, the bit of meanness which was so uncalled for, that unjust suspicion, and that ill-founded judgment. Any one of us could spend a great many unhappy moments this side of the door of the old year regretting what was wrongly done. And perhaps as a penance we deserve to. Nevertheless, SHUT that door.

Still another door of our minds which ought to be closed is the Door of Brooding Over Past Injuries, real or fancied. There are some people who sing a perpetual hymn of resentment adding new stanzas to it from time to time. I was acquainted once with a woman, whether now in the flesh I know not, who used to say with a flash of her dark eyes. "I am like an Indian I never forget an injury." And she didn't either. What a thing to boast about! Why be like an Indian instead of like a Christian? Still there are folk who next July will be brooding over the slights and injuries of last July. The door of the year 1944 will be closed but the door of 1944's feelings will still be open. In heaven's name, let us shut THAT door!

Once more there is the Door of Sorrows, the hardest of all doors to shut. One would not say, "Shut the door of sacred memory upon thee." That would not be right. But the door of a rankling grief is different. St. Paul put it very wisely and very beautifully when he said, "Grieve not as those who have no hope". The glory of tomorrow is its hope. The joy of a new year is the light in its coming days. Gently shut the door on these bitter painful memories that recede with the past year and open the door ahead with thanksgiving that God is God, and Love is Love, and Life is stronger than all its sorrows.

It is behind the closed door that we are most likely, when we turn, to find ourselves facing Christ. "When the doors were shut—Jesus came and stood in the midst." It is behind a closed door that the woman discovered that Power which mysteriously multiplied the oil until it filled all the empty capacities into which she poured it.

A Blessed New Year. But first—be sure to shut that door!

HOME PRAYERS

(Issued weekly for those who cannot get to church services: The sick and shut-in, the isolated, Sunday-workers, young people in the service of our country and others.)

Opening Prayer:

Come thou, dear Prince, Oh, come to us this holy Christmas time! Come to the busy marts of earth, the quiet homes, the noisy streets, the humble lanes; come to us all, and with thy love touch every human heart, that we may know that love, and in its blessed peace bear charity to all mankind!—Eugene Field.

Bible Reading: St. John 1: 1-18.

The Sermon:

Down through the ages the tradition has been that it is never Christmas until Christmas. The Christmas season according to the traditional Christmas calendar comes in the days following Christmas, not in the days before it. The season of Advent which precedes Christmas was once as strict a fasting season as Lent and should be a quiet time of preparation for Christmas, rather than the hectic season of hustle and bustle interspersed with premature Christmas parties that it now is.

We are fast destroying this ancient tradition. One should not be too severe on the merchant once we understand why he uses Christmas lights and decorations out of season, for they merely call attention to the fact that he is ready to share in a time of exceptional buying. But the temptation becomes great for the householder to light up his house long before Christmas Eve, which is the right and proper time. When so many homes are lighted in the middle of December the lights lose all of their beautiful significance. According to tradition homes are lighted up on Christmas Eve to guide the Christ Child to that home and to signify that that home is ready to receive God's most precious gift. When we light up ten days before Christmas it simply means that we have sold out our precious traditions to a callous commercialism.

And Christmas carols! Every day from Thanksgiving on, carols are plugged on the radio by soap makers and boot-sellers. Department stores with choirs and canned music let us hear the glad tidings day after day while we drop in for Uncle Harry's bargain tie and Aunt Sophie's guest towels. Every club and organization to which we belong throws a Christmas Party long before Christmas and by the time that glorious day is upon us we are fagged out and fed up and say with Scrooge, "Christmas? Bah! Humbug!" And if the angels themselves should take it into their heads to sing once again on Christmas Eve, we would very likely seal our windows and bolt our doors tired of music we have been hearing day and night for a month.

It is not in the noisy strident discord of the bustling commercialized world, nor in the lights and gaudy tinsel that we find the peace and spirit of Christmas. Rather it is in the night season, in that silent stillness when hearts and minds are quiet and when souls search through the misty fog of human endeavor for a glimpse of the eternal. In that quietness, the Son of God enters the waiting human heart. "Even so come, Lord Jesus!"

Closing Prayer: 'Our Father" and the following:

How silently, how silently
The wondrous gift is given!
So God imparts to human hearts
The blessings of His heaven.

No ear may hear His coming
But in this world of sin,
Where meek souls will receive Him, still
The dear Christ enters in.

CONFIRMATION

Everyone is welcome to worship in the Church, to come and go without obligation, but at this time of year we would remind young people, the casual stranger and the person who has been putting off his spiritual duties that everyone should become a full-fledged member of the Christian Church of his own free-will. He should do it because it is the pledge of his fundamental loyalty and the outward proof of his inward act of allegiance to Christ and His Church. In the ancient rite of Confirmation, the Bishop visits our parish, receives the candidates for Confirmation, hears their spoken affirmation of loyalty to Jesus Christ, and then, as they kneel, places his hands upon their heads, invoking the seven-fold gifts of God's Holy Spirit; simple, reverent, elemental, essential!

We invite those who attend our services who have never been confirmed to be confirmed this year. By way of preparation, the rector will conduct a class of instruction on Sunday mornings at ten o'clock in his study, beginning January 6th.

On Sunday morning, February 17th at 11 o'clock, Bishop Remington will visit the parish to administer the rite of Confirmation, and will preach the sermon at that service.

There are always some who are not sure in their minds that they wish to be confirmed or are ready for confirmation. They are invited to attend this class and need not make their decision until February 17th.

Are you supporting your Church with your prayers, time and money? The Church needs your help in every way. If you are not yet pledging to the financial support of the Church, begin today.

It is the custom in St. Stephen's Church for the congregation to rise for the hymns and canticles at the first note of the organ prelude; to join heartily in reading the Psalms, making the responses and saying the Amens; and to join with the minister in repeating the Collect for the day, which for the Fourth Sunday in Advent is on page 95.

HOME PRAYERS

(Issued weekly for those who cannot get to church services: The sick and shut-in, the isolated, Sunday-workers, young people in the service of our country and others.)

Opening Prayer:
Come in, O Christ and judge us; come and cast out every sin that hinders Thee; come and purge our souls by Thy Presence. Come, be our King for ever. Amen. (Phillips Brooks).

Bible Reading: Matthew 5:1-12.

The Sermon:
If you keep your ears open these days, you will catch some member of your family humming in a contented way, or hear them singing in the bathtub. And, if you could know the secret of their delight, it would be that they have found the Christmas present that just fits you. They have found something you really want.

With Christmas less than two weeks away, there is one part of your Christmas list which may need special attention. It is the list of what you can give to others of yourself of cheerful dish-washing, of sock-mending, of steady patience, of your best brains, of sturdy faith, of your own knowledge of God. For what you can give of yourself always brings more joy than anything you can buy. Therefore, in these days of Advent, we pray to God to cleanse us of our ugly sins, our impatience, our sluggishness, that we may contribute less of hurt and unhappiness to others. Therefore we pray God to fill us with a deeper loving-kindness, a new closeness to His Mercy, that we may give more of comfort and peace.

There is a song which children love to sing. All who take it to heart will be able to give more richly of themselves. It runs like this:

"I sing a song of the saints of God, Patient and brave and true.
Who toiled and fought and lived and died, For the Lord they loved and knew.
And one was a doctor, and one was a queen, And one was a shepherdess on the green.
They were all of them saints, and I mean, God helping, to be one too.
They lived not only in ages past. There are hundreds and thousands still;
The world is bright with joyous saints Who love to do Jesus' will.
You can meet them in school, or in lanes, or at sea,
In church, or in trains, or in shops, or at tea,
For the saints of God are just folk like me, And I mean to be one too."

Closing Prayers: "Our Father" and the following prayer:
Take us, O Lord of our life, into Thy keeping this night and for ever. O Thou Light of lights, keep us from inward darkness; grant us so to sleep in our Lord. Amen. (Bishop Andrewes, 1555 A. D.)

The Pennsylvania Society of the Sons of the Revolution will hold its Annual Service in St. Stephen's Church at four o'clock on Sunday, December 16th. The Rt. Rev. William P. Remington, D.D., Suffragan Bishop of the Diocese of Pennsylvania will preach. We are greatly honored in having as our guests the distinguished members of this Society, and their Chaplain, Dr. Crosswell McBee. Everyone is cordially invited to attend this colorful service.

Miss Alice Bedian will sing at the December 20th meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary. The members of the parish and their friends are warmly invited.

We are happy to announce that the total to date of the Reconstruction and Advance Fund of St. Stephen's Church has reached the sum of $5,660.00 with generous gifts from Mr. Joseph Sims Fitzgerald, Miss Minnie Corrigan, Miss Elizabeth Corrigan, Miss E. Adelaide Wallace and Miss Mary L. Wallace.

A hearty welcome is given to the congregation of the hard of hearing under the leadership of the Rev. Gustav C. Meckling. The equipment was thoroughly tested last Sunday when 35 attended the Bible Class and 75 attended the evening service. We have every expectation that this Sunday evening congregation will grow into one of the outstanding groups in the city.

The Altar Flowers are given by the Misses Davis in memory of their sister Isabel P. Davis.

Our heartfelt sympathy is extended to the family of Mr. Henry Dahl. May light perpetual shine upon him and may he rest in peace.

The Church School will present their Christmas Play on Wednesday evening, December 19th at eight o'clock. You are warmly invited!

The Pennsylvania Society of Sons of the Revolution will hold their fifty-seventh annual service in St. Stephen's Church on Sunday, December 16th at four o'clock. Bishop Remmington will preach.

LOYALTY SUNDAY

Once a year in St. Stephen's Church we ask our members and friends to present themselves at the eleven o'clock service on Loyalty Sunday (This year, December 9th) and to place their pledge cards in the Chest of Joash in lieu of an Every Member Canvass.

The Christian Church is a great force for peace in the world. It has a vital role to play in the years just ahead. It must be supported by all "who profess and call themselves Christians". The Church needs all of us.

Once a year the Church calls on all of us to make a pledge of financial support of its work. That support is needed by every parish, and usually each parish receives its share without grudging on the part of its members. This year it particularly needs support of the whole Church's Mission. The world-wide work of the Church must grow if the Church is to exercise its power for peace. Givers should pledge not only for the support of their parishes but even more generously to the General Church.

Money given to the General Church goes to the support of the Diocese and the National Church. Some of it is used to extend the Church's influence at home, some in the continental United States, and about one-third goes for work in foreign countries. Before the great depression Episcopalians used to give about four million dollars annually to this general work. Since then they have given only about two millions. Surely our great Church can equal and even exceed what it used to do.

There is no limit to the good we can do except the limits imposed by the amount of money given by Church members.

Let us pray and give this year as we have never done before. The world needs power for peace.

HOME PRAYERS

(Issued weekly for those who cannot get to church services: The sick and shut-in, the isolated, Sunday-workers, young people in the service of our country and others.)

Opening Prayer:

Grant unto us, we beseech Thee, Almighty God, that we, who seek the shelter of Thy protection, being defended from all evils, may serve Thee in peace and quietness of spirit, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen (Roman Breviary, 1099 A. D., and Advent Prayer.)

Bible Reading: Isaiah 11: 1-9.

The Sermon:

As we tore off the calendar page for November, and we saw "December" before us, a tingle of anticipation came over us. Ever since we were little, we have looked forward to Christmas. It is a time of wonder. God came to earth on Christmas Day. And, with God among us, anything can happen! Glorious dreams can come true.

But as we grew older, we began to give ear to an ancient lie—"Oh, yes, anything can happen; but some things never do. You just can't change selfish, savage, quarrelsome human nature." We began to think about Christmas just as a time for jolly festivities, a bountiful dinner, and the best presents we could buy. But, like all pagans, we lazily decided that human nature does not change. That was convenient, because, then, we would not have to try to change, ourselves!

But, with the nightmare of the atomic bomb, we have been shocked into thinking again. When sixty thousand people can be killed in one tick of the clock, then war is something we cannot forget about. Then human nature is something we can no longer be lazy about. Human nature has got to change. But can it?

I have been reading a book called "They Found the Church There" experiences of our American fighting men in the isles of the Pacific. Eight of our airmen, having crash-landed in the jungle, were surrounded by savage-looking black men, who grunted, "You come along; we take safe" and were led, for many hours, through the night, through the jungle trails, getting more and more nervous, wondering if they were being led into a death-trap. But as one of them reported afterward, "When the natives began to hum 'Onward Christian soldiers' we knew we were in safe hands." In the defense of New Guinea when the Axis Powers were threatening Australia, it was the Papuans who carried our supplies up the steep slopes of the towering Owen Stanley range of mountains, where the air was too thin for our men to do heavy carrying. Only eighty years before, they had had a reputation for a different sort of hospitality—they had, for instance, welcomed three hundred shipwrecked Chinese, and eaten all but one of them.

What had happened to change these men from blood-thirsty cannibals into peaceful and kindly folk? God had come among the Papuans in the courageous lives of the Christian Missionaries, and, wherever God comes among men, human nature is changed. These are facts. Dare to believe them with your whole heart. Dare to believe that the God who comes among us at Christmas can change even your own stubborn human nature; and make of you a person where old dreams come true; dreams of peace on earth in your heart, and in the hearts of those about you.

Closing Prayers—"Our Father" and the following prayer:

Stir up, we beseech Thee, our hearts to prepare the ways of Thine only-begotten Son, that by His advent we may be enabled to serve Thee with purified minds; through the same Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

CHRISTMAS DINNERS

Each year St. Stephen's Church donates baskets or the equivalent to those who are unable to give to their families the fullness of Christmas cheer, with which others are blessed. Will you help us with your generosity? This year we will remember again those on our Honor Roll with a Christmas Box. Thirty-five boxes were sent overseas and some twenty-five will be sent to our men and women in this country. Every member and friend of the Church is asked to use the special Christmas Dinner envelope. Half of your gift will be used for Christmas Dinners and half for the Christmas Boxes for our service men and women. We need $400.00.

It is the custom in St. Stephen's Church for the congregation to rise for the hymns and canticles at the first note of the organ prelude; to join heartily in reading the Psalms, making responses and saying the Amens, and to join with the minister in repeating the Collect for the day, which for the Second Sunday in Advent is to be found on page 92.

ROLAND S. MORRIS

The March of time goes on, relentlessly, endlessly. We study history in school as children, and note certain great figures in passing, and a variable, but mild, emotion touches us as particularly appealing figures come before our eyes only to disappear inevitably. But now the Honorable Roland S. Morris has gone. We are on the crest of the wave of time, and loved one after loved one whom we knew intimately has disappeared from the scene and the emotion has become intense. History becomes vague, unreal, unimportant, when events stir us locally, in the present.

Roland S. Morris is one of those whose spirit lives on in St. Stephen's Church. He is one of the living stones in her spiritual structure, one of the faithful whose lives hallow our parish life. For twenty-five years he served with great distinction as a vestryman of St. Stephen's. He had a long record of loyal and expert service as Chancellor to the last four Bishops and their Standing Committees. Ambassador to Japan under the Wilson administration, President of the American Philosophical Society, lecturer on International Law and the religions of Asia, he rendered distinguished public service both to the State and to the Church. A mighty man in Israel has fallen!

We are even more grateful for his fine Christian character—a character so enriched by God's grace that it made him a blessing to all who knew him. We thank God for his good fight, his finished course and his kept faith; and we rejoice in the confidence that he has already heard Thy gracious words: "Well done, thou good and faithful servant; enter thou into the joy of thy Lord."

For a life of service to his home, church, community and country we praise God! May he go from strength to strength in the life of Perfect Service through Jesus Christ our Lord.

May God bless his wife and children. May God raise up another to carry on his many years of faithful devotion to His Holy Church. Amen.

MARY W. PAGE GRAMMER

One of the greatest comforts to us who remain behind, when our loved ones in Christ are released into their full freedom and joy just beyond the veil, is the assurance that they have not laid down their life's work, for which they were made, nor have they severed their contact and co-operation with us who are still in our mortal bodies, but rather, being liberated from every blemish and hindrance that hampered their work on earth, they are more fit than ever before to be perfected channels of God's full life and power, and therefore more able to bring to us encouragement and inspiration through our fellowship with them in the Communion of Saints. This comfort is surely the valued possession of all who numbered Mrs. Carl E. Grammer among their friends and especially of those who worked with her in church and community activities.

In her 86th year, Mrs. Grammer passed away in her home in Summit, New Jersey on November 21st following an illness of two days. She was laid to rest in the churchyard of Trinity Church, Collington, Prince Georges County, Maryland on November 24th where her father, the Rev. James J. Page was rector.

Her task is ended here; the earthly tools are laid aside, but we know she is with her beloved husband, her well fought fight now crowned with victory.

"Until the day break and the shadows flee."

It is the custom in St. Stephen's Church for the congregation to rise for the hymns and canticles at the first note of the organ prelude; to join heartily in reading the Psalms, making responses and saying the Amens, and to join with the minister in repeating the Collect for the day which is to be found on page 90.

HOME PRAYERS

(Issued weekly for those who cannot get to church services: The sick and shut-in, the isolated, Sunday-workers, young people in the service of our country and others.)

Opening Prayer:

Bestow Thy light upon us, O Lord, so that, being rid of darkness in our hearts, we may attain unto the true Light, through Jesus Christ, Who is the Light of the World. Amen (Sarum Breviary 1085 A. D.)

Bible Reading: Matthew 11:1-5

The Sermon:

Every soldier has his vision tested. If he does not see what he should, then his vision must be corrected; and it is. In the Kingdom of God the vision of its citizens is equally important. The difficulty is that so many have faulty vision, and do nothing about it.

As George Butterick has said, "Every life will be tested finally by this test—does it see faces, or only things! Some business men see nothing but things—price lists, profits, sales resistance; while other business men see faces, the faces of those who work, of those who have no work. Some statesmen see nothing but things—battleships, voting booths, newspaper headlines. Other statesmen see faces—the faces of the poor, the faces of little children, the myriad faces of those slain in war. Some preachers see nothing but things—church buildings, year books, card catalogues. Other preachers see faces—faces wistful and sin-scarred, faces lonely but brave! The Master saw nothing but faces—nothing on earth but faces, nothing in heaven but faces, nothing in hell but faces!"

But one man says, "I am a farmer—as I sweat through the summer, I see my vegetable-cellar stocked for winter; and a heavy crop of potatoes to sell." Another, "I am a mother, so I see new clothes to put on my children's backs", another, "I am an old lady, so my mind keeps seeing the monthly old-age check, hoping it won't shrink any." Another, "I am a sick woman in a hospital—do you blame me for seeing the dull, tasteless food, and the same old four walls week after week?" These people see things; and do not expect to see anything else.

But the Master corrected people's vision. "The blind receive their sight". He taught the farmer to work through the summer thinking of the happy faces of the family for which he is the provider; the satisfied faces of the customers buying his fine potatoes; He taught the mother to keep her thoughts on the shining faces of children who know that they are loved; and who may learn that love best through carefully mended old clothes. He teaches the old lady to see the faces of the world's hungry children; and to scrimp in order to help feed them. He teaches the sick person in the hospital to see the bitterness in the faces of patients who know not God; and putting her whole trust in Him, to find that peace which gives new life to those about her.

What do you see as you look out on life? Does your faulty vision pick out things? Then your next step is plain. Seek out the Master in your inmost heart, and put yourself into His hands. Once again it will be written, "The blind receive their sight." For your thoughts will be filled with faces all the rest of your days, the faces of those who can depend on you to care for them.

Closing Prayer:

Watch Thou dear Lord with those who wake, or watch, or weep tonight. Tend Thy sick ones, O Lord Christ; rest thy weary ones. Bless Thy dying ones; Soothe Thy suffering ones. Pity Thine afflicted ones. Shield Thy joyous ones. And all for Thy love's sake. Amen. (St. Augustine 354 A. D.)

IRENE WILDER

The home call came to Irene Wilder on November 25th after a lingering illness. Irene was a life time member of St. Stephen's Church whose whole-hearted devotion endeared her to the whole-parish. She was a member of the Girls' Friendly Society and a strong supporter of all its undertakings. She has gone from us, and we are sad that we shall see her face no more. Her memory will bind us closer to the Church she loved so well.

It is the custom in St. Stephen's Church for the congregation to rise for the hymns and canticles at the first note of the organ prelude; to join heartily in reading the Psalms, making responses and saying the Amens, and to join with the minister in repeating the Collect for the day.

The Collect of the Sunday Next before Advent—the last Sunday in the Church Year is worth learning by heart. Its simplicity is misleading; there is in this one petition, material for countless deep meditations:

Stir up, we beseech thee, O Lord, the wills of thy faithful people; that they, plentiously bringing forth the fruit of good works, may by thee be plentiously rewarded; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

CONGRATULATIONS

Nothing has so heartened the Rector in his ministry here in St. Stephen's Church as the response of our people to the Reconstruction and Advance Fund. The Episcopal Church aims to secure $5,000,000. The Diocese of Pennsylvania hopes to raise one-tenth, or $500,000; St. Stephen's Church has been given as its quota $6,000.

Under the leardership of two of our vestrymen the goal of $6,000 is now very nearly in sight. To date they have raised by gifts and pledges the sum of $5,580. We have until the middle of January to raise the balance.

Mr. I. Smith Raspin was asked by Bishop Hart to be Chairman of the North Philadelphia Convocation and to be responsible for the raising of $25,000. Mr. Edward S. Morris was appointed Chairman of St. Stephen's and together with Mr. Raspin called upon individuals of our parish to subscribe to this Fund as "advance givers." They have done a most remarkable piece of work and deserve the thanks of everyone.

There are still a number of people who will want to be included on the "advance givers" roll, and we urge you to make yourselves known. On a designated Sunday in January a special offering will be taken for gifts large and small to make up the balance needed. This total amount will represent an all-inclusive gift of all the people of our Parish as a thank offering for a righteous peace in the war, for the safety of 94 of the 96 who went from our Parish into the Armed Forces; and in affectionate and grateful memory of the sacrifices of the two who did not return.

The rector, of course, would not embarrass the following individuals and organizations by indicating the specific amount of their individual gifts but two gave $1,000; two gave $500; two gave $300; two gave $250; four gave $200; six gave $100; two gave $15; one gave $10; one gave $5.00.

Girls' Friendly Society, the Mothers' Meeting, the Women's Auxiliary, Special Funds from Endowment, Mr. J. Lewis Armstrong, the Rev. and Mrs. George R. Bishop, Lt. George R. Bishop, Jr., Mrs. Edward Cooke, Misses Anne, Emma and Miriam Daley, Mr. Monroe Dobbins, Dr. Charles Judson, Miss Matilda Maulsby, Miss Helen Mockett, Mr. Edward Shippen Morris, Dr. Herbert Old, The Rev. Alfred W. Price, Mr. and Mrs. I. Smith Raspin, Mrs. Benjamin Reath, Miss Margaret Tappen, Miss Susan C. Thackara.

HOME PRAYERS

(Issued weekly for those who cannot get to church services: The sick and shut-in, the isolated, Sunday-workers, young people in the service of our country and others.)

Opening Prayer

We are evil, O God; help us to see it, and amend. We are good; help us to be better. Look down upon Thy servants with a patient eye, even as Thou sendest sun and rain; look down, call upon the dry bones, quicken, enliven, re-create in us the soul of service, the spirit of peace; renew in us the sense of joy. Amen. (Robert Louis Stevenson).

Bible Reading. Acts 28: 11-15.

The Sermon:

St. Paul was on his way to Rome, to be tried before the Emperor. He was a long, long way from home, and fellow-Christians were few and far between and he was lonely. As they came along the great Appian Way, to a place called the Three Taverns, a group of Christian friends came to meet him. When St. Paul saw those welcoming folk, "he thanked God, and took courage."

Our deepest gratitude on this Thanksgiving Day is that the war is over. Some of our loved ones are at the family table with us already. The peace is here that we prayed for, hoped for, over the long slow years. Yet we begin to hear rumblings and sharp words at the peace table. There are grave difficulties over making an abiding peace. We often fail to be peacemakers in our own private lives. We look in the mirror and remember that the world's statesmen are made of the same clay as we; and our hearts go sick within us. Can we be hopeful, joyous, today?

Yes, we can! For humanity, with its ear attentive to the Eternal God, can do the impossible. God is very merciful, patient and slow to wrath, and with great understanding. We can be hopeful, remembering the Everlasting Mercy of God, who is still willing to guide us into the ways of peace. Every sincere person, determined to learn loving kindness, can be very sure of God; can be quietly confident that He will stand by and see us through.

On the body of a young American soldier in Italy was found a scrap of paper on which he had scribbled his new-found belief in the Everlasting Mercy. He had written, "Look God, I've never spoken to You. But now I want to say, 'How do you do'. You see, God, they told me you did not exist, and like a fool I believed all this. Last night from a shell-hole I saw your sky; I figured right then they had told me a lie . . . I wonder, God, if you'd shake my hand. Somehow I feel that you will understand. Funny . . . I had to come to this hellish place Before I had time to see Your Face. Well, I guess the zero hour will soon be here, But, I'm not afraid since I know that You are near. The signal,—well, God, I'll have to go . . . Who knows, I may come to your house tonight . . . I wonder if you'd wait at Your door. Well, I have to go now, God; goodbye. Strange, since I met you, I'm not afraid to die."

Come what may, we can lift thankful hearts with that boy—because of the Everlasting Mercy, we can thank God and take courage for the days to come.

Closing Prayer:

Send out Thy light and Thy truth, O God, and lead us through the mists of ignorance, vanity and fear, unto the clear shining of the perfect day of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

LET US REMEMBER THE PEOPLES OF THE LIBERATED AREAS AT CHRISTMAS by giving material aid to the churches overseas. The Episcopal Church, through the Presiding Bishop's Fund for World Relief, is joining with the majority of the churches represented in the World Council of Churches in a cooperative venture, designed to facilitate the shipment of goods to our sister churches in the liberated countries abroad.

The program of the American Church is one of securing gifts in kind. It will provide important supplies and enable the overseas churches to give assistance to their own constituents in their own communities, which churches have traditionally given. This program will overlap no other national program, but will supplement the work of UNRRA and the Red Cross.

Used clothing, shoes, bedding and household linens, all to be completely cleansed, mended and ready for immediate use. Seeds, farming and gardening tools, hospital supplies and surgical dressings; household equipment, sewing machines, bicycles . . . The range of useful goods can be extended indefinitely.

Bring your gift to the Church office before Christmas.

ANTHEM—"Ye who have spent the silent night in deep and quiet rest" George Dyson

Ye that have spent the silent night In sleep and quiet rest, And joy to see the light That riseth in the east.

Now lift your hearts, your voices raise, Your morning tribute bring, And pay a grateful song of praise To Heaven's Almighty King.

And as this gloomy night did last But a little space, As heavenly day Doth show his pleasant face,

So let us hope, when faith and love, Their work on earth have done, God's blessed face to see above, Heaven's better, brighter Sun.

When the weekly bulletin for October 28, 1945 was sent to you, a small envelope was enclosed having space on the front for your name, the month of your birth and the date thereof. Please fill in the blanks, including a dime for each name you would like to have printed on the Birthday Calendar for 1946, and send it to the church office. The calender sells for a quarter and the proceeds of the sale goes toward the Church School Missionary Offering.

It is the custom in St. Stephen's Church for the congregation to rise for the hymns and canticles at the first note of the organ prelude; to join heartily in reading the Psalms, making responses and saying the Amens, and to join with the minister in repeating the Collect for the day which is to be found on page 117 for the Twenty-fifth Sunday after Trinity (see the rubric on page 224). The Collect for Thanksgiving Day is to be found on page 265.

The rector will preach at St. James Church, Kingsessing, Sunday evening on the subject of Religion and Health.

Thanksgiving Day is Thursday, November 22 and the service in the church is at 11 o'clock. Following the general custom in this Diocese, your offering on Thanksgiving Day is asked for the support of the Episcopal Hospital. Last year our offering amounted to $1,117.03. That the Hospital may more adequately meet its responsibility, especially in helping to provide hospital care for those who are unable to provide for themselves, your generous response to this annual appeal is earnestly requested. An envelope is enclosed for your convenience.

HOME PRAYERS

(Issued weekly for those who cannot get to church services: The sick and shut-in, the isolated, Sunday-workers, young people in the service of our country and others.)

Opening Prayer

O Lord of Life, strengthen our purpose and deepen our love, that in difficulty and in ease, in joy and in sorrow, we may dedicate our lives to Thee, and in Thy service quit ourselves like men, building the new kingdom of the Prince of Peace, Jesus Christ, Thy Son, our Lord.

Bible Reading. II Samuel 1:19-27 (David's Lament for his comrades).

The Sermon:

Every veteran will sympathetically enter into and thoroughly appreciate David's lament for Saul and Jonathan. David had fought with them; lost and won battles at their side; had stood at many a tight corner with them and escaped alive because of their courage. Only the man who has "been there" knows how deeply he cares for men who have shared danger with him. The veteran will understand better than any, what David meant as he cried out "How are the mighty fallen! . . . I am distressed for thee, my brother Jonathan; very pleasant hast thou been to me; thy love to me was wonderful, passing the love of women." Many faces pass in review through the veteran's memory, the faces of young men who died that you and I might be free.

It is our solemn duty to see to it that these dead shall not have died in vain. Each of us must learn from God the part we are to play in building a world where there shall be peace. No one can tell you what your part is to be . . . but, after the millions of young lives sacrificed for your freedom, do not expect it to be an easy part. Right where you are, in city or village or open country, God has something you can do to build a world of peaceful folk. Our best chance to do our job lies in remembering the greatness of our debt to these young men who loved life as much as we do.

Closing Prayer:

O God, as we remember those who died for us, enable us to build the new world of freedom and peace for which they fought, that their contentment may be deep in Thy blessed abodes; through Him who died for all mankind, even Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

LABOR AND INDUSTRY

Yesterday's paper carried the headlines of war.
Today's papers carry—the headlines of war.

Yesterday it was the strife of nations.
Today it is the strife of industrial classes.

Yesterday the scene was Europe and Asia.
Today the scene is America.

Yesterday there were strange names like Aachen and Ockinawa
Today there are familiar names like Detroit and New York.

Yesterday Americans were united against a common foe.
Today Americans are divided against one another.

Surely there is a better way—and just as surely, that better way must develop in the structure of industry and in its human participants.

We have looked to Government to organize us for the winning of victory and peace over and against the Axis powers. But Government can't enforce peace in our economic life.

That must be won from within.

Structurally, the house of industry is a house divided. It is Management on one side and Labor on the other. Labor does not enter the directorate by means of which shareholder or capitalist and management have partnership. Labor is not a participant through representation in the overall directions, and therefore it is not a participant in the general responsibility. It is too often more nearly in the category of a material to be bought or rented than in that of a human being with a worth of personality to contribute.

There is no genuine "WE" in industry.

Looking back over the history of economics as it has been written and studied for the past generation, the fault is obvious. The concentration has been on materials and on the techniques of developing and marketing materials; there has been no warm human page from cover to cover. Today it is obvious that the human relations factor is of supreme importance.

HOME PRAYERS

(Issued weekly for those who cannot get to church services: The sick and shut-in, the isolated, Sunday-workers, young people in the service of our country and others.)

Opening Prayer:
O God, forgive what we have been; sanctify what we are; and order what we shall be; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Bible Reading: Matthew 9:1-8.

The Sermon:
Some people feel that it is "queer" to ask God to forgive us our sins. They think that it is only people with odd, twisted lives, cranks and soft-headed folk, who feel any need of God's forgiveness. They actually think that they can get along nicely without asking God to cleanse them. But it remains a curious fact that these people observe wash day; they feel the necessity of cleansing their clothes. Some of these same people are very particular about washing their hands before meals—they would not think of coming to the family table with the grime of the city or the back yard, on their hands. They know that they cannot live through a working day without getting soiled.

They need to learn that we cannot live through a working day without also getting dirt on our hearts, on our minds. It may be a sudden flash of temper, with ugly words spoken; or momentary hospitality to unclean and unlovely thoughts; or our passing on some gossipy story which helped to smirch some one's reputation. And when evening comes, we need a spiritual bath in the Presence of God, lest we go to bed with dirty hearts and minds. We need to be cleansed by His mighty forgiveness. One help to this cleansing at the end of the day is this prayer:

"If I have wounded any soul today,
If I have caused one foot to go astray.
If I have walked in my own wilful way,
Good Lord, forgive!

"If I have uttered idle words or vain,
If I have turned aside from want or pain,
Lest I myself should suffer through the strain
Good Lord, forgive!

"If I have been perverse, or hard or cold,
If I have longed for shelter in the fold,
When Thou hast given me some part to hold,
Good Lord, forgive!

"Forgive the sins I have confessed to Thee
Forgive the secret sins I do not see;
That which I know not, Father, teach Thou me,
Help me to live!"

Closing Prayers: Our Father and repeat the poem above—out loud.

ALL SAINTS' DAY

(Services on Thursday and Sunday, November 1 and 4)

Thursday, November 1st is All Saints' Day. There will be a service of Holy Communion at 12:15 P. M. when the names will be read of those in this Parish who have during the past year entered into the Life Eternal. In making out the list of names to be read we have, of course, only the Parish Register as our reminder. Perhaps there are people who will attend the Service on All Saints' Day who would like to have incorporated into this list the names of others, outside of our Parish members, who, having finished their course in faith during the past year, now rest from their labors. If so, don't hesitate to send such names to the rector and they will be included in our list.

And one more word about All Saints' Day—the Church has fittingly provided an Octave of All Saints' Day. This Festival is extended over the following Sunday. If it is quite impossible for you to observe All Saints' Day on Thursday, then you can quite properly observe it on next Sunday within the Octave, (November 4). The Roster of the Dead will be read at the two celebrations of the Holy Communion at 9:00 A. M. and 11:00 A. M.

HOME PRAYERS

(Issued weekly for those who cannot get to church services: The sick and shut-in, the isolated, Sunday-workers, young people in the service of our country and others.)

Opening Prayer:

O Thou who art the Way, the Truth and the Life, make Thy way plain before our face. Teach us to live boldly and with kindness, that we may be free from greed, and strong in Thy love and power. Amen. (Adapted from the Knutsford Fellowship).

Bible Reading. Matthew 7:24-27.

The Sermon

In the Parable of the Two Houses, which you have just read, Jesus tells the tale of a terrific storm, much like the hurricane which recently struck Florida. The Master spotlights two houses in a town—one of them stood firmly against the howling storm; the other went down in a crash of wreckage. And the people said, "How sudden!" But Jesus points out that the fall of that house without foundations was not sudden at all. For long weeks and months and years as the owner worked on it, he had been building for a fall. It was only the storm that was sudden, the storm that showed up the weakness of the house. In like manner, there was nothing sudden or unexpected about the firmness of the other house. In the other account of the Two Houses (Luke 6:47-49) Jesus says that this man "digged deep and laid the foundation on a rock." He had long been building for that judgment day. Week by week he had made sure that his house would stand.

In our communities we see this truth acted out before our eyes. Some man or woman falls from a position of respect—cheats a customer, deserts a wife, robs a store; and people say, "How sudden!" Or another rises to prominence—becomes a war hero, is made head of a business concern, makes a discovery in medicine; and superficial people say, "How sudden!" But all these people had been building, long and steadily, for their collapse or strength. Some built their daily habits of thought and conduct shabbily, carelessly, with no foundation of faith or discipline under them. Others built faithfully disciplining themselves to see the right from the wrong and doing it, to obey God's will, and trusting Him for the outcome. Any one who knew their inmost lives could predict which would collapse, which would stand, when the storm of adversity, or temptation, struck their lives. The glory of the life of Jesus is summed up in the scene of the Cross—there where the full blast of men's hate and treachery and stupidity beat upon the lonely Figure, He stood against the storm victoriously. For His life was grounded in His trust in the Father, the Almighty God. Following Jesus is simply building one's life on God, every hour of every day.

In April, 1908, Judgment Day came to the architects and building contractors of California. For forty-eight seconds, the ground trembled like a leaf in that great earthquake. When it was over, David Starr Jordan, president of the great university there, looked out over the wreckage of his own campus and said, "Nothing came down which ought not to have come down. The buildings which fell were not built right in the first place." It was the life-time habit of shoddiness or integrity in architects and builders which long before had determined which buildings would stand. Sooner or later the storm hits every life!

Closing Prayer

May the God of all grace, who hath called us unto His eternal glory, stablish, strengthen, settle us. Amen (St. Peter).

ANTHEM—"The King's Highway".....Edward Shippen Barnes

I know not where the road will lead,
I follow day by day;
Or where it ends. I only know
I walk the King's Highway.

The way is truth, the way is love,
For light and strength I pray,
And through the years of life to God
I walk the King's Highway.

I know not if the way is long,
And no one else can say,
But rough or smooth, uphill or down,
I walk the King's Highway.

The countless hosts lead on before,
I must not fear or stray;
With them, the pilgrims of all creeds
I walk the King's Highway.

And some I love have reached the end,
But some with me may stay;
Their faith and hope still guiding me,
I walk the King's Highway.

Through light and dark the road leads on
Till dawns the endless day,
When I shall know why in this life
I walk the King's Highway.

THE SERMON—"Teen-Age Christians".....THE RECTOR
OFFERTORY HYMN 367.....Horatio Parker
AMERICA—The Presentation of the Colors
RECESSIONAL HYMN 433.....Ton-y-Botel

It is the custom in St. Stephen's Church for the congregation to rise for the hymns and canticles at the first note of the organ prelude; to join heartily in reading the Psalms, making responses and saying the Amens, and to join with the minister in repeating the Collect for the day which is to be found on page 218.

ACCENT ON YOUTH

The young people of our church are important to us and extremely important to the whole Church. Youth Sunday, October 21 is the time when the youth of our parish will join with thousands of their fellow young people throughout the world in emphasizing their place and part in the life and work of the Church.

EDITORIAL

The most critically immediate and important decision facing the American people is: "What shall we do with the secret of atomic energy?"

For a brief time this secret is ours, but we cannot hope to be its sole possessor long. What scientists have done, other scientists can and will do. Certainly the most insane policy which we could choose would be to hold this secret while we can and to concentrate our energies upon increasing our efficiency in its distructive uses. To follow such a course would be to make America a spectacle of dread to all mankind. We could easily become the world's unique object of fear, suspicion and hatred. Meantime, all over the world, investigation would go forward to match our secret; then, in some hour of tension, surcharged with national passion, from somewhere the deluge of destruction might be released.

Face to face with the awesome fact of atomic power, it is inevitable that the noblest course of action will be the wisest.

We may say to the world: "We have in our possession the secret of this terrifyingly vast energy. We have used it sparingly and by this use the war has been ended. We realize, however, that a threat to all of us remains. At the same time we know that the constructive uses of atomic power can match its destructive uses; that, properly harnessed, it can bring inconceivable benefit to all mankind and can, indeed, remove many of the age-old causes of war. Therefore, under adequate international control, we invite international co-operation in the development of these constructive uses; and we pledge to give to such international co-operation an even greater amount of skill and money and concern than we have invested in the use of atomic energy for war. We now dedicate it to peace and to human welfare."

Can't you see what that would mean? The shroud of fear that overhangs mankind would be banished by a great transcendant hope. Humanity would have before it a great goal of universal benefit. We would develop a comradeship in peace like to our comradeship in war. And, not the least, America would be an object, not of fear and dread, but of gratitude and affection.

We rejoice in the return from overseas of Harry Blomquist with six battle stars and the Purple Heart, William Haines with three battle stars, Lt. Josephine Head, ANC, Major Evans B. Hume, Herbert Purdy, with five battle stars and a Presidential Citation, Elmer Richardson, a valued member of the Choir, John Ruff with seven battle stars and Lt. Henry Wong, with an Air Cross and a Distinguished Service Cross. We wish them well in their civilian life.

HOME PRAYERS

(Issued weekly for those who cannot get to church services: The sick and shut-in, the isolated, Sunday-workers, young people in the service of our country and others.)

Opening Prayer:

O God, the might of all them that put their trust in Thee, grant that we may be more than conquerors over all things that make war upon our souls, that at the last we may enter into the perfect peace of Thy Presence, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Bible Reading: I Samuel 17:20-51.

The Sermon:

Ever since we were children, you and I have loved the story of David and Goliath. David came straight from home to the camp of Israel, bringing provisions for his older brothers in the army. He found his country's fighting men "sore afraid" of the braggart giant of the Philistines, who had challenged any Israelite to come out and meet him in single combat. Goliath must have been an awe-inspiring figure, towering above ordinary men, protected with his heavy armor and broad shield, a mighty sword at his side, and a great spear in his massive hand. David went out armed only with a sling-shot and a deep faith in Almighty God, shouting to Goliath "Thou comest to me with sword and spear. I come to Thee in the name of the Lord of Hosts whom thou hast defied." And all the might of Goliath's armament was no match for the shining faith of the shepherd boy of the hills.

One of the greatest perils of our nation today is the vastness of our material equipment. We have heard our leaders call this land the most powerful nation in all history; and in many ways they are undoubtedly right. No nation has ever had so much money, such vast industrial wealth, so tremendous military power, such prosperity among its citizens. But as a friend of mine has written "All the mighty machinery and materials of what we call 'modern civilization' are at best only tools. Whether they make for human well-being or for human injury, depends upon the quality of the spiritual forces which wield those tools. Are we to resume the old material ambitions which ruled so many lives and nations before the war? . . . What our country needs today above all else is to learn afresh the meaning of that ancient word of God, 'Not by might, nor by force, but by My Spirit, saith the Lord of Hosts'."

In the days to come, history will record whether the United States was able, in the twentieth century, to learn the Spirit of David: whether we were wise enough to put our whole trust in the almighty power of the invisible God. What the record will be depends on people like you and me, who make up the United States. It will depend on where we put our confidence. Are we depending on our wealth, our vast stores of food, our armament, our human brains—or on the infinite power of God? Are we going to use our rich tools under His direction? The history of the long past records that victory, over the years to those who live "not by might, nor by force, but by My Spirit, saith the Lord of Hosts." Each of us must make our decision—shall we be David or Goliath?

Closing Prayers: "Our Father" and the following prayer:

Be Thou, O Lord, we beseech Thee, the Saviour and Sanctifier of Thy people, that we who are sanctified by Thy Presence may in our daily life walk with Thee, and in humble trust seek to follow as Thou callest us by name and dost lead us out, our Shepherd and our Lord. Amen.

The United Thank Offering . . . through your help . . . brings education to people all over the world, from Alaska to the Philippines, from our own neglected sections of the country to darkest Africa. It brings doctors, nurses, teachers, social workers and evangelists. It builds churches, parish houses, schools and hospitals—but ONLY THROUGH YOUR HELP. Put your Blue Envelope on the Alms basin this Sunday, O ye thankful women of the Church!

The Woman's Auxiliary has been invited by the Auxiliary of Christ Church to attend the October meeting of Tuesday, October 16th, at 11.00 A. M., in the Community House. Bring your luncheon; coffee and cake will be provided. All women of St. Stephen's are welcome.

Our heartiest congratulations to Mrs. Cooke, whose son, Lieutenant Edward J. Cooke, Jr., has been decorated with the Air Medal—"An award made in recognition of courageous service to his combat organization . . . for meritorious achievement while participating in aerial flights in the Pacific Area from February 19, 1945 to August 6, 1945." We too are "genuinely proud" as is Edward's commanding officer!

We gratefully acknowledge the gifts to the Benevolent Society of Mrs. Edward J. Cooke, Mrs. Frederick Schmid.

The Fall In-gathering of the United Thank Offering will take place at the eleven o'clock service on Sunday, October 21, 1945. The U.T.O. is one of the means of assuring salaries to teachers, doctors, nurses, social workers and others, and the fees for their training in work for the Church. Now, as never before, this ministry, this great work by the women of the Church needs your help. The cessation of hostilities gives endless reasons for the giving of thanks. Let this tangible form of your thanksgiving be in proportion with your means.

CORPORATE PRAYER

Corporate prayer has not been given its true place in our thought and in the practice of our churches. It is generally felt to be less important than private prayer. This is wrong. Many people are led to say: "I can worship God at home or in the garden or on a trip to the country as well as in the church." The result is that the most central and vital thing in the Christian life, the service of public worship, is being neglected as superfluous. Private prayer is, of course, essential to the Christian life. To neglect it is to rob corporate prayer of its vitality. But corporate prayer is no less essential and to neglect it causes private prayer either to become self-centered or to wither away in vague sentimentality. When we pray in secret we are always beset by the temptation to assert our own desires as if God had no one to think of but us! Corporate prayer is a check on this temptation. When we pray with others we cannot give full run to our private desires. And the fact that we cannot do so compels our conscience to challenge their legitimacy.

This challenge is in itself God's way of revealing His will to us. In the Church, the rich and poor meet together, the privileged and the under-privileged, the weak and the strong. This very diversity gives rise to a conflict of desires, a conflict which can be reconciled only in the impartiality of God's fatherhood. When we pray together in the corporate fellowship of brotherly love we are thus often compelled to chasten our private desires and even to pluck out of our hearts some of our private prayers and fling them away as unchristian and impious. No man can discover the will of God in solitude.

It is only in fellowship that the Father's will can be made fully known. And what we learn of God's will in corporate prayer we carry back to our closet to enrich and discipline the prayer which we offer in secret.

HOME PRAYERS

(Issued weekly for those who cannot get to church services: The sick and shut-in, the isolated, Sunday-workers, young people in the service of our country and others.)

Opening Prayer:

Fortify us, O God, with the courage which cometh only from Thee; that in the midst of all our perplexities we may find that peace which only Thou canst give; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Bible Reading—II Samuel 23: 1-5, 10-17.

The Sermon:

King David was waging a tough war, against hard-fighting foes. Weary of body and spirit, he was sitting at the door of his cave at the end of the day. Suddenly his thoughts jumped back into his childhood, to the well on his father's farm. He had played about that well as a boy; had drunk from its cool depths on many a sultry afternoon. Smitten with homesickness, he suddenly cries out, half to himself, "Oh, that some one would give me a drink of the water of the well of Bethlehem." Three of his warriors overhear him, and, at peril of their lives, slip out through the enemy lines, under cover of darkness and make their way to the old well. They draw out of it a jug of the cool water and bear it back to the king. David takes it from their hands, and begins to think what that water from the well of Bethlehem means. Can he drink it? He shakes his head—"Far be it from me, O Lord; is not this the life-blood of those men who went in jeopardy of their lives?" And he pours it slowly out on the ground, as a grateful offering to God. He cannot use this water from the well of Bethlehem for his own selfish satisfaction.

Uppermost in our minds this autumn is our gratefulness for peace. The killing is finished. Loved ones will be coming home. We have passed out of the nightmare of war into the daylight at last.

But we must guard against accepting this peace lightly. Already there are smooth voices over the radio alerting us to golden prosperity just ahead, to wondrous gadgets which will make life easier. Already we are being wheedled to plunge into the most fabulous splurge of spending in all history—to make ourselves comfortable! We are being urged to gulp down water from the well of Bethlehem; to "enjoy" peace to the full.

But this peace and security which we enjoy was bought at a great price—the price of the suffering, wounds, and deaths of young men who loved life, but were willing to die to bring peace to us and all mankind. This peace is water from the well of Bethlehem. Here, in the presence of God, we had best hesitate, as David did. Our beloved dead did not die to make us comfortable—they died to give us freedom and world peace. We must think and pray, and spend, to carry on their high purpose. We must spend to relieve hunger and suffering, that all men may be drawn into a brotherhood that insures peace. We must think in the spirit of the Master, freed from hate and revenge, that no hated outcast nation will be left after this war silently plotting to start another. This precious gift of peace, won for us by brave men, must be accepted with reverence—"is it not the lifeblood of those men who went in jeopardy of their lives?"

Closing Prayers:

"Our Father" and the following prayer:

O God, by whose quickening of grace we are made fellow-citizens of the household of faith; Grant that the good endeavors of Thy people in all nations, fitly framed together, may grow into a holy temple of righteousness and truth, through Him who is our peace, Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

O Lord most holy, O Lord most mighty,
O loving Father, Thee would we be praising alway.
Help us to know Thee, know Thee and love Thee;
Father, Father, grant us Thy truth and grace;
Father, Father, guide and defend us.
Rule Thou our wilful hearts, keep Thine our wand'ring thoughts
In all our sorrows, let us find our rest in Thee.
And in temptation's hour,
Save through Thy mighty power,
Thine aid O send us; hear us in mercy
Show us Thy favor
So shall we live and sing praise to Thee.

The Altar flowers are given by Miss Matilda Maulsby in loving memory of Ida T. Maulsby.

It is the custom in St. Stephen's Church for the congregation to rise for the hymns and canticles at the first note of the organ prelude; to join heartily in reading the Psalms, making responses and saying the Amens, and to join with the minister in repeating the Collect for the day which is to be found on page 215.

Our heartfelt sympathy is extended to the family of Col. George W. Hicks, who passed away in his eighty-first year.

EDITORIAL

October is here again and organized religion in our city is now in full swing.

For the spiritually obtuse, it means simply resuming where we left off in June. There is no appreciably greater sense of urgency, no new emphasis, no significant self-examination.

But, if we merely resume where we left off, we will be mere shadows of the past—the living dead. The age in which we left off died on July 17 at the birth of the new atomic age. We have been the witnesses of perhaps the most profound discovery in man's entire history.

It is an awful discovery in the deepest sense of the adjective. Its destructive potentiality is so great that the annihiliation of humanity itself is made probable unless there is a profound change in attitude and life. On the other hand this incomparably vast new source of power and heat and light holds out the hope of unimagined material and social benefits to all mankind. In a very real sense atomic energy opens the gates of Hell and Heaven.

Through one of those gates we must go—there is no halting at the threshold.

Already the finger has been pointed at organized religion—a desperate challenge has been leveled against it. General MacArthur but articulated the voice of atomic energy itself when he said that unless we quickly develop moral, spiritual, religious controls of life we are headed for self-destruction.

That may mean for the average man that his steps should turn toward the Church. But its more significant meaning is for the Church itself. It means that the Church must lay aside all pride and cant, must shed the outmoded garments of the past and the mumbo-jumbo of mere human tradition, must reject compromise with expediency and come to grips with life. Jesus has and is the answer—not the Jesus of theologians—the Jesus of the Gospels—Jesus the Master of life.

The atomic bomb has accentuated, as has no fact in the life time of Christianity, the importance of true Christian education.

ANOTHER YEAR

Vacations are over. Parish Organizations and Committees are beginning to function again. Church School has reopened. Our Church Bulletin has been enlarged and will include notices and an editorial as well as the newer feature—a page of home prayers and two minute sermon for those unable to come to church.

ST. STEPHEN'S BULLETIN is not an end in itself, but rather a means by which the influence of the Parish of St. Stephen's Church is extended and augmented.

We do not suppose that the editor of a secular paper would ever ask for the prayers of their readers, but we do ask the prayers of our readers that this year may be fruitful. You who read the paper are as much a part of it as the Editor. It is an expression of our corporate life together. What you do as a Parish, and as friends of the Parish, is reflected in its pages. Your needs are the inspiration for much of its contents. And your love of the Parish and your rector's love of the Parish, supply the vital force which keeps the paper going.

May God give us grace to do a good work this year.

We acknowledge the following donors to the Benevolent Society with deep appreciation:

HOME PRAYERS

(Issued weekly for those who cannot get to church services: The sick and shut-in, the isolated, Sunday-workers, young people in the service of our country and others.)

Opening Prayer:

O God, we would begin each day with Thee in prayer. May Thy presence give us joyous and triumphant assurance, both for the life that now is and for the life that is to come.

Give us a working religion that builds a happier and better world. Bless us that we may be a blessing to others. Give us strength and courage to do that which is pleasing in Thy sight. We ask it for Christ's sake. Amen.

Bible Reading—St. Matthew 22.

Sermon:

"In the world ye shall have tribulation: but be of good cheer; I have overcome the world." St. John 16; 33.

The life of Jesus was filled with tribulation, culminating in the persecution which resulted in His death. Yet He never gave up; He never denied the goodness of God; He never faltered in His intimate communion with the Father. Even before the Resurrection He could say that He had overcome the world.

Jesus never said that His victory would remove trouble from the world. "Ye shall have tribulation", He told His disciples. And they had it, as does everybody who is born into the world. Jesus did not destroy all sickness, all sorrow, all pain, but He did show the spiritual resources which are latent in us all, by means of which we can look all these troubles in the face and overcome their power over us.

My brother, perhaps you are facing something painful right now. If you are not, you will some day. You can either let it break your spirit or you can have faith in the good purposes of God. I cannot believe that anybody would willingly choose to let his spirit be broken, but if a person elects to neglect the nature of his faith he is really choosing the course on which his spirit may some day fail.

I know from my pastoral experience what can happen to people who neglect to worship God; and I know what strength can come to anyone who centers his life on God.

Closing Prayer:

O God, in the hour of trial, increase our faith and inspire in us a true appreciation of the gifts with which Thou hast endowed us. Take from us the weakness of self-pity and awaken within us a spirit of rejoicing and thanksgiving. Forbid that we should surrender in spite of our handicaps. As we wait on Thee, enable us to regain the strength which has been taken away from us by the hardships of life.

May Thy tender, forgiving love for us heal us of our self-despisings. Amen.

OUR FOURTH EASTER OF WAR

To you, men and women of St. Stephen's Church, serving our country at home or in far off places, we send our sincere and affectionate Easter Greeting. It doesn't seem possible that some of you have been away for four long years, but you have, and to some of us still back in Philadelphia, it seems like forty!

We wish you all to know how much we miss you at all times, and especially at this Sacred Season of Easter. We wish you to know how constantly we think of you, how constantly we wonder where you are and what you are doing. Above all, we wish you to know how constantly we pray for you at God's Holy Altar, when your faces crowd about us, each time we kneel in worship.

May Jesus Christ, our Victorious and Lord Redeemer, have you in His holy keeping. May He so sustain you at all times and in all places by the sense of His abiding Presence that you may do your duty with courage and serve your country with honor.

And may the day soon dawn when the Victory finally won, and Peace secured, you are safe home again to gladden the hearts of those who still love you and pray for you.

Until then, "God be with you, and a Blessed Easter to you all."

This is the message your friends at St. Stephen's would have me send you in their name.

Faithfully, your Rector,

ALFRED W. PRICE.

Behold the dawn! When Jesus rose triumphant o'er the last of foes,
When angels rolled away the stone, The living Lord came to His own.

Behold the dawn! Amid the flowers the Master walked those morning hours; With His disciples kept His tryst, Revealed to them the living Christ.

Behold the dawn! With morning's breath He rose victorious over death; From fear He set His people free, And brought them immortality.

Awake and give Him worthy praise, As ever down the ageless days,
Rings out a song, to greet the sun, A song of life for ever won.

THE RECTOR'S EASTER GREETING

MY BELOVED PEOPLE OF ST. STEPHEN'S:

What right have we to claim the promises of Easter when obviously the world is still leading Jesus to Calvary?

Jesus was crucified because His life and law were a threat to selfishness—to the selfishness of the Pharasees who would not have their religious formula upset, to the selfishness of the Sadducees, who jealously guarded their compromise between religious formality and selfish worldly life, to the selfishness of the Romans who would tolerate no rival to their power, to the selfishness of everyone who wanted to save his own skin, his own ease, his own convenience.

And what was the essence of Jesus' life and teaching that elicited this murder at the hands of selfishness? It was the preaching and the practice of the Golden Rule, the Law of Brotherhood, for this He defined as the essence of His teaching and this is the antithesis of selfishness.

See what a world is ours today! Is not international selfishness slaying men on every continent, interracial selfishness subjecting human beings to misery and underprivilege, industrial selfishness on one side or the other filling the land with strife, individual selfishness wrecking homes and families?

The promise of Easter is that Jesus was eternally, everlastingly right, and that some day there will be a world of men who have forgotten war and prejudice and strife and built their society upon the law of brotherhood.

Meantime let us be on guard against any false promises pronounced in the name of Easter. No church has ever had the authority to compromise Jesus' formula for the attainment of Eternal Life in order to let selfishness remain. It stands and it will always stand one and the same.

"Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart and soul and strength and mind. And thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself. This do and thou shalt live."

Affectionately and Faithfully your Rector,

ALFRED W. PRICE.

SERVICE FOR V-J DAY

ST STEPHEN'S CHURCH PHILADELPHIA

Invocation:-

Bless the Lord, O my soul, and all that is within me praise His Holy Name. He is our refuge and strength, He maketh wars to cease, and hath given us the victory; blessed be His glorious Name forever, and let the whole earth be filled with His glory.

Hymn Regent Square

Praise my soul, the King of Heaven
To His feet thy tribute bring
Ransomed, healed, restored, forgiven
Evermore His praises sing. Alleluia
Praise the Everlasting King.

Father-like He tends and spares us;
Well our feeble frame He knows
In His hand He gently bears us
Rescues us from all our foes.
Alleluia, Alleluia
Widely yet His mercy flows. Amen

Scripture:-

Thanks be to God who giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.
Glory be to God on High and on earth peace, goodwill to men.
Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends.
Thou shalt remember all the way the Lord Thy God hath led thee.

Old Hundredth

Fro, all that dwell below the skies
Let the Creator's praise arise;
Let the Redeemer's Name be sung
Through every land, by every tongue.

Praise God from whom all blessings flow
Praise Him all creatures here below,
Praise Him above, ye heavenly host
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost

Amen

Thanksgiving for Victory
(To be said by all present)

Almighty God, Father of all mercies, we yield Thee hearty thanks and most high praise for the victories vouchsafed to the Forces of our Country and of the United Nations culminating in the surrender of Japan. We thank Thee for every splendid deed of soldiers, sailors and airmen, for all the devotion of our people and for the promise of peace.

More especially we praise and bless Thy Name for those who were faithful unto death. Into Thy holy keeping we commend their souls. Make us worthy of their sacrifice as we enter the new day of hope for all mankind.

Let Thy will be done on earth that Thy Kingdom may come in justice, mercy, and lasting peace. Guide the nations to unity and concord that Thy way may be known among all nations, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

Other Prayers

The Star Spangled Banner

O say can you see by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hailed at the twilight's last gleaming
Whose broad stripes and bright stars through the perilous fight
O'er the ramparts we watched were so gallantly streaming;
And the rocket's red glare, the bombs bursting in air
Gave proof through the night that our flag was still there.
O say does that star spangled banner yet wave o'er the land of the free and the home of the brave.

Our Country, 'Tis of Thee

Our Father's God, to Thee,
Author of liberty,
To Thee we sing
Long may our land be bright,
With freedom's holy light;
Protect us by Thy might,
Great God our King.

Obituary

Rodney M. McCaughin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Morris McCaughin, was born in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania on December 1, 1925. He was baptized in St. Stephen's Church on January 21, 1926, and confirmed in St. Stephen's Church on February 25, 1940. He was a member of the Benjamin Franklin High School. He enlisted in the Army Air Corps on November 24, 1942. He was graduated from the Radio Operators' School in Scottfield, Illinois on May 28, 1943. On account of his high rating he was assigned to the famous 100th Bombardment Group and sent to England in February 6, 1944. He went into combat April 4, 1944 and completed twelve successful missions over occupied territory. He accomplished his thirteenth mission but was shot down and failed to return on April 28, 1944.

PROCESSIONAL HYMN 295

"For all the Saints, who from their labours rest"

Sentences

The souls of the righteous are in the hand of God, and there shall no torment touch them. In the sight of the unwise they seem to die, and their departure is taken for misery, and their going from us to be utter destruction: but they are in peace. Wisdom 3:1

I heard a voice from heaven, saying unto me, Write, from henceforth blessed are the dead who die in the Lord: even so saith the Spirit; for they rest from their labours. Revelation 14:13

Blessed be God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies, and the God of all comfort; Who comforteth us us in all our tribulation, that we may be able to comfort them which are in any trouble. 2 Cor. 1:3-4

HYMN FOR AIRMEN

(Tune: "Unde et Memores," Hymn 333)

O Holy Father hear our earnest prayer,
For all our brethren journeying through the air.
Enfold them 'neath the shadow of Thy wing,
And keep them safe from every evil thing.
Fog, wind and rain are all controlled by Thee,
In danger's hour grant Thy security.

Ascended Christ to Thee we make our prayer,
Encircle each brave airman in Thy care.
Preserve their going out and coming in,
Thy blessing grant them on their voyaging,
Let Cherubim and Seraphim attend,
And guard and guide them to their journey's end.

O Holy Spirit Who to man has given
To soar from earth toward the highest heaven,
Inspire the airmen in each flying hour,
Protect them and uphold them by Thy power.
When in the conflict they defend the right,
Let heart and hand be strengthened by Thy might.

Eternal Trinity for ever blest,
Legions of Angels speed at Thy behest,
These heavenly protectors deign to send,
Shielding the airmen to the journey's end.
And when at last the flights from earth are o'er,
Grant them safe landing on the further shore.

Ernest C. Earp.

THE SECOND LESSON

ROMANS 8:14

ANTHEM—There is No Death

I tell you they have not died,
They live and breathe with you;
They walk here at your side,
They tell you things are true.
Why dream of poppied sod
When you can feel their breath,
When flow'r and soul and God
Knows there is no death!

I tell you they have not died,
Their hands clasp yours and mine
They are but glorified
They have become divine.
They live! they know! they see!
They shout with every breath,
"Life is eternity!
There is no death!"

—Gordon Johnstone.

The Memorial

Let us Pray

Let us commend to Almighty God the soul of His servant

RODNEY MORRIS MCCAUGHIN

Almighty God, who hast given us the comforting assurance that thou art present in every place to hear the prayers of such as love thee, and to protect those for whom we pray. We commit our dear one to thy favor and care, that he may dwell with Thee in thy glory, and that we may ever be faithful to his memory here on earth, and re-united in communion and fellowship in the life that is to come; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

In the Name of God the Father Almighty who created him.

In the Name of Jesus Christ who redeemed him.

In the Name of the Holy Ghost who sanctified him.

May the soul of Rodney Morris McCaughin rest in peace, and light perpetual shine upon him. Amen.

Prayers for the Bereaved

O Almighty God, who art found of those who seek thee in loneliness and whose portion is sufficient for the sorrowful soul; Pour out, we pray thee, thy blessing, upon these thy servants bereaved and afflicted. Thou only canst keep their feet from falling and their eyes from tears. Let not thy grace of patience fail them, nor thy love forsake them; but so comfort and sustain their hearts, that in the land of peace and rest, when the time cometh, they too may find an everlasting home. Grant this, we beseech thee, for his sake who hath gone thither to prepare a place for us, thy Son, our Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

O Heavenly Father, whose unchanging love is sufficient for all our needs; We pray thee to grant the gracious comfort of thy Presence to all who mourn, whose hearts are torn with grief for which no human aid avails; that, even in the desolation of their loss, they may feel the calm assurance of thy mercy, and know the blessing of thy peace which passeth understanding; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

For All in the Service of Our Country

Almighty God, the strength of all who trust in thee, we commit to thy fatherly care all who are now serving their country on land, or sea or in the air; Keep them in safety under thy protection; Cover their heads in the day of battle; Make them strong and courageous; in the hour of loneliness sustain them with Thy Presence uphold them by thy mighty power that they may defend our liberties and preserve our freedom; Unite us with them in bonds of love and fellowship that together we may be worthy of our heritage. Hasten the day of our coming victory and bring them home to us, that we, with them, may dwell in peace and righteousness all the days of our life, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

PLEDGES

This past year is one of the best in our financial history. We have ended the year without a cent of debt. We have oversubscribed our Missionary Quota. We have made extensive repairs. My congratulations and thanks to all who made that achievement possible. But another year faces us. We cannot exist on past results. While many have sent in their pledges promptly, the total is somewhat behind that of last year at the corresponding time. More of our people should be using the weekly duplex envelopes. Let's clean up this matter of business, so that I may turn my full attention to spiritual matters. Thank you.

In behalf of our faithful treasurer, may I ask that you help us by indicating on your envelope how much of your offering goes in each side. This will save reference to your pledge card, and matching your number with your name. All this takes time which you could save by using the space which follows the word "Amount...".

CHRISTMAS AT ST. STEPHEN'S CHURCH

"What a wonderful Christmas! What a wonderful Christmas!" So says one of the little elephants in the children's story, "Barbar and Father Christmas". So say we all about our Christmas at St. Stephen's Church. In spite of a deep undercurrent of seriousness because of the state of the world, and because we missed so many who are serving their country—perhaps because of it—we turned out in great numbers and did our best to thank God for the gift of his dear Son, and his message of good will and peace. I am sure that all of us had our faith reinforced and our hope renewed, that a better world will be our lot before long. When we acknowledge that Christ is in the world we express our faith in the future.

The Christmas Story by Dr. Matthews with the Philadelphia Music Club pageant and Chorus was presented on Thursday before Christmas. The pageant and singing were done to perfection.

The attendance at the midnight service broke all records and the breakfast taxed the generous facilities of the Service Club. The singing of the two Christmas services with the high lights of the Messiah generously interspersed was inspiring. We realized once again the high service music renders in the worship of Almighty God, as our hearts were lifted by the beauty of the singing of Handel's immortal Cantata. It was an irristible challenge to man's deepest instinct to lift himself toward Something higher than himself.

We are grateful to Miss Thackara and the Altar Guild, Mr. Hauger and his ushers, and last but not least to our Verger, Mr. Carrigan for their efficient work.

Our hearts went out in love to all whom the War had separated from us, and we pray that most of them may be with us next year. Our gratitude goes out to them all.

MAKING LIFE COUNT

For the most part we are merely sentimental, often cheaply so, about the sacrifices being made by the young men of this generation—and those sacrifices are mounting ominously in these very hours.

Were we more than merely sentimental we would each of us face the implication of this awful struggle, realize clearly that behind the warfare of men and machines lies a profound conflict of ideals and principles and we would each of us seek a very definite place of responsibility in the ranks of those who are struggling to uphold the ideals and principles that are challenged by the enemy.

The ideals and principles for which our men are dying are the ideals of democracy. And the ideals of democracy are the fruit of Christianity —primarily of the Protestant interpretation of Christianity.

Here, then, is an obvious place of vital importance for the individual who really wants to make life count in these desperate days—let such a person give his services as a teacher of children, a teacher of the religion which has created those values more precious than life itself.

But we are not trained! Neither was the soldier when he was inducted. Had it not been for the training which followed induction, he would be a thoroughly helpless specimen on the battlefield.

If we are not trained, let us seek training. It ought to occur to us that if we do not know enough about Christianity to teach it, we surely do not know enough about it to live it.

How can we get training and where? A five weeks' course held on Tuesday evenings will be held under the auspices of the Department of Christian Education at the Church House, 202 South 19th Street, beginning January 9th. The hours are 7 to 9.40 depending on the courses you elect. The leaders are exceptionally able. The rest is up to us.

The enclosed envelope is for your convenience in subscribing to the Bulletin which is mailed to you each week, and whereby we keep in touch with the congregation, and they with us. It is not always possible for each of you to come to church every week, and yet we know you would not care to miss the notices. Our mailing list is well over four hundred —more than double the figure it was three years ago. The cost of printing and mailing is fully warranted by your continued interest in St. Stephen's Church, and we know you welcome this opportunity to help us defray the expenses of our weekly bulletin.

NEW YEAR RESOLUTION FOR EVERY DAY

"Lord, let me wake when morning breaks
Undaunted by my old mistakes.
Let me arise as comes the sun
Glad for the task that must be done,
Rejoicing I have strength to give
Some beauty to the life I live."

AN EMBARRASSING EXPERIENCE

I am still under the depression as I write, of an embarrassing experience of yesterday.

A luncheon meeting brought together a group of men and women who were individually and collectively concerned with working quietly and persuasively to rectify as deep a human injustice as exists in our society. Two members of the group reported on their recent interview with an officer who was the spokesman for a big influential organization, one that represents the "class" in its field. It lay within the power of this organization to make a most signficant contribution toward the removal of the human injustice which was our concern. These two men, both of whom were giving their time and energy for no personal advantage had gone to see the aforementioned officer in the second phase of a negotiation which, in the first phase, had seemed most hopeful. Neither of these men, I believe, is a churchman.

They told us how the officer greeted them cordially and began at once to tell them that he was an active director in a prominent church organization and how in this capacity he had helped to circulate the Bible very widely for many years.

At this point, I was most hopeful, but the hope was changed very quickly to a sense of the tragic—for, after explaining his active churchmanship, the officer then went on to tell them his organization would not alter its policy. He offered what was to him an apparently satisfactory explanation based on expediency. His immediate listeners knew enough about the Bible to see the utter inconsistency of his conversation with them and to marvel that he should be so naive. To them the juxtaposition of the recital of an almost boasting Christian loyaltty with the bland justification of a policy that defied Christian principle, seemed ludicrous. But it was not ludicrous. It was terribly tragic. It was perhaps the demonstration of the basic reason for the world's disbelief and consequent darkness and a lucid explanation of the indifference of so many people to the Church.

"INCOME TAX PRIMER"

The Federal Council of Churches has published a primer on income tax precedure, effective for 1945. Copies have been mailed to all those on our mailing list. Additional copies may be found in the vestibule of the church. As the primer states, "the introduction of the new simplified individual income tax return imposes upon every minister and finance committee of a local church the responsibility to explain to the contributors the implication of the new procedure, in order to endeavor to prevent the churches from suffering financially."

FROM OUR OVERSEAS MAILBAG

So many fine letters reach the rector these days from APO's all over the world. While it is impossible to share all of them with readers of the Bulletin, we feel that excerpts from a few will give some idea of the thoughts and hopes that St. Stephen's men and women have as they go about their jobs in a war torn world. Therefore, from time to time, as opportunity permits, we will give you a share of the rector's mail from home and overseas.

From Captain James W. Hepburn:

I received your very fine Christmas package today. It certainly showed careful planning, as the items men most appreciate. I particularly enjoyed the nice wrapping! The contents in your box is being enjoyed not only by myself, but also by the little children in this small French town. These little fellows really do not know what Christmas is—that is our Christmas. Many of them tasted chocolate for the first time when the generous American G. I.'s arrived.

The village people were very kind to my men on Christmas Eve. Several of the village women came around to those on sentry post and even in their quarters, and went through their ceremony of beating the boys with grass brooms and afterwards presenting them with some little gift. Everyone had a good time. This kind act made the men feel welcome to this area—an area in which the people are, on the surface, not friendly.

From Mr. Robert Atmore with the American Red Cross in the Pacific:

The Christmas box which the Church sent me was as well chosen as it was greatly appreciated. Whoever thought up those items must have had "second sight" or advice from overseas. I want you to know that everything arrived in first rate condition. . . .

On Sunday, February 4, from 2 until 5 o'clock, all of the 31 USO and associated agencies in Philadelphia will have "Open House" for their friends. You are invited to come and see what is being offered, through your generosity, to service men and women in your community. Those of you who have not been in our own St. Stephen's Service Club are urged to avail themselves of this opportunity to "come and see."

PASTORAL LETTER

TO THE MEMBERS OF THE DIOCESE:

Your record of support of the Diocese and National Church during 1944 was magnificent. It was an act of faith when we accepted the full amount assigned to us by the General Convention. Not only have you given it in full but you have enabled your Diocese to end the year without a deficit.

The thrilling part of this story is that one hundred and ninety-two congregations paid in full or overpaid their Proportionate Shares. Such a record would have been impossible without the vision and sacrificial efforts of clergy, vestrymen and congregations. I realize that many of you have given up parts of your own parish programs in order to help others. I am confident that our Lord will bless you for your unselfishness. And I ask your prayers that God will guide us and use us for the extension of His Kingdom.

Faithfully your Bishop,
OLIVER J. HART.

P. S.—We are happy that St. Stephen's Church paid its proportionate share of $4,500.00 and a little more.

PRAYERS FOR THE BUSY

Since ejaculatory prayer is something that you squeeze in between doing other things, it may be long or short according to circumstances. Sometimes it is a prayer habitually said while you are attending to other matters that require no thinking. I knew an old gentleman who made it his habit to pray for a good death each night while he stood in front of his bureau winding his watch. To him the swift passage of time was inseparable from his eventual departure. He used the prayer of Bishop Lancelot Andrewes.

"Grant, O Lord, that the end of my life be Christian, without sin and without shame, and, if it please thee, without pain."

A woman of my acquaintance on the way to lunch each day has to wait for a red traffic light to turn green. She assured me, and I found it to be so, that you have plenty of time to say, "Veni Creator Spiritus"—"Come, Holy Ghost, our souls inspire", in the span of a red light. This is much better than fretting or resenting the people who crowd around.

Recently I heard of a woman who was so busy with her household from morning to night that she made a practice of lifting up her heart to God every time she went upstairs! Take some common habit or circumstance and use that as a spring board for prayer.

One of the commonest of circumstances of people living in cities is to be caught in a crowd, a jammed subway or a packed bus, which can be both stifling and irritating. Put yourself in the presence of God. This can insulate you against the overwhelming pressure of humanity in the mass. You will also be practicing the habit of recollection.

Ejaculatory prayer calls us for an instant away from the hum of things, calls us to a homely, everyday, workable belief that God is with us everywhere and can be easily approached.

CONFIRMATION

Everyone is welcome to worship in the Church, to come and go without obligation, but at this time of year we would remind young people, the casual stranger, and the person who has been putting off his spiritual duties that everyone should become a full-fledged member of the Christian Church of his own free will. He should do it because it is the pledge of his fundamental loyalty and the outward proof of his inward act of allegiance to Christ and his Church. In the ancient rite of confirmation, the Bishop visits our parish, receives the candidates for confirmation, hears their spoken affirmation of loyalty to Jesus Christ, and then, as they kneel, places his hands upon their heads, invoking the seven-fold gifts of God's Holy Spirit. Simple, reverent, elemental, essential!

We invite those who attend our services who have never been confirmed to be confirmed this year. By way of preparation and instruction we shall hold a class Sunday mornings in the rector's study at ten o'clock.

There are always some who are not sure in their minds that they wish to be confirmed or are ready for confirmation. They are invited to attend this class and need not make their decision until March 11th when Bishop Hart comes for the service. If you are thinking of attending the class, the rector would appreciate having your name given to him, or the names of any who might be invited to attend.

Zeigler, the Misses Wallace, Mr. Robert Watson, Mrs. Herbert Wong, Elizabeth and Minnie Corrigan.

The rector spoke at a Round Table of Religion at Trinity Cathedral, Trenton, on January 15th.

Our sympathy is extended to Dr. Matthews in the passing of his brother-in-law George Alexander West. Mr. West had been the Organist and Choirmaster at St. Luke's Church, Germantown for fifty-four years. He was buried in the Church burial ground.

"Theological Sunday", January 21, is the occasion for receiving the annual offering from every church and mission for the support of our Divinity Schools. Envelopes for this purpose are enclosed and are available in the vestibule. The need for more clergy is acute and will be even more so in the post war years. Let us strengthen our Theological Schools now that they may serve the Church and country even better in the future.

CONFIRMATION

Bishop Hart will visit this Parish on March 11th to administer the Apostolic Rite of Confirmation, which is the historic way of admitting Christians into full fellowship with the Church. If you are an adult and have not yet been confirmed, don't you want to take your rightful place in the Christian Church in this community? Give your name to the Rector today.

LIFE OR DEATH

As events move forward we begin to see more clearly the difficulties that lie in the way of accomplishing the paramount task of our generation —stable and effective world organization.

A few days ago in a gathering of religious leaders, I heard the Dumbarton Oaks proposals assailed as immoral by a nationally-known minister who demanded so unrealistic a perfectionist substitute that his argument added up, actually, to support of isolationism.

Some months ago an International Oil Conference was held. A very moderate measure of agreement was reached suggesting scarcely more than a basis for consultation on the use of oil reserves, but it would have provided at least a starting point. That argument is said to be stifled in the Senate Foreign Relations Committee and it is reported that this stifling results from the pressure of oil interests.

Somewhat more notable has been the achievement of the International Air Conference which has recently adjourned. At least a moderate foundation has been laid by the unanimous agreement of the representatives. It is reported by Marquis W. Childs that all the time this conference was in session a powerful lobby, representing private air lines (mostly, though not entirely American) was doing everything possible to put obstacles in the way of any agreement at all. It remains to be seen whether private air interests will kill the air agreement as the oil interests have done to the oil agreement.

So in the very moment when the young men of America are dying to pay for the blind selfishness of twenty-five years ago, the same predatory selfishness—whether of pride of opinion or greed for profit—is casting a heavy shadow over the cradles in which the fighting men's children sleep.

Are we to allow our chance for the future to be done to death by small pressure groups which cannot see beyond the limits of immediate self-advantage? Where is the moral conscience of America? Who shall house it? Who shall martial it? Who shall represent it in a force of counteracting pressure to offset the pressures of selfishness?

These are no minor questions—no insignificant issues! They spell LIFE or DEATH to the next generation.

Hear my prayer, O God, incline thine ear!
Thyself from my petition do not hide;
Take heed to me! Hear how in prayer I mourn to Thee
Without Thee all is dark, I have no guide.
The enemy shouteth, the godless come fast!
Iniquity, hatred, upon me they cast.
The wicked oppress me, ah where shall I fly?
Perplexed and bewildered, O God, hear my cry.
My heart is sorely pained within my breast,
My soul with deathly terror is oppressed,
Trembling and fearfulness upon me fall,
With horror overwhelmed, lo, hear me call.
O for the wings of a dove!
Far away would I rove
In the wilderness build me a nest,
And remain there forever at rest.

The rector, as National Chaplain of the Military Order of the Purple Heart, will preach at a Patriotic Service at St. Paul's Church, New Rochelle, New York on the evening of February 18th.

The Annual Corporate Communion for Men and Boys will be held in Holy Trinity Church on Washington's Birthday, at 8 A. M. Following the service, breakfast will be served at the Hotel Stephen Girard, 2027 Chestnut Street, when the Hon. Robert T. McCracken, Chancellor of the Diocese will be the speaker. The cost of the breakfast is $1.00.

The Rev. Thomas Meryweather, Associate Rector, St. Luke and the Epiphany will be the Noon-day preacher on Saturday, February 24th.

On Sunday, February 25th, the Annual "All Youth Service" will be held in St. Stephen's at 3.30 P. M. The speaker is the Rev. Percy L. Urban, S.T.D., Philadelphia Divinity School. All young people of the Diocese are invited to attend.

WHERE PROTESTANTISM IS IN DEFAULT

The spiritual future of America will be determined by one of three major forces that are at work in our midst. These forces are secularism, Roman Catholicism and Protestantism. In the general breakdown of Western culture, the soul of America is being reborn. Shall it be a secular soul, a Roman Catholic soul, or a soul fashioned by those forces which the Protestant Reformation set free? No doubt the strongest force at the moment is secularism. A society whose children and youth receive virtually no education save that which is afforded by our public schools is destined to be a secular society. The Roman Catholic Church sees this clearly and provides at enormous sacrifice for the religious education of its children. Protestantism has never sensed the situation clearly, but has blindly imagined that it could safely entrust its children's education to public, therefore non-religious, auspices. Its Sunday schools are only a pathetic gesture in the direction of Christian education. Unless Protestantism awakes to its default and projects an educational system which will supplement secular education with thorough-going religious education, the soul of America will become either secular or Roman Catholic. The Catholic Church is intensely active—in education, in the acquisition of vast properties, in the machinations of politics, in the steady gaining of control over the public schools. This activity cannot be offset by merely exposing it and opposing it. It can be offset only by positive Protestant action on a scale commensurate with the educational system of Roman Catholicism itself. There are only two genuinely effective educational forces now at work—the public school, which is secular (and should be vigilantly kept so) and the Roman Catholic system. Protestantism must be awakened to its fateful responsibility for the soul of America.

FAITH

The Rev. Dr. Michael Coleman, acting vicar of All Hallows, London, during the Blitz, and who now is serving in the Church in Canada will be the noon-day preacher next week from Monday through Friday. He will conduct a Teaching Mission every evening in Holy Trinity Church.

During the Blitz of London, Dr. Coleman and his staff went from shelter to shelter ministering to men and women and children huddled together through the nights of terror. He was at the Thames serving with the defense workers as the bombs came down. Out of those experiences the wreckage of his church, the death of many of his people, and the questions he had to answer came this declaration of his faith.

"I know with all the power and passion that lies in me, that God is true, that He does care, that He can and does uphold—and because this I know, as I have verily known His upholding presence in blitz and blackout, on land and sea, I can write God does reign, God does indeed plan 'peace on earth to men of goodwill'."

Not since the days of G. A. Studdert-Kennedy, following the last Great War has the Church had so eloquent a preacher and prophet.

THE WAR COMMISSION

The returns from our plea for funds for the War Commission, are promising. We know that you really do care, that you do understand that this $400,000 is urgently needed. Therefore, we enclose a brochure containing further information for your kind consideration.

Miss Florence L. Kite, Secretary of the Friends' Committee on Race Relations will be the speaker at the next meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary, Thursday, February 15 at eleven o'clock in the Parish House.

We welcome our Troop No. 2 to our service this morning on the 35th Anniversary of Scouting in America. Troop No. 2, under the leadership of Captain Streaker, was organized as a Troop two years before Scouting came to America. It has had a continuously splendid record in the city ever since.

February 14 is Ash Wednesday. There will be a service at 10.30 A. M. —The Litany and the Penitential Office, and at 12.30 Bishop Hart will preach.

On Thursday, Bishop Sterrett of Bethlehem will preach and the Healing Service will follow.

Dr. John Robbins Hart, Rector of the Washington Memorial Chapel, Valley Forge will preach on Friday, followed by the service of Holy Communion.

The Rev. James C. Gilbert, Chaplain of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew and Rector of St. James, Kingsessing will be the preacher on Saturday.

DEPARTMENT OF CHRISTIAN SOCIAL RELATIONS. As February is Brotherhood month, the department is arranging an inter-racial World Day of Prayer Service. All members of the Church and all interested members of the Woman's Auxiliary are most cordially invited at 10.30, Friday, February 16th, at the Church House. Please help us to make this a witness of our inter-racial convictions.

LENT BEGINS

With Ash Wednesday, coming next week, Lent begins early this year. To me this seems appropriate in view of the world situation. If ever there was a year when people felt disposed to pray, to get a little closer to God, this is it. Lent is always welcomed by the devout Christian, but especially so in times of war and general unrest. We need inner strength for wartime living. Our Noon-Day Preachers are the most distinguished men obtainable. Under the auspices of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew we again join forces for the fourth year in these Lenten services. Last year over 20,000 attended.

May this Lent be a great spiritual experience for all of us, and may I as your rector and friend say, "God bless you and bring you to a joyful and triumphant Easter."

THE WAR COMMISSION

If we could be at the front to give words of encouragement to our fighting men, I am sure that all of us would like to do that. Since we cannot, we send chaplains to the Army and Navy. They do it for us. They tell the men about the love of God. They speak words of cheer. They represent the whole Church.

The Episcopal Church has an Army and Navy Commission, headed by Bishop Sherril of Massachusetts, which approves the selection of all chaplains from the Church and then keeps in touch with them. Moreover it provides them with portable Communion sets and altars, it furnishes them with small discretionary funds to aid them in their work; it pays their assessments to the Church Pension Fund, so that the amount of their retiring pension will not be decreased because of the sacrifices they make in serving the armed forces. The money for this work comes from the free-will offerings of members of the Church. Each year we have one drive to raise this money. This year the Commission is asking the whole Church for $400,000. It must have this sum because it is spending at the rate of more than $1,000 per day, and still is not meeting all needs.

An offering will be taken in this Diocese on February 11. Special envelopes are available in which you may put whatever you feel is your rightful share in this important work. Our Diocese is pledged to raise $50,000. Of this, $30,000 will go for work among all Episcopal Chaplains in the Armed forces, $20,000 will be used for the local needs of the Diocesan War Commission. St. Stephen's Service Club receives its financial support from the latter fund. It behooves us, therefore, to be the most generous giver. Last year we gave $1,000. This year we desire to raise $1,200. Please remember the ninety-two men and women on your Honor Roll and all others whom you know, as well as the great work of national importance which is being done by the St. Stephen's Service Club and give as generously as you can.

BREAK DOWN RACE BARRIERS—OR ELSE

There appeared in the magazine section of the New York Times a revealing article by Pearl S. Buck. She says some hard things about race superiority as found in America and elsewhere. "The main barrier between East and West today," she says, "is that the white man is not willing to give up his superiority and the colored man is no longer willing to endure his inferiority. So long as white men in America will not sit in the same car with colored men, so long as in India a drop of Indian blood makes a man colored and not white, so long as being Chinese makes it impossible for a sailor to get shore leave in the port of New York, then we must conclude that race does matter more than anything else."

Mrs. Buck then raises the question whether this barrier of race can be destroyed, and this is her answer. "If it cannot, then we must prepare for a future of nothing but struggle and war on a stupendous scale, particularly for the white man. We shall have to make up for our inferiority in numbers by military preparation of the most barbarous and savage kind. We must prepare super-weapons, we must not shrink from chemical warfare on a mass scale, we must be willing to destroy all civilization, even our own, in order to keep down the colored peoples, who are so vastly our superior in numbers and our equal in skills. Is this a future which any human being wants to face?"

ELIZA HOWARD BURD

We welcome the members of the Burd School and many of the alumnae to the service this Sunday morning on the 152nd birthday of Mrs. Eliza Howard Burd, founder of the Burd School. Mrs. Burd's birthday is February 23rd. The School is now in its 89th year. It had its origin in a private school for fatherless girls opened in the year 1856 by Mrs. Burd on Sansom Street near her Chestnut Street residence. Mrs. Burd was the mother of eight children, all of whom died in early life, the last in 1845. In 1849 she lost her husband, who never rallied from the shock of his last child's death. Left solitary in her old home, Mrs. Burd devoted herself to the Church, works of charity, and in conducting her school, studying meanwhile how her wealth might best be used.

Following her death on Good Friday, April 6th, 1860, it was disclosed that she had left practically her entire fortune for the building and endowment of a school where fatherless girls should be educated and prepared for life. The Rector and Vestry of St. Stephen's Church were named Trustees and under the trust, the founder's wishes have been strictly followed.

In accordance with Mrs. Burd's wishes, the main purpose of the school has been concentrated on the building of a wholesome and well-rounded character and personality. Due emphasis is placed on religious and school instruction, and attention is given to the proper cultural development of the child.

Applicants must be girls between the ages of four and eight. All girls from homes of high moral standard are accepted. No charge of any kind is made for board, tuition, or vocational training.

Princess among the provinces, how is she put under tribute!
Sorely she weepeth in darkness, her tears are on her cheeks,
And no one offereth consolation, yea, all her friends have betrayed her,
They have become her enemies.
Zion's ways do languish, none come to her feasts, her solemn feasts
All her gates are desolate, her priests sigh, yea, her virgins are afflicted and she is in bitterness.
Is it nothing to you, all ye that pass by?

The Altar Palms are given by the Mother's Meeting. The flowers for the Altar on Maundy Thursday will be given by Mrs. Otis E. Taylor, in memory of those who fell in battle in the First World War.

We gratefully acknowledge the bulletin subscription of Mrs. David D. Wood.

The Rector has had Lenten preaching engagements at St. Matthew's Church, Philadelphia, the Philadelphia Divinity School, St. John's Church, Camden and St. David's Curch, Radnor.

Our heartiest congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Carrigan, who celebrated their forty-fourth anniversary on March 20th.

We are happy to report that thus far St. Stephen's Church has donated $331.00 to the Red Cross from members of the congregation. We hope for even more!

IMPERATIVE COOPERATION

One thing is certain. The United States and the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics must, in spite of differences, walk the way of comradeship in the years ahead.

Merely to set down the principle reason for this certainly is to demonstrate that the greater obligation to generous cooperation lies with us.

In the first place, consider the imprecedented sacrifice which Russia has made toward a common victory. Edgar Snow in his invaluable book, "People on Our Side" records that the Russian armies have suffered a total of six million killed or missing, three million incapacitated, and six million wounded—a total of more men than there are in the combined forces of the United States.

It may be argued that these millions died and suffered for Russia, their own fatherland, but let us never forget that they broke the back of the common foe. If Russia had been beaten, the war would undoubtedly have lasted beyond the lifetime of any living American. That defense of Stalingrad, and history records none more heroic, was a defence of the whole world. Those men, who on that narrow two-mile front withstood the devastation of six thousand tons of metal from shells and bombs to every half mile, the straffing of twenty-three hundred planes and as many as twenty-three frontal assaults in one day, interposed themselves between the enemy and your home and mine, as well as the homes of Russia. Had Russia failed it is certain beyond doubt that America would have ultimately suffered many more than fifteen million casualties.

In the third place, Russia and America will emerge from this world war the most powerful nations in history. If we join hands, the world has a chance. If we break comradeship, aggravate differences, enter hostility—the world is doomed to devastation greater than it now suffers.

What is the place of the Church in building the imperative co-operation?

There are vast differences between Russia and America. Economic life is framed upon different principles. We have a right to ours and they have a right to theirs. The same thing applies to political differences. But none of these differences need to be a barrier to whole-hearted co-operation—and upon whole-hearted co-operation depends the welfare of every American and every Russian.

In Holy Week, the Very Rev. Frederick M. Adams, Dean of Trinity Cathedral, Trenton will preach at the Noonday Services, Monday, through Thursday. On Maundy Thursday there will be a celebration of the Holy Communion at 1.00 P. M., 5.15 and at 8.00. There will be music and a sermon at the eight o'clock service at which time the Mothers' Meeting will make a corporate communion.

On Good Friday there will be a service of Morning Prayer and Sermon at 10.30 A. M. Bishop Hart will preach at the Noonday Service. At 1.00 P. M., the Choir, under Dr. Matthew's direction will sing Stainer's "Crucifixion", and the Bishop will conduct meditations from two to three.

The Rector will preach at the Noonday Service on Easter Even. Let us avail ourselves of the services of Holy Week in preparation for Easter. Come, and bring your friends.

PRAYER FOR THE UNITED NATIONS CONFERENCE

Almighty God, from whom all thoughts of truth and peace proceed; Guide, we pray thee, with thy strong and peaceful wisdom those who (will) take counsel for the nations of the earth at the United Nations Conference. And that we may worthily support them, deliver all thy people from selfishness and false ambitions. Grant that we may prepare our minds through study, our hearts through compassion and our souls through prayer and sacrament for a new world in which justice shall be assured to all and in which peace shall be enduring, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

OUR SINS OF OMISSION

Sensitive persons who reflect upon their relations with other people are likely to be haunted more by their sins of omission than by their sins of commission. After all, the area in which we do nothing is vastly larger than the area in which we do something. Our positive deeds and misdeeds are specific and numerable, while the deeds we have left undone who can count them? Not only are these undone deeds more numerous, but they carry a poignancy all their own. When they arise in retrospect to reproach us they evoke a peculiar sense of unworthiness and guilt. We can find no excuse for not having done them. For many of our sins of commission we can find plausible or semi-plausible excuses—our passion betrayed us, or our words were ill chosen, or we did not understand, or the fellow really deserved what we gave him. Thinking it over, if our heart condemn us, we can make a clean breast of it and apologize and by our subsequent behaviour, entirely heal the wound and reinstate the broken friendship.

But if our sin was one of neglect, of omission, of unawareness, we are left without excuse. All we can say to our friend is that we did not think of the obvious opportunity to do him a kindness, to write him a comforting note in his sorrow, to come to his back in his hard fight against misfortune. The wound which our neglect has made is not like the wound caused by some positive misdeed. It is more difficult to cure. Our apology only betrays to our friend the stark truth that he held so minor a place in our heart that we could forget him, and our penitence cannot easily wash that truth away. I imagine that when the books are unrolled and our life story is spread out before us, our shame for the opportunities we allowed to go by without doing anything at all will be far deeper than the shame arising from our misdeeds. Hear again the divine judgment of men in that unforgettable verdict: "Inasmuch as ye did it not. . . ."

The Altar flowers are given by Mrs. Thomas Ross in memory of Anne M. Earle.

We gratefully acknowledge the bulletin subscriptions brought in by Mrs. Anna Allen and Mr. D. DeWitt Wasson.

Don't forget Philadelphia's 18th Educational Week for the Blind, March 19-23. Monday is "Episcopal Day"; luncheon is fifty cents.

We welcome the seventeen members of our recent Confirmation Class to their first Communion at the nine o'clock service.

We heartily welcome the Very Rev. Chester B. Emerson, D.D. of Cleveland and the Rev. John P. McGarvey, Vicar of St. Ambrose Church, who will be our guests this coming week.

The Board of Managers has written to tell us that the Diocesan books are now closed and that the sum of $33,146.80 was received for the Episcopal Hospital though the Thanksgiving Offering. St. Stephen's contributed $1,077.03. It is planned that this money be used toward the free care of needy patients admitted to the Hospital.

A Memorial Service will be held in church on Sunday, April 29 at 11.00 A. M. in honor of Rodney M. McCaughin, who gave his life in the performance of his duty on April 28, 1944, on his thirteenth Bombardment Mission over France.

Rodney was baptized and confirmed in St. Stephen's Church and enlisted in the Air Corps when he was sixteen years old. He was eighteen when he gave his life in the service of his country.

The Service next Sunday is to do honor to Rodney and all those who have in like manner given their lives to their country; and to give comfort and consolation to his father, aunt and sister, and to all those who may wish to join with them in this service.

Blue envelopes are available to those of you who have not received one in order that you may present your United Thank Offering at the eleven o'clock service. That moment rich in blessing, that dispensation unlooked for, that opportunity unsought, as well as the prayers which were answered, are reasons for giving thanks. Express this gratitude by filling a blue envelope and giving a church worker in the mission field at home or abroad the wherewithal to live and work for the Master as you yourself would do, had you the special call to do so.

We gratefully acknowledge bulletin subscriptions from Mrs. Daniel Harper, Miss Florence Davies and Miss Charlotte Shoemaker.

FRANKLIN DELANO ROOSEVELT

Father of mercies, and God of all comfort, in our helpless bereavement we come to thee. We come for strength and consolation.

We are sorely bereaved. A mighty man in Israel has fallen. We have lost for a while a great president, a patriotic citizen, a loyal churchman, a great statesman, a warmhearted humanitarian and a great leader of men. Great, O Lord, is our bereavement.

Great also is our gratitude. We thank thee for Franklin Delano Roosevelt—for the visions and ideals to which he was born, for his fidelity to his church and to all his civic duties, and for his great success as the leader and chief magistrate of this great nation. We thank Thee for his indomtable courage in rising superior to his physical handicap, and his untiring energy and healthy optimism that made him a blessing to all who knew him. We thank thee for his good fight, his finished course, and his kept faith; and we rejoice in the confidence that he has already heard Thy gracious words, "Well done, thou good and faithful servant . . . enter thou into the joy of thy Lord."

We thank Thee, too, Our Father, for the beautiful fellowship of sorrow—for the great comfort of weeping with those who weep, "Blessed be the tie that binds our hearts in Christian love; the fellowship of kindred minds is like to that above. We share our mutual woes, our mutual burdens bear, and often for each other flows, the sympathizing tear." O how greatful we are for sympathetic human friends.

But, dear Father, in this hour, we need also Thy great sympathy. Especially do those most sorely bereaved need it. Comfort them, we beseech Thee. Comfort the bereaved wife, the bereaved daughter and the bereaved sons, all his other bereaved relatives and his great host of bereaved friends. Comfort them with thy consoling presence, with thy great and precious promises, with blessed and hallowed memories, with the glorious hope of a happy reunion in the great future, with an unfailing faith that Thou art too wise to err, too good to be unkind, too holy to be unjust, and too strong ever to fail; and with the great satisfying knowledge that all things work together for good to them that love God.

Heavenly Father, there is no tragedy so great as a great sorrow lost. Sanctify to us, therefore, this our great bereavement, so that we may perfectly learn the valuable lessons which it teaches and gratefully appropriate the rich blessings which it bestows. May Thy grace so enrich our lives that we, too, may be wise in thought, loving in disposition, gracious in conduct and victorious both in living and in dying.

With deep and sincere, yet with humble submission, we offer this our prayer; in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

Will not our hearts within us burn
On the darkening road,
If a white Presence we can discern
Despite an ancient load?

Whither goest Thou, Pilgrim friend?
Lone figure far ahead?
Wilt Thou not tarry till the end?
And break our bread?

Follow we must amid sun and shade,
Our faith to complete,
Journeying where no path is made,
Save by His feet.

The Mothers' Meeting is responsible for the Sunday Night Dinner at the Service Club on April 8. Thirty-five civilians may come; tickets are one dollar each. The now famous Minstrel Show will be given in the evening. It is funnier than ever, so do plan to stay.

The Board of Managers of St. Stephen's Service Club is sending out invitations for the second anniversary celebration on Thursday, April 12. How can we help but be proud of the fine work our Service Club is doing?

Mr. Carrigan, on April first, completed his thirty-eighth year of faithful and loyal service as Verger of St. Stephen's Church. Our very heartiest congratulation, and sincere hope for many years of devotion. No one can count the number of people who look upon Mr. Carrigan as their good friend.

V-E Day Services will be held at 10.00 A. M., 12.30 and 5.15 P. M. The church will be, as always, open for thanksgiving, meditation and prayer.

UNITY FOR RESPONSIBILITY

With practically unanimous voice the churches of the United States are supporting the creation of strong and effective world organization.

What we are seeking for the world is unity and we realize that a price which does not however require any sacrifice of principle, must be paid for it.

That unity which we seek is not a uniformity. We do not insist that other nations should adopt political and economic organization identical with ours—nor does any one of them suggest that we remodel after a pattern foreign to us. But at this stage at least there is agreement that for the good of each and for the good of all we must unite to fulfil responsibilities which can only be faced in unity.

Is there any church or any sincere churchman who in one way or another has not proclaimed and supported such a thesis?

Why, then, is it that we are so blind and deaf to the same drastic need for unity on the part of the Church?

The world is in desperate plight. Only the inculcation of basic religious principles can save it.

With those two premises we would all agree. Have we not preached upon them?

But how is the world to understand and to apply those principles to its life if the Church does not make them clear in precept and in practice? And how can the Church do this unless in itself it achieves effective unity?

Unity for the Church is the required goal—unity, not uniformity. Unity on a community level, unity on a national level, unity on a world level. And on those levels we have the embryonic structures which can be implemented into powerful influences. In nearly every American city there is a Council of Churches. Naturally there is the Federal Council, and on a world scale, the World Council.

But as long as our material strength, our energies and our efforts are absorbed in parochial and denominational concerns—as long as we remain in practice largely isolationist—are we not doomed to failure?

What the Church needs most is a great surging toward unity for responsibility.

The Department of Christian Social Relations has sent us instructions concerning the National Clothing Drive to take place during the week of April 15. Thirty million children and ninety-five million adults are in dire need of clothing. If each individual would give a complete outfit . . . Send or bring your contribution to the church.

Every Lenten season is wonderful in some special way, individually and for the congregation. It was a deeply moving preparation for Easter to nearly twenty-thousand people this year. This was the attendance at the Noonday services. The marvelous climax on Easter Day, the superb music, the large congregation, the hope for an early victory that triumphs over anxiety, and the beauty of the weather, all conjoined to make the day memorable. Our thanks to Dr. Matthews, the Choir, the Altar Guild, and all who gave their prayers and help to make this possible.

The Rector and congregation join in expressing deepest sympathy to Mr. Walter Farmer at the death of his mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Farmer.

THE ANNUAL PARISH MEETING

The Annual Parish Meeting will be held on Wednesday, May 9th in the Parish House, 19 South Tenth Street at 8.00 P. M. Elections will be held for twelve vestrymen, and reports will be made. The reports, which will tell us what we have accomplished during the past year and what our situation as a Parish is as we face the challenge and opportunity of the year ahead, will be presented by a group of faithful and loyal workers who labor in season and out of season for our Church. They deserve a hearing.

In this critical and troublous time, as a Parish, we have much for which to be deeply grateful. It is our trust to keep our Parish strong and faithful, so that when our boys and girls come home, they will have firm foundations on which to build in the years which are to come.

GIVE THANKS TO GOD

V-E day will soon be here. For six long years, nearly, the greater part of the people of the world have looked forward to the dawn of this day. Most of them have also prayed for its coming. I do not suppose that ever in His ageless existence has God heard more prayers offered to Him on one theme than He has heard during the years of this war.

What will He hear when the end has come?

He will hear praise of Roosevelt, Stalin and Churchill; of Eisenhower, Montgomery and all the other leading generals, of the brave soldiers who fought across the deserts of Africa and, with the assistance of the Navy and Coast Guard, stormed the beaches of Africa and Europe and then slugged their way until they met the valiant men of Russia.

He will be glad to hear this praise, to know that everybody appreciated what all these millions of human beings have done. But is that all He will hear? Will He hear from the lips of those who begged His help when the going was tough an equally fervent prayer of thanksgiving for His help? Could this war have been won without the help of God?

Why did not Hitler invade Britain immediately after Dunkirk? Who gave Britain the strength to beat off the Luftwaffe?

"O Give thanks unto the Lord and call upon His Name; tell the people what things He hath done."

Lt. Josephine Head says:

"It was a very pleasant surprise to receive your letter. I remember meeting you before I left the States. We have been away thirty months now and it does seem long, when we are busy there is not much time for thinking. . . . Our unit here has been fortunate, I am an instrument nurse in the operating room, and go up to the first aid stations when help is needed. Our boys are very fine men and good soldiers. We are all proud of them."

OFFERTORY HYMN—"O God, we thank Thee for the Gifts"

O God we thank Thee for the gifts
That come from Thee alone
And chiefly for that mother love,
Which is so like Thine own;

That love that shields our infancy,
The love that guides our youth,
That shows the wonders of Thy love
The glories of Thy truth.

We pray that Thou wilt greatly bless
Our mothers on this day
With treasures from the heavenly store
That cannot pass away.

We pray that sons and daughters all
May ever loyal be,
And may our mothers' prayers fulfill.
By truly serving Thee. Amen.

A MOTHER'S WORLD

This is not only Mother's Day but a mother's World.

What would we ever have been without a mother's faith and prayer?

We are noticeably silent today in our arguments against the equality of women. They have proved their equality plus. What we are most interested in is the quality of women—not the equality. That's the reason we turn to Motherhood. We have found that no civilization can rise higher than its womanhood.

In a very large part womanhood has entered nearly every walk of life for the sake of a New Ideal. She has realized that she has a special contribution to make. She sees things differently. A man usually asks: "How much will it cost?" "How much will it make?" A woman steeled in centuries of sacrifice breathes: "How will it affect my home?—my children?"

The Ideal of Motherhood will ever remain the highest ideal of womanhood. Nothing can ever replace this as her most cherished vocation. It is with this ideal in mind that woman has gone forth into every realm. Wherever she has gone life has been enriched and ennobled.

Is it not the extension of this ideal of Motherhood into all of life that will redeem our modern society? In no better way can we understand the Universal Brotherhood of the human family than in terms of the home in which the ideals of Motherhood hold sway.

Yes, this is a woman's world—a Mother's World! We honor all womanhood today as the Home, impersonated in a Mother, goes forth to conquer the world for the Kingdom of Christ.

FOR ALL MOTHERS

From slowness of heart to comprehend what is divine in the depth and constancy of a Mother's love:
Good Lord, deliver us.

From the unreality of superficial sentiment, from commercial exploitation, and from all lip service to Motherhood while we neglect the weightier matters of justice and mercy and love:
Good Lord, deliver us.

By our remembrance of the Mother of our Lord standing by the cross of her well-beloved Son;
Good Lord, deliver us.

That it may please Thee to open our ears that we may hear the Saviour's word from the cross, Behold thy Mother;
We beseech Thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please Thee to give us grace from this hour, with the swift obedience of beloved disciples, to take unto our own those widowed, bereft, hard-pressed in life.
We besech Thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please Thee to touch our hearts that we may behold our Mother in every woman; in women who toil in the factories and on the farms, in office and shop and home; in women of alien race and foreign clime, in women of every creed and color and condition;
We beseech Thee to hear us; good Lord.

That it may please Thee to lay upon our conscience the unequal lot of the Mothers of the poor, the underprivileged, and the unemployed;
We beseech Thee to hear us; good Lord.

That it may please Thee to excite our pity for all Mothers robbed of their beloved sons by war;
We beseech Thee to hear us; good Lord.

That is may please Thee to kindle within us divine discontent with any social order which tolerates war, or poverty, or any preventable suffering among the Mothers of the world;
We beseech Thee to hear us, good Lord.

That is may please Thee to hasten the coming of the diviine society, when every Mother shall be secure, encompassed by loving provision for all her need;
We beseech Thee to hear us; good Lord.

In the name of the Father and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

ANTHEM—"Grieve not the Holy Spirit".....T. Tertius Noble

Grieve not the Holy Spirit of God, whereby ye are sealed, unto the day of redemption. Let all bitterness, and wrath, and anger, and clamour, and evil speaking be put away from you, with all malice. And be ye kind one to another, tender hearted, forgiving one another, even as God for Christ's sake hath forgiven you. Amen.

The Rector spoke before the Clerical Brotherhood at the Church House on May 14th on "Problems of Parish Administration".

Mrs. Alfred W. Price and the Woman's Auxiliary have planned for the Annual Lawn Party at the Rectory, 2814 Midvale Avenue, which will be held on Tuesday, May 22, 1945 from three to six. In case of rain, the benefit will be postponed to Wednesday. You may reach the Rectory by trolley No. 52 or by the Pennsylvania Railroad to Queen Lane Station..

A Shoppers' Supper given by the Auxiliary of the Military Order of the Purple Heart Unit No. 4, will be served from 5.30 to 7.30 on Wednesday, May 23. The cost is $1.00.

1,023 people attended the services conducted by the Rector on V-E Day.

The Annual Burd Day is May 19, 1945. You are all cordially invited to the School at 4226 Baltimore Avenue from four till six on Saturday afternoon.

The Church School Offering from all the parishes of the Diocese will be presented at a spectacular outdoor service on Sunday, May 20th, at four o'clock. St. Stephen's Church School offering is $500.00 this year, an increase of 100% over last!

THAT OUR CHILDREN'S CHILDREN MAY LIVE

Out in San Francisco a relatively few men and women are gathered to represent the nation in the most momentous conference in human history. The responsibilities which they share are unprecedented. It is for them to construct a political framework for a world of peace. If they succeed, the boon which they will offer to humanity will be priceless, if they fail, the threat which will overhang the future will be terrible beyond comprehension.

The start is auspicious. The approach of victory gives urgency to the task and the revelation of the grim realities of war which each day brings forth must make determination inflexible. Furthermore, the wane of emotion created by the death of the world's great leader has channelled its energies toward the goals of San Francisco.

The way for the delegates will be hard. Many critical problems must be solved. Perfect solutions are not obvious. National pride and selfish interest will stalk the corridors waiting to creep up on those who grow tired or impatient. These men and women cannot possibly satisfy the complete hopes of every man and compromise is essential to progress. progress.

What more can we who are not delegates do?

We can continue to uphold the conference with fervent prayers.

We can clearly understand that it is not the task of the conference to write the peace, to determine or to decide the Polish or the Jewish questions; to determine on the fate of Germany and Japan. It is its task to provide a legal framework of order in which such questions can be solved.

We can be intelligently alert to at least two other major factors which will determine whether or not there shall be peace.

The war-torn world is naked and starving. Of all great nations our own has suffered the least in deprivation. We can now deprive ourselves; we can sacrifically share without grumbling, our resources of food and clothing. If this problem of destitution is not met, the chances for peace will be greatly diminished.

Again, peace depends not merely upon political co-ordination, but upon economic co-ordination, as well. In this area of world life, Bretton Woods corresponds to Dumbarton Oaks and the question of tariff now debated in Congress is as important as the treatment of Germany and Japan. We may well be called upon to accept a restricted standard of living that our children's children may live.

NOTES

The Altar flowers are given by Mrs. Emory R. Johnson.

Our hearty congratulations to Miss Helen Landell who celebrated her ninetieth birthday on May 18th.

Episcopal Day for the Church School Picnic is June 9. Everyone is welcome to attend this annual boat ride to River View Beach. The boat leaves Chestnut Street Pier at 9.00 A. M. Tickets are $.70 for adults, and $.40 for children (other than members of the Church School).

Please notify the Church office if you are able to go, and how many tickets you require. We should have this information one week in advance.

We heartily agree with Max de Schauensee, Music Critic for the Evening Bulletin when he says "If there is a better lyric soprano in Philadelphia than Margaret Keiser, who gave a concert in the Ethical Society Auditorium on May 17th, we don't know her." We have always held this view, and have continually given thanks that we are so fortunate as to have Miss Keiser as our soloist in St. Stephen's. Continued success to our very gifted friend, and to us the frequent pleasure of hearing her sing on Sunday morning.

TRINITY SUNDAY

The Anglican Communion observes Sunday as Trinity Sunday. It is a great feast which ought to find an important place in the life of every Christian. It stimulates us to consider the tremendousness of God, to sum up as well as we can with our limited intelligence the infinite Being whom we worship as the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit.

Theologians have tried to explain the Trinity. I wonder if any have succeeded. The necessity for a Trinity is not obvious, nor is it demanded by reason. It is rather a fact. God seems to be a Trinity. The doctrine is not an abstract invention, but arose out of the experience of men, out of the necessity which they felt to explain what had happened. The justification for it seems to lie in history coupled with the unshakable belief that God is one. The preacher or teacher can only suggest to his hearers and readers that they consider the facts as they know them. If Jesus is believed to be divine, and the power of the Holy Spirit has been felt, a person finds himself compelled to seek the nature of their union with God the Father. Thus out of a man's own experience will arise an understanding of the doctrine. Words cannot express it; but it can be comprehended.

The feast was instituted by Thomas a Becket who was consecrated Archbishop of Canterbury on June 2, 1162. This day happened to be the octave of Whitsunday and he set it apart as a new feast, to be kept thenceforth on that day in honor of the Holy Trinity. It was from England that the observance of Trinity Sunday spread over Latin Christendom. May we all keep the feast.

NOTES

There will be a Missionary Service at Holy Trinity Church on Sunday, May 27th, at 8.00 P. M. The guest preacher is the Rt. Rev. Bravid W. Harris, newly consecrated Bishop of Liberia. Bishop Harris is a brilliant and godly colored preacher whom it is a privilege to hear. Vested choirs and clergy will make this service a spectacular one. You are cordially invited to attend.

Bishop Hart in his annual address to the Diocesan Convention brought two matters of great importance to the attention of the members. First, he requested that the Convention give approval to the election of a Bishop Suffragan to assist him in his work. Secondly, he commended to our interest and support the Reconstruction and Advance Fund which the Episcopal Church is planning to raise, primarily to help rebuild mission property destroyed in the war and to provide equipment for new work in Mission Fields. The major part of the Fund will be used in the Philippine Islands and in China.

The Convention approved the Bishop's request for assistance and made arrangements for a special Convention to be held June 26th for the purpose of electing the Bishop Suffragan. This election deserves your prayerful consideration that the choice fall upon the right man.

Congratulations to George Reginald Bishop, Jr., and to his parents upon his recent promotion due to the good work he has been doing. He is now a First Lieutenant!

We gratefully acknowledge the bulletin subscription of Mrs. Charles Hutt.

SENSE OF VOCATION

"Before I formed thee . . . I knew thee; and . . . I sanctified thee, and I ordained thee a prophet unto the nations.

"Then said I, Ah, Lord God! behold, I cannot speak: for I am a child.

"Behold the Lord said unto me, Say not, I am a child: for thou shalt go to all that I shall send thee, and whatsoever I command thee thou shalt speak." Jeremiah 1:5-7.

One of the most difficult times in any person's life is that in which he decides on his vocation. Some people never feel a sense of vocation; they drift from job to job until they find a place where they can be successful. Others are forced by circumstances to do what they would never have selected if they had had a free choice. On the whole most people do eventually find the work for which they are best suited by health, temperament, and ability.

We all know that there are many kinds of work to be done in the world. It is most fortunate that we are not all alike. The religious man believes that God has fitted each one of us for some particular work, and so has a sense of vocation. I do not mean that God calls a person to work in some particular factory—let us say a watch factory, for example. But there are plenty of people who would be of little value in a watch factory. That work calls for a certain combination of aptitudes. The person who has them may be proud that he can do what somebody else could not do. Others are fitted by nature to become good lawyers, doctors, or anything you choose to name.

Jeremiah was called to be a prophet. He felt that God had ordained that he should do that work even before he was born. He had a high sense of vocation. He was very humble about it. Most men who are called to a religious ministry are humble about it, and extremely uncertain as to their ability to do the work. But they go ahead nevertheless.

Has God called you to religious work? Then never mind questioning your ability; go ahead and do it.

NOTES

The Altar flowers are given by Miss Charlotte Shoemaker in memory of her mother.

Andrew Joseph King, a member of a Tank Destroyer unit, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew R. King of this Parish, was awarded the Military Order of the Purple Heart early in March. He was wounded in the line of duty while fighting in Germany. Andrew is now out of the hospital and it is hoped will be home in the near future.

Miss Sissler, Regent of the Quaker City Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution presented medals to some fifteen Boy Scouts of Philadelphia, recently. Robert Krimmel, Junior Assistant Scoutmaster of our Troop Number 2, was the first of the fifteen to receive this award. Bob was chosen because of his interest in scouting and the effort he has put forth for his troop and the boys in his group. We are proud to have a scout in St. Stephen's Troop who exemplifies scouting to such a high degree.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Schmid, Jr., upon the birth of their daughter, Natalie Constance!

FROM THE RECTOR'S MAILBAG

Cpl. Al Sheehan, Jr. one of our Boy Scouts writes from the Philippines: "I am well and in good spirits . . . perhaps it takes a war, and the meeting of all kinds of people of the world, to understand life. I hope when I return that I can talk to you about the things that have come to my mind. You were in the last war, I think, so you will understand the things I wish I could say. . . . I hope the Scout Troop has been running all right. I miss the fellows very much, and hope they can use the enclosed money order when they go camping this summer. . . ."

Sgt. William L. Scherzer writes from France: "Received your letter this morning. It always gives me a feeling of belonging to a family of very nice people when I get a friendly note tucked in with the weekly program.

"I have left Italy and am now doing duty in France; this has been hard and long and needless to say, bloody, but our goal is in sight at last and I can assure you that all our efforts will be put into this last great battle to bring the war to an end. The Lord has been kind to me. Perhaps I shall be able to return home the early part of next year and I can promise you that St. Stephen's will be one of my first stops. . . ."

Major Evan B. Hume wrote from Italy early in April. "Thanks very much for the new 'Forward'. The Italian springtime is very beautiful for those of us behind the lines. The Christmas package from St. Stephen's arrived the day before yesterday. It had been rewrapped somewhere along its extensive travels, but it still contained some very nice sandwich materials, toilet articles, a puzzle, comic book and Christmas carols. It must have gone to all my former APO addresses, Texas, South Carolina, Egypt, Algiers, Naples, Rome, etc. I hope to be home on rotation in June or July!"

THE VALUE OF MISSIONS

On my recent trip, I saw at first hand a multitude of concrete instances which convinced me of the value of foreign missions both to the lands they serve and to the cause of good will for America. Everywhere I went I found American colleges, schools, hospitals and churches, many of them supported by the churches in this land. I found American missionaries, men and women, exerting a leadership—a human and personal leadership—which I have no hesitation in characterizing as vital to the future hopes, not alone of other nations, but of our own United States.

WENDELL L. WILLKIE.

Here is a poem that I believe will take its place with the greatest poetry of all time, not because of its poetic beauty, or its selection of choice words, because it has neither, but because of its genuine simplicity. It was found on the body of a Yank killed in action.

WITH A FRIEND

Look, God, I have never spoken to You,
But now I want to say, "How do You do?"
You see, God, they told me You didn't exist,
And like a fool, I believed all this.

Last night from a shell hole, I saw Your sky,
I figured right then they had told me a lie,
Had I taken time to see things You made,
I'd have known they weren't calling a spade a spade.

I wonder, God, if You'd shake my hand,
Somehow, I feel that You will understand,
Funny I had to come to this hellish place,
Before I had time to see Your face.

Well, I guess there isn't much more to say,
But I'm sure glad, God, I met You today,
I guess the "Zero Hour" will soon be here,
But I'm not afraid since I know You're near.

The signal! Well, God I'll have to go
I like You lots, this I want You to know,
Look now, this will be a horrible fight
Who knows, I may come to Your house tonight.

Though I wasn't friendly to You before,
I wonder, God, if You'd wait at Your door.
Look, I'm crying! Me! Shedding tears!
I wish I had known You these many years.

Well, I have to go now, God, good-bye!
Strange, since I met you, I'm not afraid to die.

Great is Jehovah, the Lord,
For Heaven and Earth testify to His great pow'r!
'Tis heard in the fierce raging storm,
In the torrent's loud thundering roar;
Great is Jehovah, the Lord, Mighty is His pow'r!
'Tis heard in the rustling of leaves in the forest,
Seen in the waving of golden fields,
In the lovliest flowers' gaudy array,
'Tis seen in myriad stars of heaven.
Fierce it sounds in the thunder's loud roll,
And flames in the lightning's brightly quivering flash.
Yet clearer thy throbbing heart to thee proclaims
Jehovah's pow'r, the Lord God Almighty.
Look thou praying to Heav'n, and hope for grace and for mercy.

"Go home to thy friends and tell them what great things the Lord hath done for thee," St. Mark 5: 19.

If the services and ministrations of this church mean anything to you, they are likely to be of value to others. But how can others know about St. Stephen's if you don't tell them?

If your prayers have been answered here, if your burdens have been lightened, tell others about it; if you have received any inspiration, any guidance along life's way, tell others, about it; if the preachers here have helped you, if your fellow-worshippers have cheered you, tell others about it.

We are all misionaries together. God's Word to you is dead if it stops with you; your prayers are answered in vain if you fold them up for your own use alone; the inspiration of this church is lost if it does not touch others just as it has gripped you. Remember the words of Christ to a man, "Go home to thy friends and tell them what great things the Lord hath done for thee."

Joseph McC. Connelly has recently received his promotion to First Lieutenant. He is Mrs. Edward Cooke's son-in-law, and we are happy to take this opportunity of extending our heartiest congratulations.

The Red Cross will continue to meet throughout the summer on Tuesday evenings, from six until eight-thirty in the Parish House. If you have not yet had an opportunity of joining a Red Cross group; we would be pleased to have you come on Tuesday evenings to make the surgical dressings which will be of utmost importance for many months to come.

We extend a cordial welcome to the men and women in uniform, the newcomers, and the visitors who worship here today. It is our desire that none shall feel himself a stranger in this House of God.

RECONSTRUCTION AND ADVANCE PROGRAM

The Episcopal Church, like a number of other Christian Communions, is planning for the reconstruction of Church property destroyed in the war, principally in the Philippine Islands and China; and to take advantage of the opportunity which will be furnished by the post-war world and, as we hope, by the deepening of the spiritual lives of the people, to start moving forward all along the line, therefore the name, "Reconstruction and Advance Fund."

One of the areas where it is hoped the Church will be enabled to make much needed progress is in the work among the Negro people of America, for whom part of this fund has been designated. We have during the past weeks, mailed some interesting pamphlets to those on our mailing list, describing in some detail the work in the Philippines. In future issues of the "Bulletin" we shall describe some of our work in China, suffice to say here from latest reports, our material fabric in the Philippine Mission Field is all but completely destroyed. Bishop Hart has quoted Mr. Frank Sayre, High Commissioner of the Philippine Islands, as having said recently that the Episcopal Church could spend to good advantage $250,000.00 in the Philippine Islands.

The goal set for this Fund is "$5,000,000.00, of which the Diocese of Pennsylvania is endeavoring to secure $500,000.00. St. Stephen's share of this Diocesan goal is $6,000.00. This is a large sum for us to raise, but as good soldiers, and loyal followers of Bishop Hart's splendid leadership, we shall do our best.

A committee of 120 laymen has been set us in the Diocese, with Mr. William F. Kurtz, as Chairman, and Mr. Thomas B. K. Ringe as Co-Chairman. We are glad to have two representatives from our Parish on this Committee. Mr. I. Smith Raspin and Mr. Edward Shippen Morris. Mr. Raspin is the Chairman of the North Philadelphia Convocation and Mr. Morris is Captain of St. Stephen's Committee. The present plan is to secure special gifts during June and July and the Parish offering, in which we shall all want to share, will be taken on Armistice Day, November 11.

Be sure to read the interesting pamphlets describing in some detail the objects which will be helped by this Fund. Two have already been mailed to our families and others will follow.

By the waters of Babylon we sat down and wept, when we remembered thee, O Sion.
As for our harps, we hanged them up upon the trees that are therein.
For they that led us away captive, required of us then a song, and melody in our heaviness; Sing us one of the songs of Sion.
How shall we sing the Lord's song in a strange land?
If I forget thee, O Jerusalem, let my right hand forget her cunning.
If I do not remember thee, let my tongue cleave to the roof of my mouth; yea, if I prefer not Jerusalem above my chief joy.
Remember the children of Edom, O Lord, in the day of Jerusalem; how they said, Down with it, down with it, even to the ground.
O daughter of Babylon, wasted with misery; yea, happy shall he be that rewardeth thee as thou hast served us.

There will be no Healing Service on Thursdays during July and August.

You are cordially invited to hear a first-hand report on THE UNITED NATIONS CONFERENCE ON INTERNATIONAL ORGANIZATION held at San Francisco. Bishop Hart, is the chairman and the speaker is the Rev. O. Frederick Nolde, D.D., Member of the Commission on a Just and Durable Peace of the Federal Council of Churches.

The meeting will take place in the Parish House of the Church of the Holy Trinity, 217 S. 20th Street at eight o'clock on Wednesday, June 27th.

Dr. Nolde, who acted as a consultant to the United States delegation at San Francisco Conference, will sketch the gains from that conference in terms of Christian principles and outline a program of action for the Churches.

OUR PARISH BULLETIN

Again we have come to the end of a "Year" of our Parish Bulletin.

Many of you have been kind enough to say that you miss this little paper during the summer months. Perhaps it is a good thing that it stops coming to you for awhile, if there is anything in the old saying that "absence makes the heart grow fonder." Somehow a parish paper has the effect of making all of us feel a little closer to the Church. But the Church goes on throughout the summer, and we can keep our contact with it by dropping in now and then during the week.

The cause we serve is no less urgent in the summer than at other times of the year. Theoretically, a parish paper ought to be published every week of the year. But editors get tired. They need a time when new ideas may be absorbed. They go stale if there is no break in the routine.

Please remember that the Church stands ready to serve you at all times, even if this weekly visitor does not come in the summer to remind you of that fact.

THE RECTOR ON VACATION

The Rector will be on vacation in Kennebunkport, Maine, during the months of July and August. The Rev. Dr. Percy Stockman of the Seaman's Church Institute will conduct the two Sunday services, nine and eleven, and the Wednesday noon-day service. The Rev. Gustav Meckling will conduct the Friday noon-day services. These clergymen will gladly offer their services and ministrations whenever they are needed. We extend a hearty welcome to them!

BY THE WATERS OF BABYLON

Dr. Matthews has captured the lyric pathos of the 137th Psalm in his new motet "By the Waters of Babylon" heard for the first time today. During his vacation last summer, by the waters of Long Island Sound, Dr. Matthews wrote the anthem sung by our soloist, Miss Margaret Keiser, joined by the choir in the chorus.

We have purposely chosen the Psalm which is the text for this work that Dr. Matthews considers his best so far, for us to read antiphonally as part of our service, that you may better appreciate the inward feeling of loneliness and exile in a spiritually hostile environment so poignantly expressed by the psalmist and made even more actual in the music's interpretation of the Israelites' tragic history.

At this time, when our efforts to overcome race prejudice and to work with our brothers, the Jews, is being accentuated by individuals and world-wide conferences, it is pre-eminently suitable that we acknowledge the timeliness and grandeur of this work and allow it to inspire us to greater effort to follow our Lord's command; "Love thy neighbor."

It is the custom in St. Stephen's Church for the congregation to rise for the hymns and canticles at the first note of the organ prelude; to join heartily in reading the Psalms, making responses and saying the Amens. It is also the custom here for the congregation to repeat the collect for the day along with the Minister; today's collect is on page 213.

In recognition of its having met the standards set forth by the Council of the Boy Scouts of America, members of Troop 2 of St. Stephen's are authorized to wear the Blue Achievement Star for the next twelve months.

HOME PRAYERS

(Issued weekly for those who cannot get to church services. The sick and shut-in, the isolated, Sunday-workers, young people in the service of our country and others.)

Opening Prayer:

Almighty God, grant us, we beseech Thee, so to speak, so to hear, and so to learn, that our fears may be banished, our minds enlightened, our faith confirmed, and our steps directed unto Thee, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Bible Reading—Psalm 24

The Sermon:

"For God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through Him might be saved." St. John 3:17.

The text calls to mind two major attitudes with regard to the purpose of Christ's coming into the world. Neither should be nor can logically be held alone, but it is true that some lean more to one side than to the other. It is our purpose to show that a proper balance must be struck between them.

It is perfectly true that Christ, by His coming and living with men, condemned, and still condemns, the evil that men do. He makes us conscious of our shortcomings. He amazes us with his perfection. We find no one like him in history. We are constantly judged before him. That is why the Christian religion has seemed to so many to be a kill-joy, a stern, almost gruesome faith. They have looked at certain pietistic sects which have condemned so much in life, and they have reasoned that they want nothing to do with such a religion. But Christ Himself was not such a person. He was a congenial soul, a friendly man. He hated evil, but he did not regard all fun as being evil.

The condemnation of Christ is purely incidental to his main purpose of saving the world. He came to give eternal life. If the world had already appreciated the difference between that life and the kind of life which is its opposite, there would have been no reason for his coming. He came to tell us that in spite of our willfulness and shortcomings, we can attain to the higher life. He came to help us find that life.

The process is simple. We discover our weaknesses and failures as we compare ourselves with him. Then we express our desire to be different, and we ask for his Holy Spirit to teach us and guide us. If we persevere in our purpose we experience the joy of salvation, and the world is better for our having lived.

Closing Prayer

O Thou who seest and knowest all things, give me today some clear vision of my life in time as it appears to Thine eternity. Show me my own smallness and Thine infinite greatness. Show me my own sin and Thy perfect righteousness. Show me my own lovelessness and Thine exceeding love. Yet in Thy mercy show me also how, small as I am, I can take refuge in Thy greatness; how, sinful as I am, I may lean upon Thy righteousness; and how, loveless as I am, I may hide myself in Thy forgiving love. Cause my thoughts to dwell much today on the life and death of Thy Son, Jesus Christ my Lord. Amen.

ANTHEM—"Out of Heaven" ..... Cowen

Out of heaven the Lord hath made thee to hear His voice. Be of good comfort, arise; He calleth thee, and will bring thee in paths thou hast not known, and darkness shall be light before thee. The Lord redeemeth the soul of His servants, and none of them that trust in Him shall be desolate. Be of good comfort, arise, He calleth thee. The Lord thy God shall bless thee in all that thou doest. Blessed shalt thou be in the city, blessed shalt thou be in the field, blessed shalt thou be when thou comest in, blessed shalt thou be when thou goest out, for the Lord thy God is with thee from this time for evermore. Amen.

RECESSIONAL HYMN 539 ..... Bambridge

We rejoice with the family and friends of the following who are home on furlough: John E. Campbell Sc. 2/c, with three battle stars; Captain James W. Hepburn, with seven battle stars; Frederick Holly, Andrew J. King, with the Purple Heart, and George M. Price M/3.

It is the custom in St. Stephen's Church for the congregation to rise for the hymns and canticles at the first note of the organ prelude; to join heartily in reading the Psalms, making responses and saying the Amens, and to join with the minister in repeating the Collect for the day, to be found on page 214.

Church School begins a new season on the First Sunday in October. We are looking forward to seeing our teachers again, and all our faithful pupils, in the Guild Room of the Parish House. We are expecting this year to be the best one of all!

HOME PRAYERS

(Issued weekly for those who cannot get to church services. The sick and shut-in, the isolated, Sunday-workers, young people in the service of our country and others.)

Opening Prayer:

Show Thy lovingkindness today, O Lord, to all who stand in the need of Thy help. Be with the weak to make them strong and with the strong to make them gentle. Cheer the lonely with Thy company and the distracted with Thy solitude. Prosper Thy Church in the fulfilment of her mighty task, and grant Thy blessing to all who have toiled today in Christ's name. Amen.

Bible Reading—Epistle to the Romans, Chapter 8.

The Sermon:

"This is thankworthy, if a man for conscience toward God endure grief, suffering wrongfully. For what glory is it, if, when ye be buffeted for your faults, ye shall take it patiently? but if, when ye do well, and suffer for it, ye take it patiently, this is acceptable with God." I Peter 2:19.

One of the things which everyone growing up has to learn is to "take his medicine" gracefully. Nothing so quickly arouses our contempt and disquiet as the spectacle of a person who rebels at the consequences of his own acts. This text says that even when we have learned to take our medicine we have not really accomplished very much. There is something beyond that which marks a Christian, the ability to take punishment and suffering in God's cause.

Those who can do that are the stuff of which martyrs are made. They have a fortitude which enables them to persevere even to death. They are like the soldier who risks his life "beyond the call of duty." There are really many valiant souls who reach this goal.

But there is another class of people who stand out in marked contrast. These are the whiners and self-pitiers. If they only knew how much time and strength they waste in this fruitless occupation. It makes them unhappy and it drives away the sympathy which they seek from others. All people have their troubles. They are therefore intensely sympathetic with really honest trouble when it hits their friends. But they are impatient with the chronic complainer who finds everything wrong.

Complaining is a negative way of life. It is just as easy to look for something good, just as easy to find it and far more conducive to happiness. Those who are busy trying to do something good for God are seldom given to complaints. They have no time for it; and the good they do makes them forget the difficulties.

Closing Prayer:

Grant, O Father, that if any adversity should befall me, then let me not brood upon my own sorrows, as if I alone in the world were suffering, but rather let me busy myself in the compassionate service of all who need my help. Thus let the power of my Lord Christ be strong within me and His peace invade my spirit. Amen.

The Brotherhood of St. Andrew will hold a meeting at St. Stephen's Parish House on September 20 at 8.00 P. M. The subject will be the Reconstruction and Advance Fund's topic of the month—Mission Work in the Negro Field. The speaker will be the Rev. J. R. Logan, D.D.

George Reginald Bishop, Jr., now a First Lieutenant, is in Heising, Germany. He has received three battle stars, the Bronze Star and an Oak Leaf Cluster; he hopes to be home in December. We hope so too!

Last year the Benevolent Society sent 3,590 garments, made by women who are members of this oldest organization of St. Stephen's Church. Your contribution placed in the alms basin will further this most commendable wotrk. The garments are indispensible in the hospitals for which they are made. St. Stephen's Church is responsible for a large part of the sewing needed for eight hospitals in the city. Statistics do not show the pride these women take in their excellent work, nor the gratitude extended by the hospitals who accept it. Five hundred dollars will just about cover expenses for the season 1945-46. Thank you for your continued interest and co-operation. The enclosed envelope is for your convenience.

HOME PRAYERS

(Issued weekly for those who cannot get to church services. The sick and shut-ins, the isolated, Sunday-workers, young people in the service of our country and others.)

Opening Prayer:

Almighty God, whose glory fills the universe; Let the whole earth keep silence before Thy tranquil majesty, that we may venture reverently to worship in the beauty of Thy holiness; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Bible Reading—Psalm 97

The Sermon:

One evening in the years midway between the two world wars, an able student of current events made an interesting comment. He said that the only hope of the world lay in the nations finding a common loyalty above the patriotisms which divide them. He said that the Christian Church is the only agency with a chance to lift before the peoples a common God, the Creator and Father of all men—"The Lord, high above all the earth, exalted far above all gods."

Out of this war are emerging a few great world figures who can begin this drawing together of all races and nations. In Germany there is Martin Niemoeller, who had the courage to defy the Nazi pagan creed which put the State above God. In China there is Chiang Kai-Shek, who has stood for the Christian faith through China's long and exhausting years of war. In India there is Gandhi, deeply Christian in spirit; if he survives the long succession of imprisonments by the British. In Japan, when the clouds part, there will be the great Kagawa. In the other nations, we pray, there will emerge world figures, feeling their kinship with all those who put God first.

As one man put it, the task of the Christian Church is to be so filled with Christ, that Christ can "create a new man—a man who will be Christian first and white man second; who will be Christian first, and negro second; Christian first, and American, German or Frenchman second."

You may remember how Hitler cracked down on Niemoeller; and demanded that Niemoeller bow to the Fuehrer first; obey the Fuehrer instead of the divine voice. The fearless German preacher, on Sunday morning, trumpeted to his congregation, "God is my Fuehrer"—God was his Lord, his Master, ahead of all would-be human gods. Over in Germany today, therefore, is this man of our own faith, a comrade in faith —we and he bow before the same God. Dare to join the company of souls who, by putting God first, can at last give peace to the world? When there are enough of these world citizens, who want nothing for their countries which God does not want for them, then at last no war can come to disturb the peace of God!

Closing Prayers:

"Our Father" and the following.

O Lord Jesus Christ, who art the Light of the world; Illumine our minds, we beseech Thee, with the brightness of Thy glory and guide our feet into the way of peace; for the honor of Thy Holy Name. Amen.

HOME PRAYERS

(Issued weekly for those who cannot get to church services. The sick and shut-ins, the isolated, Sunday-workers, young people in the service of our country and others.)

Opening Prayer:

O Lord, teach us to be still before Thee until our ears have caught Thy accents and our eyes have glimpses of Thy truth. Then, O God, open our lips, and our mouths shall show forth Thy praise, and bear witness to Thy glory; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Bible Reading—Psalm 46

The Sermon

When tragic news breaks suddenly, upon people, they are stunned at first; then one of two things usually happens. Some people abandon themselves to the powerful forces of grief which swell up in their hearts. Others stand very still, like a tree bending under a sudden blast of wind, and then straighten up and meet the situation.

What causes the difference between these two ways of behaving in the crises of life? It is the old habit of mind each has formed in meeting life day after day. Some people unhappily let themselves drift into the habit of letting themselves be swept away by the power of self-pity; by thinking only of the effect of the bad news on their own lives. The others discipline themselves to think of the sorrow this news will bring to others; and how they can be helped. Once in a while, when you have broken sad news, you have seen the rare soul who, after the long silence, suddenly said, "His poor wife—what a hard spot this puts her in, with the children to bring up!" You knew then that you were in the presence of a heroic soul who had trained herself to turn away from her own sorrow to the sorrow of another.

There is one secret of such heroic souls—a simple secret which any sincere Christian can understand and learn to use. Your deep feelings are like a powerful horse—either they run away with you when they are aroused, or you master them and guide them in the direction they should go. There is one sure way of being able to guide them. When you shocking news comes to you, be very quiet and turn your thoughts to the Almighty—"Be still, and know that I am God". You remember then that, under you, and all those affected by the news, are the Everlasting Arms; and that steadies you. God takes hold of your thinking and reminds you of those who will suffer sorely as a result of this tragedy, you find yourself together in order to come to their aid; and God takes care of your own shock, and keeps it under control.

In the British Navy, whenever sudden disaster such as an explosion on shipboard—occurs, it is the bugler's duty to blow what is called "The Still" and, when men hear it, each one is to stop, perfectly quiet, for a moment, and re-collect his senses; and thus be prepared to do his own duty in this emergency. When disaster strikes any human beings, they can blow "The Still" in their own hearts, be still and know that God is there in His strength, and then play the part of a man and a true Christian.

Closing Prayer

O God of peace, who has taught us that in returning and rest we shall be saved; that in quietness and confidence shall be our strength; by the might of Thy Spirit, lift us, we pray Thee to Thy Presence, where we may be still, and know that Thou art God; Through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen. (Book of Common Prayer.)

Who turns from sin to heaven's peace.

Our deepest sympathy is extended to Mrs. Henry Groh.

All the National officers of the Military Order of the Purple Heart will serve another year, therefore your Rector is still the National Chaplain of this organization.

The Rector and his family have returned from their vacation at Kennebunkport, Maine. It was in every way a most beneficial and enjoyable experience. We return with a grateful sense of God's goodness and with rested bodies and freshened minds to serve Him more faithfully and, we trust, more effectively.

The Rector would add an expression of gratitude to Dr. Stockman and the Rev. Mr. Meckling, whose ministrations were greatly enjoyed and deeply appreciated by all our people.

WE, TOO, RECEIVE

Traditionally, a person who makes a gift to the missionary work of the Church feels that he is doing something for somebody else. It is natural for one to feel that way, because after all, Missions exist because of the Christian's desire to share with others the wonderful faith which has been shared with him.

The war in the South Pacific has reversed the idea in our thinking of Missions. The keynote is "What Missions are doing for you", not, "What are you doing for Missions?" Many a wounded American soldier and marine has been rescued by the Christian natives of the South Seas.

A great number of our service men have been agreebly surprised by the attitude of natives in the South Pacific. Christianity has done more than many people realize. We used to hear it said that we ought not to interfere with the religion of other people; it was what they wanted, and we had no business to "butt in". It made no difference to these objectors that many of these natives had a religion which encouraged them to be afraid of evil spirits. Just think what might have happened to some of our American fighting men if they had fallen in with un-Christian savages.

The spread of Christianity throughout the world strengthens Christianity everywhere, including the United States. Our religion is enriched as it is interpreted by people who are different from ourselves. We have been helped by Christians of other races who have come over here to tell us what Christ means to them. Wendell Willkie has told us of the reservoir of good will which has been built up toward America, largely as a result of Christian missionary work.

It is indeed true that our Missionary work is not all giving on our part. "We, too, receive."

PLEDGES

This past year is one of the best in our financial history. We have ended the year without a cent of debt. We have oversubscribed our Missionary Quota. We have made extensive repairs. My congratulations and thanks to all who made that achievement possible. But another year faces us. We cannot exist on past results. While many have sent in their pledges promptly, the total is somewhat behind that of last year at the corresponding time. More of our people should be using the weekly duplex envelopes. Let's clean up this matter of business, so that I may turn my full attention to spiritual matters. Thank you.

In behalf of our faithful treasurer, may I ask that you help us by indicating on your envelope how much of your offering goes in each side. This will save reference to your pledge card, and matching your number with your name. All this takes time which you could save by using the space which follows the word "Amount...".

CHRISTMAS AT ST. STEPHEN'S CHURCH

"What a wonderful Christmas! What a wonderful Christmas!" So says one of the little elephants in the children's story, "Barbar and Father Christmas". So say we all about our Christmas at St. Stephen's Church. In spite of a deep undercurrent of seriousness because of the state of the world, and because we missed so many who are serving their country—perhaps because of it—we turned out in great numbers and did our best to thank God for the gift of his dear Son, and his message of good will and peace. I am sure that all of us had our faith reinforced and our hope renewed, that a better world will be our lot before long. When we acknowledge that Christ is in the world we express our faith in the future.

The Christmas Story by Dr. Matthews with the Philadelphia Music Club pageant and Chorus was presented on Thursday before Christmas. The pageant and singing were done to perfection.

The attendance at the midnight service broke all records and the breakfast taxed the generous facilities of the Service Club. The singing of the two Christmas services with the high lights of the Messiah generously interspersed was inspiring. We realized once again the high service music renders in the worship of Almighty God, as our hearts were lifted by the beauty of the singing of Handel's immortal Cantata. It was an irristible challenge to man's deepest instinct to lift himself toward Something higher than himself.

We are grateful to Miss Thackara and the Altar Guild, Mr. Hauger and his ushers, and last but not least to our Verger, Mr. Carrigan for their efficient work.

Our hearts went out in love to all whom the War had separated from us, and we pray that most of them may be with us next year. Our gratitude goes out to them all.

MAKING LIFE COUNT

For the most part we are merely sentimental, often cheaply so, about the sacrifices being made by the young men of this generation—and those sacrifices are mounting ominously in these very hours.

Were we more than merely sentimental we would each of us face the implication of this awful struggle, realize clearly that behind the warfare of men and machines lies a profound conflict of ideals and principles and we would each of us seek a very definite place of responsibility in the ranks of those who are struggling to uphold the ideals and principles that are challenged by the enemy.

The ideals and principles for which our men are dying are the ideals of democracy. And the ideals of democracy are the fruit of Christianity —primarily of the Protestant interpretation of Christianity.

Here, then, is an obvious place of vital importance for the individual who really wants to make life count in these desperate days—let such a person give his services as a teacher of children, a teacher of the religion which has created those values more precious than life itself.

But we are not trained! Neither was the soldier when he was inducted. Had it not been for the training which followed induction, he would be a thoroughly helpless specimen on the battlefield.

If we are not trained, let us seek training. It ought to occur to us that if we do not know enough about Christianity to teach it, we surely do not know enough about it to live it.

How can we get training and where? A five weeks' course held on Tuesday evenings will be held under the auspices of the Department of Christian Education at the Church House, 202 South 19th Street, beginning January 9th. The hours are 7 to 9.40 depending on the courses you elect. The leaders are exceptionally able. The rest is up to us.

PASTORAL LETTER

TO THE MEMBERS OF THE DIOCESE:

Your record of support of the Diocese and National Church during 1944 was magnificent. It was an act of faith when we accepted the full amount assigned to us by the General Convention. Not only have you given it in full but you have enabled your Diocese to end the year without a deficit.

The thrilling part of this story is that one hundred and ninety-two congregations paid in full or overpaid their Proportionate Shares. Such a record would have been impossible without the vision and sacrificial efforts of clergy, vestrymen and congregations. I realize that many of you have given up parts of your own parish programs in order to help others. I am confident that our Lord will bless you for your unselfishness. And I ask your prayers that God will guide us and use us for the extension of His Kingdom.

Faithfully your Bishop,
OLIVER J. HART.

P. S.—We are happy that St. Stephen's Church paid its proportionate share of $4,500.00 and a little more.

PRAYERS FOR THE BUSY

Since ejaculatory prayer is something that you squeeze in between doing other things, it may be long or short according to circumstances. Sometimes it is a prayer habitually said while you are attending to other matters that require no thinking. I knew an old gentleman who made it his habit to pray for a good death each night while he stood in front of his bureau winding his watch. To him the swift passage of time was inseparable from his eventual departure. He used the prayer of Bishop Lancelot Andrewes.

"Grant, O Lord, that the end of my life be Christian, without sin and without shame, and, if it please thee, without pain."

A woman of my acquaintance on the way to lunch each day has to wait for a red traffic light to turn green. She assured me, and I found it to be so, that you have plenty of time to say, "Veni Creator Spiritus"—"Come, Holy Ghost, our souls inspire", in the span of a red light. This is much better than fretting or resenting the people who crowd around.

Recently I heard of a woman who was so busy with her household from morning to night that she made a practice of lifting up her heart to God every time she went upstairs! Take some common habit or circumstance and use that as a spring board for prayer.

One of the commonest of circumstances of people living in cities is to be caught in a crowd, a jammed subway or a packed bus, which can be both stifling and irritating. Put yourself in the presence of God. This can insulate you against the overwhelming pressure of humanity in the mass. You will also be practicing the habit of recollection.

Ejaculatory prayer calls us for an instant away from the hum of things, calls us to a homely, everyday, workable belief that God is with us everywhere and can be easily approached.

CONFIRMATION

Everyone is welcome to worship in the Church, to come and go without obligation, but at this time of year we would remind young people, the casual stranger, and the person who has been putting off his spiritual duties that everyone should become a full-fledged member of the Christian Church of his own free will. He should do it because it is the pledge of his fundamental loyalty and the outward proof of his inward act of allegiance to Christ and his Church. In the ancient rite of confirmation, the Bishop visits our parish, receives the candidates for confirmation, hears their spoken affirmation of loyalty to Jesus Christ, and then, as they kneel, places his hands upon their heads, invoking the seven-fold gifts of God's Holy Spirit. Simple, reverent, elemental, essential!

We invite those who attend our services who have never been confirmed to be confirmed this year. By way of preparation and instruction we shall hold a class Sunday mornings in the rector's study at ten o'clock.

There are always some who are not sure in their minds that they wish to be confirmed or are ready for confirmation. They are invited to attend this class and need not make their decision until March 11th when Bishop Hart comes for the service. If you are thinking of attending the class, the rector would appreciate having your name given to him, or the names of any who might be invited to attend.

Without Thee all is dark, I have no guide.
The enemy shouteth, the godless come fast!
Iniquity, hatred, upon me they cast.
The wicked oppress me, ah where shall I fly?
Perplexed and bewildered, O God, hear my cry.
My heart is sorely pained within my breast,
My soul with deathly terror is oppressed,
Trembling and fearfulness upon me fall,
With horror overwhelmed, lo, hear me call.
O for the wings of a dove!
Far away would I rove
In the wilderness build me a nest,
And remain there forever at rest.

The Annual Corporate Communion for Men and Boys will be held in Holy Trinity Church on Washington's Birthday, at 8 A. M. Following the service, breakfast will be served at the Hotel Stephen Girard, 2027 Chestnut Street, when the Hon. Robert T. McCracken, Chancellor of the Diocese will be the speaker. The cost of the breakfast is $1.00.

The Rev. Thomas Meryweather, Associate Rector, St. Luke and the Epiphany will be the Noon-day preacher on Saturday, February 24th.

On Sunday, February 25th, the Annual "All Youth Service" will be held in St. Stephen's at 3.30 P. M. The speaker is the Rev. Percy L. Urban, S.T.D., Philadelphia Divinity School. All young people of the Diocese are invited to attend.

WHERE PROTESTANTISM IS IN DEFAULT

The spiritual future of America will be determined by one of three major forces that are at work in our midst. These forces are secularism, Roman Catholicism and Protestantism. In the general breakdown of Western culture, the soul of America is being reborn. Shall it be a secular soul, a Roman Catholic soul, or a soul fashioned by those forces which the Protestant Reformation set free? No doubt the strongest force at the moment is secularism. A society whose children and youth receive virtually no education save that which is afforded by our public schools is destined to be a secular society. The Roman Catholic Church sees this clearly and provides at enormous sacrifice for the religious education of its children. Protestantism has never sensed the situation clearly, but has blindly imagined that it could safely entrust its children's education to public, therefore non-religious, auspices. Its Sunday schools are only a pathetic gesture in the direction of Christian education. Unless Protestantism awakes to its default and projects an educational system which will supplement secular education with thorough-going religious education, the soul of America will become either secular or Roman Catholic. The Catholic Church is intensely active—in education, in the acquisition of vast properties, in the machinations of politics, in the steady gaining of control over the public schools. This activity cannot be offset by merely exposing it and opposing it. It can be offset only by positive Protestant action on a scale commensurate with the educational system of Roman Catholicism itself. There are only two genuinely effective educational forces now at work—the public school, which is secular (and should be vigilantly kept so) and the Roman Catholic system. Protestantism must be awakened to its fateful responsibility for the soul of America.

FAITH

The Rev. Dr. Michael Coleman, acting vicar of All Hallows, London, during the Blitz, and who now is serving in the Church in Canada will be the noon-day preacher next week from Monday through Friday. He will conduct a Teaching Mission every evening in Holy Trinity Church.

During the Blitz of London, Dr. Coleman and his staff went from shelter to shelter ministering to men and women and children huddled together through the nights of terror. He was at the Thames serving with the defense workers as the bombs came down. Out of those experiences the wreckage of his church, the death of many of his people, and the questions he had to answer came this declaration of his faith.

"I know with all the power and passion that lies in me, that God is true, that He does care, that He can and does uphold—and because this I know, as I have verily known His upholding presence in blitz and blackout, on land and sea, I can write God does reign, God does indeed plan 'peace on earth to men of goodwill'."

Not since the days of G. A. Studdert-Kennedy, following the last Great War has the Church had so eloquent a preacher and prophet.

THE WAR COMMISSION

The returns from our plea for funds for the War Commission, are promising. We know that you really do care, that you do understand that this $400,000 is urgently needed. Therefore, we enclose a brochure containing further information for your kind consideration.

The Altar Flowers are given by Mrs. Daniel R. Harper in memory of Daniel R. Harper.

We have just learned from his mother that William S. Smith escaped capture recently by a narrow margin. His outfit has been cited for meritorious conduct under fire.

Emma Smith has graduated from the West Philadelphia High School and will leave the Burd School to enter the Philadelphia General Hospital in order to become an X-Ray technician.

The Rector will address the members of the League of Intercessors of the League for the Isolated at the Church House on February 2 at 11.30 A. M. He will preach at the Leamy Home on Sunday, February 4, at 5.00 P. M.

We acknowledge the bulletin subscriptions of Mrs. George Aeugle, Miss Margaret Keiser, Miss Adele M. Lewis, Mrs. T. S. MacGoldrick, the Misses Stapleton, Mr. F. L. Steele, Miss Mary Swift, Miss Mary E. Gilbert.

FROM OUR OVERSEAS MAILBAG

So many fine letters reach the rector these days from APO's all over the world. While it is impossible to share all of them with readers of the Bulletin, we feel that excerpts from a few will give some idea of the thoughts and hopes that St. Stephen's men and women have as they go about their jobs in a war torn world. Therefore, from time to time, as opportunity permits, we will give you a share of the rector's mail from home and overseas.

From Captain James W. Hepburn:

I received your very fine Christmas package today. It certainly showed careful planning, as the items men most appreciate. I particularly enjoyed the nice wrapping! The contents in your box is being enjoyed not only by myself, but also by the little children in this small French town. These little fellows really do not know what Christmas is—that is our Christmas. Many of them tasted chocolate for the first time when the generous American G. I.'s arrived.

The village people were very kind to my men on Christmas Eve. Several of the village women came around to those on sentry post and even in their quarters, and went through their ceremony of beating the boys with grass brooms and afterwards presenting them with some little gift. Everyone had a good time. This kind act made the men feel welcome to this area—an area in which the people are, on the surface, not friendly.

From Mr. Robert Atmore with the American Red Cross in the Pacific:

The Christmas box which the Church sent me was as well chosen as it was greatly appreciated. Whoever thought up those items must have had "second sight" or advice from overseas. I want you to know that everything arrived in first rate condition. . . .

On Sunday, February 4, from 2 until 5 o'clock, all of the 31 USO and associated agencies in Philadelphia will have "Open House" for their friends. You are invited to come and see what is being offered, through your generosity, to service men and women in your community. Those of you who have not been in our own St. Stephen's Service Club are urged to avail themselves of this opportunity to "come and see."

Christmas, 1946

"To give light to them that sit in darkness and in the shadow of death, to guide our feet into the way of peace."

That means us—all of us!

The description fits our generation more precisely than any generation that ever lived.

We sit in darkness. If darkness can have component parts, our darkness is compounded of ignorance and the blindness induced by human selfishness.

We sit in the shadow of death. Every generation has passed away as its individual members have died, but the generations have been woven together by the continuance of the outgoing among the oncoming. Today, for the first time in human history, all of humanity is in the shadow of death. And, while we know that life for all humanity depends upon the finding of the way of peace, how uncertainly we grope for the way and how timidly we take faltering steps.

Yet the promised light has come; it shines steadily upon our world. It has lighted every man coming into the world for many generations; but we have loved darkness rather than light, and we continue to do so today.

The nations love the darkness of absolute autonomy. The races love the darkness of self asserted superiority. Industrial classes love the darkness of unrestrained power. Political parties love the darkness of partisan control. Christian sects love the darkness of dogmatic exclusiveness. But the light shines; there is yet time if men would look outward upon the light rather than inward upon their own darkness.

The Creator has sent ONE among us to make plain by word and life the cosmic laws of human relationship—laws for nations, laws for races, laws for industrial classes, laws for political parties; yes, and laws for Christian sects.

While there is light, there is hope; but hope is contingent upon our turning to the light.

May your Christmastide be joyful and prayerful!

Sincerely your Rector,

ALFRED W. PRICE.

The Church Staff—the Rector, the Associate, the Parish Visitor, the Secretary, the Verger and the Community House Sexton—unite in their desire to convey to you, one and all, their BEST CHRISTMAS WISHES.

A Christmas Prayer

May the good will and peace which Christ brought to earth the first Christmas morning, go forth this Christmas-tide into a sorrowing and suffering world, bringing comfort, strength and hope to God's children everywhere. Amen.

EDITORIAL

The supreme tragedy behind all the tragedies of these sad days is that they are so unnecessary.

Out in California the other day, an atheist was granted time over the radio to advance his thesis "that there is no God." His arguments, as reported, rested on the fact of the world's suffering, on the wars and the lesser degrees of human strife —as well seek to prove that a child has had no loving parents because out in the world he has willfully courted disaster.

We bring these troubles on ourselves; war-racial friction—industrial strife. These and the other tragic aspects of life are symptoms of that sickness which lies deep within the human heart.

The very existence of these conflicts and miseries is evidence that something is wrong. If something be wrong, there must be a right and that which is right must be universal.

There cannot be an American right and a Russian right; a John K. Lewis right and a right that pertains to the rest of us; a negro right and a white man's right. Russians and Americans, white men and negroes, workers and managers are subject to the same laws of health, victims of the same diseases, preyed upon by the same germs.

Our atheist broadcaster is no friend of man if he seeks to leave us without that great elemental fund of right, which is at the same time our only source of hope and which we, dimly realizing, call the will of GOD.

But how much of that poor man's atheism is caused by those of us within the church, by those of us who struggle for preferment, who yield to expediency, indulge in prejudice, and otherwise act as though the will of GOD—the elemental and the universal right—were a mere romantic fiction not to be taken seriously.

We need—and must have—the earnestness of science in the pursuit of religion.

HOME PRAYERS

(Issued weekly for those who cannot get to church services; the sick and shut-in, the isolated, Sunday workers, young people in the service of our Country and others.)

Opening Prayer:

Stir up, we beseech Thee, O Lord, our hearts to prepare the ways of Thine only begotten Son; that by His advent we may be enabled to serve Thee with purified minds; through the same Jesus Christ our Lord.

(Gelasian Sacramentary, 494 A.D.)

Bible Reading: Genesis 13: 14-18

The Sermon:

"You know how Orion always comes up sideways,
Throwing a leg up over our fence of mountains,
And, rising on his hands, he looks in on me
Busy outdoors by lantern-light with something
I should have done by daylight, and indeed,
After the ground is frozen, something I should have done
Before it froze."

So Robert Frost writes—we get so far behind in our chores, so grievously delayed. Like the Inn-Keeper at the first Christmas, we seem to wake up to our shining opportunities when it is too late:

"I am the keeper of the inn, what man will pity me?
I heard one knocking at my gate, and rose not up to see;
I heard one crying in the dark in need and travail sore;
I made no room to house God's Son, but turned Him from the door."

Again and again we have busied ourselves feverishly with little things and had no thought for the great things until it was too late.

Humanly speaking, there could be dismay in our hearts this Advent Season. Humanly speaking, we have long made it a December habit to be so absorbed in the outward preparations for Christmas that we give little heed to preparing for His coming in our hearts. We shudder as we wonder if the same tragedy will happen to us this year—Christmas Day dawning, and no inward joy and peace; every preparation made for Christmas except for welcoming the Chief Guest.

But the hand of GOD brushes over our human calendars, and wipes out the words "too late". The Penitent Thief on his cross hears the Son of GOD promise, "This day shalt thou be with me in Paradise." With GOD there is no "too late". He only waits for us to welcome Him as the Chief Guest, to be willing to enthrone Him as the Master of Love in our hearts. As the Lord said to Abraham, "Lift up now thine eyes, and look from the place where thou art." Let the past go—if you want the Shining Christ in your heart on His birthday, start where you are, prepare for Him now, along with preparing the victuals and the presents. Stop and sit quietly ten minutes each day, giving thought to the grudges and fears that are to be cleaned out before He comes; praying that GOD will strengthen you to turn from cold selfishness to warm good will and love. If you will do that, faithfully, day after day, you will hear the last glorious words of the Inn-Keeper's poem—

"Good man, rejoice, nor grieve in vain,
Tonight He seeks that door again!"

Closing Prayers: "Our Father", and the following prayer:

ALMIGHTY GOD, seeing that it is high time to awake out of sleep, since the night is far spent and the day is at hand: help us to put off the works of darkness and put on the armor of light. May our loins be girt and our lamps burning, and ourselves as men who watch for the coming of their Lord. Amen.—(W. E. Orchard).

CHRISTMAS EVE

More and more people are setting aside Christmas Eve to go to Church. They realize that it is the glory of Christ's birth and the life given to the world that first Christmas that underlies the radiance and good cheer of Christmas today. The carols, the trees and the laurel, the solemn reverence of the Holy Communion—these are the things that bring out the true meaning of Christmas and make it the abiding joy of all the year.

Christmas Eve is Tuesday night, and we shall have two services in the Church. The first, a Communion Service under the direction of the Rev. Mr. Meckling, will be at 8: 00 o'clock for the members of the Hard of Hearing Congregation and their friends. The second service will begin at 10: 30 o'clock. The full choir will sing some beautiful carols, we shall all sing some of the familiar Christmas hymns, there will be a brief address, and then there will be the Holy Communion.

CHRISTMAS DAY

On Christmas Day itself, we shall have a celebration of the Holy Communion at 9: 00 o'clock.

GLENN HARDING

Working in the midst of labor-management disputes, he has been demonstrating that God has a plan and a way out.

AGNES SANFORD

Wife of a Christian minister, she has brought the healing touch of Jesus into the lives of many.

These great leaders come to us from various parts of the United States. Their books of spiritual insight and inspiration have been read by thousands and thousands of people. It is a rare opportunity we have and it is hoped that all our people will take advantage of this inspiring Institute. The first session will be held at 7:30 P. M., Monday, January 6. On Tuesday, January 7 and Wednesday, January 8, there will be afternoon sessions at 2:30 and evenings at 7:30 P. M.

HOME PRAYERS

(Issued weekly for those who cannot get to church services; the sick and shut-in, the isolated, Sunday workers, young people in the service of our Country and others.)

Opening Prayer:

O Eternal GOD, Who art the same through all our changing seasons, we close this year in remembrance of Thy mercy. We ask Thy forgiveness for the sins of the past year, and all its mistakes and follies, and we beseech Thee to correct our consciences by the memory of Thy Grace, so that they may guide us better in the days to come than ever in the past. In the long battle of life help us to accept reverses gracefully, but stubbornly to refuse to accept defeat. Help us to turn from our own helplessness to Thy victorious love. In Thy Name. AMEN.

The Sermon:

Next week the date line on our leaflet will have changed as another year comes into our computation of time and eternity. So this will be my last Home Prayer Sermon for 1946, and as we cross the invisible line and greet the New Year it will profit us nothing to pretend that this has not seemed to be a year of tragic losses for St. Stephen's Church as well as for many of us individually. It certainly has been such for me personally, and something of sadness will cling about my New Year's Eve, thinking of those who were true and faithful friends for so many years; those whose faces we shall never see again and whose voices are stilled forever. Ah, yes; a tragic year, a year of loss.

Still in saying that I know I am saying what is not true to my best thought. For in a very real and practical way there can be no loss where love remains. There is loss when your friend proves unfaithful; when you let hatred enter your heart; when bitterness and rebellion seize and hold the center of your life; when you cease to love, then there is loss, fatal loss, real tragedy; but "love can never lose its own."

When you think of it thuswise, my friend, it is easier to bid the Old Year goodbye with a smile, for we shall go out of the old into the new not poorer but vastly richer. Tears may sometimes dim our eyes; lonesomeness sometimes be hard to endure; still the memories that throng us may people our solitude with a great host, sharing our lives. Afflictions and privations were the portion of the Apostle, but in his wonderful final chapter of Philippians he remembers no tribulation. His look is forward. Not only was Clement remaining; so were those other unnamed but beloved "whose names are in the book of life." There are things true, honest, pure, lovely and of good report to think upon. Aye, stand fast in the Lord, dearly beloved! Close the ranks! Not in despair, not in desperation, but in joy and confidence, we throw wide the door for the New Year to come in.

Closing Prayer:

Most gracious GOD, Who hast been merciful unto us not only in the year past but through all the years of our life, we bring to Thee all memories of deliverance and progress and we thank Thee for them. Do Thou establish upon us the work of our hands, the love of our hearts, and the joy of our lives, and lead us forward into a future where all these gifts of Thine will still more abundantly work Thy good will within us, and grant that in sincerity we may serve Thee more faithfully in the year that is to come, for Jesus Christ's sake. AMEN.

WATCH NIGHT SERVICE

New Year's Eve this year falls on Tuesday night.

Mr. Meckling will conduct a Watch Night Service at 11:00 o'clock with hymns, prayers and an address, followed by the Holy Communion. The coming year is certain to be a year of tension and great pressure. We shall do well to approach it in the spirit of solemn dedication to GOD, turning to Him for strength and insight. He alone will see us through successfully.

DAY OF PRAYER

The Federal Council of Churches has called for a week of Prayer for World Leaders and World Conditions, beginning Sunday, January 5 through Sunday, January 12.

St. Stephen's Church will take one day for a continuous chain of prayer for one-half hour periods for six hours. This would call for twelve people to keep an unbroken chain of prayer for that day. The day is Monday, January 6 which is the day of Epiphany. What better day could be used for prayer for World Leaders and World Conditions than this great missionary day of Epiphany?

Printed prayers and meditations and subjects for intercession will be available for the intercessors, and will fill up the half-hour period.

Please speak to the Rector if you care to assume one of these periods. There must be someone praying in the Church all that day.

CONFIRMATION

Everyone is welcome to worship in the Church, to come and go without obligation, but at this time of year we would remind young people, the casual stranger and the person who has been putting off his spiritual duties that everyone should become a full-fledged member of the Christian Church of his own free-will. He should do it because it is the pledge of his fundamental loyalty and the outward proof of his inward act of allegiance to Christ and His Church. In the ancient rite of Confirmation, the Bishop visits our parish, receives the candidates for Confirmation, hears their spoken affirmation of loyalty to Jesus Christ, and then, as they kneel, places his hands upon their heads, invoking the seven-fold gifts of God's Holy Spirit; simple, reverent, elemental, essential!

We invite those who attend our services who have never been confirmed to be confirmed this year. By way of preparation, the rector will conduct a class of instruction on Sunday mornings at ten o'clock in his study, beginning January 6th.

On Sunday morning, February 16th, at 11 o'clock, Bishop Hart will visit the parish to administer the rite of Confirmation, and will preach the sermon at that service.

There are always some who are not sure in their minds that they wish to be confirmed or are ready for confirmation. They are invited to attend this class and need not make their decision until February 16th.

HOME PRAYERS

(Issued weekly for those who cannot get to church services; the sick and shut-in, the isolated, Sunday workers, young people in the service of our Country and others.)

Opening Prayer:

O God, in Whom we live and move and have our being, enable us to feel the Strength that surrounds us, to follow the Light that indwells us, and to avail ourselves of the Wisdom Thou givest liberally to all who ask of Thee. Amen.

Bible Reading: St. Luke 2:1-13

The Sermon:

"And they were sore afraid" when they felt the nearness of the glory of God. Life can be so full of fears! Most of us are like those shepherds—at first we shudder even to think of God's approach to us. Our consciences prick us. We wish that we had been about our Father's business instead of taking good care of ourselves. We wish that God would stay away a while, and come some other day when, perhaps, we might appear before Him to better advantage.

But the Christmas angel is accustomed to fearful shepherds. It has always been so. We people of earth have ever been quick to think that God comes just to condemn us. But the Christmas angel speaks on, for honest shepherds listen as they tremble, and hear the "good tidings of great joy", that God comes as the Saviour of mankind, the life-saving God, as the worker of miracles in humdrum lives like ours.

Our lives are shadowed with other fears. In this beginning of the atomic age, fear stalks the earth and sows suspicion and panic among us. Satan slips through our midst, whispering rumors of the evil plans of this nation and that. Self-love infiltrates our thoughts, bidding us look out for ourselves against the evil day that is coming.

But still the Christmas angel trumpets, "Fear not: for behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people." God comes, not to scold and condemn us, but to save us. When we let God touch our toughest problems, the impossible comes true. Whether you are anxious about the designs of Russia or the Vatican, or the stubbornness of your husband, the angel has good news for you. He tells you that a praying America will one day find a changed nation. He tells you that a praying You will become the person who will not stir stubbornness in your husband. He comes to save us from our easy, lazy despair; to tell us that God can make something lovely and useful even out of us. The angel gets us to praying like eager children, talking with God and listening to Him. Then it is that Satan slinks away; and Self-Love slips beaten from the field. For when God is let onto the battlefield of a human heart, Hope is born, and grows into Courage; and Courage squeezes out Fear. As Karle Baker has put it:

"Courage is armor a blind man wears;
The calloused scar of outlived despair;
Courage is Fear that has said its prayers."

Closing Prayers: "Our Father," and the following prayer:

Come, Holy Comforter, through the darkness and mist. Touch us with the hand of God. And by Thy power, move our slow and selfish spirit to response, that in us Christ may be free, and in the comfort of Thy loving presence we shall live. Amen.

—(Grace Carpenter).

CHRISTMAS DINNERS

Each year St. Stephen's Church donates baskets or the equivalent to those who are unable to give to their families the fullness of Christmas cheer, with which others are blessed. Will you help with your generosity? Every member and friend of the Church is asked to use the special Christmas Dinner envelope. We need $300.00.

Are you supporting your Church with your prayers, time and money? The Church needs your help in every way. If you are not yet pledging to the financial support of the Church, begin today.

The flagstone side walk in front of the Church has been removed and replaced by a fine cement pavement. Repairs to other sections in the rear of the building have been made, also.

BIBLE SUNDAY

The Second Sunday in Advent is always Bible Sunday. On this day the church calls attention particularly to what it never forgets; namely that the Holy Bible is of vital importance to every Christian. Not every Christian reads his Bible regularly, and some never read it. Nevertheless it is the repository of our faith, the source book of our religion, and we cannot get along without it.

The Bible and the church go hand in hand. Each needs the other. The Book tells the story of our religion, and the church interprets and applies it to our times. More than any other Christian body, the Episcopal Church reads the Scriptures and makes them part of the daily life of her people. She is "The Bible Church". There is more Bible read, said and sung in our services than in any other communion in Christendom.

In all her teaching about the Bible the Episcopal Church is true to everything that Jesus taught. She knows what He taught, and what His New Testament means. She is as old as the Christian religion. Her first Bishops were the friends and the pupils of the Apostles. In fact the Twelve Apostles were her first Bishops and more. That isn't a boast. It is one of the certain facts of history. She is indeed "The Bible Church". And every religious body in the English speaking world owes a great debt to her.

HOME PRAYERS

(Issued weekly for those who cannot get to church services; the sick and shut-in, the isolated, Sunday workers, young people in the service of our Country and others.)

Opening Prayer:

Blessed Lord, Who hast caused all holy Scriptures to be written for our learning; grant that we may in such wise hear them, read, mark, learn, and inwardly digest them, that by patience and comfort of the holy Word, we may embrace, and ever hold fast, the blessed hope of everlasting life, which thou hast given us in our Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.—(Book of Common Prayer)

Bible Reading: St. Matthew 22

The Sermon:

We are prone to dwell on the larger aspects of GOD'S nature, wisdom, power, holiness. We trace His steps in the order and perfection of the midnight sky. We see His image in the beauty of the flowering field. Yet this great GOD Who dwells in the harmony of the universe is the GOD of every day men like Abraham, Isaac and Jacob.

We never tire of the old Bible stories nor exhaust their meaning. There is a subtle power that stirs our hearts because the men and women of the Bible were like ourselves. They had the same struggles and temptations. They had loves and hates and intrigue. Reverses and sorrow overtook them. The years crept on and death invaded their homes. They stood alone and bereaved in the shadow. Abraham was concerned to secure a burial place from the sons of Heth, just as you have provided your family plot in Laurel Hill Cemetery.

The stories gather around courtship and marriage, wayward boys, family feuds, depression, war and its aftermath—close paralells to the headlines of our daily papers.

Wordsworth was the interpreter of everyday life in poetry. Into the literature of the 18th century he introduced the situations of common life, clothed ordinary men with glory, threw a veil of romance around the dalesman's cottage, the wandering pedlar, the unheard struggles of the countryside.

Dickens was the interpreter of the waifs and strays of London. He knew the slum with its poverty and want, its dull monotony, the darker side of city life.

Jesus was the interpreter of universal humanity. He knew what was in man. He laid bare the human heart. He was the master teacher, speaking the tongue of every day and pointing a divine message on the homely familiar things.

He heard men talking about the weather in the empty way that we whine about heat or humidity. If the sky is red it will be clear tomorrow—good for our outing. He raised conversation to a higher plane. Would that you men who so glibly forecast the weather were able to read the signs of the times, to interpret the social movements and thoughts that sway the hearts of the masses.

He listened to the children singing at their play just as little boys and girls today sing "London bridge is falling down." He took up the very words of their song and made it the theme of a sermon—"We have piped and ye have not danced."

He saw the tailor in his shop, putting a patch on the garment; the mason laying the foundation of a house, the farmer sowing his field, the housewife busy about the family baking. You would scarcely expect a serious prophet to note the style of a woman's dress. But nothing escaped Jesus. The lost coin of the parable was part of the bridal adornment.

If Socrates brought philosophy out of the clouds, Jesus brought religion out of the realm of doctrine and ceremony into the practical sphere of love and service.

And the simplicity of the Master's message reflects the naturalness of his life. There was nothing mechanical, stilted, forced about Jesus. There was no artificial piety, no aloofness. He mingled freely with men. He was no sour-faced puritan frowning on the pleasures of life. His religion fulfilled itself in the movements of society about him.

Our supreme need is to discover GOD in the commonplace things of everyday. We do not come apart from our wonted tasks to serve GOD but rather introduce His spirit into our daily routine. Thus the trivial round, the common task becomes an avenue of divine service. We must learn to introduce into the turmoil of daily life the spirit of calm.

Closing Prayer:

On this universal Bible Sunday make real to us, O Christ of GOD, the love that is boundless and free. Many of us are in trouble. Find a way of escape and lead us out into a large place. Give hope and courage to our leaders in Church and State. Give faith to men of business and grant that the labor movement may be wisely guided into a greater vision of usefulness. Bring cheer to our homes. Remember all who are on beds of pain; all who are lonely and friendless. Bless those who are old and feeble and shut-in. May all who long for the truth find Him Who is the Way, the Truth and the Life. Give to our hearts the balm and benediction of Thy love! For Christ's sake. Amen.

HOME PRAYERS

(Issued weekly for those who cannot get to church services; the sick and shut-in, the isolated, Sunday workers, young people in the service of our Country and others.)

Opening Prayer:

We thank Thee, Lord and Saviour, for that compassionate love of Thine, which brought Thee to seek and to save both the souls and bodies of men. Help us, as we meditate on Thy Blessed Life, to feel Thee beside us and within us, and to turn to Thee in every need. Thou art our GOD, our Brother, and our Saviour in all the troubles of our daily life. Amen.

Bible Reading: St. John 4: 46-54

The Sermon:

The mind has such power over the body that it exercises a great influence for evil and unhealthiness, or for good and health of the body. We have made a great mistake in the past in dividing ourselves into three parts, as if Body, Mind and Spirit were each separate units, instead of being three parts of the whole, which can only be separated by death. Therefore, since these three parts are united in one person, the health or disease of one part affects the whole; and our aim should be health for the whole man. We need forgiveness of sins, and thank GOD that "if we confess our sins He is faithful and just to forgive us our sins"; but we must go further and allow Him to finish His work in us, and "to cleanse us from all unrighteousness". The minds of many people are not cleansed, but are full of wrong and unhappy thoughts, stored with bitter memories of the past, full of indignation because of unkind treatment received, or the failure of some cherished plan, and eaten up with jealousy because others are preferred to them. Some people who may be able honestly to say that their minds are not stored with such bitter thoughts may yet realize that their minds are troubled and restless, and that they are often filled with doubts and fears. We must let GOD cleanse the mind from all these things, and daily renew His Holy Spirit in us, and must seek to have "the mind of Christ", calm, controlled, pure and peaceful, thinking no evil. We are told not to "be of doubtful mind"; therefore this attitude of unrest, vacillation, wobbling and want of decision is a sin that must be put away, not a characteristic that we have inherited and cannot help. If the mind that was in Christ Jesus is also in us we shall have "a sound mind", not one that is worn and diseased; and we shall have perfect peace, with our minds stayed on GOD.

Closing Prayer:

HEAVENLY FATHER, I pray that all sick and suffering people may receive Thy perfect healing, and that all men may work together to destroy whatever causes sickness and disease, and to promote and keep the laws of health and soundness, both of body and mind.

I pray for a spiritual awakening everywhere, and that my own heart and life may be ever filled with Thy love. Amen.

The 46th Annual Convention of the King's Daughters of Philadelphia County was held in the Community House on Wednesday afternoon and evening, November 20th.

We record with sorrow the passing to his heavenly home of Mr. Clarence S. Slatcher, a valued member of this church, on November 20.

THE CHURCH WORLD SERVICE

As Winter approaches we wish again to call the attention of our people to the continuing need for assistance of the people overseas. In east central Europe and eastern Asia food and clothing shortages are extremely critical and Americans should be prepared to extend aid to those sections for at least two more years. Starvation and its effects will prevail in many countries for a long time. With the passing of UNRRA at the beginning of the winter, private relief agencies will have to redouble their efforts to meet the gap between needs and supplies.

A box containing a generous supply of new winter clothing from members and friends of St. Stephen's Church has been dispatched to the nearest center of Church World Service which is at New Windsor, Maryland.

In addition to these contributions in kind, the Rector will during the winter make contributions from his discretionary fund to the Presiding Bishop's Fund for World Relief. Anyone who would like their contributions to go for this purpose may so mark them. The Episcopal Church has pledged $1,000,000 during 1947 for this purpose and contributions made from now on will be credited to our share of that fund. For 6¼c we can buy a pound of special relief cereal which equals a pound of cheese in food value. Forty cents will buy one pound of dried whole milk, enough to make sixteen glasses in liquid form.

Sunday, November 17 is FELLOWSHIP SUNDAY, and we hope that you will be present. We shall drop our pledge cards in the "Chest of Joash" and dedicate them to GOD at the Altar.

The Rector will preach at St. James Church, Kingsessing, Sunday, November 17, on the subject of RELIGION and HEALTH.

The Rector has been elected to the Board of Managers of the Episcopal Hospital.

Mr. John L. Speers will speak to the Bible Class, Sunday afternoon, November 17th, at 4:00 P. M.

WHAT ST. STEPHEN'S CHURCH MEANS

"I have missed nothing in Philadelphia as much as St. Stephen's Church", writes a person who moved to New Jersey. "This is perhaps surprising since I took no very active part in the work and was able to attend the service only irregularly. But St. Stephen's Church is a symbol of much that was the best in my life. I always entered with a feeling of awe and reverence and never left without being uplifted. It was at the door when I stopped just by chance the first morning that something happened to me. I suppose it was, in a sense, conversion. St. Stephen's holds a special place in my heart."

So it does in the hearts of many. For five generations it has been a symbol of much that was best in their lives. It has been hospitable to new truth, preaching to men who wanted a reasonable religion, in harmony with their knowledge. It has been simple and reverent in its worship, not over-emphasizing ritual or reducing it to the level of ordinary intercourse and familiarity. It has been deeply interested in doing the Word of GOD and not hearing it only, expressing faith by good works. It has brought together people of many social groups, rich and poor, high and low, and made of them a real fellowship, a beloved community.

We have become a nomadic people, wandering from place to place and putting down few roots in the community. Even though we stay in one neighborhood we think we shall be soon moving on. So we hesitate to assume responsibilities. It is the people who stay put who are the real backbone of the church.

Each one must resist this tendency of our day by taking on responsibility wherever he may be and so long as he is there, whether for a few months or for many years. We all need responsibility for our own good; certainly the church needs responsible people for its good. Even large trees can be transplanted, but to keep them standing under the winds and bearing fruit or leaf requires special care.

MATTERS FINANCIAL

At this time of the year it becomes necessary for us to think about the financial obligations of church membership. Only a small percentage of communicants in most parishes know of the church's activities week in and week out. Consequently, when the annual pledge card is received they write in the same amount as last year. This means that they think the need hasn't grown since last year, and their interest hasn't been sharpened since last year, because their idea of the worth of the church is the same as last year.

Here in St. Stephen's not many are in that religiously static condition because of the increase in Lay-participation and Lay-leadership evidenced all around us. Most of us are "in the know" and on the go.

In tribute to the loyalty of all the men and women who are making possible the present advance of St. Stephen's, and for the information of many—including returned servicemen—who have been out of touch with the church, we present the enclosed booklet describing the varied activities of our parish.

We believe that you will be eager to do your utmost to see that greater advances be made in 1947 to enable your church, at home and abroad, to be the Power for Good it is called by GOD to be.

St. Stephen's Church exists to teach and preach, so to lead people in prayer and worship, that our hearts and minds may be kept "in the knowledge and love of GOD and of His Son Jesus Christ our Lord". To those who have this concern we do not hesitate to present the cause of this church.

We do not ask your continued support for St. Stephen's because it is weak, but because it is strong. The generosity and imagination of those who have given to it in the past have made it one of the strong churches in our city. But only the continuing support of the living can keep it strong and make it stronger.

Then there is the Diocese; for the genius of our church emphasizes that we are members one of another. Here in Pennsylvania we have a great missionary opportunity. The strong must bear the burdens of the weak, for we are a united family.

Then there is the work of the church throughout the world. If Christ really has touched our lives, then we must be missionary. The message and the whole validity of Christ's religion is that GOD so loves the world.

When we come to the definite administration of the missionary work of the Church, I believe that we can have confidence both in the Church at large and in the Diocese.

This matter of finances concerns how much we care for the Christian Gospel and the Church, which was founded and has lived through sacrifice. The giving of money is one very real and vital way to sacrifice. These are difficult days of excessively rising prices, I know. But if we are willing to sacrifice, then there can be no question of the result, for sacrifice will mean giving in proportion to our means. Will you not this year prayerfully consider your gift to the Church, that we may do our part to make the kingdoms of this world the Kingdom of GOD and His Christ.

FELLOWSHIP SUNDAY

It is with this responsibility in mind that we ask all our people to come to one of the three services on the third Sunday of November, to join in our common worship, and to present at the time of the offering pledges for the support of the work during the coming year. The support of any church is a financial matter, and yet it is something a good deal more—it represents an expressed loyalty—it is an affirmation of faith and a pledge to the future.

As churches go, we at St. Stephen's talk remarkably little about money in any of our services. True, at this time of year, we have to place our needs before our people, and we make use of the bulletin, and special letters, but your ministers try to keep appeals out of the services. They are intended for worship and for teaching and we studiously keep to a minimum those elements the consideration of which, however important, militates against worship. But we can do this only in so far as the congregation permits by their own response. The envelope system is the way they promise the church's support and make it unnecessary for constant appeals to be made. There are always some people who resent annual canvasses and Easter appeals. But without them there could be no church at all.

We ask you to look this matter squarely between the eyes. If everyone at this season will undertake to do his or her part, be it large or small, we can go into the New Year with confidence, with freedom from interruption and diversion, and with the assurance that needed work can be adequately supported.

HOME PRAYERS

(Issued weekly for those who cannot get to church services; the sick and shut-in, the isolated, Sunday workers, young people in the service of our Country and others.)

Opening Prayer:

O CHRIST, at Whose Word the wind and waves were still, rebuke, we pray Thee, the violence of men, and usher in the day of brotherhood, that we may truly serve Thee; Who with the FATHER and the HOLY SPIRIT liveth and worketh for us unceasingly, now and forever. Amen. (The Grey Book).

Bible Reading: St. Luke 5: 1-11

The Sermon:

One night many years ago two fishing boats went out for a night's work on the Sea of Galilee. All through the night they fished. Again and again they set their nets, and hauled them in empty. At last, as the sun rose over the water, they pulled homeward, cold and hungry and cross. Jesus was on the shore as the bows of the boats grated on the sand, and the fishermen dragged their weary bodies over the side and onto land again. He asked them to thrust out a little from the land with Him, so that He could finish what He was saying to the people, for the crowd was large and they had begun to push forward. You can imagine that Peter grumbled a bit, for he wanted to get home to breakfast. But when Jesus finished His talk and quietly said to Peter, "Launch out into the deep and let down your nets" the other fishermen heard, and Peter spoke for them as he protested, "We have fished all night and taken nothing". But Jesus still wanted them to do it, so they did, and caught so many fish that they could scarcely land them.

Armistice Day has come and gone—the day when we remembered the ending of two great wars; when we remembered the men who fought and died with the hope that they would bring peace in the world. Today hosts of people have grown hopeless over the winning of world peace. We could win a war; but peace seems to slip through our fingers and escape. For fourteen months we have dreamed and prayed for peace; and still the daily papers croak about war and rumors of war. We are tired and cross, and want to go home and look after our personal affairs, and forget about world peace.

But we can't do that—not when we remember that men we knew and loved died to bring peace among men. They paid for peace with their lives (and they were young and loved life!); and we are honor-bound to go on working for it, praying for it, believing that it is possible. And into the ears of every follower of Jesus comes that quietly commanding voice saying, "Launch out into the deep and let down your nets". Jesus has a way of sending us back to the very job, and the very place, where we have tried and failed, to try again. He knew the fish were there, ready to be landed by those who were willing to try again. He knows that peace is to be had, by those who obey Him, and keep working for it.

After a heavy snowstorm a small boy began to shovel out a big snow bank that had drifted across his mother's front walk. A man, passing by, smiled and said, "How do you expect to get through that big drift, my boy?" "By keeping at it—that's how!" the boy replied. "Launch out into the deep and let down your nets!"

Closing Prayer:

O THOU Who art heroic love, keep alive in our hearts that adventurous spirit which makes men scorn the way of safety, so that Thy Will be done. For so only, O Lord, shall we be worthy of those courageous souls, who in every age have ventured all in obedience to Thy call, and for whom the trumpets have sounded on the farther shore; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.—(The Grey Book)

Mr. Cornelius Vanderbriggan, former U. S. Marine Lieutenant, will be the guest speaker at the Bible Class, Sunday, November 24th, at 4: 00 P. M. Strangers welcome.

We gratefully acknowledge contributions to the work of the Benevolent Society from the following. Mrs. M. Keller, The Mothers' Meeting, Mrs. Helen Shimp, Mr. Sudit, Mrs. B. M. Tinsley, Louise S. Gray, Mary Louise Wallace, Mary Swift, Mrs. Thomas J. Weldon.

EPISCOPAL HOSPITAL

Following the general custom in this Diocese, your offering on Thanksgiving Day is asked for the support of the Episcopal Hospital. The rising costs of care, the growing demands on the Hospital by the community, and the inability of many persons to pay for their care make the offering a vital part of the Hospital's financial structure. Last year our offering amounted to $1,200.00. Your generous response to this annual appeal is earnestly requested.

ANTHEM—"Come O Thou Traveller"..... H. Alexander Matthews

Come, O Thou traveller unknown,
Whom still I hold but cannot see,
My company before is gone,
And I am left alone with Thee.
With Thee all night I mean to stay
And wrestle till the break of day.

I need not tell Thee who I am,
My misery or sin declare;
Thyself hast called me by my name;
Look on Thy hands and read it there!
But Who I ask Thee, Who art Thou?
Tell me Thy name and tell me now.

Yield to me now, for I am weak,
But confident in self despair;
Speak to my heart, in blessing speak,
Be conquered by my instant prayer!
Speak or Thou never hence shalt move,
And tell me if Thy name is Love.

'Tis love! Thou diedst for me!
I hear Thy whisper in my heart.
The morning breaks, the shadows flee;
Pure universal Love Thou art.
To me, to all, Thy mercies move,
Thy nature and Thy name is love.

CHRISTIAN WORLD ORDER

St. Stephen's Church has been chosen as one of the four main area centers in the Diocese for a discussion group on the subject of Christian World Order. The Parishes and Missions in the downtown area have been asked to send delegates and individuals to the first of these area meetings to be held in St. Stephen's Parish House on Tuesday, October 29th at 8:00 P. M. The object of these meetings is to focus the attention of all Christians on world problems and to help direct our thoughts and activities towards one world built on a Christian basis!

All our parish organizations should send delegates to this meeting and should be interested in making this activity a part of their regular program.

HOME PRAYERS

(Issued weekly for those who cannot get to church services; the sick and shut-in, the isolated, Sunday workers, young people in the service of our Country and others.)

Opening Prayer:

Deepen, O Lord, the stillness of our inmost thoughts, and refresh us with the quiet springs of Thine eternity; that we may know Thy peace which passeth understanding, and love Thee with an everlasting love; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.—(J. W. Suter, Jr.)

Bible Reading: Isaiah 28:16-17

The Sermon:

The story is told of a professor at Columbia University in New York, and of his passion always to go as quickly as possible. He met a visitor from India, far downtown, and together they got into a subway train. At the next stop the professor shouted, through the subway din, "We change here for an express, so that we can save eight minutes." The man from India replied, "And what will we do with the eight minutes?" There was no answer, for there was no purpose in the professor's haste.

Old Isaiah once said, "He that believeth shall not make haste." The wise folk, who believe deeply in GOD, do not have to scurry about feverishly. They know that GOD takes His time—in His world you cannot hurry a field of hay, the growing up of a child, or the forming of a true friendship. There are a few things that can be forced by hot-house methods; but the more precious treasures of life take time and care and patient tending. If you trust GOD, and are willing to work and wait, you will be rewarded. If you trust GOD, you do not have to make haste.

Furthermore, the person who goes at a moderate pace is less apt to miss golden opportunities. Look through the record of the Master's life, and you may be surprised to find how often He stopped on His way, because some one needed Him. As He and His friends walked through a little town on the way to their destination, a woman would pluck Him by the elbow, or a blind man called from the crowd, or children struggled to catch His attention. And Jesus always stopped. The person who needed Him was more important to GOD than His getting to Jericho at precisely six o'clock; and GOD would take care of it if they were a bit late in Jericho. GOD cares more about people than about slavish punctuality. Along the road of your life He has set many a glorious opportunity to give some one a lift, to say the right word, to pass on your faith, or, often, for just plain friendship. If you go quietly, trusting in GOD, you will see those opportunities, and take them.

As Robert Frost wrote:

When a friend calls to me from the road,
And slows his horse to a meaning walk,
I don't stand still and look around
On the hills I haven't hoed,
And shout from where I am, "What is it?"
No, not as there is time to talk.
I thrust my hoe into the mellow ground,
Blade-end up and five feet tall,
And plod; I go up to the stone wall
For a friendly visit.

Closing Prayer:

Quiet our thoughts, we beseech Thee, O Lord, and let Thy peace descend upon our waiting souls; that, commending our souls to Thy holy keeping, we may accept the miracle of sleep; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.—(J. W. Suter, Jr.)

GIRLS' FRIENDLY NEWS

Miss Emily Kinsley, the newly appointed Branch Advisor of the Girls' Friendly Society, reports that NATIONAL GIRLS' FRIENDLY WEEK is celebrated October 27th to November 3rd.

The annual Corporate Communion and Admission Service will take place on Sunday, November 3rd at the 11 o'clock service.

A Hallowe'en Party will be held October 28th at 8:00 P. M.

A Card Party will be held on November 4th at 8:00 P. M. Proceeds for the National Budget of the Girls' Friendly Society.

St. Stephen's Branch has forty-eight members. The meetings are held on the top floor of the Community House Monday evenings. Supper is served at 6:00 P. M. Many of the members come directly from business. Girls and young women are cordially invited to meet with the Girls' Friendly Society on Monday evenings.

The Girls' Friendly Society helps girls build sound bodies, alert minds, creative relationships and spiritual strength. Because this is so, the Girls' Friendly Society must have your support.

To whom then will ye liken God? Or what likeness will ye compare unto Him? Have ye not known? Have ye not heard? Hath it not been told you from the beginning? Have ye not understood from the foundation of the earth? It is He that sitteth upon the circle of the earth; that stretcheth out the heavens as a curtain, and spreadeth them out as a tent to dwell in. That bringeth the princes to nothing; He maketh the judges of the earth as vanity. To whom then will ye liken Me? saith the Holy One, to whom? Hast thou not known? Hast thou not heard, that the everlasting God, the Lord, the Creator of the ends of the earth fainteth not, neither is weary? There is no searching of His understanding. He giveth power to the faint, and to them that have no might He increaseth strength. Even the youths shall faint and be weary, and the young men shall utterly fall, But they that wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength, they shall mount up with wings as eagles, they shall run, and not be weary, and they shall walk and not faint. Have ye not known? Have ye not heard that the everlasting God, the Creator of the ends of the earth fainteth not, neither is weary? Praise Him and magnify His Holy Name forever. Amen.

HOME PRAYERS

(Issued weekly for those who cannot get to church services; the sick and shut-in, the isolated, Sunday workers, young people in the service of our Country and others.)

Opening Prayer:

O Lord, Shield of our help, Who wilt not suffer us to be tempted above what we are able, help us, we entreat Thee, in all our straits and wrestlings, to lift up our eyes unto Thee, and stay our hearts on Thee; through Jesus Christ. Amen!

—(C. G. Rossetti, 1830 A. D.)

Bible Reading: Matthew 6:19-34

The Sermon:

More than three hundred years ago a tiny ship drove out across the Atlantic Ocean from an English port, with an adventurous skipper at her wheel. Hendrik Hudson was determined to find that dream of sea-captains—a north-west passage to India. June found him in the bay which now bears his name. All summer he and his men searched the shores for a passage through. The leaves turned crimson in the forests. The northern cold swooped down and froze their vessel in. Still no sign of the Worth-West Passage. Somehow they survived that winter, and, as ice melted, most of the crew were thinking of springtime in England. But Hudson went on searching, and ordered them to do the same. Late in June the crew mutinied, and put him overboard in a small dory with four loyal companions. As they pulled away from the ship, Hudson was heard to say, "The honor of our life derives from this—to keep a certain aim before us always." That was the last ever seen of him, still scanning the shores for the North-West Passage, keeping to his "certain aim".

Those gallant words are high common sense. The "certain aim" is all that can bring peace and order into life. As one has written, "The architect must lay half a million stones. Strength and harmony are attained only as the builder shapes and disciplines stubborn detail to follow a greater plan." The architect encounters his mutinous forces in his working crew, in wind and weather, in problems of engineering and finance. Only the power of the "certain aim" keeps him at it until a great church rises out of the paper plans into the reality of wood and stone.

Hudson's words apply to public life as well. When a man plunges into public life with high purpose, he meets many mutinous forces, small-minded politicians and groups who care more for their own skins than they do for the good of the nation. Back in the last century a presidential candidate wrote, "If I were trying to read all the attacks made on me, this shop might well be closed for any other business. I do the best I know how, the very best I can; and I mean to keep on doing it to the end. If the end brings me out all right, what is said against me will not amount to anything. If the end brings me out all wrong, ten angels swearing that I was right would make no difference." So Lincoln spoke as he faced the mutiny of savage and unfair criticism, and, in the meantime, he held to his resolute aim to serve the nation.

Jesus once said, "Seek ye first the Kingdom of heaven"—make GOD'S business your purpose, and your whole life will fall into harmony; and you will find a great peace. You will, like Jesus and all His faithful followers, find your path crossed by those who mutiny against your high purpose. But those who keep on, like Hudson, like the architect, like Jesus of Nazareth, will find life serene at heart.

So, point her up, John King, nor'west by north!
We'll keep the honor of a certain aim
Amid the peril of uncertain ways
And sail ahead! And leave the rest to GOD.

Closing Prayer:

O Lord, have mercy upon us, for Thy great ocean is so big, and our little boats are so small. Amen. (Prayer of the Breton Fishermen.)

BENEVOLENT SOCIETY

Last year the Benevolent Society sent 4,095 garments made by the women who are members of this oldest organization of St. Stephen's Church. Your contributions placed on the alms-basin or mailed to the office will further this most commendable work. The garments are indispensible in the hospitals for which they are made. St. Stephen's Church is responsible for a large part of the sewing needed for eight hospitals in the city. Statistics do not show the pride these women take in their excellent work, nor the gratitude extended by the hospitals who accept it. Five hundred dollars will just about cover expenses for the season 1946-47. Thank you for your continued interest and co-operation. The enclosed envelope is for your convenience.

VITAL CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

One look at the world, with a side glance at the Church, indicates the critical importance for young and old, alike, of a vastly more vital Christian education than we have heretofore known.

We simply cannot build one world, or one nation united—we cannot achieve industrial peace or racial amity, nor can we diminish the great human tragedy of crime—without the full and determined realization that Jesus Christ has presented the foundation upon which a good life and a good society can be built. There are "good lives" among those who do not profess to be Christians, but an examination of those lives will demonstrate the fact that their goodness lies in their embodiment of Christian values.

Democracy presupposes the acceptance of Christian values by the human individual and by the corporate bodies which compose society.

We must teach Jesus Christ, not as unnatural, but as the revelation of the highest and the best which the Creator, through nature, intends. We must teach Jesus Christ, not merely as the unique authority in religion, but as the unique authority in life. We must teach Jesus Christ, not diminished and adapted to the frame of sect or division, but as universal in time and place.

If there be weakness in Protestantism, it lies not in Protestant principles and values but rather in our failure to know and to live these values.

All of this sums up in the responsibility of the Church to increase the resources and scope of its educational program, in the responsibility of those who teach to acquire more vital spiritual and mental equipment, and in the responsibility of the home to seek every opportunity for Christian education of children and parents.

HOME PRAYERS

(Issued weekly for those who cannot get to church services; the sick and shut-in, the isolated, Sunday workers, young people in the service of our Country and others.)

Opening Prayer:

O Lord, make bare Thy Holy Arm in the eyes of all peoples, that all the ends of the earth may see Thy salvation; establish Thy dominion over all nations. Show forth Thy salvation openly in the sight of all nations, that the Kingdom of Christ may come on earth, and Thy will be done here as it is done in heaven. Amen.

Bible Reading: Wisdom 3.

The Sermon:

"And as sparks among the stubble they shall run to and fro."—Wisdom 3:7

All about us the fields lie brown and lifeless, covered with the stubble. They are mute reminders of the harvest recently garnered. Nobody wants it, no one can use it. The earth has gone to sleep until the spring. What shall we do with the stubble?

Somebody sets fire to this waste, and the sparks leap and run, and the fire grows and spreads. The refuse is consumed and the fields lie ready for the plowing.

How much we can learn from Nature. She bids us study her ways that we may enrich our knowledge and our lives. A magazine article some time ago tells us how many of our inventions have been anticipated by Nature. It cites poison gas, hypodermic syringes, traps, skyscrapers, canals, refrigeration, ventilation and so on. So she teaches us that a little spark can start a great conflagration.

There is a lot of stubble in human life today. Nobody wants it, no one can use it. It waits only for the sparks to come and destroy it. There always is stubble in human life. And history tells the story of how it has been destroyed periodically. When conditions got unbearable there was always a cleaning-up process. It usually started with an idea germinating in the mind of a genius. But often several people were involved. The idea caught fire and the necessary reform was accomplished. From then on life was easier.

We cannot escape the cleaning process. Modern life is choked with stubble. Let us be the sparks which will start the destroying fire. And may I point out that the idea which has done most of the real reforming has been a renewed appreciation of the Spirit of JESUS CHRIST. If we can get enough people to carry the torch the sparks will leap to and fro and (in spite of the disagreeable smoke) we shall enjoy the sight because it promises a brighter future.

Closing Prayer:

Behold, O God, our strivings after a truer and more abiding order. Give us visions which bring back a lost glory to the earth, and dreams which foreshadow that better order which Thou hast prepared for us. Scatter every excuse of frailty and unworthiness; consecrate us all with a heavenly mission; and give us grace according to our day, gladly to welcome and gratefully to fulfill it; through JESUS CHRIST, Our LORD. Amen.

HOME PRAYERS

(Issued weekly for those who cannot get to church services; the sick and shut-in, the isolated, Sunday workers, young people in the service of our Country and others.)

Opening Prayer:

O Thou Spirit of Life, breathe Thy graces upon us, take us by the hand and lift us from earth, that we may see what glory Thou hast prepared for them that love Thee; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.—(Rev. John Baxter, 1615 A.D.)

Bible Reading: Psalm 46.

The Sermon:

Each of us looks back to some special moment in childhood when we felt very safe. A friend of mine recalled a winter's Sunday afternoon when his family was gathered by the fireside as his father read aloud to the family. Outside, the dusk was falling, the snow drove by the window in clouds, and the wind moaned under the eaves —but, inside, by the hearth, it was snug and warm and safe. The wintry storm beat upon the house, but it could not reach them by the fireside.

For Christian people, prayer and worship are GOD'S fireside. Especially in times like the present, life is stormy and threatening. We have gone through the perils of war only to find ourselves facing rumblings of new quarrels, with the dire threats of more awful wars ahead. To each of us, also, come the everyday, personal ordeals—the discouraging search for a job or a roof to live under; the loss of loved ones on whom we depended; long illness, or the trials of old age. Life beats hard upon us, and we grow weary and afraid.

In that moment of weariness and storm, we turn to GOD. We attend church, and see a Cross and remember GOD'S great love for us shown in Christ's life. Or we stop in the day's work, to be still and know that He is GOD, recalling His promise to guide us; and we find the refreshing strength of His Presence. Thus we turn to GOD like children coming in out of the storm to gather around the Father's Fireside. There, close to Him, we forget the storm for awhile, just as the children in our story forgot the blizzard, listening to the story their father read to them. So, in the peace and protection of GOD'S nearness, we gather our strength again.

The children in our story awoke the next morning to find the snow still falling, but they were refreshed, and eager to get out into it again. Getting on their warm clothes, they were soon out in the storm, shovelling walks. They were not going to let the storm imprison them or "get them down". So it is with our Christian faith. When life bothers us, and our courage wanes, we turn to GOD'S Fireside, are gathered into the power of His Almighty protection long enough to ready us to go out into the storm once more, and play our part. Though our day may be a stormy one, those who have quiet faith, who turn Godwards with childlike trust, will not be overcome. Through all our days, they will gather at GOD'S Fireside, and then plunge back into life, able to meet the gale, and do their part, knowing that GOD is their refuge and their strength.

Closing Prayers: "Our Father", and the following prayer:

O Lord, help us, we pray Thee, always to trust in Thy goodness; that walking with Thee and following Thee in all simplicity, we may possess quiet and contented minds, and may cast all our cares on Thee, for Thou carest for us; for the sake of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

O Wisdom! Spirit of the Holy God
Effulgent glory of eternal light,
Thou order'st all things
O Divinest Might,
Strong Wisdom,
Spirit of the Holy God.

O Sovereign Lord, Thou Master of man's soul,
Inspire, we pray Thee by Thy human name
Man's feeble will with Love's perpetual flame,
And hold the wheels of life with strong control.

O Steadfast Spirit of the Holy God,
O come be near us, guide us day by day
With saving hand, along Thy marvelous way
Fair Wisdom, Spirit of the Holy God.

A LOOK AHEAD

It is the end of September. Vacations are over. Church Vestries and Committees are beginning to function again. Church Schools have reopened. Organized religion in our city is getting into full swing.

Here in St. Stephen's Church we are about to launch our post-war program of activities in the Community House. During the Summer this building was painted from top to bottom. Every room, stairway, window and door inside and out has been painted and varnished and will prove most attractive to all our twenty-eight organizations and clubs using the building this year. The Church exterior has been painted. A new oil burner and boiler adequate to heat both buildings has been installed. Our physical fabric has never been in such splendid condition. Hundreds of visitors to the General Convention have included St. Stephen's in their tours and pilgrimages about the city. They have all been impressed with the cleanliness and sparkle of our plant. This is good. However, the test of our effectiveness is in the use we make of our beautiful Church and our well appointed Community House.

Under the direction of our Director, the Rev. Gustav C. Meckling, a very comprehensive program covering the religious, educational and recreational needs of all youth and adults will get under way October 1st. A descriptive folder of our organizations and clubs will soon be available. Everyone in the parish should be interested in some phase of our program. We are especially interested in attracting university students, service men and women, stenographers and clerks, business people, domestic workers and visitors to Philadelphia. There are many groups with many purposes. There is a place for you in one or more of them, whether you are young or old, men or women, boys or girls, professional people or home makers.

The post-war committee under the leadership of Mr. Edward S. Morris has given considerable thought to this program and the Rector believes that we are taking a great step forward. May God bless our efforts in the days to come!

HOME PRAYERS

(Issued weekly for those who cannot get to church services; the sick and shut-in, the isolated, Sunday workers, young people in the service of our Country and others.)

Opening Prayer:

In the overwhelming sense of Thy goodness, O God, may all our selfish desires and all our petty egotism vanish away. Humble us and forgive us, O God, that we may enter into unity with Thee, and may become in some measure the instruments of Thy peace. Amen.

Bible Reading: Luke 15:1-32

The Sermon:

It is a common mistake to think of Jesus as a visionary and impractical person. Nothing is further from the truth. His teachings are based on the commonest experiences of common men and women. He constantly insisted on the relationship between the practical affairs of his life and the things of the spirit. His illustrations were drawn from the work of the farmer and the fisherman, the experiences of the father, the collecting of taxes, the building of houses and the making of bread.

The Kingdom of God is a kingdom of common sense. When men depart from it they depart from that to which their deeper sanity allies itself. If it were not for the fact that the teachings of Jesus Christ make their appeal to the universal perceptions of men, the Church with its many inadequacies and faults would have failed centuries ago. The preacher may indulge in all kinds of extravagances concerning theology and reforms; he may be as dull as dishwater, or he may perform antics in which he rivals the circus clown. Yet always there is a sound core of inevitable common sense to the preaching of the Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ, and it is that which holds men and women to the Church, whatever may be the outward vicissitudes of organized religion.

The Kingdom of God is as commonplace as bread and it is as mysterious as bread. No man knows how the sun and soil mingle to produce a bushel of wheat. No man knows how yeast in a measure of dough leavens the lump. Yet every man is wise enough to use it, even though he cannot explain everything about it. So is the Kingdom of God. Like everything else that is subject to the ordinary common sense of man, it is full of mystery and yet instantly available to man's use whenever he needs it and recognizes his need for it.

Closing Prayer:

Kind Father, make our world a better place by making each of us a better person. Begin with me. Help me to grow more trusting, loving, helpful. Make me more honest, kind, and brave. Teach me to share all common burdens and responsibilities and to perform my every task in joy. Correct me, discipline me, develop me. Increase in me a Christlike stature, that through me Thy Kingdom may take deeper root and flourish on the earth. Amen.

God's peace is peace eternal,
Here discords all our joys displace;
We wage a war infernal,
And gentle mercy finds no place.
Life is our time of trial now,
Before the Judge we all must bow.
God merciful and kind will shield us
And from evil set us free;
He knoweth when to sin we yield us,
The path we follow recklessly.
He will the poorest soul release,
Who turns from sin to heaven's peace.

Mr. Edward S. Morris, Superintendent, has issued a call for the opening of the Church School this Sunday morning, at 9: 50 o'clock.

The United Thank Offering for the past three years, was presented at a great service in Convention Hall and amounted to $1,631,576—the largest offering ever given for this purpose. Mrs. Tinsley, our Parish U.T.O. Treasurer, was one of the ushers at this service who helped present the huge offering. The women of our Diocese gave $106,543.71.

GENERAL CONVENTION

As we go to press on Mondays it is too early to say very much as to the important happenings of the General Convention of our Church meeting here in Philadelphia. After getting off to a most thrilling start by breaking all precedents in seating for the first time a woman delegate in the House of Deputies, Mrs. Randolph H. Dyer of Missouri, and electing for the first time a layman to be the President of the House of Deputies, the Hon. Justice Owen J. Roberts, the Convention then bogged down and the two controversial issues, the marriage canon and organic unity with the Presbyterians were side-stepped with crippling amendments and unrealistic decisions. These decisions must be accepted by both the House of Bishops and House of Deputies by concurrent vote. At the time of writing the marriage canon was discussed and voted on by the House of Bishops only and the matter of unity with the Presbyterians by the Deputies. However, it looks as if both Houses will concur on the decisions thus made in each of these legislative bodies.

At the moment, the rector feels that the action of our Church in practically closing the door in the face of the Presbyterian-Episcopal approaches to unity, our Church will from now on turn in upon itself in an unfortunate isolationism and be swept aside in the stronger religious currents that are unmistakeably in evidence in the ecumenical movement of our day. If we cannot heal the wounds of the body of Christ in at least two small communions in our own land, how can we with sincerity and effectiveness take our full part in the great currents of world-wide dimensions. You and I must atone for this lack of vision by going out of our way at any cost to our personal comfort and private opinions to work co-operatively with other Christian bodies in our city as never before. We need most a new sense of the authority of Jesus, with a complete commitment to Him; a movement out of the churches and on to the establishment of the Kingdom of God: the rule of Christian principle over every area of life; a strategy of unity through which, like soldiers marching to the front, we hail each other as comrades and keep contact with each other.

God grant that before it is too late these things may come to pass.

HOME PRAYERS

(Issued weekly for those who cannot get to church services; the sick and shut-in, the isolated, Sunday workers, young people in the service of our Country and others.)

Opening Prayer:

Almighty God, Whose glory fills the world; let the whole earth keep silence before Thy majesty, that we may reverently worship the beauty of Thy holiness; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen. (John W. Suter)

Bible Reading: I Corinthians 10: 11-13 ("that ye may be able").

The Sermon:

One of the glories of the Christian faith is the way that God saw Jesus through. In Gethsemane Jesus had prayed to find out what God wanted Him to do; and God led Him to a Cross, and apparent failure. But, on Easter Day, God's purpose became clear. Only through the Cross could God reveal His full love to mankind. Only through the victory of Easter could God show the sure triumph of trust in Him. In our day, one of our greatest needs is childlike, unwavering trust in God and His promises.

There is a story of a father and two children who went swimming at Atlantic City late in the autumn. The water was very chilly, and no one else was in swimming, and the children were both small—Mary was nine and George was seven. But they had learned to swim almost as soon as they had learned to walk, and they were little water-dogs. After a good swim, they all began to feel cold, and started for the shore. But they discovered that a strong off-shore current had set in, and they were not making any progress towards the beach. So the father swam over to Mary, and said, "Mary, I am going to swim ashore with George, and then I'll come back for you. You must paddle enough to keep yourself afloat; turn over on your back and float if you get tired; and I'll be back. You are a good swimmer, Mary, and you can do it." Then the father took George in tow, and got him in to the beach. He took time for a few long breaths, and then dove in and fought his way back through the breakers to where he had left Mary. But she was nowhere to be seen. He swam frantically about looking for her, but there was no tousled head to be seen. Finally, he swam ashore, and asked for help. Soon there were twenty boats looking for her as the dusk fell—looking for a small bobbing head among the waves. Finally, after two hours, as they had begun to lose hope, they found Mary, a mile and a half off-shore, just keeping afloat. A great strong man leaned over the little girl and said, "Mary, I couldn't have done that—how did you do it?" She opened her eyes and answered quietly, "My father told me that I could, so I knew I could."

Closing Prayer: "Our Father," and the following prayer:

Fortify us, O God, with the courage which comest only from Thee; that in the midst of all our perils and perplexities we may find that peace which only Thou canst give; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

OUR CHOIR

Under date of September 12, the rector received the following letter.

MY DEAR DR. PRICE:

My son and I recently attended services in your church (Sunday, September 8th), in honor of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew members in connection with their 49th annual convention.

We wish to express our admiration for your beautiful church and trust you will extend to the organist and the choir our deep appreciation of their magnificent rendition of the very fine vocal program and organ support. You have an organist and choir to be proud of. As an old choir singer myself I can truly say I never heard a finer, more musicianly rendition of the service by voices so uniformly of high quality. Please accept our congratulations and appreciation and extend to the ladies and gentlemen of the choir and the splendid organist our thanks and say we will long remember, among other music the beautiful and perfectly sung "Lord's Prayer".

Again thanking you for our kindness to us, I am,

Sincerely yours, CHARLES T. DULIN.

God is with us! O ye nations understand; submit yourselves for God is with us!

Give ear, all ye of far countries; gird yourselves, and ye shall come to naught; speak the word and it shall not stand.

Neither fear ye their fear, nor be afraid; sanctify the Lord of hosts Himself, and let Him be your fear.

He shall be for a sanctuary; I will wait upon the Lord and I will look for Him; behold I, and the children whom the Lord hath given me.

The people that walked in darkness have seen a great light, they that dwell in the land of the shadow of death, upon them hath the light shined.

HOME PRAYERS

(Issued weekly for those who cannot get to church services; the sick and shut-in, the isolated, Sunday workers, young people in the service of our Country and others.)

Opening Prayer:

O Lord, we are in Thy Presence. Help us to keep our thoughts on Thee, that we may hear Thee speaking in our hearts; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Bible Reading: Matthew 15:1-20

The Sermon:

In the guest room where I slept once, I found this "Fisherman's Prayer"—

"Lord, suffer me to catch a fish so big that even I
In telling of it afterwards, shall have no need to lie!"

That humorous prayer is a good example of the silly way we often pray. We ask God to fix the outside of life—to make the fish bigger, to make our friends more thoughtful, to take away our troubles. But God does not say "Yes" to such prayers. No matter how big He made the fish, the liar would still lie about its size. What God waits for is our prayer that He will make us more truthful, more loving, more self-forgetful.

The great Phillips Brooks once wrote, "Oh, do not pray for easy lives. Do not pray for tasks equal to your powers. Pray for powers equal to your tasks." God does say "Yes" to the person who prays for help in overcoming self-pity, in conquering an unworthy habit. He makes our strength equal to the worst nightmare that can stand in our way. He always stands by the willing bearer of burdens; the person who though scared, still meets life breast-forward. In the strange, tumultuous day in which we live, there is no use in asking Him to ease up our lives; but it is well worth while to ask Him to stiffen our nerve, to enlarge our hearts.

He does not always give us the answer which our prayer expects. As Colonel Fitzhugh said, "He asked for strength that He might achieve; he was made weak that he might obey. He asked for health that he might do greater things; he was given infirmity that he might do better things. He asked for riches that he might be happy; he was given poverty that he might be wise. He asked for power that he might have praise of men; he was given weakness that he might feel the need of God. He has received nothing that he asked for, all that he hoped for . . . His prayer is answered."

I once knew a Portuguese sea captain who was at his best in a storm. He had learned that any landlubber could go fair-weather sailing on a soft June day, but that it took a real man to ride out a heavy northeaster. I remember his describing a typhoon in the Gulf of Mexico—he said, "Those that knew how to pray, prayed. Those that didn't, learned." The prayer of the true Christian, like the prayer of a sea captain, is for wisdom and strength to meet the worse gales that life can fling at us; to be able to ride out the storm in safety, and to bear our loved ones through the storms to more peaceful days.

Closing Prayer:

Sanctify, O Lord, both our coming in and our going forth; and grant that as we leave Thy worship, we may not leave Thy Presence; but be Thou ever near unto us, and keep us near unto Thee, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The National Youth Convention invites all young people to a Mass Meeting, Saturday, September 14th in the Irvine Auditorium, 34th and Spruce Streets, at 8:30 P. M. The speaker: The Rt. Rev. Harry S. Kennedy, Bishop of Hawaii. Informal Dance, 9:30-12:00, in the Christian Association, 3601 Locust Street. Free tickets given at Mass Meeting. Charles Gresh Orchestra. THE RECTOR.

CAPE MAY OUTING

We are happy to learn that over forty of our Hard of Hearing Members will spend a week's vacation at the Girls' Friendly Society, Holiday House, Cape May, N. J., beginning September 4th. This outing was arranged through the Rev. Mr. Meckling and the Hard of Hearing Woman's Auxiliary.

GENERAL CONVENTION

As most of our people know, the General Convention of the Episcopal Church will meet this year in Philadelphia, September 10 to September 20. It has been sixty years since the General Convention last met in our city, although some of the most important General Conventions in the history of the Church were held in Philadelphia.

The opening service will be held at Convention Hall on Tuesday, September 10th, at 10:30 A. M. The Archbishop of Canterbury will appear in the procession. Our Presiding Bishop will make the address. Admission tickets may be secured from the rector, or by phoning to the church office.

The inspiring United Thank Offering Service will be held on Wednesday at 8 A. M. when thirty-two missionary Bishops will assist in the Communion Service, and the women will present their generous offering which has been accumulating since last General Convention.

On Sunday, September 15, at 11 o'clock, the Rt. Rev. J. I. Blair Larned, D.D., Bishop of the European Churches will be the guest preacher at St. Stephen's. In the evening, the Rt. Rev. Theodore Ludlow, D.D., Suffragan Bishop of the Diocese of Newark will be the preacher at a special service for the Guild of Saint Barnabas for Nurses.

A number of our National Church organizations will have Communion Breakfasts at St. Stephen's.

Representatives from every Diocese and Missionary District of our Church will be present for this Convention. Thousands of church people will be here. Don't fail to attend the mass meetings and other special services.

HOME PRAYERS

(Issued weekly for those who cannot get to church services; the sick and shut-in, the isolated, Sunday workers, young people in the service of our Country and others.)

Opening Prayer:

O Christ, Thou lover of men's lives, who wast the friend of simple people, and dids't live and teach in the homes of working men, reveal Thyself in power to the toiling multitudes around us, who need Thee; give them the spirit of hope, simplicity, and gladness, that in Thee they may find the life that is life indeed. Through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Bible Reading: Ecclesiasticus 38:25-34

The Sermon:

With Labor Day in mind, I should like to have you think with me about a recipe for happiness which I believe is valid for these days in which we live. Neither wealth nor fame nor power can satisfy the hunger of the soul.

Here is the recipe for happiness. First, work, which provides a healthy outlet for energies that unreleased would ferment into sour morbidness. Work is the expression of the passion for creation. The work may be in the high and lofty places of the earth or in the humble posts. As long as it is honestly done, it fulfills its purpose. It is only a childlike view that would separate professional from menial and manual work.

Second, imagination: to see the humblest task in its larger implications, as a contribution to humanity. It is imagination which exalts the most menial task into an achievement and imparts a sense of worthwhileness to work. Every worker I have found wants with all his heart to believe that if he did not do his job the world would begin to run down. Of course, he is pretty nearly right. One cause of strikes is that, for instance, the garbage gatherers may find it a good way to remind us after all, their job is an extremely important one in the whole scheme of life in our cities.

Third, love: love of people, love of nature, love of life. Love is the poultice that takes the sting out of irritation. How else could the mother bear the wearing strain of ceaseless cares? Love calls for an immense amount of patience. Its end may be in tragedy; it frequently is. It may be purchased at the cost of a broken heart; if so, it is worth the price. I have seen love clad in rags, with blackened eyes in the police court. I have been infuriated by it. I have said in my anger, "You fool!" But on sober second thought I pause and wonder if this is not something like the love of God. Without love there can be no real happiness.

Fourth, faith: Faith in life and in the world, that is not a hectic thing tossed about in the arms of chance, but is a thing guided by an intelligent force that makes events come out right in the end; faith in human nature that it possesses elements of goodness, truth and beauty, which can be brought out by the homeopathic method of treating it with truth and goodness and beauty.

Closing Prayer:

O heavenly Father, Thou who alone canst satisfy the hunger of the soul, by the flame of Thy love reclaim us into life and immortality. Burn ever on the altar of our hearts, O God of life and light. In work, imagination, love and faith, may we commit our ways unto Thee. In the name of Christ, we pray. Amen.

UNITED THANK OFFERING

The final ingathering of the United Thank Offering of the women of St. Stephen's Church will be received this Sunday. On Wednesday morning, September 11th at Convention Hall the total offering of all the women throughout the church will be presented at a most inspiring service. Thirty-two missionary Bishops will assist at the service of Holy Communion and the total offerings of the past three years amounting to over a million dollars will be presented. It is most important, therefore, that our parish offering be included in the final figures. Please mail your blue envelope to the church office, if you are unable to come to church.

* * *

The Brotherhood of St. Andrew will hold its 49th Annual Convention with headquarters at the Ben Franklin Hotel, September 6 to 8. Delegates will attend the 11 o'clock service at St. Stephen's with a special preacher. Some of the leaders and speakers are: The Archbishop of Canterbury, the Presiding Bishop, Bishop Jones of West Texas; Bishop Hart and others.

"Go home to thy friends and tell them what great things the Lord hath done for thee." St. Mark 5:19

If the services and ministrations of this church mean anything to you, they are likely to be of value to others. But how can others know about St. Stephen's if you don't tell them?

If your prayers have been answered here, if your burdens have been lightened, tell others about it: if you have received any inspiration, any guidance along life's way, tell others about it: if the preachers here have helped you, if your fellow-worshippers have cheered you, tell others about it.

We are all missionaries together. God's Word to you is dead if it stops with you; your prayers are answered in vain if you fold them up for your own use alone: the inspiration of this Church is lost if it does not touch others just as it has gripped you. Remember the words of Christ to a man, "Go home to thy friends and tell them what great things the Lord hath done for thee."

HOME PRAYERS

(Issued weekly for those who cannot get to church service; the sick and shut-in, the isolated, Sunday-workers, young people in the service of their country and others.)

Opening Prayer:

Let the prayers of Thy children, O Lord, come up to the ears of Thy mercy; and that we may obtain what we ask, make us ever to ask what pleaseth Thee; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen. (Leonine Sacramentary, 440 A. D.)

Bible Sermon:

Robert Louis Stevenson, Christian gentleman and memorable writer, once wrote:

"For still the Lord is Lord of might;
In deeds, in deeds He takes delight . . .
He marks the smiler of the streets,
The singer upon garden seats;
He sees the climber in the rocks;
To Him the shepherd folds his flocks . . .
Those He approves that ply the trade,
That rock the child, that wed the maid;
That with weak virtues, weaker hands,
Sow gladness on the peopled lands,
And still with laughter, song and shout,
Spin the great wheel of earth about."

In other words, God is interested in people who pour out their lives in living deeds, in helpful acts. "Inasmuch as ye have DONE it . . ." is His measuring-stick of our value. In our day He is interested in those who choose to have wheatless days, that starving folk in far lands may have grain for flour; in those who send canned goods, that children may live. God is not deceived—He pays little attention to our fair speeches; He judges us with fairness and mercy, by our actions.

Stevenson himself did more than write beautiful and Christian thoughts—he lived them himself. Once he paid a visit to the leper colony at Molokai, in the Pacific Ocean, where a heroic Roman Catholic priest had given up his life for the lepers, finally catching the dread disease himself. Stevenson was warned that he must wear gloves, so that he would not catch leprosy; so he took some along. But he would not wear them when he got there, lest he make the lepers unhappy, reminding them of their sickness. He even shook hands with some of them, risking his own health. When his wife asked him, "What will you do if you catch leprosy?" "Do?" he replied. Why, you and I would spend the rest of our lives in Molokai, and become humble followers of Father Damien." There is the spirit of the Cross, of the Christ—and you and I will qualify as followers of Jesus only if our faith shows itself in Christlike deeds!

Closing Prayer:

Our Father, may the world not mold us today, but may we be so strong in Thy Spirit as to help to mold the world; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

—(J. H. Jowett)

Ninety some dollars has been received toward the purchase of a bred heifer to be sent to Europe by St. Stephen's. We need fifty more dollars! Have you a share in this project?

There are two opportunities for those desiring to place flowers on the Altar in memory of some special occasion (August 4th and the 18th.) Please notify the Church office if you wish to take advantage of either of these days.

This is the last issue of the Bulletin until September 1st. During July and August the Rector will take his vacation. Sunday services at 9 A. M., 11 A. M. and 7:30 P. M., and Wednesday and Friday noonday services will be in charge of the Rev. Gustav C. Meckling.

LAST ISSUE

Again we come to the end of a year of publication. In a way this time of year is always one of relief, because the well runs dry after producing forty-four issues, and the Editor welcomes a rest. (Perhaps the readers do also.) Yet it is with regret that we suspend publication because it seems to be a signal to some that the Church is getting ready for a summer sleep. The Church must not sleep in these strenuous times. It must ever be on the alert to speak God's word and to do his work. Summer is a time for relaxation and recreation, but it is not a time for complete abolition of religion.

We did very well at St. Stephen's Church last summer. May we not do as well this year?

St. Stephen's Church has sustained a great loss in the passing of Mr. Kenneth White who has served as assistant organist for twenty years. Mr. White played the organ at the noonday services with rare skill and devotion. May the memory of his life and the assurance of his continued comradeship be a source of inspiration and courage to all who knew him.

The rector is anxious to send a bred heifer to Europe as a gift from St. Stephen's congregation. The cost including transportation is $150.00. For this purpose coupon books are available at the Church Office. The coupons cost ten cents and five dollars will purchase a book of fifty. Please do your part.

HOME PRAYERS

(Issued weekly for those who cannot get to church services; the sick and shut-in, the isolated, Sunday-workers, young people in the service of their country and others.)

Opening Prayer:

Bestow Thy Light upon us, O Lord, so that, being rid of the darkness of our hearts, we may attain unto the true Light; through Jesus Christ, Who is the Light of the World. Amen. (Sarum Breviary, 1085 A. D.)

Bible Reading: Matthew 22: 15-22

The Sermon:

Jesus' enemies were constantly trying to trap Him, to "get Him in wrong" with the people. One day they thought up what seemed a smart question. They would ask Him if he considered it right to pay tribute-money to the Roman government. If He answered, "No", He would be in trouble with the Roman authorities. If He answered "Yes", He would anger the people, who hated Rome. Licking their lips in hungry delight, they asked their question, and swiftly He answered, "Render unto Caesar the things that are Caesar's, and unto God the things that are God's". In other words, they must decide what they owed to the government, what they owed to God. His enemies asked few questions after that!

The power of the early Christians came from the fact that they put God first. They believed that they owed everything to God, and little to the politicians. Deep in their hearts the early Christians were citizens of heaven, and paid their tribute to the Ruler of heaven and earth. They took little part in the affairs of the government, for it was not Christian. (No government is really Christian.) Those first Christians stood together in their loyalty to Christ; and they were always willing to go the limit in helping one another. A second-century minister counselled his people, "Whenever funds are needed, club together, all of you:" and that is what they did.

Then came the time when the Christian Church conquered the Roman Empire, and governed the Roman world. It became necessary to be a Christian. Any one who was not a Christian communicant could not own an acre of land or receive a legacy; could not even enter a church or a law court. It no longer meant much to profess the Christian faith, for Christianity was compulsory. However, four hundred years ago the Protestant Reformation drove a wedge between Church and State and compulsory Christianity ended. Once more it meant something to call oneself a Christian!

As I think of those who truly witness for Christ in our day, I see that they are the folk who pay large tribute to God. They play some part as citizens of a nation; but God comes first. Deep in their hearts, they believe that all the great treasures have come to us from God. In spending their time, their strength, their money, God comes first. So their lives shine clearly out of the throng of dim, lukewarm folk, because they are filled with the power of God their King. Freely they have decided that God comes first; that the only hope of the world is the peace of God. Day by day they serve Him, and their pure loyalty to Him shows the way of life to us.

Closing Prayer:

Grant unto us, we beseech Thee, Almighty God, that we who seek the shelter of Thy protection, being defended from all evils, may serve Thee in peace and quietness of spirit; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

CHRISTIAN BROTHERHOOD

One of the most significant and encourage incidents in the life of the Church during the past year failed to receive the attention it merited. The Convention of the Church of England was in session. A resolution had been introduced calling for a substantial reduction in the amount contributed by this Church to the British Council of Churches. A speaker, supporting the resolution, had advocated withdrawal from the Council and had received a measure of applause. At this critical moment when the co-operative structure of the English Christian community was imperiled, the Archbishop of Canterbury, Dr. Geoffrey Fisher, rose to his feet. He reminded the Convention that he was also President of the British Council of Churches. "And", said he, "If this resolution is passed, I will have to consider seriously which of these two offices I shall be able to continue."

The resolution was withdrawn with unanimous consent.

It was undoubtedly a shock to narrow-minded and unco-operative churchmen, to realize that the highest ranking leader of their church could consider another Christian responsibility as more important. The action of the Convention as a whole, however, was a triumph for Christian brotherhood. Such triumphs are all too rare.

There is one geometric, or is it arithmetic axiom which is realized by comparatively few leaders and members of churches. That is the axiom which states that "the whole is greater than any of its parts."

By and large, across the world today and in almost every community, co-operative Christianity—that which represents the whole Christian community—is dependent for support, in terms of energy and means, upon the crumbs which fall from the tables of parish churches and denominations.

Thanks to God then for the voice of the Archbishop, reminding, first his own Convention and then all of us, that the whole Christian community is of first importance.

HOME PRAYERS

(Issued weekly for those who cannot get to church services; the sick and shut-in, the isolated, Sunday-workers, young people in the service of our country and others.)

Opening Prayer:

O Lord Jesus Christ, Who art the Light of the world, Shine into our hearts and so fill us with Thy radiance that we shall appear unto all men as the children of light; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Bible Reading: John 14: 1-6

The Sermon:

Some time ago a reader of Home Prayers wrote me to the effect that Home Prayers should be more "Churchly" (more Episcopal, he meant), so we wrote back that this ministry-by-mail aimed to be as broad as the New Testament and as wide as the mercy of God. Many branches of the family of God make use of Home Prayers; and I rejoice in that fact.

For God did not put His vast Truth into one little neat bundle, for a single philosopher, or a single nation, or a single church to find. God's truth is mighty, and different men and different faiths find bits of it, to share with the rest of the world. There are as many different ways of knowing God as there are of writing songs. Kipling once wrote, "There are nine-and-sixty ways of constructing tribal lays, and every single one of them is right." So there is rightness in every way of knowing and worshipping God, provided that it is whole-hearted and honest.

Too often men have thought of "The Way" as some pet theological idea, forgetting that Jesus said, very simply, "I am the Way". There are some creeds that seem queer to me, but I have seen saints grow out of those creeds because they made it their first business to follow their Master faithfully, with sincerity. There are creeds that are glorious to me, but they cannot make saints out of people who are half-hearted in their devotion to Christ. Don't mistake me—I'm not saying, for a moment, that our creeds are unimportant. I am saying that the first business of a Christian is to live in the footsteps of Jesus. When He pictured Judgment Day, God was not sorting people out by their creeds, but by what they had done, and by what they had not done. (Read Matthew 25: 31-46.) Apply that to ourselves, today—and see that God is not bothering greatly as to which doctrine you profess, but whether you are sacrificing something to feed and clothe the miserable, starving, shivering multitudes of this suffering world.

A shrewd old British farmer was being cross-examined by the vicar as to his religious beliefs. The vicar had heard that the farmer was a Baptist, and was insisting that the Church of England was a surer road to salvation. After listening to the vicar for some time, the old countryman remarked: "From my farm to the town, there are three roads: the straight one down the valley, the old coach-road around the hill, and the main road running along the park wall. When I get my wheat to the mill, they don't say to me, 'Hullo, John, which road did you come by'? but 'What's your wheat like today?'" That is what God will ask us one of these days, I fear. We'd best get busy with the main business of following Jesus, and raising the right kind of wheat!

Closing Prayer:

O God, Who art Love; Grant to Thy children to bear one another's burdens in honest good will, that Thy peace which passeth understanding may keep our hearts and minds in Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

CHRIST'S HEALING POWER NOW

One of our great human problems is that of sickness and suffering. On the basis of my experience in being called upon to deal with a multitude of cases of every manner and kind of sickness, I offer it as my judgment that if America needs any one thing today, it desperately needs the cooling balm and the healing grace of Jesus Christ. We need to have our nerves quieted if our bodies and minds are to be healed and if health is to characterize our life today.

Many are finding in religious faith today a power to help the sick. Jesus Christ frequently referred to Himself as a physician and often in the New Testament we are told "He healed many". Here is a Man through whom the tides of the Infinite were flowing, and the people were conscious of that power. The Bible tells us that when He had finished speaking, the crowd rushed upon Him and "sought to touch Him, and there went power out of Him and healed them all."

Is it not possible that the same healing power is available today no less than in the long ago, to those who completely put their lives, mind, soul and body under the influence of Jesus Christ? Is He not called with great merit the Great Physician? If this power is still operative and we see no reason for assuming that it is not—it would mean that any man today who completely opens himself to the influence of Christ would clear a channel within himself through which this divine power might flow.

Bishop Brent, in his fine sensitiveness to spiritual values, said, "He who waves away the healing power of Christ as belonging only to early New Testament times is not preaching the whole Gospel. God is not the last resort in sickness, He is the first."

What we need to realize is that not our physical but our spiritual nature is the dominant part of us. It is the monarch that holds sway over the rest of us.

Psychological healing, as it were, goes half way. Spiritual healing goes the whole way and all the way. And it goes hand in hand with all true science. Spiritual healing through prayer is based on as immutable laws of the universe, as is electricity or the radio or airplane.

But we should never overlook the fact that the chief end of religion is that we may know God, from Whom all health and healing come.

Frequently the question is asked of those who believe in and practice spiritual healing, does it really work? Do you actually heal people?

Physical healing is frequently manifested through such spiritual ministration. Successes have been notable and of many types. My experience in our Thursday Healing Services has more than convinced me of the astonishing reality of divine healing. There have been too many who have received healing at our altar to leave any doubt in my mind. I believe in this healing power with my whole heart. I have seen it work and can humbly say that God has allowed me to share in bringing this miracle of health to others. God wants us to be well and happy. That is the way He planned life. If our faith and trust are pure, our love uncontaminated, our prayer constant and without taint of selfishness, our Father is eager to heal us of our diseases.

A PILGRIMAGE

For those who wish to know something about the history and interesting details of the Church, Mr. Harry J. Hauger will conduct a pilgrimage after the morning service. Those who wish to join the group are asked to meet in the front pews.

Invitation

To all who mourn and need comfort; To all who are weary and need rest; To all who are friendless and desire friendship; To all who believe in God and wish to worship; To all who hunger for prayer and wish to pray; To all who know sin and need a Saviour; To all who are convinced that they ought to put first things first—St. Stephen's opens its doors in the name of Jesus Christ—and in His name and for His sake bids you WELCOME.

Better Hearing for the Hard of Hearing; 200 Hearing Aids available. Precision made like a watch, hearing aids need careful handling. Always get your hearing aid from the usher at the door. At the close of the Service, return it to the usher. Hearing aids used in the fifth pew and back are stronger than those in the front pews. Do not force the volume control; if the hearing aid does not work, return it for another.

If you want your name on our mailing list, give it with your address to the usher.

Using this Philadelphia Emergency Food Plan as a pattern, the Bishop has authorized coupon books (50 to a book at 10c. each) for the purpose of continuing aid. By this method two special projects may be supported by everyone. One project will be to send bred-heifers to Italy. $150 pays for both heifer and transportation. The other will be for the purchase of food at wholesale prices. Coupon books including both these projects are now available.

SPIRITUAL HEALING

Our Thursday Healing Services have now been in operation four years, and God has blessed this healing ministry wonderfully. He has blessed it for the healing of our spirits, first and foremost and then for the healing of our minds and bodies.

Man is something more than body and mind. He is a tripartite being—body, mind and spirit—and the spiritual factor can be no more left out than the physical or the mental. Our neglect of the power of the mind as a healing agent is being remedied, but we have not made much progress in understanding and applying our spiritual energies in the art of healing—in spite of the fact that "it is the spirit that giveth life". We cannot say that it is the body that gives life, or that the mind gives life. This being so, it is all the more remarkable that the spiritual element should be left out as an agent of healing.

Spiritual healing gives life. It pours energy and vitality into the body, flowing through the brain cells, the nerve tracts, the blood stream, gland and muscle tissue, and all the physical organs and functions. The spiritual ways and means by which the beneficient and healing forces are transmitted to the body are faith, prayer, meditation, affirmation of truth and communion.

It is probably true to say that no sickness or disease is simple or straightforward. There is the personal factor always, to a greater or less degree. What we are in ourselves either complicates or aggravates illness, setting up resistance (negative vibrations, or hindering receptivity; whereas harmony and active faith in God are a highway of bliss. "Get right with God" is an axiom of spiritual healing.

HOME PRAYERS

(Issued weekly for those who cannot get to church services; the sick and shut-in, the isolated, Sunday-workers, young people in the service of our country and others.)

Opening Prayer:

Bless us, O God, with the vision of Thy being and beauty; that in the light of it we may learn to think Thine own thoughts after Thee and in the strength of it may do our work without haste and without rest; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen. (Henry S. Nash)

Bible Reading: John 15:1-8

The Sermon:

A noted philosopher once said that he had made three visits to the United States and that the third visit had finally convinced him that we worship Speed above all things. Even in the nineteenth century Whittier wrote, "Dear Lord and Father of mankind, forgive our foolish ways" and he was thinking of feverish strivings, of strain and stress for quick results. Even back in those days of horse-and-buggy, we were too much in a hurry.

Jesus taught His followers that the vital things of life cannot be hurried—the really important things like the development of character, the making of men. He put it this way: "I am the Vine; ye are the branches. He that abideth in Me, the same bringeth forth much fruit." A branch has to ABIDE, has to stay joined to the main stalk of the vine, if it is to bear grapes for the harvest. And a man must keep closely joined to God in daily living if his life is to be fruitful and of real use in the world. You cannot hurry a branch. It takes its time, month after month, year after year, drawing from the vine the life-sap that gives it its strength and usefulness.

Men have made life quicker in unimportant ways. When they went from New York to Chicago by stage coach, it took a week of steady driving, day and night. Today they can make the same trip by plane in less than five hours. But there is no real progress there, for the new speed serves to make the gangster more efficient in crime, just as it hastens the doctor on his way to save lives. The really vital matter is the growing of the right kind of men; and, to grow a true man, he must abide in something greater and finer than himself until he begins to draw something of that greatness and fineness into his own nature. Furthermore, so much of our haste is aimless and silly—a crossing-tender once remarked, "People will run under my gate in front of an advancing engine at the risk of their lives; and then stop on the other side to watch the train go by!" Solid, mature folk learn to watch the train go by from the near side of the track.

The farmer knows that you cannot hurry living, growing things. Jesus lived close to the soil, and He was not in a hurry, even though He had the greatest task in all history. He spent thirty years in preparing for a ministry of three short years; and, as a result, those short years changed the world forever after. Does it seem to you that your life is very slow, very unimportant? If you are abiding in God, if your day-by-day living stems from Him, then be confident that your life is bearing fruit that is precious to God and precious to the world of men about you.

Closing Prayer:

O God of peace, who hast taught us that in returning and rest we shall be saved, in quietness and confidence shall be our strength; by the might of Thy Spirit lift us, we pray Thee to Thy Presence, where we may be still and know that Thou art God; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen. (Book of Common Prayer)

Episcopal Day for the Church School Picnic is June 8th. Everyone is welcome to attend this annual boat ride to River View Beach. The boat leaves Chestnut Street Pier at 9:00 A. M. Tickets are 70 cents for adults, and 40 cents for children under twelve (other than members of the Church School) please notify the Church Office if you are able to go, and how many tickets you require.

The Rector participated in a Memorial Day Service of the All Marine Post of the American Legion on the Parkway in the morning and again in Cedar Hill Cemetery in the afternoon with the Military Order of the Purple Heart. He will address the Gold Star Mothers at their Convention in Hotel Philadelphian on Tuesday evening.

The Children's Country Week Association has allotted a number of places for St. Stephen's Church, to mothers and children who will spend some time during the summer at the Association camps. If you are making a contribution to this worthy object, will you please state in your letter that you would like it to appear as coming through St. Stephen's. All such contributions improve our standing with the Country Week Association and often enable us to send more mothers and children away for a summer vacation.

Material Aid

Generous gifts have come to the rector during the past weeks for the purchase of red and green coupons for the Emergency Food Collection. These coupons will be delivered to the Bishop's Office, Monday, June third, so that he may report the results to the Mayor's Committee.

We are still interested in receiving clothing for shipment to Europe.

HOME PRAYERS

(Issued weekly for those who cannot get to church services; the sick and shut-in, the isolated, Sunday-workers, young people in the service of our country and others.)

Opening Prayer:

Almighty and everlasting God, who dost enkindle the flame of Thy love in the hearts of the saints, grant unto us the same faith and power of love that as we rejoice in their triumphs, we may profit from their examples, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen. (Gothic Missal)

Bible Reading: Philippians 3:8-11

The Sermon:

Memorial Day brings back to our minds the faces of young men who never grew old, young men who gave their lives that we might be safe. And with those memories there start old wonderings about life and death.

Back in the days when old England was still pagan, the able missionary Paulinus came to English Northumbria, hoping to get a hearing for the Christian faith. The wise men of the country gathered, and listened to his opening remarks, then one of them said: "The life of man on earth seems to me like the swift flight of a sparrow through the hall where you sit at supper in winter; while the fire blazes on the hearth and the hall is warmed, but the wintry storms are raging abroad. The sparrow, flying in at one door and immediately out at another, is safe from the wintry tempest whilst he is within; but after a very short space of warmth, he vanishes out of your sight, passing into the wintry cold of the unknown again. So this life of man appears for a little while, but what is to follow, or what went before, we know not. If therefore, this new doctrine tells us something more certain it seems justly to be followed."

So Paulius told them the story he had come so far to tell, and they were convinced of that Deathless Life that dwelt among men and gave to them the power to overcome all life's enemies, even death itself.

No man has ever been convinced by argument of the truth of immortality. Your doubting friend will never be convinced by the most careful proofs you can give him from Scripture and the Church Fathers. But he may be convinced by something deathless he sees in you; by a bit of the love of God that shines out of your patience with him for instance. As I think of some of the men whom I knew, who gave their lives that others might live, it is their courage, their willingness to spend their lives for their loved ones, their quiet and unwavering devotion to their duty, that deepens my confidence that they live on in realms I cannot see. Jesus said, "I am the Resurrection and the Life"—and there is a true touch of Calvary, of Jesus, in their characters; something that cannot die. St. Paul, in writing his friends the Philippians, spoke of "the power of His Resurrection" which gives us faith in the life beyond.

A Canadian soldier saw his buddy killed before his eyes by a shell. The buddy was a man of high courage, of daring in the face of danger, of deep religious faith and singular lack of hate toward the enemy. When some one tried to sympathize with the Canadian for his loss, he replied: "It will take more than that to stop him! He will carry on somewhere!"

Closing Prayer:

O Lord, Who dost promise a crown of life to them that love Thee, give us grace that we, loving Thee, may endure temptation and finish our course with joy. Amen.

MEMORIAL DAY

Once a year, by a beautiful custom, we are called upon to remember the dead, particularly those who died heroically. It is Memorial Day.

Belief in life is the deepest and best of all beliefs. The scorn or misprisal of life is the most damnable of all heresies.

But there is one thing larger than the phase of life which we call physical existence. It is that belief in eternal spiritual life which is best symbolized by the Ideal.

No man deliberately would die for mere creature comforts, the so called luxuries and all the shining prizes of fortune and fame, no matter how much the cynics say we worship them. But for ideals we will die—which proves the ultimate superiority of the spiritual, the ideal, over the material.

Those who fling their lives away for a mighty cause, represent the best in us. To honor them is to honor ourselves.

On Memorial Day we will best honor those who died that war might cease to be if we dedicate ourselves to the high task of making that ideal real—thus actually achieving that unity of the world which is the undying dream of humanity.

HOME PRAYERS

(Issued weekly for those who cannot get to church services; the sick and shut-in, the isolated, Sunday-workers, young people in the service of our country and others.)

Opening Prayer:

O Lord, Who seest that all hearts are empty except Thou fill them, and all desires balked except they crave after Thee; give us light and grace to seek and find Thee, that we may be Thine and Thou mayest be ours forever. Amen.
(Christina G. Rossetti)

Bible Reading: Isaiah 9:2-7

The Sermon:

Israel was deeply discouraged; felt hemmed in by oppressors and difficulties. Her dreams for a wider life and influence had faded into thin air. Then Isaiah came, and to disheartened Israel he proclaimed the vision of the Coming One. God was to come to little Israel, and the wide horizons would open up before their eyes once more. So, "the people that walked in darkness saw a great light."

How many people find themselves in the same spot as old Israel. Life has kicked them around and knocked them down. Cherished hopes have faded out of sight. The flavor goes out of life, and it tastes like unsalted oatmeal. (I made the cereal at home one morning, and forgot the salt; so I know!) Life looks dull and dark ahead. And then something happens. It may begin with a song over the radio, or a Morning Watch sermon. It may be a faithful friend who visits us. Or it may be simply that we remember how Dad and Mother once faced disaster at home, and won through. However it starts, there comes into our black thoughts the beginning of a great Light. We remember that God has an extraordinary way of flooding dark rooms with light. So we let Him into our problem, and the walls of gloom melt before His penetrating Light, and once more we look to far horizons and living hopes; once more we live!

Sometimes this miracle takes place within the little Israel where we now live—it may be a sick room. God proceeds to heal the invalid body, but more important He heals the invalid soul, and gives it power to range afar into beauty and memory and friendship and faith. A young woman in our Home Prayers congregation found herself crippled with arthritis, unable to walk, apparently imprisoned in a very small world. But she let the great Light shine in the darkness of her heart, and as spring came on, she wrote these lines:

"Teach me Thy patience, Lord, when soft winds call
With faint, sweet perfumes of the new-born Spring;
When from its ordered place my heart leaps up
Recalling woodland paths where wild birds sing,

"The glad, clear music of a rippling brook,
Set free at last from winter's ice and snow,
Where flowers rare beneath brown leaves awake
And swelling buds set maple trees aglow.

"Teach me to cherish, Lord, through all the years,
These memories that give to life its bloom;
And let no bitterness make me forget
That beauty lives within a quiet room."

Closing Prayer:

O God, by whom the meek are guided in judgment, and light riseth up in darkness for the godly; grant us, in all our doubts and uncertainties the grace to ask what Thou wouldst have us to do; that the Spirit of wisdom may save us from all false choices and that in Thy light we may see light, and in Thy straight path may not stumble; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen. (William Bright)

Elijah: Though stricken, they have not grieved. Tarry here, my servant. The Lord be with thee. I journey hence to the wilderness.

Aria:* It is enough; O Lord, now take away my life, for I am not better than my fathers! I desire to live no longer now let me die, for my days are but vanity! I have been very jealous for the Lord God of Hosts! for the children of Israel have broken Thy covenant, and thrown down Thine altars, and slain all Thy prophets—slain them with the sword: and I, even I, only am left; and they seek my life to take it away.

Recitative: See, now he sleepeth beneath a juniper tree in the wilderness; but the angels of the Lord encamp round about all them that fear Him.

Trio: The Angels. Lift thine eyes to the mountains, whence cometh help. Thy help cometh from the Lord, the Maker of Heaven and earth. He hath said, thy foot shall not be moved; thy Keeper will never slumber.

Chorus: He watching over Israel, slumbers not, nor sleeps. Shouldst thou, walking in grief, languish, He will quicken thee.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

The May Fete of the Episcopal Hospital will be held on Tuesday, May 21st, at Front Street and Lehigh Avenue from 11:00 A. M. to 7:00 P. M. Platter luncheon 12:00-2:00 P. M., Afternoon Tea 4:00-6:00 P. M. Snack Bar all day. Booths, music and tours through the hospital.

The Convention Committee on Housing and Hospitality makes an earnest appeal for accomodations for approximately one thousand delegates and visitors, who cannot be taken care of by the Philadelphia Hotel Association. The only likely and available source are the homes of parishioners located within reasonably convenient traveling distance of the Convention meeting places at the University of Pennsylvania. The Convention runs from September 10 to 20.

HOME PRAYERS

(Issued weekly for those who cannot get to church services; the sick and shut-in, the isolated, Sunday-workers, young people in the service of our country and others.)

Opening Prayer:

Fortify us, O God, with the courage which cometh only from Thee; that in the midst of all our perils and perplexities we may find that peace which only Thou canst give; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.—(J. W. Suter, Jr.)

Bible Reading: Revelations 21:21-27

The Sermon:

"And the twelve gates were twelve pearls." "Every gate a pearl!" Every entrance into the heavenly life is through a pearl! What is a pearl? A wound is made in a shell. A grain of sand, perhaps, gets imbedded in the wound. Then all the resources of repair are rushed to the place where the breach has been made. When the breach has been closed, and the process of repair is complete, a pearl is found closing the wound. The break calls forth unsuspected resources of the shell, and a beauty appears that is not otherwise brought out. A pearl is a healed wound. No wound, no pearl.

Misfortune, in our lives, can be transformed into blessings, hurts changed into pearls of precious value. Even a grievous handicap may become a life-saving power. Do you remember the story of Nydia, the blind flower girl in "The Last Days of Pompeii?" Nydia had not become bitter about her blindness; nor had she sulked and sat at home. She had gone about the business of living, and earned a living as best she could. Then came the awful day of the eruption of Vesuvius, with the doomed city as dark as midnight beneath a thick pall of smoke and falling ashes; the terror-stricken inhabitants rush blindly to and fro, and lose themselves in the awful blackness. But Nydia does not get lost; because of her cross of blindness she has learned to find her way by touch and hearing and now she can go straight to rescue the life of the one she loves best. "Every gate a pearl!" Every misfortune, every failure, every loss, may be so transformed. God has the power to transform all "misfortunes" into godsends. So Jesus transformed the Cross from a criminal's badge of shame into the sign of the love of God. Often it takes a wound to transform a denying Peter into a fearless rock of a man. "No wound, no pearl!"—out of life's buffetings may come our richest rewards.

Closing Prayer:

Lord, we pray Thee that Thy grace may always go before and follow after us, and make us continually to be given to all good works; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen. (Book of Common Prayer)

RECONSTRUCTION AND ADVANCE FUND

We have a very nice letter of appreciation from the Rev. Charles W. Shreiner, Chairman of the Diocesan Field Department, with reference to our contributions to the Reconstruction and Advance Fund.

Dr. Shreiner says: "As Chairman of the Field Department, I am especially appreciative of what the people of your Parish have done toward raising the Reconstruction and Advance Fund."

At last report there had been received in the Diocese $541,000, or $41,000 more than the goal. Of this amount, St. Stephen's contributed $6,302.92. The National Church has now raised $7,000,000.

EMERGENCY FOOD COLLECTION

The second horseman is riding. A tide of famine is rising in the world. The hungry eyes of humanity are focused on America. The hopes of hundreds of millions—for life and for happiness—depend upon us.

The hopes of our own children are inseparably bound up with the hopes of the world, whether we recognize that fact or not. If our children are not to be plunged into a war of annihiliation, we must build the structure of peace. But peace can scarcely be built amidst a humanity desperate with starvation. The America of our children will be the most hated nation in human history unless we, today, out of our abundance, send all that we literally can to the starving world.

A concerted movement to buy the SHARE THE FOOD 15 cent coupons (which is unique in Philadelphia and now hailed nationally as the most practical method for such a Drive)—through the dates May 12 to May 31 inclusive, will be a large factor in the success of Philadelphia's effort.

If everybody cares enough,
And everybody shares enough,
Everybody will have enough!!

ANTHEM—"Source of That Power".....Edward Shippen Barnes

Source of that pow'r, which made her strong
For labors hard and vigils long,
To succor right and thwart the wrong,
I need Thee now, my Mother's God.

Goal of her faith, which wavered naught
Through hardships borne and battles fought,
Grateful for what her faith has wrought,
I seek Thee now, my Mother's God.

Author of light, which made her face
A shining miracle of grace,
For light in my own time and place,
I pray Thee now, my Mother's God.

Fountain of love, with which o'er-flowed
Her life, each deed in love bestowed,
For that great love, my joy and goad,
I thank Thee now, my Mother's God.

—Arthur L. Rice.

SERMON—The Day of All Good Women.....THE RECTOR
OFFERTORY HYMN (sung to the tune of 232).....St. Peter

O God we thank Thee for the gifts
That come from Thee alone
And chiefly for that mother love,
Which is so like Thine own;

We pray that Thou wilt greatly bless
Our mothers on this day
With treasures from the heavenly store
That cannot pass away.

That love that shields our infancy,
The love that guides our youth,
That shows the wonders of Thy love
The glories of Thy truth.

We pray that sons and daughters all
May ever loyal be,
And may our mothers' prayers fulfill
By truly serving Thee. Amen.

A MOTHER'S WORLD

This is not only Mothers' Day but a Mother's World,
What would we ever have been without a mother's faith and prayers?

We are noticeably silent today in our arguments against the equality of women. They have proved their equality plus. What we are most interested in is the quality of women—not equality. That's the reason we turn to Motherhood. We have found that no civilization can rise higher than its womanhood.

In very large part, womanhood has entered nearly every walk of life for the sake of a New Ideal. She had realized that she has a special contribution to make. She sees things differently. A man usually asks: "How much will it cost?" "How much will it make?" A woman steeled in centuries of sacrifice breathes: "How will it effect my home?—my children?"

The Ideal of Motherhood will ever remain the highest ideal of womanhood. Nothing can ever replace this as her most cherished vocation. It is with this ideal in mind that woman has gone forth into every realm. Wherever she has gone life has been enriched and ennobled.

Is it not the extension of this ideal of Motherhood into all of life that will redeem our modern society? In no better way can we understand the Universal Brotherhood of the human family than in terms of the home in which the ideals of Motherhood hold sway.

Yes, this is a woman's world—a Mother's World. We honor all womanhood today as the Home, impersonated in a Mother, goes forth to conquer the world for the Kingdom of Christ.

HOME PRAYERS

(Issued weekly for those who cannot get to church services; the sick and shut-in, the isolated, Sunday-workers, young people in the service of our country and others.)

Opening Prayer:

O Lord of all good life, we pray Thee to purify our lives. Help us each day to know more of Thee, and by power of Thy Spirit use us to show forth Thyself to other men. Make us humble, brave and loving; make us ready for adventure. We do not ask that Thou will keep us safe; but keep us ever loyal to the example of our Lord, Jesus Christ. Amen.—(H. L. Sheppard)

Bible Reading: Matthew 5:14-16

The Sermon:

"Let your light so shine before men"—what do these words bring to your mind? I suspect that your hand almost reaches for your purse as you think of the offering in church! Yet those words of Jesus, used so often as an offertory sentence, were not meant by Him to refer to the occasional act of giving money. They were meant to picture the constant giving of ourselves to God, so that His light, His love, would shine through us, and make others see God.

After all, our own saints, whom we remember especially at Eastertide, were simply folk through whom God had a chance to shine. Over and over again they forgot what they might get out of life for themselves, and simply gave themselves to take care of the needs of people around them. They kept giving themselves away to folk who needed them; kept giving themselves to God's purposes. They let their light shine —though of course, it was His light, not theirs, that shone so gloriously through their lives.

Late one Sunday afternoon, a traveller came to a little village in the Alps, just as dusk was falling. He asked what time the evening service would be held in the little village church, and found that it would be about an hour. So he went in to sit quietly and pray. As he looked about him, he was surprised to find there were no lamps or lighting fixtures at all, and dusk was coming on fast. Soon people began to arrive—and each worshipper carried a candlestick that held a lighted candle; and the congregation kept coming in until the church was ablaze with light. He learned that the man who had given that church to the village had also provided the candlesticks and candles for all the people; and asked the village to promise that there should be no other light in the church.

That wise giver wanted the people to remember, vividly that they came to church to give out their praise and gratitude, to give the joy of their presence in God's House, and not to get something for themselves. He helped them to remember Jesus' bidding —that the greatest opportunity in life is to let a little of the brightness of God catch fire in our hearts, and burn for others in the honest love we have for them.

Closing Prayer:

May the Lord Jesus Christ, who is the splendor of the Eternal Light, remove from our hearts all the darkness, and bring us into the light and peace of the presence of God; that His Light may shine from us, through the power of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.
